

CLEARFIELD, JUNE 26, 1861.

In the game of life, men frequently play the knave, and women the deuce.

Most men have in their souls no locomotives strong enough to draw a train of thought.

Tradesmen often lose their custom as field-sportsmen do their fingers—by high charges.

The hours are very fugacious, but an exemplary husband is careful to keep good ones.

Navigators on the sea of life, if their voyage is a long one, generally have to send under bare poles.

Probably the men who can boast the possession of the most varied and numerous gifts are the beggars.

In many of the counties of Virginia, not a single man dared to vote against the Ordinance of Secession.

Model wives formerly took a "stitch in time," but now, with the aid of a sewing machine, they take one in no time.

Lorenzo Dow once said of a grasping farmer, that if he had the whole world enclosed in a single field, he would not be content without a patch of ground on the outside for potatoes.

A VESSEL LOST.—We have sad news from St. John's to the effect that the Canadian, one of the Montreal Company's steamers, is lost with 20 or 30 of her passengers. She left Quebec on the 1st inst., encountered a field of unken ice on the 4th, eight miles south of Belle Isle, and running upon it, went down in half an hour; 181 of the passengers and crew were saved. Among those lost were six cabin passengers, the second officer of the ship, and the mail officer. The ship's papers were lost and it could not with accuracy be known how and how many were drowned.

A RECEIPT FOR CONTENTMENT.—Try to compute your artificial wants—the number of things which you fancy come under the list of "must haves" merely because other people possess them, and not because you would not be quite as well off and as happy in their absence. Try it for one week, whenever you are tempted to dally with your purse strings. Record in your memorandum book what, in view of this, you sensibly resolve not to buy, and what a nice little sum will be left you for real necessities. It is seldom by these last that one is hampered or annoyed. Make the experiment and see if it is not so. A just economy is not niggardiness; one need not be a miser in avoiding the extravagance of a spendthrift.

Also, all Diseases appertaining to the EYE AND EAR. LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF TRUTH AND REASON AND PROFIT BY IT.

The time has come that all who will can escape the iron grasp of Mercury, by calling, without delay, to see the well known and justly celebrated BOTTLED EUROPEAN PHYSICIAN, DR. BORT, who will administer those only true and safe medicines, extracted from the most choice Roots and Herbs, which are prepared under his own supervision, and therefore avoiding the use of all Miraculous Poisons, which were never designed for the system, to take which many thousands have fallen victims and gone to early graves.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Remember that Dr. Bort makes no patients but those fully capable of appreciating and distinguishing the services of a regular thorough physician, from a paltry, unlearned and trifling quack. Remember, Dr. Bort's remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to all others in this country, prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe and the first in the country. Remember, that Dr. Bort has a more extended practice than any other physician in Western Pennsylvania.

Remember, that citizens of education and our popular men are all well acquainted with, and take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Bort to the afflicted. Remember, that Dr. Bort makes no false representations to gull the unfortunate, but all he says will be faithfully carried out. Remember, that Dr. Bort pays every attention to diseases of a chronic nature. Certificates of Cures may be seen at his respective rooms.

Dr. B. furnished with over six thousand letters of recommendations from some of the most distinguished men living. Also has awarded to him diplomas from some of the most celebrated Hospitals and Universities in Europe, for his unparalleled observations in Diagnosis, and observations in discovering remedies for the cure of diseases that have heretofore baffled the skill of many of the medical profession.

An early call upon those wishing to consult the Doctor, is earnestly requested, so as to receive full benefit of treatment, and thus do justice to himself. Time limited.

Please bear in mind when Dr. B. will be in your place. Persons desirous of consulting him will confer a great favor by calling on the first day of his arrival, as his Rooms are so often crowded, it is utterly impossible to attend to the anxious solicitations of all. Dr. Bort will arrive at each of the above places on the first train or stage on the day appointed.

Please extend the invitation to all invalid acquaintances, and oblige yours, &c. All letters addressed to Box 1417, Pittsburg, will be promptly answered. May 29, 1861.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Removals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House to my old stand opposite the Jail, has become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddle Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bridles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Saddle Girths, and all other articles of my trade, in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as possible. GEORGE W. RHEEM, Aug. 29, '59.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The proprietors of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A fact which is attested by the fact that it is now sold more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifold uses, it is now the most prominent article during the coming year, the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent authorities in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of Stomachic Derangement, Flatulency, Indigestion, &c. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be a blessing to millions of suffering humanity. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a God-send to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the Bitters are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia, and all the diseases of the Stomach, is a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable to the health of the human system. It acts on the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have received the testimonials of many men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs, and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in the extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energy of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators, that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to suffer from fever and ague, from the effects of malarial fevers, from indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

Caution.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. C. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the cork, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers in medicinal articles, in the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany. Agents—Geo. W. Rheem and C. D. Tyler, a. Clearfield; John Patton, Curwensville; D. Tyler, Huston; F. K. Axtell, Luthersburg; Oct. 24, '60.
