

BY SAMUEL J. ROW

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 14, 1861.

THE CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN ON FACTS The editors of the Breckinridge organ in this place, in their last issue, pitch into us with nearly a column of billingsgate. They try to create the impression that we are responsible for the first move in party organization, because we published the names of the Republican County Committee on the 8th of May last. Did not these same editors publish the names of the "Democratic County Committee on the 20th of February last? If the publishing of the names of such committee is the first move in party organization, did not they make that move? But, again, the editors of the Republican admit, that the first call for the "Democratic" committee, was published on May 22d. On the other hand, the first call for the Republican committee was published on July 17th. From the 22d of May till the 17th of July is nearly two mouths. Then, which call was published first? Did these truth telling editors stick to the facts in the above cases?

"When, where, and by whom," ask these wiseacres exultingly, "have party lines been disregarded?" Not by the leaders of the Breckinridge "Democracy" of Clearfield county, certainly. The editors of the organ of that wing of the party, as early as April 17th, in speaking of our National difficulties under the head of "The duty of Democrats," make use of the following significant language:

"It is well to inquire what, in such an emer-" gency, is the duty of Democrats? The an-" swer is best furnished by a reference to the " past history of the Democratic party. . . Yet "we apprehend that those who fully compre-"hend, and properly appreciate, the purposes " of its organization, can have no difficulty in " deciding what course to pursue."

As the editors do not fully explain, in the article from which it is taken, the meaning of this language, we will quote from their issue of May 15th, to wit:

"If it were not so ridiculous it would be " amusing to hear the Republicans proposing "to drop party distinctions," etc. "No, no. "We are opposed to any such arrangement. " where it left off."

Now, we "apprehend that those who fully comprehend" the meaning of the above extracts, "can have no difficulty in deciding" its purport; and that is, stick to the party organization! Don't unite with those Black Republicans"!

But, we wish the reader to refer to the dates and see whether we have given them correct or not. Perhaps, however, the names of the months in these editor's almanac, (like their leader in sustaining the Union,) run "slightu-May, and May before February-and, as their sympathies seem to incline a little stronger towards the Rebels, than their desire is to stick to facts, perhaps, "falsehood-palpable, unqualified, and bare-naked"-answers their purpose better than the truth?

And now, in the language of the editors of the facts, and we leave the public to fix their own estimation upon the varacity of an editor, who, with such cool deliberation, attempts to migrepresent facts so notorious, and thereby deceive and mislead his friends."

CO-OPERATION REFUSED .- We see it stated that the Democrats of Ohio and New York have refused to unite with the Republicans in support of but one ticket for State offices. In New York the Republican State Committee addressed the Democratic State Committee, who unceremoniously rejected the offer. In Ohio the invitation was extended to the masses of the party, but rejected. In Vermont the Republicans have made the same offer. Thus, the experiment for a Union ticket has been made in two States by the Republicans, without succass, and whether it will be attended with batter success in other States, remains to be seen. It was worth the while, however, to make the attempt, as the Republicans have thereby shown their willingness to forget party in their desire to serve their country; on the other hand, the Democrats by refusing the magnanimous offer, have shown that they prefer their party to their country. They are welcome to the full benefit of their choice. Will the Breckinridge organ in Clearfield make a note of the above fact?

The Republican State Committee of New York have offered to the Democratic State Committee to call the State Conventions of the two parties on the same day and at the same place, "for the purpose of enabling the " two Conventions to unite in the nomination of a Union ticket, pledged to a vigorous " prosecution of the war, for the restoration of "the authority of the Constitution and the "execution of the Federal laws in all sections " of the country."

For the benefit of the editors of the Clearfield Republican, we will state that the "Greely wirg" of the Republican party, i. e. the Chairman of the County Committee, is ready to enter into an arrangement like the above; providing, the editors do not insist upon nominating Segessionists to fill any of the offices.

