THE TRIBUNE FOR 1861.—PROSPECTUS.—The XXXth Volume of the Weekly Tribune commenced with the issue of Sept. 1. During the past year the Tribune has been obliged to devote quite a large proportion of its space to politics, but we shall soon be able to forego Political discussions almost entirely, for months if not for years, and devote nearly all our columns to subjects of less intense, but more abiding, interest. Among these, we mean to pay special attention to I. EDUCATION.—The whole subject of Education, both Popular and General, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861. We hope to elicit in that discussion some of the profoundest thinkers and the ablest instructors in our country. It is at once our hope and our resolve that the cause of Education shall receive an impetus from the extension of the Tribune in behalf of the year 1861.

II. AGRICULTURE.—We have been compelled to restrict our elucidations of this great interest throughout 1860, and shall endeavor to atone therefor in 1861. Whatever discovery, distinction, demonstration, is calculated to reward the laborer devoted to cultivation more ample or more certain, shall receive prompt and full attention. III. MANUFACTURES.—We had every invention or enterprise whereby American Capital and Labor are employed to better advantage, employed in any department of Manufacturing or Mechanical Industry as a real contribution to the Public Weal, insuring ampler, steadier, more convenient, more remunerating markets to the Farmer, with fuller employment and better wages to the Laborer. The progress of Mining, Iron-Making, Steel-Making, Cloth-Weaving, &c. in our country and the world, shall be watched and reported by us with an earnest and active sympathy. IV. FOREIGN AFFAIRS.—We will keep the best correspondents in London, Paris, Turin, Berlin, and other European Capitals, to transmit us early and accurate advices of the great changes there silently but certainly preparing. In spite of the pressure of Domestic Politics, our News from the Old World is now varied and abundant, and we have to render it more perfect during the eventful year just before us.

V. HOME NEWS.—We employ regular paid correspondents in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in every Mountain gold region, or wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the past," and print a better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous co-operation of our many well-wishers, we solicit, and shall labor to deserve, a continuance of public favor.

TERMS: Daily Tribune (311 issues per annum) $6 Semi-Weekly, (194 issues per annum) $3 Weekly, (52 issues per annum) $1.50 TO CLERKS.—Semi-Weekly Two copies for $5; Five for $11.25; Ten copies to one address for $20; and any number at the latter rate. For a club of Twenty, an extra copy will be sent. For a club of Forty, we send the Daily Tribune gratis one year. Weekly: Three copies for $5; Eight copies for $10; and any larger number at the rate of $1.20 each per annum, the paper to be addressed to each subscriber. To clubs of Twenty, we send an extra copy. Twenty copies to one address for $20, with one extra to him who sends the club. For each club of one Hundred, the Daily Tribune will be sent gratis for one year. When drafts can be procured it is much safer than to remit Bank Bills. The name of the Post Office and State should in all cases be plainly written. Payment always in advance. Address, THE TRIBUNE, No. 154, Nassau Street, New York.
