LINES, ON THE DEATH OF MY SISTER. I want to go home, was her dying request, To the home of the ransomed, the dwelling of rest. A stranger and a pilgrim no longer will you roam ;

Oh, sister, sweet sister, you've gone to your home. The angels are waiting your soul to convey From this dreary world to the bright realms of day, 'Tis your affections my spirit doth love, For Christ is your Savior in Heaven above.

The trifles of earth could not lure you to stay. Its joys and its sorrows must soon pass away. You were weary of earth-no longer would roam Ah! sister, sweet sister, you've gone to your home.

For a time we must part-till in Heaven we meet Your slumbering body the Savior will keep; Till it wakes in His likeness, and will joyfully rise To praise him forever at home in the skies.

KEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Re movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Sin gle Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bri dles, Collars, Whips, Halters. Housings. Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH
BITTERS.—The proprietors and
Manufacturers of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year a-mounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases re-sulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the 'Bitters' are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood. and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harrassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to for-get her own health in the extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period for maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bit-ters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superanuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consuit their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bit-

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feelile, and emplaining! Are you out of complaining? Are you out of order, with your system de-ranged, and your feelings un-comfortable? These symp-toms are often the preinde to serious illness. Some #t of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered hu-mors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unoi-structed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous ac-ticity purify the system factivity, purify the system from the obstructions which make the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and see apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-scated and dangerous distempers. The sense purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure. the disorders they cure.