GEN. McDowell's Report .- The official report of Brigadier-General McDowell, concerning the battle at Bull Run, or Stone Bridge, is published. It gives a clear account of the engagement, and of the movements preceding it. The report makes it quite clear that the army was not ready for its advance, and yet that the advance could not be delayed, because the term of service of the largest and best part of the force was about to expire. It is distinctly stated, also, that Gen. Patterson's failure to check Johnston and prevent his joining Beauregard, helped to cause the defeat. Gen. McDowell's statenent of the killed and wounded sums up :

ment of the	1	Non-com. officers
	Officers.	and privates.	Total.
Killed.	19	462	481
Wounded	, 64	947	1011
Total,	83	1409	1492

The actual number of missing cannot yet be stated, as every day soldiers heretofore reported as missing are making their appearance. Recentl estimates put the killed at about 500, and the wounded and missing at that this wanton destruction of property is about 1,500. This is not very far from the number reported by General McDowell, after examining all the official data within his reach. But we presume that if complete and accurate returns could be obtained, some of the missing would have to be classed among the killed, increasing their number perhaps to six hundred. The wounded are not likely to exceed eleven hundred, and a large proportion of these are but slightly hurt. A later, and full official report, makes the casualties on our side 2708, of these 481 were killed, 1011 wounded, and 1216 missing.

THE DIRECT TAX-PENNSYLVANIA'S QUOTA .-The apportionment of the tax to the different

CHANGE STORY
by refere	nce to the	above table	it will be seen that by the "Act to provide additional means for defraying the expenses of Government," Pennsylvania's share of the direct tax levied upon the United States is apportioned at $1,946,719. It may be interesting to exhibit "... We want the old fight to stand just the addition made to our State taxes on real estate by this levy. At the triennial meeting of the Revenue Commissioners in 1860, the valuation of the taxable property of the Commonwealth was fixed at $569,000,000; and to collect $1,946,000 on that amount will, therefore, require an assessment of about three and a half mills on the dollar; or two-fifths more than our present State tax.

THE REBEL Loss .- Statements confirming the loss of the Rebel army at the battle of Bull Run, or Stone Bridge, continue to be really" the other way-that July comes before | ceived, which show that their loss was much greater than that on our side. A carefully written letter to the Richmond Dispatch, dated July 27th, six days after the battle, says: "The mortality was immense upon both sides. Upon ours, the returns will show about six hundred killed and twenty-five hundred wounded." As the reporters and writers for ed and sent as prisoners to Manassas or Richthe Clearfield Republican we say : "Such are | the Southern papers are in the habit of underrating their own losses, the actual number of killed and wounded probably exceeds this. The statements of the respective losses of different regiments confirm these large figures, and the reports of the number of wounded at various places confirm them. The Philadelphia Bulletin, several days since, copied from a New Orleans paper an appeal for supplies for six hundred wounded men at Charlottesville alone. It is known that large numbers of wounded are still at Manassas, while Richmond, Lynchburg, Culpepper, Warrenton and many other towns, have received them by hundreds. All things considered, it is not suprising to hear that Gen. Beauregard is in no hurry to send a return of the killed and wounded to the War Department at Richmond.

> "The Democratic party are now and ever have been for the Union."- Elearfield Rep. Who are Hunter, Mason, Lane, Burnett, Cobb, Toombs, Pryor, Keitt, Wigfall, Floyd, Wise, Jeff. Davis & Co.? Are they not the leaders of the Democratic party in the South, and are they not the leaders of the existing Rebellion? Do the editors of the Republican repudiate these men, or do they merely make the above "unqualified assertion" to deceive their followers? Again-Who in the North sympathize with the Rebels, and who are they that continually snap and snarl at the Administration, because it is trying to put down rebellion? Are they not Democratic politicians and Democratic newspapers? Who then is responsible for this rebellion? Is it not the leaders of the Democratic party? The Democratic party a pretty Union party indeed!

GEN. BUTLER ON THE CONTRABANDS .- We this week publish on our outside, Gen. Butler's letter on the Contraband question. The General treats the subject in an able and practical manner; and being a Breckinridge Democrat, will no doubt attract much attention. Had the sentiments, expressed by Gen, B., emanated from a Republican, our Democratic at various points on this side of the creek. A SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS.

