

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 26, 1861.

"Raftsmen's Journal Office," on Second Floor of Graham's New Brick Building, on Market Street.

New Postmaster.—Sebastian Snyder, has been appointed Postmaster at New Washington, in place of John M. Cummings.

Fourth of July.—The ladies of the M. E. Church at Curwensville, purpose giving a dinner on the coming 4th of July, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to furnishing the new church now erecting. The public generally are invited to attend, as the purpose is a laudable one.

Drowned.—We have been informed that an Irishman—a rail-road hand—was drowned in Strider's dam, on Moshannon creek near Philipsburg, on Saturday night, the 22d. It is supposed that he was intoxicated at the time. An inquest was held on Sunday. Verdict, accidental drowning. We believe a boy was drowned in the same dam about two weeks since.

The Weather, Crops, &c.—The weather during the past week has been warm and pleasant. We had several showers, and all the crops are growing fine. From what we learn, we believe, that the wheat promises a better yield than for many years. The corn, though planted late, is thrifty and growing rapidly. Potatoes and all other vegetables have a good appearance. And if, the season is favorable throughout, this county will produce more than a usual average yield, of all kinds of grain and vegetables.

Accident.—We regret to learn, that Austin Kline, living near John Chaso's in Woodward township, met with a very serious accident, on Tuesday the 18th. It appears that Mr. Kline was about three-fourths of a mile from his home at work in a field, with a pair of oxen and wagon, when in the act of detaching the oxen from the wagon, they became frightened and ran away. The chain attached to the yoke became entangled and hooked around both Mr. K's legs, throwing him from his feet and in this way dragged over a very rough road to his own house, fracturing one of his legs near the ankle, and tearing the skin in a horrible manner on nearly every part of his body.

Goods Stolen.—On last Thursday night, the 20th instant, a box of tobacco, a half barrel of fish, a box of Soda, and a quantity of tea, belonging to several merchants of this place, were stolen from two wagons, whilst standing in the street before one of the hotels in Philipsburg. Warrants were issued the following morning, and search made, when most of the articles were found in possession of Niel Dougherty, on the rail-road near Philipsburg. Dougherty was arrested and committed to Bellefonte jail. Other arrests were made; but, we believe, the parties were released; one on bail. The citizens of Philipsburg deserve great praise for their efforts in bringing the guilty parties to justice.

Diabolical.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that some diabolical person or persons, not possessed of enough malice nor moral courage to advocate the cause of the Southern rebels openly, in a sneaking, cowardly, and assassin-like manner cut down and carried away, on the night of Saturday the 22d instant, a National Flag which was suspended across one of the streets in New Washington, in this county. The loyal citizens of that place have offered a reward of twenty dollars, to any one who will furnish sufficient evidence to convict the guilty parties. Such groveling creatures deserve the severest punishment that the laws of our land will inflict. We hope that they may be speedily brought to a strict account, for their cowardly and treasonable act.

Man Shot.—A correspondent informs us, that on Friday evening the 21st, a man was shot, on the old Turpike, about a mile east of the Black Moshannon creek, under the following circumstances. Daniel Swab and his son John, had gone out for the purpose of watching a deer lick, and a "crossing" on the turpike. Mr. S. went to the lick, whilst the son remained along side of the pike, to watch the deer as they crossed. About 9 o'clock in the evening, a man came walking along the road, and young Swab mistaking him for a deer, with fatal effect, the ball striking him on the neck, severing an artery, and lodging in the opposite shoulder. The man ran in the direction of young Swab about 50 yards, fell on his back, and expired immediately. The deceased was a stranger—over six feet high, heavy shouldered, black hair, beard close shaved, and dark complexion; had a scar on the left cheek near the temple and a scar on the chin. Young Swab was sent to Bellefonte jail; there to await the action of the Court.

