AMUSING—To see a speaker on the stand, writing and frothing and puffing, because he "could not find words in his vocabulary to express his utter contempt and indignation of these Black Republicans." The next time there is a job of "Whitewashing" to be done, that chap had better be hooped, or he might burst.

Dr. C. R. EARLY.—This gentleman is one of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature. The Doctor was present on Monday evening at the "whitewashing" meeting, and proclaimed that he had "always been a Democrat." He should have added "especially when he was the leader of know-nothingism in his township in Elk county." Come Doctor, tell the whole story, next time.

WASTING POWDER.—The Breckinridge editors, in their last issue, seem to think that we have been "wasting powder" on them. Well, perhaps, we have. Having recently adopted the Irishman's plan of "hit the first head you see," we may have mistaken our men; and, instead of "hitting" large "Secession" game, have been so unfortunate as to pop over some of the smaller birds of that tribe.

ACCIDENT.—We learn, that on Wednesday last, James Irwin son of Joseph Irwin of Lawrence township, was severely injured whilst engaged in making timber. Mr. I. and another person were blocking up the stick on the hill-side, when it became unmanageable and rolled over Mr. I., who was on the lower side at the time. He had his collar-bone broken, besides receiving other severe injuries. He is, however, getting better, and it is hoped he will soon recover.

"Mr. Isaac Holsapple, of Paint tp., has left at our office a curiosity in the shape of a stalk of Timothy 5 feet 2 inches long. We challenge any county in the State to beat it."—Somerset Herald.

If our friend will refer to the Journal of July 31st, he will see that Jacob Hoover, of this county, left at our office a Timothy stalk that measured 6 feet 3 inches. Friend Ed, you will have to acknowledge the "Timothy" this time.

THE JUNTO.—The last Clearfield Republican speaks of the Junta that controls the Journal; which appears to be a stereotype phrase they have adopted to get out of a tight place, as they use Junta, trio, etc., on all occasions. Speaking of Junta's, reminds us of the ponderous six-shooter of the Clearfield Republican. According to "Madam Rumor," it is composed of two repeated editors, three legal assistants, and, perhaps, an Ex-Governor. This continual cry of Junta, trio, etc., sounds very much like the old "stop thief" cry; but whether it will avail the editors of the Breckinridge organ anything, dependeth saith not.

FIRE.—We are informed, that on Monday night the 26th August, the store house of L. W. Wolf, at Fallen Timber, Cambria county, was destroyed by fire, with all the contents—goods, books and papers. Mr. Wolf's loss will be heavy, as he had over nine thousand dollars of unsettled accounts on his books and the goods and house were worth some fifteen or eighteen hundred dollars. The fire occurred while all were away at Campmeeting, about 3 miles distant; and it is evident from certain circumstances, that the store was first robbed and then set on fire, by some unknown scoundrels. Mr. W. had no insurance on either the stock or building.

RUN OVER.—We regret to learn that our neighbor, Joseph Birchfield, was severely injured on Monday last; being run over by a wagon. It appears that himself and son were hauling boards, and as they were coming down a hill a short distance from town, the "break" gave away. Mr. B. ran the wagon on the bank on the side of the road for the purpose of stopping it. The wagon was near upsetting when he jumped but did not reach the top of the bank, and slid down between the wheels; one wheel passing over him at the hips. The wagon had 1000 feet of boards on at the time, and it is a wonder that Mr. B. was not more seriously hurt. He is getting better.

EXCEEDINGLY REFRESHING.—The last number of that delectable sheet, the Clearfield Republican, alluding to the disturbance of the celebration in Bradford township some days since, says, upon the authority of their "excellent friend Major V. B. Holt," that he left the stand to "preserve the peace," of the meeting. Mr. Swoope having indulged in a political harangue, contrary to the arrangements of the managers, which gave offence. Now we are assured, that Mr. Swoope did not say one word about politics, other than to urge it to be the duty of every man to sustain his government when in danger; and further that there was no disturbance or appearance of disturbance of the meeting, until the valiant Major left the stand, and gathered a squad of his followers around him in the woods, where they loudly denounced the Union sentiments of the speaker, and protested their determination to prevent Lieut. Merrell from getting any recruits on that ground, to fight in an "unholy war for the purpose of freeing the niggers." We are also assured that the Major's son at the late Camp Meeting—Sabbath before last, threatened to "clear the stand" because the preachers endeavored to impress upon the hearers the duty of maintaining the government. Verily "like father like son."

"By their fruits ye shall know them." If the editors of the "Clearfield Republican" and their "excellent friend" are not secessionists, their acts and teachings, with their legitimate consequences, most fully belie them.

WM. F. JOHNSON'S STATEMENT.

