RIFLED CANNON AND ICEBERGS .- When approaching the Banks of Newfoundland, Capt. Caldwell, of the English screw steam frigate Mersey, fell in with some icebergs, and thought it would be interesting to experiment on them with rifled cannon. Accordingly an Armstrong shell was fired at a small iceberg about 15 feet high, from the distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles. Such was the effect, that a block of ice, judged to be of about 100 tons, fell from the sumthe Federal troops comming through Kentucky it. This large weight falling from the top of the berg, removed the centre of gravity, which caused the whole fabric to roll over and rock to and tro. It was considered a most satisfactory test of the vast range and destructiveness of these missiles. Futher trials were made with other projectiles supplied to the navy, namely : hollow shot, percussion and Sharpenell, and time fuse shell, molton iron shell, etc., all tending to exhibit one feature in modern warfare at sea, viz : the extreme probability of every vessel being in flames soon after she is engaged.

Mr. Vallandigham visited, this afternoon, 7th, the Ohio encampments in Virginia, and was greeted with the sight of a hanging effigy. bearing the inscription : "Vallandigham, the traitor." When he approached the 2d Regiment, he was saluted by a discharge of stones. and, but for the interposition of the officers, would have been somewhat roughly handled. It is to be regretted that violence was resorted to, but it is significant, as proving that the spirit of the soldiers and the people will bear no treason, or sympathy with treason.

At a Democratic caucus in Washington, on the 6th, where matters were informally canvassed, Mr. Vallandigham intimated that he preferred the preservation of the Union. He received very little sympathy. The majority expressed themselves strongly in favor of giving thorough support to the government, and making quick work, with no long speeches. Of this policy, Mr. Wright of the Luzerne district of Penn'a, was one of the strongest supporters. The Kentucky and Maryland members did not attend the caucus.

Gov. Wise, with 50 men as a body-guard, under Capt. Patton, was attacked by the Home Guard of Sissonville, Kanawha county. Wise and Patton were mortally wounded, and 40 of the body-guard killed. This need confirmation. A divison of Wise's army was routed by Gen. Morris several days previous, at Buckhannon, killing 23, taking 200 prisoners and 73 horses.

The Penn'a Regiments, to which are attached the "Washington Cadets" and "Raftsmen Rangers" from this county, are now in the regular service ; and, we are informed, have moved forward to Cumberland, Maryland.

Forty-five men of the Ohio 3d fell into an ambuscade of 200 rebels at Middle Fork Bridge in Western Virginia. After a desperate fight they cut their way out; losing 2 killed and 5 wounded. The rebels lost 20 killed.

A report was in circulation for several days, that Gen. Patterson was surrounded by the rebels; but nothing certain is known. Reinforcements have, however, been sent forward for his relief.

It is said, that a grand combined movement was to have been made on Manasses Junction, by flank and center columns, on Monday last. This needs confirmation.

It is reported, that the rebels have 42 prisoners, taken from the various Pa. Regiments be longing to Gen. Patterson's column.

It is said, that the Union majority in Kentucky at the recent election was about 55,000.

little son of Mr. Geo. Kyler, on the "cross cut" met with a very serious accident one day last week. It appears that three of Mr. K's children, were taking a ride in a dearburn wagon, and whilst going down a hill, the holding back strap broke, and the horse ran away with the wagon; throwing the children out, and in the fall breaking and cutting the oldest boy's leg just above the ankle joint, in a most, horrible manner-the bone protruding from the wound several inches. It was supposed that amputation would become necessary. One of the other children was slightly hurt.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER, &C.

It is said that 'birds of a feather flock together.' We were reminded of this fact by the great parade made in the last Clearfield Republican, about something said or done by a member of Congress from Ohio, by the name of Vallandigham. Now, we do not doubt, there is quite a fellow feeling between Vallandigham and the editors of the Republican. There is an amazing agreement of sentiment satisfaction that they called the attention of their readers to what was headed "Spirited and Patriotic Letter of Hon. Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio." Now, this Vallandigham is looked upon by those who know him best, as a friend of the traitors. His counsels are on ly calculated to benefit Secession. The other day he visited the troops of his own State (Ohio) near Washington, and they pelted him with stones and drove him out of the camp.

Professing to be a Democrat, he attended the caucus of the Democratic members of Congress and endeavored to impress them with his views of stopping the war, and of compromise with the rebels. But these views ally opposed to such a policy, and were in favor of giving the Administration a patriotic sup-government is regarded here with great interest. It is probable that the Union men of raise a large force of cavalry and infantry. Senator Johnson and Col. Anderson will take the command of the troops in their respective States, the latter officer taking the rank of Brigadier General.

JUNE 2 .- Between three and four o'clock this morning the troops which have been concentrating at Hagerstown and Williamsport for several days past crossed the ford at Williamsport. Gen. Patterson reviewed them as they filed past him. Scouting parties of Capt. McMullin's Rangers and others selected from the first Wisconsin regiment, were out at midnight, and frequently during the night brisk firing was heard between the Federal pickets and those of the enemy on the Virginia side. The proper fords having been ascertained, the advance took place before daylight, the post of honor being assigned to Capt. McMullin's Rangers, the first Wisconsin and the eleventh Pennsylvania. The advancing columns consisted of the brigades of Abercrombie, Thomas and Negley. Rangers behaved remarkably well, getting up close to the enemy at a distance of only seventy-five yards. Abercrombie's brigade led the ad-vance, and the casualities of the conflict were almost exclusively in the First Wisconsin and the Eleventh Pennsylvania regiments. Col. Jarrett and Lieutenant Colonel Coulter led the skirmishers, opening upon them at Rev. Armor. The Declaration of Indepen- 400 yards. The whole rebel forces at Martinsdence was then read by John Russell; after | burg, consisting of four regiments of infantry and one regiment of cavalry, were engaged in the action. They had with them four pieces Crans. [We will publish the address next of artillery, part of them rifled cannon, and were commanded by General Jackson. Gen. Patterson reports three killed and ten wounded, in the engagement.