Fourth of July.—Another anniversary of our National Independence is fast approaching; and yet, we hear of no arrangements being made to celebrate the day in this place. This should not be so. We hope that the necessary steps will be taken at once. As Union loving citizens let us join hands, and get up a regular old-fashioned celebration; one that will be a credit to our town and vicinity. Eighty-five years of our nation's existence have fled; but never has that nation's birthday been ushered in under such peculiar circumstances, as the present one. Many of the citizens of this county are absent in defence of our nation's honor, and the maintaining of the Supreme law of the land, that Constitution which our Fathers established. But, while our friends are away, let us convince them that we are not ungrateful of them, and that we cherish the noble self-sacrifice that they are making in defence of the liberties that we enjoy. Then, let us go to work without delay, and make the necessary arrangements for celebrating the day in a proper and becoming manner.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS

Warm—the weather, yesterday.
Worn out—the flag on the Court-house tower.
Sociable—the 'gals' who stop at the darkly shanty.
Excellent—the serenade in Curwensville, on Saturday night.
Up to 102—the mercury, in the sun, at Washington, on Saturday.
Shouldn't stay so late—the chap that wades the river below town.
Rare occurrence—three boys taking sixteen young ladies to a party.
Very good, but rather, too pointed, as the fish said when it swallowed the bait.
Why is the Union like a crab apple? Because, to be worth anything, it must be preserved.
Thrice is he armed who has his quarrel just.—But six times armed is he who owns a good revolver.
New Jersey gives six tenths to each of her companies—the most liberal allowance made by any State.
Society is like air—very high up it is too sublimated for comfortable breathing, too low down it is a perfect damp-choke.
An advertiser in one of the papers says he has a cottage to let containing eight rooms and an acre of land. Pretty large cottage, that.
Geo. B. Crittenden, son of John J. Crittenden, who resigned from our army some time since, has accepted a commission in the rebel army.
The traitors of Baltimore, are the lawyers, the liquor dealers, the aristocracy, and a handful of the rascals who have been in the habit of sucking the life out of the people.
A Southern lady has abandoned the Sucker, and has married a Union man, to marry Mr. James Bean, aged seventy-five. She must be fond of dried Beans.

PROCEEDINGS OF COURT.

Pierce's heirs vs. David Michaels.—Rule to show cause why appeal should not be stricken off. Rule discharged.
S. B. Taylor vs. Fred. Kohler.—Certiorari. Proceedings reversed on the ground that when one Justice of the Peace issues a summons, the defendant cannot bring suit against the plaintiff before another Justice, but must offset his claim before the Justice whose jurisdiction had attached.
Nathan H. Noble vs. Lewis J. Hurl.—Rule to show cause why award of arbitrators, filed after a settlement made by the parties, should not be set aside. Rule made absolute.
Wm. A. Mason vs. John Wightman.—Certiorari. Proceedings reversed; no service of summons having been made on defendant.
Michaels & Worrell vs. Jacob Kooser.—Certiorari. The Justice had entered judgment against the defendant according to de factis direction in writing. Proceedings reversed; there being no summons nor appearance.
Com. vs. Andrew Teger.—Certiorari. Proceedings reversed; the record not showing the evidence on which the summary conviction was founded.
Com. vs. Henry S. Hard.—Certiorari. Proceedings reversed. Same reason as above.
Andrews vs. Keppler vs. Langdon & Divies.—Motion to set aside service of summons. Leave granted to Sheriff to amend his return.
James Scott vs. Jude Whitecomb and Wm. H. Gurnisheig, J. Newman vs. Same, W. Bodley vs. Same, John Wisor vs. Same, Henry Bennhoff vs. Same, Norman Koons vs. Same.—Rules to show cause why foreign attachments should not be dissolved. Rules discharged.
ROAD PETITIONS, &c.
Views.—Bradly township—near Jacob Humel, Jr., to David Reams's saw-mill. Viewers, Russell Luther, Fred'k Ziegler, G. M. Thompson.
Bloom township—on Turpike near Hugh Leeches' public road near Mrs. Cleavers. Viewers, Thomas Ross, John Hartshorn, Jacob Faust.
Lawrence township—on cross road on top of Hog-back to near Geo. Kolins, Pike township. Viewers, Sam'l Brown, G. L. Reed, Jas. Dougherty, Sr.
Greenwich township—on Moses Robinsons to Nevings' mill. Viewers, H. B. Wright, W. A. Neving, John McGilly.
Bloom township—on Henry Reams to John Smith's. Viewers, Thos. Ross, John D. Thompson, John McNaul.
Knox township—on Millport to top of hill. Viewers, Thos. Moore, Jr., Cortes Reed, Fred. Spang.
Petition, to change line between Girard and Goschen townships. Viewers, Sam'l Fulton, John Irwin, Lewis Irwin.
ROADS CONFIRMED, &c.—Burnside township—on house of John H. Myers to cherry tree on land of Richard Ashcraft.
Lawrence township—on Leonard's bridge to corner of Patrick Dolans fence.
Becaria township—on State road to Glen Hope turpike near Sam'l M. Smith's. All other returns &c., were continued or set aside.
THE ARMY.—General Scott is wisely substituting light artillery in the army for that of cavalry. He is induced to do this, because it requires more than a year to drill cavalry, to render the men proficient as riders, to make them perfect in the various evolutions, and to accustom the horses to the shocks of battle, when gunpowder has to be wasted. Light artillery will make dreadful havoc among the knights of the south, who, true to their instincts of aristocracy, array themselves in the most gorgeous attire, mount young and untrained horses, and thus caparisoned and equipped, they expect to intimidate the infantry troops by the splendor as well as glitter of their appearance. A few rounds of grape, well directed and copiously given, will soon change the courage and the course of their silly chivalry.
A TERRITORY OCCUPIED BY THE NATIONAL FORCES.—Gen. McDowell came to Washington on Thursday the 20th, and paid his respects to Gen. Scott, exhibiting a complete map of the land now occupied by the Federal forces, and showing how easy it would be to capture the enemy located within a short distance of the outside lines of Gen. McDowell's survey, which extend into the interior ten miles from Arlington Heights, and ten miles below Alexandria, and the same distance above the Chain Bridge. Gen. Scott listened with all attention, and when Gen. McDowell had concluded and desired permission to advance and make an attack, in order to wipe out the disgrace of the late blunders, Gen. Scott sat quietly back and responded, "No, Sir—no, Sir—no."
TRAITORS IN THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.—An old resident here states positively that he can point out twenty-six clerks, in the Interior Department, who have uttered Secession sentiments, more than once within the last two months. He also says that there is at the present time a young man seeking the position of an Examiner in the Patent Office, who has, until within a few weeks, been a rabid Secessionist, that his parents are even now bitter in their denunciations of the Administration, and that through some unaccountable means a prominent Republican politician has been induced to endorse the fellow's application.