FRIND Row—I hope you will do me the justice to publish the following affidavit, and certificate as well as my comments in your next paper.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY ss. Personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace in and for said county Thomas Dougherty, who being sworn according to law, doth depose and say that he was present during a conversation had between Wm. F. Johnson of Penn tp., and R. B. Derrick and Wm. George on the 19th day of August A. D. 1861, wherein it is alleged that the said Wm. F. Johnson did severally offer the said R. B. Derrick and Wm. George Five dollars, "if they would not go to the rendezvous after they had enlisted in the service of their country."—An affidavit to that effect given by the said Derrick and George, before the Hon. Wm. L. Moore, the 20th day of August 1861, appearing in the "Raftsmans Journal" in its issue of the 21st August 1861. Now the said Dougherty, doth declare that the charges set forth in that affidavit are totally untrue, the said Johnson having made no such offer.

TROS. DOUGHERTY.
Sworn and subscribed before me this 24th day of Aug. A. D. 1861. D. S. MOORE, J. P.

CERTIFICATE.

"We the undersigned citizens of Penn. tp. are well acquainted with the character of Wm. F. Johnson, and verily believe, that the accusation made against him by R. B. Derrick and Wm. George in their affidavit, before the Hon. Wm. L. Moore, at Clearfield, on the 20th inst., to be unfounded in fact, and untrue."

I will here state that the foregoing certificate has been signed by the two Justices of the Peace of the township, and the Father of one of the young men, and—citizens of the township of Penn.

I therefore ask a suspension of public opinion in my case, in the charge made against me by R. B. Derrick and Wm. George in their affidavit. I am, however, unwilling to believe, that these young men have voluntarily committed this wrong against me, but that their act was the promptings of older and more malicious heads. Yours, Wm. F. JOHNSON.

In regard to the above affidavit we may say, that no intelligent man can regard it as sufficient to contradict the affidavit of young Derrick and George. The young men swore that Johnson had made them such an offer on the 19th day of August, but they did not say where it was made, nor did they say that Dougherty or any one else was present. Now, it may be true, that in the conversation had between the parties in the presence of Dougherty, no such offer was made; but it is impossible for Dougherty to say truly, that Johnson did not make such offer to the young men during that day, for they and Johnson might have had a dozen conversations at which Dougherty was not present, and which he did not hear. When, therefore, Dougherty swears that the charges, set forth in the affidavit of the young men "are totally untrue," he does a piece of wholesale swearing in regard to a fact that is not within the range of his observation or knowledge,—and by such an oath, Mr. Dougherty, instead of shaking the testimony of the young men, only injures his own credit.

In regard to the certificate, we hear that Mr. Johnson did get a number of persons, the father of one of the young men among the rest, to sign a paper, represented to be a certificate to Johnson's good character. The paper was signed by many without hesitation, for we believe Mr. Johnson bears a general good character as a citizen. We learn, however, that many of the signers since they have ascertained that the certificate contained an assertion—that the signers believe the affidavit of the young men to be untrue—are displeased about it and want their names taken off inasmuch as they had no idea of certifying to any such thing. Among the number who are dissatisfied, we understand, is the father of one of the young men alluded to. We cannot suppose, that he knew when he signed the paper, that he was giving a written certificate of belief that his son had sworn to a lie; or, in other words, perjured himself. And, we think, that but little respect would be due to the father who would knowingly give such a certificate to disgrace his son—especially, where the matter certified to was a mere opinion and not of certain knowledge.

We have a communication, replying further to the statement and evidence of Mr. Johnson; but we have not room for it. The best policy for Mr. Johnson is to drop the subject; for he will find the more he stirs it, the worse for him.

VALLENDIGHAM.—"A camp of Secessionists has been formed near Glasgow, Kentucky, and it is called 'Camp Vallendigham,'" in honor, as one of the men writes, of "the gallant and fearless defender of justice and liberty." Thus the traitors are getting rewards and honors from the rebels, who might be expected to reward and honor them. Vallendigham first receives this distinction, which is probably right, as he was first in order of the Northern traitors, if he was not first in character and talent."

Could not the Southern traitors call another of their camps, "Camp Moore," in honor of the chief Editor of the Clearfield Republican. He is of the same stripe as Vallendigham—has never said a hard word about the rebels, whilst he has abused "Abe Lincoln" and opposed the Government without mercy. Why then, should not the secessionists treat their friends alike? If Vallendigham is a more noted man than the Editor, still the thing might be managed—let them call some big camp after Vallendigham, and some little one after the Editor.

A POINTED REBUKE.—We call the attention of the editors of the Clearfield Republican, to the following paragraph from the Sandy Valley (Kentucky) Advocate. It is very pointed in its reference to those Northern men and newspapers who are devoting themselves to the interests of the rebels. It says:

"The most contemptible funkyness of which we have any knowledge, is found in the Northern men and newspapers who oppose the prosecution of the war for the preservation of the Union and the suppression of treason and rebellion. We hate a traitor from any quarter of the country, but we despise Northern men who profess to be for the Union, and oppose the war on Constitutional grounds. Such men are Vallendighams of Ohio, Ben Wood of New York, professing to be Union men, and yet its most dangerous enemies. They are horrified because Lincoln has violated the Constitution, yet Southern traitors have violated the same Constitution, and these men can only express sympathy for them! From such Union men may the Lord deliver us."