The Wheeling Intelligencer of Aug. 7, says : By the arrival of a gentleman yesterday from the Kanawa country, we have further accounts of the doings of Wise in that region. For cool and wanton atrocity in robbery, thett and destruction of property, his career has no parallel in modern times. For weeks previous to his hurried and precipitated retreat, he kept his guerillas constantly scouring and marauding the counties of Kanawha and Jackson, seizing all the cattle and horses of the Union men, and pretending to buy them of the disunion men, but never paying anybody. These cattle and horses he sent on to the east, until there are very few good horses left in the counties named. He burned nearly every bridge in the valley, except the fine suspension bridge across Elk river, which he ordered cut down and fired. His order was partially prevented by the vigilance of some of the citizens. The bridge, however, was so weakened as to render it useless. Many of bitter towards Wise as the Union men. Many talk about shooting him-even some that were in his army. Many of his followers and has gone; others are ready to swear allegiance, while others ask to be left alone. They say more than they bargained for. Many honorable and worthy men have been carried to Richmond for expressing Union sentiments, some of whom have large families depending on them for sustenance. A great amount of suffering must be the result. The most violent of the rabble secessionists have gone with Wise's army, and many of their families are in a distressed and destitute condition. All hands are sick to death of secession. It has been a terrible thing to them. August 8 .- From Missouri we learn that the cavalry charge heretofore reported was made by a scouting party sent out to ascertain if the enemy were approaching, after our troops had encamped for the night at Dug Springs. Seeing a regiment of infantry coming along the road, the Lieutenant ordered a charge, which resulted in killing thirty rebels and wounded forty. The charge was not intended by Gen. Lyon. A large body of the enemy's cavalry which had taken position on high ground to observe our position and strength was dispersed by a few shells from Totten's battery, wounding some thirty of them. On Saturday morning our forces moved forward cautiously, and on approaching Curran the rebels, to the number of three thousand, were seen posted on a hillside southwest of that place. Gen. Lyon immediately formed his army for battle, and gave order to advance. As our column was approaching a piece of timber to flank the enemy, Capt. Du Bois's battery opened a fire on the rebels, and they retreated in haste. It is not known whether any of the enemy were killed on Saturday. We did not lose a man, and took several prisoners. General Lyon with his forces had fallen back on Springfield, having reached there on Monday morning, and was preparing for a vigorous defence. The rebels were advancing by four different roads. Price, Rains and Parsons are said to have 20, 000 men under their command and Ben Mc Cullough forty-five hundred, the latter well armed and effective troops.

A band of rebels, numbering from 1,000 to 1,200, made an attack upon the camp of the Union men at Athens, Mo., on Monday morning last, at 5 o'clock. There was a considerable amount of arms and ammunition for the United States troops stored in Athens, under guard of the troops composing this camp, United States volunteers, numbering about three hundred and fifty, under command of Captain Moore. The fighting lasted about an hour, when the rebels retreated. In the meantime Captain Moore having been reinforced by about one hundred and fifty men from Centralia, Iowa, on the opposite side of the river, gave chase after the rebels for about a mile and a half, killing one of their number, taking eighteen prisoners; and capturing thirty-one horses and two secession flags. Several of the rebels were wounded in the chase after the battle, and six or eight rebels were found dead on the field. In the afternoon the bearer of a rebel flag of truce to the Union camp admitted that they carried off fourteen killed, and that as many were wounded and missing.

The ravages and outrages of the rebels in the part of Fairlax county, Virginia, which they have recovered, since the battle of Bull Run, are almost increditable. All the male residents, regardless of age, who decline to enroll themselves in the rebel army, are seizmond. Neither age, nor infirmity, nor sex, affords any security against insult or abuse. A resident of Vienna, who exerted himself in relieving the wounded in the affair near that point some weeks ago, and brought the dead to Alexandria in his wagon, has been seized and imprisoned for his humanity, and his little son, only eight years old, is kept a prisoner in the rebel camp, and not allowed to see even his mother, for having expressed the hope that the treatment of his father would be avenged.

