

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 13, 1861.

Raftsmen's Journal Office, on Second Floor of Graham's New Brick Building, on Market Street.

RELIGIOUS.—By Divine permission, the Rev. Mr. Runyan, will preach in the Baptist Church in this place, on next Sabbath at 3 1/2 P. M.

Snake Bitten.—We were informed that on Monday last, Zenas, son of Wm. Ogden, of Lawrence township, was bitten on the leg by a rattlesnake. At last accounts he was in a rather dangerous condition.

ADMITTED.—Chas. H. Powers was, on Tuesday last, admitted to the Bar to practice in the several Courts of Clearfield county. We have been informed, that Charlie stood a very creditable examination; and, being a young man of undoubted energy, and a clever fellow, we doubt not, he will succeed in his present undertaking.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR $1.00.—To meet the times, the sixty-third volume of Godey will be sent to subscribers for One Dollar. This volume comprises the six best numbers of the year, and will contain seven steel engravings, six of the large double extension fashion-plates, and all the winter cloak patterns. Address, L. A. GODEY, 423 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

POST-MASTERS APPOINTED.—Mr. P. A. Gaulin, has been appointed Post-Master at Frenchville, in this county, in place of F. Couderet, removed.

Mr. B. F. Dale, has been appointed at Bloomingville, in place of John Owens, resigned.

Mr. Charles Slippy, has been appointed at Troutville, in place of Jacob Kuntz, removed.

BARN BURNT.—We have been informed, that on last Wednesday morning, the barn of David Bloom of Lawrence township, was entirely consumed by fire; together with two horses, a wagon, a lot of harness, several sleds, several plows, &c. It is supposed that a little son of Mr. Bloom's, some four or five years old, ignited some matches and set the straw on fire; he having picked up several matches in the house, a short time previous to the occurrence. The loss is estimated at about $500. No insurance.

CAIT. J. OSCAR LORRAINE.—On Monday of last week, Capt. Hugh McDonald of the Elk Rifles, made information before Alderman Klue of Harrisburg, against Capt. Loraine of the Clearfield Washington Cadets, for the utterance of treasonable language, to the effect that "he would never pull a trigger against the South." The information thus made in writing, and sworn to by Capt. McDonald, was taken by him for the purpose, as he stated, of submitting it to Governor Curtin. No warrant has been issued, and consequently no arrest made, as was reported by some of the newspapers. Thus the matter rests, and unless Capt. McDonald pushes it to a speedy and full investigation, he will be subject to severe censure.

[By Request.—] A Boston exchange gives the following summary of the doctrines of the Adventists: "1. That man is mortal, soul and body. 2. That the dead are wholly unconscious, consequently are neither happy nor in misery. 3. That if there is not to be in the future a literal resurrection of the dead, there can be no future life for them that have died. 4. The rewards and punishments promised in the Bible are not to be given until the second advent of Christ. 5. Modern spiritual manifestations are the work of departed human spirits, but are produced by another order of beings called in the Bible 'demons,' whose object is to ruin all those that believe them. 6. Christ is so to make his literal glorious advent to this world, to save all those that obey him. 7. That the earth is to be purified by fire, restored to its original pure condition; and it will then become the eternal home of all the people of God. 8. The wicked will not all be saved, neither will they suffer eternal torments; but they will be punished with everlasting destruction in other words, they will be put out of existence, as unworthy to live and pollute the universe of God. 9. The Bible is the only standard of religious belief, and must be understood in its most literal and natural significance."

THE DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH.—The General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of North America concluded their business on the 13th. The report of the Committee on the subject of our national troubles was presented. It expressed sentiments in support of the Government of the United States in its present struggle with rebellion. The Rev. Thomas C. Strong introduced a preamble questioning the legality of introducing the resolutions in the synod, on account of their non-ecclesiastical character, and a motion to lay them on the table, and indefinitely postpone the discussion of the whole subject, brought out a very heated debate. The speeches were short, numerous, and spicy. The motion to postpone indefinitely was carried by a vote of 34 Yeas to 71 Nays, and the original motion was adopted by an overwhelming majority. Thus the Reformed Dutch Church has registered its testimony of loyalty to the Government. It was about the last of the great religious bodies to act upon the question, but not less important than any of the others, even although it has no churches south of Pennsylvania.

