LOOK OUT .- Most of our subscribers are prompt paying ones; but we have a few who are tardy or indifferent in this respect. "After rafting" the names of good subscribers only will be retained on our list, and orders for new subscriptions will have to be accompanied by the Cash.

The Jersey Shore Boom bill was voted down in the State Senate by a large majority.

To OUR SUBSCRIBERS .- Such of our subscribers, as have changed their place of residence on the first of April, will please inform us of such removal; otherwise, they may not receive their papers as regular as is desirable.

A. M. Hills desires to notify his friends and patrons that he will be in his office in Clearfield, (opposite the Clearfield House,) until after the June Court, with the exception of the second week in May. Persons desiring his services will do well to call before that February 27th, 1861-6t.

NEW POST MASTER .- M. A. Frank, Esq., has been appointed Post Master in this Borough. in place of C. D. Watson, and entered upon the duties of his appointment on the first day of April. The office has been removed to the room recently occupied by Graham, Boynton & Co. By the way, Charley was one of the best, most efficient and clever P. M's within our knowledge; and, we hope, that Mr. F. will use his utmost endeavers to imitate the worthy example of his predecessor.

THE WEATHER .- Since our last issue the weather has been "running round loose." Several days were quite Spring-like, the air being mild and pleasant. On Saturday a little rain fell; but on Monday we experienced a great and sudden change. Snow commenced falling early in the morning, and continued to fall in moderate quantitles during the day, and by evening the ground was covered some 5 or 6 inches deep. Should the weather moderate within a few days, and rain a little, we may expect a "flood;" and, as a great many rafts are ready for running, a lively time would soon be experienced along the river.

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." CENTRE COUNTY .- Au accident occurred at Bellefonte, on the B. & S. S. Railroad, last week, which resulted in the injury of the engineer and some of the hands engaged on the road. They were running down grade at a rapid rate on a hand car which was devoid of brakes, and noticed, when too late, a wagon standing on the track. The car came in contact with the wagon, throwing those on the car to the ground, with such violence as to injure them severely, though not fatally. The wagon was considerably broken. . . . A young man, named Mays, near Potter's Mills, was seriously injured, lately while engaged in play-ing with gunpowder. The amusement consisted in boring augur holes in stumps, and applying a slow match to the powder which he had poured into them. The premature explosion on this occasion, burned his face very severely, and may, perhaps, teach him a lesson which will be aseful in future. The question of a new county south of the Nittany mountain, is now the subject of considerable excitement in that quarter.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY .- A child was recently born in Hempfield tp-, having but one eye, and that situated in the centre of the forehead. There was no nose, nor any appearance of nasal bones. The mouth was well formed and where it should be. The ears were perfectly formed, and situated on the cheek bones; the rest of the body was well formed. This monster was not living which was a great blessing to all concerned. On Thursday the 14th March, a little child of John Klingan, of Salem tp., was severely scalded by upsetting a bowl of water on its person. . . . On Wednesday of last week, Mr. John Keibler, Sr., of Salem Township, had his thigh dislocated.

LANCASTER COUNTY .- Mr. Nathaniel Baker, chief engineer at the Marietta Furnace, owned by Musselman & Watts, made a very nar-row escape with his life on Thursday, March 21st. He was up on the platform where they feed the Furnace, when from some cause the floor gave way and he fell, but fortunately caught hold of the railway track across the mouth of the furnace and held on there until he was rescued from his perilous situation. The severe burning of his hand was the only injury sustained.

INDIANA COUNTY .- The Steam Flouring Mill of Mr. Shurick, in Blairsville, together with about five hundred bushels of grain contained therein, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night March 20. Loss about five thousand dollars, upon which there in an inpole trade is increasing in Indiana as large mount of money is realized from this source in the course of the year.

ACCIDENT ON THE PENN. R R .- An accident occured on this road, four miles East of Huntingdon, to the Express going East on Wedthe engine and baggage car were thrown off the track. The baggage and mail car took fire from the stove and the mail matter, together with the baggage of about 80 passengers was destroyed. Only a few remnants of the mail were saved and taken to Philadelphia. No lives were lost nor were any of the passengers or employers injured. There were thirsy five mail pouches. Among them were the St. Louis mail of the 19th; the Louisville mail of the 19th, the Cincinnati mail of the 20th, and the Toledo Columbus and Pittsburg mails of the same dates; besides these, there were smaller mails from several town. The pouches were for Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Washington. The Harrisburg mail was damaged. The baggage consisted of a large number of trunks, values and carpet bags, belonging to about 80 passengers. Some of it had been checked through from points in the West, and the rest mainly from Pittsburg. It was all in the forward compartment. The Washington letters were, in a great part, applications from the West for office, though the addresses and signatures were so nearly decided. and one five bollar bill, was burned squarely

