THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 5, 1861.

"Raftsman's Journal Office," on Second Floor of Graham's New Brick Building, on Market Street.

NOTICE .- The members of the "Clear-field Relief Association," and all other citizens of Clearfield, are earnestly requested to meet at the Town Hall, on this evening, (Wednesday June 5th) to take measures for the payment of the Recruiting expenses for the military service.

Lost .- On Sabbath last, either going to or favor by leaving it at the Journal office.

COURT CONTINUED .- An agreement having been entered into by the members of the Bar, to continue all the criminal and civil business, -neither the Grand or Traverse juries will be required to attend. Parties bound over, will have to appear and renew their recognizances, and Constables make their returns as usual.

Gopsy's LADY'S BOOK .- The June number of this excellent monthly reached us in time, but the notice was forgotten in the excitement of the times. We presume, the "Book" has lost none of its interest by this delay, as it is still the great favorite of the ladies throughout the land, and is increasing in popularity every day.

A Rux OFF .--- On last Saturday, four horses attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Hugh Gallaher of Indiana county, became frightened whilst standing in the street in this place, and ran away. After running around several squares at the top of their speed, they were brought to a halt by coming in contact with a tree, having during their perambulations succceded in breaking the hind axle of the wagon and tearing the gears considerable.

IMPORTANT TO TEACHERS .- It is officially announced by the head of the School Department that "County Superintendents are instructed to grant no certificates after the first Monday in June, 1861, without an examination into the theory as well as the practice of teaching ; and to mark the proficiency in both in the certificate, according to the same scale (from one to five) with other branches," Porficiency in the theory is to be tested by examination; and skill in the practice by observation in the school room.

RAFTSMEN RANGERS .- We publish below the resolutions passed by the .Raftsmen Rangers,' at Camp Curtin, with a full list of the names of the officers and members of the company appended thereto. This company was formed in Curwensville, on the first call for volunteers, and at once proceeded to Camp Curtin.

THANKS .- Capt. J. Shope of the Centre Hill | Guards, (which met at Williams Grove on Saturday the 21st.) hereby tenders the thanks of his company to James E. Watson, for the excellent dinner which was prepared for them on the occasion. Jim is a gentleman, and a clever fellow; and, we have no doubt, entertained his guests in a creditable manner.

BURGLARY .- The house of Fdward Deter, near Glen Hope, was entered on Sunday the 5th of May, in the absence of the family, and robbed of clothing and jeweiry to the amount kept by Jas. Jackson, who murdered Ellsof thirty Dollars. And, on the night of the ing to the value of fifty Dollars.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .- All persons desi ring the continued success of our Agricultural Society, will please take notice that a meeting of the Society will be held in Clearfield, on Tuesday evening of court week, being the 18th day of June. The managers and Vice Presidents, are particularly requested to ating the next annual Fair. By order of the D. F. ETZWEILER, Sec'y. President.

DR. Bont .- We would apprise our readers visit this place and remain from the 12th to the 16th of June. Dr. Bort, by close attention to the details of his profession has won for ed from their quarters, and mounting, rode himself a reputation second to none in his line. Men of the highest respectability have been under his treatment, and where others have failed to afford them relief, he has almost invariably proved eminently successful. Sufferers will therefore, not hesitate to call upon him, and after a careful examination (free of charge,) will undertake your case with a certainty of success.

FLOGGED .- On slave plantations woman are regarded as chattels when bought and sold, and as animals when flogged. The austere decencies which paganism observed in its better days, are there set aside. A chapter in Mr. Olmsted's last book on the South, shows how he was accidentally witness ct a scene, one of the constant necessities of plantations, but seldom encountered by travelers-a woman stripped and flogged. We are never surprised in hearing of any brutality or barbarism toward the slave woman, nor need we now be astonished at similar violence offered to the free white women by Southern mobs, inspired by the Montgomery leaders. We consider it, therefore, no subject for special wonder or indignation to learn, as we do, through the Syracuse Journal, on the authority of Dr. Martin Mc-Queen, a native of Hoston, of such an instance. Dr. McQueen was forced to quit San Antonio, Texas, for his loyalty to the Union. The day before he came away, he saw a woman from died. Several others were slightly hurt. Boston, Massachusetts, stripped naked in the public streets, tarred and feathered, and rode on a rail around the public square, with a Secession flag on each side, a crowd conducting the orgies. The same week Charles Sanborn of Haverhill, Massachusetts, and Francis Kidder of Lawrence, Massachusetts, were hanged by a mob. The crime of the three was attach-

Last week they were received into the regular service on the 8 years requisition, and will probably be sent to the camp at Chambersburg.

At a meeting of the Raftsmen Rangers, held May 30th 1861, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice : Whereas, we deem it but justice to those having authority over us, as well as to ourselves, to correct erroneous impressions of our situation in Camp Curtin, and desire to present to our friends a true statement of our condition as a company. Therefore, he it Resolved.