SENTENCE CHALLENGED.—A gentleman late from the troops at the Relay House says the sentinels have in many instances, a pleasant way of making challenges. A fellow who had been fishing on the Potomac, and had secured a fine string of fish, was stopped by the usual question, "Who goes there?" "Fisherman," was the answer. "Advance, fisherman, and drop two shad," said the alert sentinel, looking over his own commissariat.

The Montgomery Confederation gives the following from a correspondent. On the first night after my arrival, in passing from one quarter to another, I was stopped by a sentinel whom I recognized as private P. (though he did not recognize me) I was asked for the countersign, and replied "a friend with a bottle," and the reply was "advance bottle and draw stopper," which I did, and was suffered to pass on my way rejoicing.

O. W. Barrett, brother of ex-Congressman Barrett of the St. Louis district, was arrested yesterday for alleged treason. It is said that other prominent individuals are involved in the charge.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS

Ohio's war cry—Waite in. The best campaign paper—catridge paper. Equestrian burglary—the breaking in of horses. A crooked stick—the Baltimore Marshall name.

How to meet a bankrupt—take no note of him. A clever girl—Ann-apollis. She likes to see the soldiers. Bad bells—the rebels. Yet some of them may be hung. Suspended specie payments—all the banks in New Orleans.

Not unlikely—they do say the Privateering is very catching.

The only colored nation in the world that coins its own specie is Hayti.

The Emperor of Austria has gained his suit in the matter of the Kossuth notes.

The Census of Canada, recently taken, shows the population to be about 2,600,000.

"Pitch darkness" has been so improved in latter times as to read "bituminous obscurity."

Fast horses win cups by the use of their legs. Fast men lose their legs by the use of cups.

A man often expresses the same idea by wagging his head that a dog does by wagging his tail.

A man afraid of fire-arms, if he gets in liquor, is apt to imagine everything he sees a revolver.

Fact—lazy rich girls make rich men poor, and industrious poor girls make poor men rich.

Many writers profess to teach people "how to live." Culprits on the scaffold would like to learn.

You can't rail sin and ignorance out of the world; but it is easy enough to rail cattle out of a field.

You carry your head rather high, 'Tas the owl said to the giraffe when he poked his nose into the befrity.

The editor of a paper in Indiana wants to know if Western whisky was ever seen "comin thro' the rye."

A live white whale, caught in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, has been on exhibition at the Aquarial Gardens, in Boston.

The army worms are approaching Louisville in vast numbers, threatening to destroy all the cereals in that vicinity.

At a recent ball in Reedsburg, Wis., the price of tickets was a bushel of wheat. The farmers attended in large numbers.

A bachelor editor, who had a pretty sister, recently wrote to another bachelor equally fortunate: "Please exchange."

A large wholesale grocery house at Lafayette, Indiana, recently refused a barter trade with a house in Virginia, bacon for tobacco.

The Southern rebels are trying to rob General Taylor of his laurels. They have the impudence to call Davis "the glorious hero of Buena Vista."

People may talk about General Scott's age and infirmities, but we notice that, by the help of his staff, he gets over a great deal of ground, and that quite rapidly.

A Scotchman asked an Irishman why half-farthings were coined in England? The answer was: "To give Scotchmen an opportunity to subscribe to charitable associations."

GEN. CAMERON.—There is truth in the following paragraphs from the Meadville Journal: "A number of our exchanges, the Pittsburg Dispatch among the rest, who were so desperately opposed to the appointment of the Hon. Simon Cameron to a place in President Lincoln's Cabinet, are now gracefully making the amende honorable by retracting their remarks derogatory to the ability and integrity of the great statesman, and are now giving him the praise and commendation which his patriotic zeal, efficiency and skill to the administration of his high and responsible position, undeniably merit. Never had Pennsylvania so much cause to be proud of her 'favorite son.'"

