FROST .- On last Monday morning we had a very heavy frost in this region. In fact, the air was quite winterish, and fires were one of the 'institutions' of the day-in the stoves we

THE TOWER .- The tower of the new Court House has again reached its intended elevation, under the untiring exertions and perseversnee of our friend George Thorn. From Its appearance, we presume, it will now stand without cracking, it having by its previous caper succeeded in cracking an extra thousand dollars out of the county treasury.

DEDICATION .- The new Methodist church at Pennville, was dedicated on Sabbath the 22d ult. Rev. T. A. Gotwalt preached the dedientory sermon at 11 A. M. In the afternoon, after a discourse on the nature and design of the Sacrament, the members of the different canrous present commemorated the love and sufferings of their blessed Lord. The edifice is frame, 33 by 42 feet, with a basement of 33 by 21 feet, and has two aisles fronting the street. The house is painted white. The entire cost of the building was $1,042; more than $200 of this sum had not been provided for. On the morning of the dedication the Paster was instructed by the Building Committee to report the house out of debt, as they would pay this balance. This was liberal; the committee having previously contributed gengive eighty dollars to furnish the church with matting, carpeting, &c., and they subscribed $160; the Curwensville friends contributing a very generous proportion.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- On last Wednesday evening, October 16th, Mr. Robert C. Shaw of Goshen township, met with an accident that proved fatal. He had borrowed a saddle from a neighbor, Mr. M. Tate, to ride to this place. On his way home in the evening Mr. S. concluded to leave the saddle at Mr. T's, and accordingly he dismounted and took it off. He then jumped on the horse bare backed; but before he gained an apright position, the spur which he had on struck the horse in the side and he started off at full speed along the road. At every jump the horse made the spur struck deeper into his side, which made him run in such a furious manner that Mr. S. could not gain an erect position, and was finally thrown to the ground with great violence. Mr. Tate ran along the road, and upon coming to where Mr. S. was lying, found him speechless. Mr. S. was conveyed to his home, where he died about forty hours after the occurrence-never having spoken again. He was about 55 years of age, and left a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely death.

UNION LEAGUE.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL." CAMP CROSSMAN, Oct. 12, 1861.

S. J. Row, Esq. - Dear Sir :- We are well and enjoying our soldiering. Last evening we put up some tents for another company, which will make the sixth in our regiment. Our Colonel (Murray) is going right ahead. Squads are coming in every day. We have received our Mankets, clothing, &c. Our full uniform s on hand and will be dealt out in a few days. We raised a splendid flag-staff. It was cut by the Clearfield boys, is 65 feet high and 8 inches in diameter at the butt end.

To-day was pleasant, and we enjoyed it as much as if we had been among the lofty Clearfield pines. We were all examined and passed as able-bodied men. In town they called us the pine knots from Clearfield county, but pronounced us a very civil set. Respectfully yours, P. A. Y. & J. S. J.

CAMP GROSSMAN, Oct. 14, 1861. Mr. Row .- This camp now numbers about 900 men in all, and is divided into three parts. Our part contains about 100 tents. I don't know how many are in the others. We received our blankets, knapsacks, haversaks, &c., and two shirts and a pair of shoes each. We put floors into our tents, so that we are comfortably situated. We pass much of our time in singing and dancing, and enjoy ourselves well. We are all well except Miller and Archy, who have been a little under the weather, but are now nearly well again.

We have had several little mishaps or scrapes in camp. On the 6th October, Samuel Cross had gone to the spring to wash. On his returning the guard made a pass at Cross with his gun, who jumped back and caught hold of the bayonet, which excited the guard. The guard jerked the musket out of Cross' hands and struck him three times in the face, cutting him considerable. The occurrence raised quite an excitement in camp for a little while, but it was soon over. Another occurred on the 13th in one of the other divisions of the camp. The officer had placed a guard, with load d muskets, around the camp, with orders to fire, after giving due warning, if any one should attempt to pass the guard without permission. One person made the attempt and after being ordered three times to halt, the guard fired, a buckshot taking effect below the knee. The wound was not severe and the man is getting well.

A number of us one day last week visited the warm spring. It is about twenty-five feet wide and some forty feet long. There is a large hotel there, and bath houses. We did not bathe, however, as they were not open at granaly. The congregation was then asked to the time. It is a very nice and pleasant place. We have had preaching in our camp on Sundays. The weather has been quite cool, and we have had some frost. We received the Raftsman's Journal which you sent, and we were glad to receive it, for it reminded us of home when we read the news | published rules. it contained. We thank you for your kind-

We are looking for Capt. Ogden and some more men. If the Clearfield boys knew how we enjoyed ourselves they would not hesitate long but would come along at once. I hope the Clearfield boys are patriotic enough to fill up our company without delay, as we would like to have our company made up from our own county. Yours truly, D. G. S.

CAMP CROSSMAN, OCT. 18, 1861. FRIEND Row :- As I have a little spare time I concluded to write you a few lines. Our camp is divided into three parts. Ours (Col. Murray's) contains between 400 and 500 men. The camp from 1500 to 1700. A company of 60 men arrived last evening, from Dauphin county, I think. I understand that Col. Murray's regiment is to fill up and be ready for service by the 15th November, and that he has orders to proceed to Kentucky then-the boys are all anxious to march. The weather has been quite pleasant-but had some rain during last night. There was a little fuss between two boys yesterday evening in camp, which resuited in one of them being knocked down with a stone-he was hurt some but is getting better. Our thanks are due to you for three copies of the "Journal;" which is a very welcome visitor to camp, and eagerly sought after by all the Clearfield boys. Yours, J.W.O.