1st, That the rations supplied to this Camp are in great quantity and excellent in quality ; and, that as soldiers, our expectations of camp comforts are more than realized ; and we hereby tender our thanks to the commanding officer of the camp, and those acting under his inmediate supervision, for the efforts they have made, and are now making in our behalf. 2nd, That we are fully satisfied from assurances given us, that Gov. Curtin and those acting in connection with him, are making every reasonable effort to have us fully equipped, and well armed, as soon as it is in their power to do sa.

Srd, That our thanks are due to Gen. John Patton, and to others of our citizens, for the active interest they have taken in our welfare, as well as to the Ladies in Harrisburg, whose attentions to us have been marked, and whose names, were the list not too long, we would gladly mention.

4th, That we hereby express our contempt for the former members of our company, who left us between two days; and take this opportunity of informing them that their places are supplied with men, who know and appreciate the duties they owe to their manhood and to their country. With this notice they pass from our thoughts, and we commend them to the consideration of the citizens of Curwensville.

5th, That we enter upon our duties as soldiers, with a full sense of the responsibility of the solemn oath we have taken; and as men who are enlisted for a term not exceeding three years or during the war. We pledge ourselves to fight in defeace of our flag, until its starry tolds float proudly from every fortress and city in the confederate States.

5th, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the "Raftsman's Journal," and "Clearfield Republican," for publication.

THE BAPTISTS .- On Wednesday May 29th the great Baptist denomination of the North declared their sentiments, in Convention, in Government and the disunion conspirators. The declaration is from the pen of the. Rev. Dr. Williams of N. Y. city, and is drawn up with all the care and elegance for which that gentleman is so distinguished. Perhaps it was its very smoothness which caused some of the leading ministers in the Convention to demand a more explicit condemnation of the guilt of treason against the Government as the true expression of the sentiments of Northern Baptists, thus demonstrating that they mean all that the document sets forth, and not a few of them would have gone much further. The report and resolutions were heartily adopted. and the President of the United States immediately apprized of the fact, that, if the Southern Baptists had forsaken him in the hour of trial, the Baptists of the North-a body extending its branches throughout New-England, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania and the great West, embracing in its communion vast wealth and influence, as well as great moral and Christian strength-will stand by him until the rebellion has been rooted out.

Something New .- The caputre and imprisonment of hostages is nothing new, certainly; but the rebels have discovered an original way of managing it. Ordinarily a belligerent parittlefleld, ty thinks it necessary to take its prisoners from the enemy's country ; the Secessionists, however, with the valorous discretion which marks so many of their acts, are seizing their own (cDonald. citizens and making prisoners of them. Thus we daily hear that the Virginians have capullough, tured other Virginians, and are holding them till they see what the U. States will do with the rebel cavalry caught the other day in Alexandria. This is an eminently safe proceeding, and commends itself to the Southern soldiers. McCrum, Jlenahan, "PICATURE BUTLER."-Some idea of the stuff published in the rebel newspapers and palmed upon their ignorent readers as genuine, may be had by the following clipped from the New Orleans Picayune, one of the most noted papers in the South : "All the New England troops now in Washington city are negroes, excepting three or four drummer boys. General B. F. Butler, who commands them, is a native of Liberia. Our elderly readers must recollect "Old Ben," the barber, who kept his shop for so many years in Poydras street, and then emigrated to Africa, with a small competency. This General Butler, of Lowell, is his son.

Cincinnati, June 2 .- Two columns of troops from Gratton surprised 2000 rebels at Phillippi, Va., yesterday, having marched all night in a rain, and routed them, killing 15, and captured a large lot of arms, horses, ammunition, provisions and camp equipage. The surprise was complete. Col. Kelly of the Federal forces was mortally wounded and has since CHAMBERSBURG, June 3 .- A fracas occurred here last night, in which a colored keeper of a grog shop was shot dead by an officer of a Pittsburg company. The officer has left. The preparations making, indicate a forward movement soon, on Harper's Ferry. The rebel ranks are diminishing last by desertion and small pox, at the Ferry.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 2 .- Col. Bartlett in an unfortunate expedition to the Rip-Raps, reference to the present conflict between our tell from the parapet breaking his clavicle and receiving internal injuries. The unfortunate situation of Col. Bartlett excites the deepest sympathy.

> BALTIMORE, June 3 .- Governor Hicks this this being the greatest am't morning demanded and received the muskets of the Baltimore City Guards-159 in number -and had them conveyed to Fort M'Henry.

CHICAGO, June 3 .- Senator Douglas died at 9 o'clock and 10 minutes this morning. His remains will be taken from here, on Wednesday, to Washington City.

SAM HOUSTON FOR SECESSION .--- Gen. Houston has felt himself moved to declare himself a Rebel. His speech is published. The sharpness of his repeated thrusts at his political enemies in Texas much lessens the violence of his demunciations of the Administration. He very clearly informs the South that they have very clearly informs the South that they have principal Dr. $3,500 00 brought this trouble upon themselves, but says Liabilities of Directors as that now they are in, they must endeavor to win. He does not seem so sanguine of victory as many of his brethren in treason; indeed, it is easy to detect the mournful tone of one who thinks he is more likely to die than conquer.