Standing as he does at the head of the most important department in the Government, with duties of the most difficult, onerous and momentous, constantly pressing upon him, he discharges the high functions of his office with promptness and noble devotion to his country's interests, as attested in the official reports of the United States Government, and in the many and honorable testimonials which he has received from the friends of his country.

PAROLE.—The Parole of Honor, which is sought to be made binding by an oath of allegiance, is becoming more and more ridiculous every day. The idea of administering one oath to a set of men who have already violated another, strikes us as bad policy. The traitors who are taken prisoners while in the act of assault on the troops of the government will be willing to accept any terms to be released. An oath is of no consequence to them. If Jeff. Davis was in the hands of General Grant to-day, he would swear his soul to be released to-morrow. He would swear any oath to be permitted to go free on his parole of honor. What would such a perjury be to the perjurer that has already sealed his soul for an awful punishment? Nothing, mere nothing, when weighed in the balance with his other crimes. We trust, then, that the farce of administering oaths of allegiance, and setting men up as good and loyal citizens who are arrested in armed hostility against the government, will stop. It is a mockery in the sight of God and man. If we have not the courage to punish these traitors as the law provides, let us not assume the audacity of inventing perjured excuses for their crimes, by giving them daily evidences of our weakness and credulity. The policy of "Death to Traitors" alone will restore peace to the country.

SIGNIFICANT.—The Paris Presse asks this significant question: "Will the French and English permit their vessels to be searched for contraband goods by a Confederacy whose nationality is not recognized by any nation in the world?" As a belligerent, it would have this right of search for the purpose of self-protection, but will the English submit to this indignity to its flag, offered by so imbecile and contemptible a power?

DIABOLICAL.—Intelligence from Louisville, Ky., states that the effect of the blockade has been so severe that all trade is dead. A citizen of Louisville had been hanged by the rebels between Memphis and that city, his crime being loyalty to the Union. By the side of the road between the places named, a Northern man was seen by travelers in a dying condition, with his head shaved, and his ears and nose cut off.

The Latest News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Gen Patterson is moving with his column of 22,000 men to Washington. It is thought more probable than ever that the Rebels will continue to retreat; and, indeed, we have a rumor that they have really fled from Leesburg. After Patterson reaches the Capital there will be there not less than 75,000 National troops, and if Gen. McClellan, with his force, also comes to Washington, we shall have 100,000. The plain policy of the Government is to concentrate there a great army, probably for an advance on Richmond. It is said that the rebels at Manassas Junction number 25,000, including the Harper's Ferry body, the last of whom have left that place. At Richmond, as the same authority states, there are 40,000. They are represented as being tolerably well armed, but badly clad, provisioned and drilled, and as much dissatisfied with the appearance of things. Jeff. Davis is at Richmond, personally superintending the operations of his army.

At five o'clock yesterday morning, the great bridge of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, over the Potomac, was fired, and soon after a tremendous report was heard, caused by the explosion of a mine which had been placed under the centre span. In one hour the entire structure was in ruins, and fell into the water. The loss to the Government must be, in buildings, from $400,000 to $500,000, while the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company had suffered scarcely less, as it is believed that some of its equipments have been embraced in this wholesale ruin.

By latest news from Frederick, we learn that the Confederate army has mainly left the town, only about 2000 remaining. The route of the main body was the turnpike leading towards Charlestown and Shepherdstown, but their precise destination was not known, as they were lost in the distance, and no one in the vicinity was sufficiently informed to be relied upon. Rumor exists on both sides of the river that they had gone towards Winchester, while other sources suspected they were going to Martinsburg to make a stand in that vicinity.

