THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., FEBRUARY 27, 1861.

JOHN TROUTMAN, of our town, advertises that he has a large stock of Chairs to dispose of at low prices for cash.

REV. MR. RUNYAN will preach in the Baptist church in Clearfield Borough on Sunday, the 3d of March, at 101 o'clock in the forenoon. All are invited to attend.

TOWNSHIP AND LOCAL LAWS .-- A number of copies of this popular work have been received and are now for sale at Dr. Hartswick's Drug and Variety Store, Clearfield, Pa.

FLOUR, BACON, LIQUORS, Tobacco, Segars, &c., are offered to buyers at low rates for cash by O. B. Merrell, on Second street, Clearfield, Pa., as will be seen by an advertisement in another column of this paper.

THE WEATHER has moderated much within a few days, and the snow has been rapidly disappearing. The water in the River has, however, not been much affected, but if the atmosphere becomes a little warmer, we may expecta rise in a week or ten days.

A. M. Hills desires to notify his friends and patrons that he will be in his office in Clearfield, (opposite the Clearfield House,) until after the June Court, with the exception of the second week in May. Persons desiring his services will do well to call before that February 27th, 1861-2t.

CONCERT.-The Washington Cadets' Saxe Horn Band, under the direction of J. P. Rowbotham of Philadelphia, will give a concert at Clearfield, on Monday evening next, March 4, commencing at 7 o'clock, P. M. Tickets of admission will be 25 cts; Family tickets $1,

On Tuesday evening the 5th, a concert will be given at Luthersburg.

NEARLY A WHOLE FAMILY CARRIED OFF BY DIFTHERIA.-Elisha Covert, a resident of Girard township, has lost within a month no less than six children by Diptheria. He was living in a very small house, in straightened circumstances, and when his family took sick the neighbors were afraid to stay there on account of the virulence of the disease. Destitution and lack of attention no doubt had much to do with the frightful mortality that ensued.

BOROUGH ELECTION .- At the New Washington borough election on the 15th February. the following persons were elected: Constable, Geo. Horton ; Judge, Russell M'Murray ; Inspectors, Sam'l Sebring, Henry Neff, Sr.; Assessor, Reuben Nieman; Ass't Assessors, Ja-Philip B. Neff, S. Sebring, Henry Neff; Poor Overseers, Jacob Neff, Samuel M'Cune. Burgess, Jos. H. Breth; Council, Jacob A. Breth, Henry D. Rose, Henry Neff, J. M. Commings, John Z. Juned; Auditor, James M. Rose.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY .- The 22d was celebrated in this place by the Washington Cadets, who, preceded by their martial and brass bands, paraded through the streets in the afternoon, and in the evening had a supper at the Clearfield House. During the course of the evening a number of fights took place, which to say-the least of them, were disgraceful, and those who were engaged in them should have been put to jail. We do not pretend to say upon whom the blame should be placed, but we hope we may never hear of a recurrence of such disreputable conduct.

SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.

John Catheart, incarcerated in the county for the murder of his wife last summer, and who was to have been executed on the 12th of April next, committed suicide on last Sabbath night, by hanging himself in his cell with a pocket handkerchief. It seems he had placed the handkerchief around one of the iron bars which run across the plank lining of the cell and then tied it around his neck. In order to prevent himself using his hands, he had tied them together and passed them over one of his legs so that he stood astraddle of them. In order to strangle himself he had to draw up his feet to keep them off the floor, or rather. perhaps, he had to lean forward in a stooping posture to accomplish his fearful purpose. The following is a copy of the verdict of the coroner's jury :

> "STIMULATING ONGUENT."-Such is the title of a brilliantly compounded preparation (originating with the famous Dr. Bellingham, of London) for improving the growth, and beautifying the condition of the human hair. We learn that Messrs. Horace L. Hegeman & Co., of New York, have obtained the entire agency for the American continent, and we therefore invite attention to their "Stimulating" announcement in another column, MURDEROUS ATTACK .- Mr. Van Wyck of

New-York went to visit Preston King, on Capitol Hill, on Thursday night, 21st inst., and on returning home, at 101, was assailed by three ruffians. One of them stabbed at him on the right side, but he was saved by the blade of the knife striking against a memorandum-book in his breast-pocket. Almost simultaneously he was struck at on the left side, and then drew his platol and shot down the second assailant. The third then knocked him down with a bludgeon or other weapon, and the party escaped. Mr. Van Wyck was stunned with the blow, but contrived to get to the National Hotel. His hand is badly cut, and he has been ill all day, at times quite wandering in his mind.