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

We, the undersigned Democrats, believing that the only way to gain an honorable peace, and to preserve the Union, is to utterly crush this wicked rebellion by the military and moral powers of the government—that it is the duty of all good citizens, without respect to party, in this hour of peril, to rally to the support of the government against the assaults of traitors, whether armed, or in our midst giving aid and comfort, and that any half-way policy or pretended scheme of compromise with the rebels at this time is only calculated to encourage rebellion, divide the Union, and disgrace us as a nation; And believing further, that the patriotic course of such Democrats as Hon. Joseph Holt of Kentucky, Hon. Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, Gen. Butler of Massachusetts, Gen. Dix and Daniel S. Dickinson of New York, and the late Stephen A. Douglas of Illinois, in giving their powerful aid to the present Administration in suppressing treason and rebellion, merits the approval and imitation of all true Democrats. We, therefore, utterly repudiate and spit upon a great portion of the platform laid down by the late Representatives of the Union held in the Borough of St. Mary's, Elk county, by a few of the leaders of our party—who in their zeal to destroy the Republican party would risk the destruction of this glorious government, and call upon the Democrats of Clearfield county who would not have fastened upon them and their party the odium of disloyalty and treason, and who agree in sentiment with us, to unite in taking measures to have persons to represent us in our Legislative assemblies who are in favor of maintaining their government, and the Union (no matter what party or person at the time being administers that government) at all hazards and at every sacrifice, and who are opposed to treating with armed rebels and traitors on any terms.

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time or trouble or expense, in procuring Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, whose beneficial effects upon the system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose cheeks are wan & meagre, and whose spirits are despondent and restless, whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them, as it were, from the mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have used it. When all other remedies fail, this Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere, see advertisement in another column.

The Latest News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.

GATLEY BRIDGE, Va., Aug 29.—The following are the particulars of the skirmish near Summitville, Col. Tyler had divided his regiment into two scouting parties. The Colonel had about 500 men under his command, and on the morning of the 26th, whilst they were at breakfast, were attacked on both flanks and in front, by a rebel force of 3000 infantry, 400 cavalry and 10 pieces of cannon. Our men formed for battle and fought bravely, cutting their way through the enemy with great slaughter. Our loss is fifteen killed and forty wounded, and a number of missing.

SEPTEMBER, a General Movement has struck a heavy blow at Secession in Missouri: He has proclaimed martial law. In his proclamation he says: "The object of this declaration is to place in the military authorities the power to give instantaneous effect to existing laws, and to supply such deficiencies as the conditions of war demand; but it is not intended to suspend the ordinary tribunals of the country, where the law will be administered by the civil officers in the usual manner and with their customary authority, while the same can be peaceably exercised." Martial law has been established, he says, "to protect the persons and property of loyal citizens. All persons who shall be proven to have destroyed, after the publication of this order, railroad tracks, bridges or telegraphs, shall suffer the extreme penalty of the law. All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands, or in these lines shall be tried by court martial, and if found guilty, will be shot. The property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken active part with their enemies in the field, is declared to be confiscated to the public use, and their slaves, if they have any, are hereby declared free.

Gen. Butler and Com. Stringham's expedition to the North Carolina Forts has resulted in a signal victory over the rebels. On the 28th the expedition arrived off Hatteras Inlet, where some 300 men were landed amidst a heavy surf. The men of war hauled in and commenced a heavy cannonade at 10.14 a. m. on the 28th and kept it up at intervals all day, recommencing on the 29th at 8.15 with increased effect. The enemy's reinforcements endeavored to land, and 1,000 to 1,500 men were driven back, and 11.30 they displayed a flag of truce and were forced to surrender at discretion. Our victory consists in the capture of two forts, 25 cannon, 1000 stand of arms, and 715 prisoners. The surrender was unconditional. Among the prizes is also a ship load of cotton prepared to run the blockade. It is rumored that a member of the rebel cabinet is among the prisoners. The loss on their side cannot be ascertained. The Federal forces did not lose a man. The Harriet Lane got ashore, but would soon be relieved. The footing obtained in North Carolina will be permanent, and the Wilmington will ultimately be taken in possession of, thus giving the rebels in Virginia a fire in the rear.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Manufacturers of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning praise. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million. The number of bottles amounting never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in these sections of the country where the article is so generally used. It not only relieves the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity obtained by any ordinary or deceptive way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a God-send to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the Bitters are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature. Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find a stimulant peculiarly adapted to counter declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gender sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in the extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period for maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to reanimate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. Caution.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa. and sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany. Agents—Geo. W. Rheem and C. D. Wata, a Clearfield; John Patton, Curwensville; Dr. Tyler, Haverhill; K. Arvid, Luthersburg. Oct 24, '60.