The seizure of the steamer St. Nicholas, from Baltimore, proves to have been a bold piratical expedition. When the steamer left on ers, and requested that Mr. Crans furnish a Friday evening she had on board about fifty copy of his address for publication : after secession passengers, most of whom were disguised as mechanics going to points on the Maryland shore of the Potomac. Among the number was Captain Hollins, late of the U.S. ship, Susquehanna, who was disgdised, some accounts say as a woman, and that he retired to his berth immediately on going on board the steamer. After the boat had left Point Lookout, Captain Hollins threw off his disguise and with the aid of the passengers seizing the boat, which was immediately put across to Cone river, on the Virginia side. Here the rest of the passengers, not a party to the plot, were landed, including the captain of the boat, who was placed under a guard. The steamer then went on a piratical cruise toward the Rappabetween them, and ro doubt, it was with great hannock river, capturing three vessels on the way, laden with ice, coal and coffee, with all of which Capt. Hollins made his way to Fredericksburg. The secession papers here publish accounts of this affair, calling it a brilliant exploit. The accounts say that some 200 rebel troops were placed on board at Cone.

JULY 3 .- From Fortress Monroe we learn that great preparations are being made to celebrate the anniversary of American Independence. Grand parades will be held at camps. The Fotress guns, the new battery and ships of war in the harbor, including the Minnesota, Cumberland, Santee, Roanoke and several gun boats will appropriately salute the day. Yesterday afternoon Lieut. Yelverton and eighteen men of the Ninth New York Regiment, make a reconnoisance from Newport News up the James river road to within a mile and a half of Great Bethel. At that point they met with but little favor. Mr. H. B. Wright came upon five of the rebel pickets, who preof Luzerne, strongly opposed them. The oth- cipitately fled, leaving behind, with other troer members present from the north were gener- phies, their hats and coats which showed that the owners were officers. In the pockets letters were found, just finished, giving a complete account of the late advance of 2800 men port, so as to make the war short and decisive. from Yorktown to attack Newport News. since.

are fleeing from their homes to avoid impressment, and leaving all they have in the world that section and in Kentucky will be able to behind them. Others are torn from the bosoms of their families and forced into the service of the Confederates, every male inhabitant between the ages of sixteen and sixty being taken. Farming operations are almost wholly neglected, and it is said to be no uncommon spectacle to see horses, cattle and other stock destroying whole fields of wheat and corn. This is the fate which the conspirators of the cotton states and their coadjutors here had prepared for Maryland, but fortunately for us the federal government extended the wings of its protection over the state in time to avert from us the horrors of such a doom.

THE FAMILIES OF THE TRAITORS -Gen Beauregard sent his wife to New York, to stay there until peace is declared, before he wrote that infamous proclamation. Jeff. Davis' wife and her sister have taken a cottage at North Hampton, Massachusetts, for the summer. Col. Magruder, of the Virginia army, has sent his wife and daughter to the north for protection. This looks considerably as though the archtraitors of the rebellion had not much conddence in the conspiracy they have engendered throughout the land. In addition to this, Yancey is in England, Toombs is disgusted, Slidell and Judge Mack are not to be heard of, and the whereabouts of a score of others of the southern confederacy is unknown.

HON. WILLIAM L. DAYTON, OUR Minister to France, was known to Louis Napoleon when he was in his country. Mr. Dayton lived at Trenton, New Jersey, which is only ten miles from Bordentown, where Joseph Bonaparte, the uncle of the present Emperor, long resided after the overthrow of Napoleon at Waterloo, in 1815. In 1837, when Louis Napoleon was in this country, he was a visitor at his uncle Joseph's, and made many excursions in company with him to Trenton and its vicinity. In that way he became known to Mr. Dayton, who could have little anticipated that he would ever be the ambassador to the French Court over which the exile would preside as Emperor.

TERRIBLE PLACE FOR "VARMINTS .- The destruction of human life in India by wild beasts is almost beyond belief. Within the last two years nine hundred and ninety-nine children have been killed by wolves in the Punjaub, and a large number of adults. Although the government pays a considerable sum for the destruction of wild animals, they do not seem to diminish in numbers. In 1859 there were killed 12 tigers, 192 leopards, 176 bears, 1.174 wolves, and 2 hyenas-total 1,567. In 1860 there were killed 35 tigers, 108 leopards, 350 bears, and 2,080 wolves-total 2,658.

A PENNSYLVANIA EXHORTER.-After the regular services at Camp Curtin in the morning, Captain M'Cauley, of the Susquehanna Rifles, a local Methodiat preacher, arose and began to exhort the men, stating that this war was one of right, and if God was not in it he, for one, would have nothing to do with it. Then exclaiming with great vehemence, "If God is with us who can be against us ?" "Jeff. Davis and the devil," cried out a "wildcat" boy. The scene which followed cannot be described. The service closed instantly.

HARVEST BEGUN IN ILLINOIS .- The wheat harvest commenced in Central Illinois last week, and it is said to be the best crop ever grown in that region. The army worm which has done considerable damage to grass and corn, has been rather beneficial to the wheat crop than otherwise. They damaged the grain in but few instances, and by stripping the blades from the straw, prevented rust, which would else have been pretty serious in consequence
