RESIGNED .- Capt. J. O. Lorraine, has retired from his command as Captain of the "Washington Cadets," and, it is reported, will receive an appointment in the regular army. Success to him.

THE WEATHER .- Winter appears to be upon us in earnest. On Sunday and Menday last several inches of snow fell, but the roads being very muddy at the time was not available for sleighing or sledding.

THANKSGIVING .- Thursday (to-morrow) is the day appointed by the State Executive as a day of thanksgiving. Divine services will be held in the Lutheran Chur h in this place, at 11 o'clock, A. M. The public are requested to be present.

Now is THE TIME .- By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that our triend J. P. Kratzer is "going it on his own hook ;" and as he has just opened a large stock of fresh goods, it would be well for the public to give him a call.

Lost .- A Newfoundland dog eight or nine months old, black and curly, except white on the breast, a little white on the back of the neck, fore feet and tail tipped with white. Any one finding such a pup and returning him, or giving information of him to the subscriber shall be suitably rewarded. ALEX. M'LEOD.

ELECTED CAPTAIN .- We learn that Lieut. A. M. Smith was elected Captain by the "Washington Cadets" on the resignation of Capt. Lorraine; and that David McGaughey was promoted to the First Lieutenancy. We are glad of this, for we believe they deserved the compliment which has been bestowed upon them by their fellow soldiers. All praise to the Clearfield boys; and may they never fail to do their duty in behalf of their country's RECONNOISANCES .- A correspondent says that Professor Lowe made a balloon reconnoisance one night last week, and that he saw a large number of the enemies camp-fires about ffeen miles distant. This may be of much importance to the army on the Potomac; but the most important fact to the people of Clearfield county, at this season of the year is that Richard Mossop has just opened a cheap cash store, which he will sell at prices to suit the times. The public are requested to call early.

A CAMP A ROLLSHED. - Camp Crossman, near Huntingdon, the headquarters of Gen. James' Mountain Brigade, has been abolished. The Huntingdon Journal says that last week an order was received from the Secretary of War, by Col. Murray, ordering him to fill out his regiment from the troops at Camp Crossman, and the balance of the troops remaining after his regiment has been completed to be forwarded immediately to Harrisburg. The Journal adds that the troops were in high spirits over the welcome news, having become completely tired out with their protracted stay at that place.

THE "WILD CAT" REGION .- A noticeable fact, in the grand review on Thursday last, was that Col. Biddle's "Bucktail" Regiment and Col. Simmon's 5th Penn'a Regiment, had the right of the column. The Curwensville company, commanded by Capt. E. A. Irvin belongs to the former, and the Clearfield company, now commanded by Capt. A. M. Smith, is attached to the latter regiment. They are two of the oldest volunteer regiments in the State, and are said to be equal in drill to any of the regulars. This speaks well for Clearfield county, and her citizens should feel proud of her brave 'boys" that are now in the service of our beloved country.

THE ASSEMBLY TICKET .- On Friday evening the 15th, the return judges from the several counties in this Representative district, met at Ridgway, and made up the vote cast at the recent election, as follows:

No returns were received from Gibson town ship, Cameron county, which was reported at 12 majority for McEnally and Wilcox; nor from Captain Gifford's company from the same county, which, it was reported had given Mc-Enally and Wilcox 50 majority each. If these reported majorities are correct, (which could not be added, however, for want of proper return,) it would reduce Early's majority to 73, and Zeigler's to 166.

GRAIN CROP OF OHIO .- The total wheat crop of Ohio, for the past year is 23,640, 356 bushels an increase of 10,294,512 over the previous year. The corn crop for the same time is 91,588,704 bushels, an increase of 22,291;361 over the previous year.

FORT WARREN .-- Twenty-five rebels captured on Santa Rosa Island during the attack on Col. Wilson's camp have arrived at Fort

SENT WEST .- Some 400 seamen, stationed at Fort Ellsworth, and 200 marines have left Washington for Cairo, to man the gunboats

Explosion .- Dupont's powder mills at Wilmington, Delaware, exploded on the 20th instant, killing three men employed in the

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL." CAMP PIERPONT Nov. 21, 1861.

FRIEND Row :- I thought I would write you few lines relative to the grand review It was a scene long to be remembered by thousands. Never before, in this country, has such a large body of armed men been reviewed, as that which took place yesterday on the "sacred" soil of Virginia. At an early hour all the bridges over the Potomac were crowd ed with all kinds of vehicles containing persons, whilst many thousands were on foot and on horseback. At the bridges the scene was quite amusing betimes. The crowd was so great that every one was anxious to get across first, and they jostled each other about in such a way as, at times, to create much meriment. As the hour for the review approached, and it was getting too late for the pedestrians to reach the ground, they turned away with three hours for an opportunity to cross over the bridge. An immense shout went up as Gen. McClellan, the President, and Sec's Cameron and Seward arrived. The troops rehaving with them about one hundred guns. Yours truly,

The Latest News.