One of the inert varieties of Sarsaparilla grows wild in our own forests, while several others, nearly worthless, abound in Central and South America. The intelligent agent assured us that the virtues of this drug had never been fully told, and that the reason of the low esteem in which many hold it is mainly due to the importation of such immense quantities of the worthless varieties. Times remarks : "During the late campaign the rallying cry, the motto and the very soul of the Constitutional Union party was expressed in the words, the Constitution the Union and the enforcement of the laws.' This party, now dominant at Richmond, in the State Convention, proposed to make it an indispensable condition of their adherance to the Union that the Administration shall pledge itself not to enforce the laws. une of Friday last, contains a statement of hardship and cruel outrage perpetrated upon a widow—Catharine Bottsford—of New York, by the authorities of Charleston, which will arouse the indignation of every humane person in the community. The statement of the lady is, that she left New York early in December, 1859, for Charleston. Last September, it being ascertained that she entertained feelings adverse to slavery, she was arrested by a member of the "Vigilant Police," and thrust into a miserable cell, until it should please the Mayor to give her a hearing. Atter being kept there for a whole night and part of the next day, in company with beggars and diseased criminals of all kinds, the Mayor gave her a hearing. Her offence was "Abolitionism," the staple of all South Carolina's grievances. No one appeared against the lady, and the Mayor conducted the case without the formality of a legal charge. He admitted her peaceable, quiet and inoffensive disposition, and spoke of her good character, but told her that, being an Abolitionist, she should give bail in three hundred dollars for her good behavior until she left the city, or she must go to jail. She refused to give bail, and was immediately sent to a cold and gloomy jail, to be the companion of criminals and murderers. In vain did she protest her innocence of any crime; in vain did she strive to convince them that she had not even conversed with slaves on the subject with which she stood charged, but like a culprit she was taken through the crowded streets to jail, to be punished she knew not when or how. After being incarcerated for a long time, all the tially destroyed by fire on the 15th. Loss while being subjected to taunt and insult of all kinds, she wrote to Mayor Wood, detailing her grievances, and asking for that protection which, as a native New Yorker, she had a rrght to claim; but her letter was answered by "Farnando" in a vein of biting sarcasm, all tending to the impression that the lady was being served right at Charleston. Release came at last, however, and the Mayor of Charleston very kindly paid Mrs. Bottsford's passage to New York, as a deck passenger, in connection with sixty rough, boorish laboring men, who had gone thither in search of work, but who were not permitted to land on penalty of having their throats cut by the merciful minute men of Charleston. During the progress of these outrages upon this unoffending temale, she had been repeatedly told that had she been of the other sex, she would have been tarred and feathered, or hung to the nearest tree. All hail, South Carolina, the land of chivalry and honor !

REPOSE OUT OF THE UNION .- The Memphis Avalanche, a famous secession paper contains the following paragraph in a recent issue: "Seven of the Southern States are at prace. They have found that repose out of the Union which has been denied them in the Union. The Southern States that still cling to the Abolition Confederacy, after being teazed, tormented and insulted for a few months, will enlist under the same banner."

In reply to the above the Memphis Bulletin says: "If making the South one vast camp, where thousands of citizens are diverted away from their peaceful pursuits into the occupation of the soldier; if to inaugurate a state of things in which 'wars and rumors of wars' ontinually keep the public mind up to fever bold, reckless and selfish are likely to bear more sway than the peaceful, the considerate and the patriotic; in which the tribunals of reason and Justice may be overthrown, to give place to the arbitrament of the sword-if these things be 'repose,' then have the seceded States found it. It is, however, such repose as may be found upon the thin crust of a slumbering volcano, with the heavings of its unrest muttering audibly beneath it. God for-bid that Tennessee and the other Border States should ever seek such repose. Our neighbor is a sad prophet of evil, and would fain persuade us that we are to be 'teased, tortured and insulted,' by continuing in the Union. By whom ?-by that terrible fellow, the Illinois 'rail-splitter?' Why don't you know, neighbor, that all secessiondom is in a perfect fury, because he won't even 'coerce the goneouters?' We heard one of your disunion allies denouncing him bitterly the other day, because, as it was alleged, the Black Republican rascal had spoiled the programme of a war between the Government and the .Confedarate States,' by which the other 'Southern States' were to be dragged into the last named cohort, as the unwary vessel is dragged into the malestrom. The denouncer seemed to apprehend that disunionism was about being 'played out.' It's no go, pyrotechnical brother ! Tennessee was not 'brought up in the woods, to be scared' by such owl-croakings as that."

CUTTING OFF THEIR FODDER .- It is stated that the secretaries of the various departments at Washington have determined to equalize the number of office-holders in the departments from the different States, as some have a much larger number in proportion, than others. Virginia has one hundred and seventy clerks in the departments, while in reality her proportion is but seventy-five; consequently, it is necessary for the public good to razee the federal fodder stack of the F. F. V's. This is hard on the scions of chivalry, who will find it much more difficult to grub a living off worn-out plantations, and as pettifoggers at dilapidated county seats, than it was drinking rum at the public bar-rnoms in Washington, for which Uncle Sam paid them fat salaries. Another howl from Mason may be looked for.

A CARD TO THE SUPPERING .- The Rev. William Cosgrove, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were sufering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders. Desirous of benefitting others, I will send this recipe, which have brought home with me, to all who need it free of charge. Address Rev. Wn. Cosgnove, Feb. 27-3m 439 Fulton Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y.