THE LATEST NEWS.
Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.
JUNE 24.—A deserter from the rebel camp at Romney reports their number to be 3,600. About 20 regiments arrived at Washington during the past week making the number in that vicinity about 55,000. Two Federal pickets were shot near Hagerstown, one killed instantly, the other wounded mortally. It is stated, on good authority, that the available volunteer force is over 300,000. At Alexandria, the captain of the 2d Connecticut regiment, having been requested by a lady to escort her home, being afraid, gallantly complied, and has not been seen since. A large rebel force is concentrating at Yorktown. A sharp game was played by one of McMullin's Rangers at Hagerstown. He saw a strange looking fellow fording the river who he arrested, and found some important papers on him for a Mr. Alvey. The Ranger then changed suits—visited Alvey—gained additional information, and then arrested him. Alvey was not suspected before. He was sent to Washington.
THE OWNER OF THE BUENA VISTA'S CARGO.—It is ascertained that Loeffler, the individual to whom the cargo of the prize Buena Vista was consigned, is a Baltimore Secessionist, and that he has been engaged for some weeks in taking provisions across to the Virginia shore from Leonardtown and other places on the Maryland side of the Potomac, under a contract made with the Quartermaster General of the Rebel army. But for the timely seizure of the Buena Vista, just in the act of discharging her freight, her cargo would, ere this, have been safely transferred to the camp of the Rebels at Aquia Creek or Fredericksburg.

A RESOLUTION HAS BEEN INTRODUCED into the legislature of Maryland, to suspend the operation of the criminal law, and shield from punishment the participants in the riot of the 19th of April last, in the city of Baltimore. For this purpose it proposed that the Grand Jury shall be estopped from finding indictments against any of this class of offenders. This is a piling Religion on Ossa. This is a step towards offering immunity to treason beyond all that has ever been attempted.