Another flag of truce, born by Captain Jones. of the rebel army, came to our lines to-day. It was met by the scouts of Colonel McCunn's brigade, near Alexandria, and received by the Commander of the brigade. The bearer of the flag brought also about three hundred letters from the Union prisoners at Richmond and Manassas to their friends here. They state that they are closely guarded, but are kindly treated. The valuables taken from the body of Colonel Cameron, including his watch, signet ring and daguerreotypes of his wife and daughter, were also brought to Colonel McCunn with the information that the grave of Colonel Cameron had been carefully marked, so that his friends may eventually recover the bedy.

August 9 .- Hampton has been burned by Gen. Magruder in his advance with the rebel forces. Scouts and fugitives yesterday morning brought word of the approach of a large Confederate force from Yorktown. These rumors were confirmed at 5 p. m. by E. A. Mahew, a native of Maine, but resident of Georgia until impressed into service, who furnished an account of the expedition. Mr. Mahew has been stationed at Yorktown since the 1st of June. On Friday last Colonel (now Gen.) Magruder left Yorktown with a force of 7,000 men, including 200 cavalry and 8 pieces of artillary. Part of the troops were from Williamsburg. On Monday night they encamped at Great Bethel which had been completely deserted. On Tuesday night they advanced towards Hampton and at noon took up a position on Back river some three miles from the town, where Mahew managed to escape through a corn field, and by swimming a couple of streams reached the fortress. He says the object of this expedition was to draw out our forces to attack Camp Hamilton near Newport News, if practicable, and at least to destroy Hampton, so as to prevent us from using it for winter quarters. Gen. Butler at once repaired to this end of Hampton bridge, where he remained until four o'clock. Col. Weber erected a barricade near the Hampton end of the bridge and placed a strong guard twenty white people and double that number of negroes remaining in the town from inability to remove, some of whose houses were fired without waking the inmates. The rebels gave Carey Jones and his wife, both of them aged and infirm, but fifteen minutes to remove a few articles of furniture to the garden. Several of the whites and also of negroes were hurried away to be pressed into the confederate service. Wm. Scofield, a merchant, took refuge in a swamp above town. A company of rebels attempted to force the passage of the bridge, but were repulsed with a loss of three killed and six wounded. The fire raged all night. The greater part of the confederates withdrew toward morning, and at noon to-day, but seven or eight buildings were left standing. The destruction of the town was a wanton act of cruelty to resident Unionists. Gen. Magruder has encamped near New Market Bridge. He will hardly venture to attack Newport News. Mr. Mahew stated that there have been about 7,000 rebels the more moderate of the secessionists are as stationed at Yorktown. Some ten days ago a battalion came down to the outskirts of Hampton and carried away 180 negroes. Provisions are abundant at Yorktown, and most of adherents have left the country, now that he | the regiments are receiving new uniforms for | the winter campaign.

The Queen of England recently gave a concert at Buckingham Palace in honor of her daughter and guest the Princess of Prussia. When all those who had been invited were arrived, the Queen, instead of entering the apartment where they expected her, ordered a carriage, and taking with her one of her daughters, the Princess Helena, went to pass the night in a country house she owns at Richmond, from which she returned next day. Prince Albert did the honors of the concert, to the great surprise of the guests, for whom this singular incident of course furnished a theme of conversation during the evening. Speculations respecting the Queen's sanity are very common in England.

LIEUT. SELDEN AND HIS SAILORS .- We have positive information, from a source in which we confide, that the sailors who were taken prisoners with Lieut. Selden, U. S. N., at Cedar Keys, Florida, when on their way to Key West in charge of prizes, have been brought North with the Florida regiment to which their captors belonged. On their way every effort was made to induce them to enlist in the Rebel service, put not a man of them could be seduced. The men told our in formant that Lieut. Selden, who is a Virginian, is a traitor, and lost the prizes purposely. He was free on parole; but the men were kept in strict confinement.