CAMP JAMESON, NEAR FORT LYONS, VA., Остовек, 17, 1861.

S. J. Row Esq-Dear Sin: When I wrote you last, I think we were at "Camp Kalorama:" but since that time, we have somewhat chang-ed our situation. The present finds us in "Old Virginia," and the "wish I was in Dixie" has become a reality. We left "Kalorama," on Tuesday 12 m. Oct. 1st,-crossed "Long Bridge" and proceeded by way of Alexandria. When we arrived at that place, we halted about one hour, to obtain further orders as to place of destination. During our halt several of our number broke ranks, and paid a visit to the different Groceries, for the purpose of obtaining some of the luxuries of life of which they had for some time been deprived. In due time, orders were received and we proceeded to "Camp Franklin," which is situated about three miles West from Alexandria, and near "Fort Ellsworth." This Fort is a splendid structure, and in conjunction with other Forts in close proximity, entirely commands the surrounding country. The ground upon which Camp Franklin is situated, is said to the General upon his return will probably slightly disapprove of Uncle Sam's manner of cultivation. During our stay at that place, we buried one of our number, a man by the name of Sebastian Hogan, who resided at New Washington. We buried him with "military honors," and as the whole company marched with arms reversed to the place of burial, it was indeed a solemn sight. As we stood over the grave of our fellow Soldier, who had left home and friends to fight his countries enemies, but who had thus early fallen a vic: im to an over-powering disease, it brought forcibly to our minds the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death. Four days were passed, nothing occurring to vary the usual monotany. The same daily duties had to be performed, and at evening we retired to our couch, only to arise in the morning to go through with the same routine, but during the night of the 4th, some excitement, was caused by some person unknown endeavoring to poison the spring from which the Regiment obtained the water for its use. Some of the more timid began to think that the chances for returning home were against them. On the morning of the 5th, our guards arrested three suspicious looking individuals, who reported themselves as "Deserters from the the Southern army." They were immediately placed in the Guard House, where they remained for two days and were then taken to Washington. What disposition was made of them at that place, I know not. On Saturday the 12th, inst, at about 3 o'clock P. M. we again received orders to "march." So we immediatly struck tents, packed knapsacks, filled canteens, and went through with all the usual preliminaries consequent upon a "flitting," and were ready in a small space of time; but owing to the non-appearance of our bag-Gen. M Call, has advanced about 12 miles; P. M. when we started and arrived at our competition for butter, as above have agreed whole of the four days.

Fort Ellsworth and Fort Lyons on our waythe latter of which is not yet fully completed. Our present encompment is on a farm belonging to a man by the name of "Mason, said to be a relative of Senater Mason," We are three miles south of Alexandria. Since our arrival here, we have been engaged daily in "drilling," an exercise which at first seemed very pleasant, but after the "new is off" it beceived orders to place 40 rounds of cartridge into our boxes, and prepare ourselves to march at a moments notice. We begun to think that our time was close at hand; and when, in the evening, our ears were sainted by the roar of Artillery in a direction nearly for woolen carpet, $1,00. Mrs. Matthew Reed south from us, our anxiety was somewhat increased as to what disposition was to be made with us. But the climax was reached when in the night about 2 o'clock, orders came for us to march in "Double Quick." This, however, was soon superceeded by a request to wait until further orders-and we did wait, and are waiting yet-for "further orders" never came. To-morrow, some of our men are to be detailed for "picket duty." Our band will members in camp at present, and two more doable yarn stockings, Dip. Miss Amelia are expected soon. Some of the instruments Rynder for best tidy, 50c. Miss Florance are already here, and the rest will be brought from Washington this week. The leader is here; his name is Smith, and he resides in Indiana-said to be a good teacher. On last evening, the instruments here were put in requisition, and "Bonny Eloise," was magnificently performed. The members were sworn in to-day as musicians, having been into the service prior. All from the vicinity of Clearfield are well, and apparently like their mode of life. Most of them expressed a

The Latest News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.

Gen. Wyman dispersed a body of rebels at Lynn creek, Missouri-killing a large number and taking 200 prisoners. Gen. Fremont is at Warsaw, where he is building a pontoon bridge over the Osage river. He expects to overtake Price, who will have to fight or retreat. It is reported that Price has been reinforced by McCulloch, and that Price is fortifying Osceola.

Official intelligence states that two vessels of our fleet at New Orleans had run on a sand bar and were somewhat damaged by a rebel battery. No vessel was sunk, neither was one captured, as reported by the rebels.

The rebels are busy erecting batteries on the Potomac, and annoy our vessels much. Several hay, it having broke loose from the tug and drifted near the rebel batteries.

A portion of Gen. Stone's command made a reconnoisance to Leesburg, and are now in possession of Ward's Ferry. A rebel force of 4000 are in the neighborhood.

It is reported that the town of Humbelt, Kansas, has been burnt by the secessionists, and that the papers and records of the Land office were destroyed.

It is reported that Fremont is to be transferred to some other duty.

Latest advices from Missouri say that Price s retreating towards Arkansas, and that the Federal army meets with success in every engagement. Lexington was recaptured by Maj. White, who surprised the rebel garrison. A fight took place near Lebanon, in which 62 rebels were killed, and 18 wounded, and 36 taken prisoners. Our loss was 1 killed and 2