MISSOURI.—Gen. Lyon has issued to the people of Missouri a proclamation setting forth the duplicity and treachery of the cowardly Gov. Jackson, assuring the citizens that the loyal need fear no molestation in their persons, or property, or business, and promising forgiveness to all who, having, taken up arms under a mistaken notion concerning the purposes of the Union troops, will now immediately return to their allegiance.
Hon. H. B. Wright, of Luzerne county, has been nominated by both the Democratic and Republican conventions of the twelfth (Pa.) district as a Union candidate for Congress, and has accepted both, repudiating all other issues than the support of the war and the crushing of the rebellion.

SOMETHING WRONG.—A few days ago two heavy guns were sent from Pittsburgh to Fort McHenry, and while lying at the wharf in Baltimore, some scamp spiked them with rat-tail files. It was at first thought that they would have to be re-cast, but latest report says they had new touch-holes drilled, and are now ready for action.
The Pennsylvania Regiment in Virginia have adopted for their watchword in the time of battle: "Remember Greble!" This will bring to the traitors as once the battle cry of "Remember Paoli" rang in the ears of the servile soldiers of an imbecile tyrant.

The following is a sample of the numerous letters constantly receiving for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters: CANANDAUA, July 13, 1859.
Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents.—As we are strangers, I herewith enclose you twenty-eight dollars for four dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which please forward by Michigan Southern Railroad, Toledo, Ohio, and Clayton Station. I have purchased several dozen bottles of your Bitters, but the sale is on the increase so much that I wish to open a direct trade with you. I was induced to try your Bitters by a physician for the Liver Complaint, and received such material aid that I have recommended your Bitters to my friends, and have sold about two dozen per week for some time. I have all kinds of medicine in my store, but there is none that I can so cheerfully and truthfully recommend as your Bitters. For I know they have helped me beyond my expectation. Yours respectfully, PHIL WILSON.

MARRIED.—On the 15th inst., at the Presbyterian Parsonage, by Rev. J. M. Galloway, Mr. A. W. STAMBAUGH of Armstrong Co. Pa., to Miss MELISSA E. daughter of J. B. Caldwell. By the Rev. J. R. Foelt on the 20th inst., Mr. JAMES CUPLES of Millfin Co. Pa., to Mrs. SUSAN REX of Ferguson tp., Clearfield Co. Pa.

NEAL BOUND OVER.—Charles M. Neal, of Philadelphia, has given bail in the sum of $5,000 to appear for trial at Pittsburgh next week. Neal, it will be remembered, is the "agent" who negotiated the recent army clothing contract with the Messrs. Frownfield of Pittsburgh. He is included in the indictment charging the latter with conspiracy to defraud the State, and hence the necessity of his having to give bail as above stated. The case will be taken up next week. Able counsel have been engaged on both sides, and a warm time of it all around may be expected.

DIDN'T LIKE IT.—The Wheeling Intelligencer says: "Some two or three of the young men here, long since taken to the jail, Davis rebellion, have recently returned, and they resent a deplorable state of things there. The officers and men are almost continually drunk, and the whole camp is a vast Bacchanalian revel. On the day of the election the soldiers voted for the ordinance of secession early and often, and thought the officer they voted, the better the joke. All of the young men to whom we refer have been perfectly disgusted with the whole business."
NEWS FROM MEXICO.—Advices from Mexico have been received up to the 25th ult. Our minister, Mr. Corwin, presented his credentials and was received by the Constitutional Government, with all the honors, on the 21st ult. The English Minister, Mr. Nyck, was received on the 23th. The greatest trouble with the Mexican Government at the present moment is the want of money. The treasury is bankrupt, and the only resource of the Government, the Custom House dues, is absorbed by foreign claimants.
WHISKEY AS A PERFUME.—The Milwaukee Sentinel says:—"A jug of the celebrated Montreal malt whisky has been sent to this office to be tested. As no one connected with the establishment imbibes whisky, we use it for perfume on our handkerchiefs. When we want to attract a crowd, all we have to do is to go out and shake our linen at the corner."

There are now 55 steam vessels of war in course of construction at the several dock-yards belonging to the British government. These do not include the large iron-plated frigates Warrior and Black Prince, which are being built by private firms. These 55 war vessels will average 1,657 guns, and have engines of 12,100 nominal horse-power.