A train ran this afternoon on the Alexandria, Loudon and Hampshire Railroad, from Alexandria to Vienna, fifteen miles. On its return, when near Alexandria, a shot was fired from the side of the road, which hit a Connecticut soldier, who was standing with others on the platform, in the shoulder. He has since died of his wound, in great agony. Two persons were arrested, one of whom was without doubt the assassin.

A slight skirmish occurred yesterday at Seneca Mills, a point on the Maryland side of the Potomac, above Washington. 200 of the District volunteers, under Lieut. Col. Everett, were attacked by a company of Virginia cavalry. Shots were exchanged for some time. No one of our men was hurt, but the commander of the cavalry, supposed to be a Capt. Shreves, was killed, and the rebels retreated.

HAGERSTOWN, June 16.—The larger part, 14,000, of the troops stationed at Harper's Ferry, go southward to join Gen. Beauregard's and Gen. Lee's forces, and the smaller body, it is believed, will march to join Henry A. Wise at Romney, who, it is understood, will march to oppose the advance of Gen. McClellan's column from the West. Gen. Wise has 3000 men at Stanton, one regiment of which has already marched.

Great numbers of small arms, said to be at least 1000, were thrown into the river by the rebels, and also their accoutrements, and boys and men are amusing themselves by diving for them.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 16.—Fortress Monroe is in reality invested, and ingress and egress by sea, and few miles in extent on the James river, are open to us, but no aggressive movements can be made with safety without double the present number of troops and means of transportation. The camps near Hampton are now confined to a narrow space.

POINT OF ROCKS, June 15.—The obstruction on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at this point has been removed, and the road reopened to Harper's Ferry this morning.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The Secessionists have full sway on both sides of the Missouri river, from the Kansas border to Booneville.

EFFECTS OF SECESSION.—The following shows the effect the Secession movement has on the trade of New Orleans. No sales of cotton on the 14th. For the week the sales have been 350 bales; the receipts have been 320 bales, against 2,800 for the same week last year; decrease in receipts at this port 352,000, and at all ports 879,000 bales. The exports of the week, 4,800 bales. The sales of Coffee for the week have been 250 bales at 171/9c; the stock in port is 6,700 bags, against 14,500 at the same time last year.

The following is a sample of the numerous letters constantly receiving for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters: CANANDAUGA, July 13, 1859. Messrs. Hostetter & Smith Pittsburg, Pa. Gents.—As we are strangers, I herewith enclose you twenty-eight dollars for four dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which please forward via Michigan Southern Railroad, Toledo Ohio, and Clayton Station. I have purchased several dozen bottles at Toledo this summer, but the sale is on the increase so much that I wish to open a direct trade with you. I was induced to try your Bitters by my physician for the Liver Complaint, and received such material aid that I have recommended it to others and have sold about two dozen per week for some time. I have all kinds of medicine in my store. There is here one that I can so cheerfully and truthfully recommend as your Bitters, for I know they have helped me beyond my expectation. Yours respectfully, PAUL WILSON

The time has come that all who will can escape the iron grasp of Mercury, by calling, without delay, to see the well known and justly celebrated Eclectic European Physician, DR. BORT, who will administer those only true and safe medicines, extracted from the most choice Herbs and Minerals, which prepare his own supervision, and therefore avoiding the use of all MINERAL POISONS, which were never designed for the system, to take which many thousands have fallen victims and gone to early graves.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED. Remember that Dr. Bort is not a patient, but those fully capable of appreciating and distinguishing the services of a regular through bred physician, from a paltry, unlearned and trifling quack.

Remember, Dr. Bort's remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to all others in this country; prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe and the first in the country. Remember, that Dr. Bort has a more extended practice than any other physician in Western Pennsylvania. Remember, that citizens of education and our popular men are all well acquainted with, and take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Bort to the afflicted.

Please bear in mind when Dr. B. will be in your place. Persons desirous of consulting him will confer a great favor by calling on the first day of his arrival, as his Rooms are so often crowded, it is utterly impossible to attend to the anxious solicitations of all.