On the 21st inst., Mr Dawes of Massachusetts, from the Committee of the House of Representatives to whom was referred the President's Message of January 8, reported concerning the United States Navy. It appears that there are now in commission, in various parts of the world, 48 vessels; that 28 are unfit for service, and not to be repaired under several weeks, or even months' time; that the entire naval force available for the defense of the Atlantic coast at the time this Committee was appointed consisted of the steamer Brooklyn, of 25 guns. and the store-ship Relief, of two guus; the former being unable, by reason of her draft, to enter Charlestou Harbor with safety, and the latter being under orders for the African coast. Under these circumstances, the Committee refer with much severity to the extraordinary disposition of our naval force, by which it was kept out of the way in a manner which would be injudicious at any time, but which now clearly showed hopeless imbecility or a deliberate conspiracy to give the country into the hands of traitors. The report next takes up the matmalice aforethought, himself did kill, strangle ter of resignations by traitorous naval officers, sets forth in plain terms the name and offense In witness whereof, as well the said Justice as the Jurors aforesaid, have hereto put their hands and seals on the day and year and at the place above mentioned.

of each of these, and places in a clear light the extraordinary conduct of the Secretary of the Navy in accepting the resignations, concluding by recommending the passage of a resolution of censure upon that Calmet officer.

CONTEMPLATED ASSASSINATION OF MR. LINCOLN.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE PLOT. Special Correspondence of the New York Times.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 23-8 A. M. Abraham Lincoln, the President elect of the United States, is safe in the capital of the nation. By the admirable arrangement of Gen. Scott, the country has been spared the lasting disgrace which would have been fastened up-on it indelibly had Mr. Lincoln been murdered Value the friendship of him who stands on his journey thither, as he would have been by you in the storm; swarms of insects will had he followed the programme as announced in the papers, and gone by the Northern Central Railroad to Baltimore.

On Friday night, after he had retired, Mr. Lincoln was aroused and informed that a stranger desired to see him on a matter of life or death. He declined to admit him unless he gave his name, which he at once did. Such prestige did the name carry that while Mr. Lincoln was yet disrobed he granted an interview to the caller. A conversation elicited the fact that an organized body of men had determined that Mr. Lincoln should not be inaugurated, and that he should never leave the city of Baltimore alive, it, indeed, he ever entered it. The list of the names of the conspirators presented a most astonishing array of persons high in Southern confidence, and some whose fame is not in this country alone. Statesmen laid the plan, bankers endorsed it, and adventurers were to carry it into effect. As they understood Mr. Lincoln was to leave Harrisburg at nine o'clock this morning by special train, the idea was, if possible, to throw the cars from the road at some point where they could rush down a steep embankment and destroy in a moment the lives of all on board. In case of the failure of this project, their plan was to surround the carriage on the way from depot to depot in Baltimore, and assassinate him with daggers or pistol shot.

So authentic was the source from which the information was obtained, that Mr. Lincoln, after counseling his friends, was compelled to make arrangements which would enable him to subvert the plans of his enemies. Mr. Lincoln did not want to yield, and Col. Sumper actually cried with indignation; but Mrs. Lincoln, seconded by Mr. Judd and Mr. Lincoln's original informant, insisted upon it, and at nine o'clock Mr. Lincoln left on a special train. He wore a Scotch plaid cap and a very long military cloak, so that he was entirely unrecognisable. Accompanied by Superintendent Lewis and one friend, he started, while all the town, with the exception of Mrs. Lincoln, Col. Sumner, Mr. Judd and two reporters who where sworn to secresy, supposed

MR. LINCOLN IN WASHINGTON. Messrs. Seward and Washburne, to whom the information had been imparted confidentially, met Mr. Lincoln at the cars, and attended him to Willard's hotel. Not a little sensation prevailed throughout the city as soon as luxury the markets and surrounding country wil early train, and for a time the report was discredited. About 10 o'clock, Mr. Lincoln. accompanied by Mr. Seward, went to the White House and quite surprised Mr. Buchanan, who had not heard of his arrival. The Cabinet were in session, and he was introduced to them. Senator Bigler of Pa., and Representative John Cochrane of N. Y., who happened to be at the White House, were also introduced to the President elect. He afterwards called on Gen. Scott, who was absent; however, in the afternoon the old hero visited him, and was highly pleased. In the evening he was called upon by Mr. Buchauan and Cabinet, the Peace Congress, and the etite and fashion of the National metropolis. Old Abe has made a good impression upon all.

The closing years of life are often rendered wretched by ailments which are trifling in themselves and easily cured if taken in time. Affection of the liver, stomach, and other organs concerned in digestion, are the most frequent. They naturally make the sufferer nervous, irritable and complaining, and relatives and friends are forced to bear the brunt of their ill-humor. The use of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will prove an efficient remedy of this evil. It will not only strengthen the whole physical organization, but entirely cure the most obstinate cases of Indigestion, Diarrhea, Dysentery, and Liver complaint. The first physicians in the country are loud in their praise of this preparation. Another recommendation of the Bitters is that it is so palatable to the taste that it may be used even as a beverage. ¶ Sold by druggists everywhere