LIEUT. JOHN H. RUSSELL .- It will be remem bered that Lieutenant Russell, in one of the most gallant exploits of the present war, left his slip and went to the Pensacola navy yard, where there were 1,800 to 2,000 men, and under the guns of the rebels set fire to the schooner Joseph, with a battery of five guns, spiked a columbiad on the wharf, and returned to his ship. He was promoted in consequence to the command of one of the new gunboats.

A READING ARMY .- The number of newspapers sold daily in the army here is incredible. You may deprive the Northern boys of their dinner or of half their ration, and no complaint will be made; ask him to march all day, and sleep in the open air at night, and he will cheerfully do it; but you cannot deprive him of his newspaper if it is a possible thing to posted on the events of the day.

AT HATTERAS .- The Forty-eighth Pennsylvania regiment, Col. Nagle, from Schuylkill county, are now at Hatteras, and will be stationed at Fort Clark, which the Twentieth Indiana recently occupied. Since the storm, Fort Clark has been cut entirely off from Fort Hatteras by a new inlet which the waters made through the island. It is thought that, in case another storm as severe as the one of the 2d inst. should visit the coast, Fort Hatteras would unless it is strengthened, be washed away, as there is now nothing left between the sea and thh fort. The inhabitants say that such storms come only once in eight or ten years, and that we shall not be visited by a large and-well selected stock of goods at his like deluge on this tide of the coast for many years to come.

FROM MISSOURI .- The old terror has again settled down upon the counties of the Southwest of this State, since the retrograde movement of the Federal army. Refugees are begining to arrive at Jefferson city and other northern towns, who flee from their homes from fear of Price's rebels, who are on their way north. Three thousand of Price's cavalry have advanced as far as Sarcoxie; and foraging parties follow up the track of our receding army, plundering the Union men and renewing with impunity, every species of outrage. One train of emigrant wagons, a mile long, containing Union refugees, were on their way, and many others are following. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 .- The Richmond Whig in commenting on the message of Davis, says : We are two people from this time forward. We are aware that the Yankees are determined not to quit us, happen what may. If they cannot conquer us their calculation is that they will be conquered by us, and they have made up their minds to submit tamely to their fate. Well, if we must, we must, though we shall have a great aversion to the task. Our choice is, that after drubbing them soundly and making them pay the expense of the war, to turn them loose upon themselves, a prey to their own vile passions." CAPTURE OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA SECESSION ORDINANCE .- Major Pangborn states that Com. Dupont sent home, and that the Navy Department is now in possession of, the original South Carolina ordinance of secession, beautifully engrossed upon parchment, with the autographs of the South Carolina seceders, headed by Gen. Jameson. The photographs of all the members were also found at Beaufort with the ordinance, and a large number of other important documents, which will seriously interfere with South Carolina's prospects for an unmitigated sovereignty. PRISONERS AT FORT WARREN .- The whole number of persons at Fort Warren, including garrison and prisoners, is now about twelve hundred. To feed these, fourteen hundred loves of fresh bread are sent down daily. The men are fed on alternate days with fresh and salt rations. Once in two days over fourteen hundred and fifty pounds of fresh beef are provided. The regular army rations are furnished to the garrison and prisoners alike. The political prisoners receive their rations with the rest, but can purchase other provisons if they desire a change.

Noteworthy .- On Thursday, at the review Gen. McClellan gave the Cabinet and his staff a regular "steeple chase." He is one of the best horsemen in the country and mounted, as he was, on a superb charger, he outstripped them all. The only two who kept up with him were President Lincolin and Secretary Cameron, Secretary Seward came in third best. His horse seemed religiously opposed to jumping ravines. It is said that one officer remarked that "Mr. Seward was not riding his

NORTH CAROLINA .- The Government have well-authenticated assurances, from North Carolina, that the Union sentiment is daily increasing and gaining strength in that State. The inhabitants, generally, are freely asserting that they have been deceived by the leaders of the rebellion, and are anxious to have the burdens, imposed by Secession, removed, and the authority of the Federal Government recog| nized and enforced. North Carolina will, in all probability, be represented, before many weeks, in the United States Congress.

Gov. Pierpont's Jurisdiction .- The jurisdiction of Gov. Pierpont now extends over nearly all of Virginia west of the mountains, the northern part as far east as Hampshire county, which it includes, all of Alexandria, and a considerable portion of Fairfax county, the region about Fortress Monroe and Newport News, and Accomac and Northampton counties on the castern-shore-comprising nearly half of the State. .

NORTHERN FARMERS IN EASTERN VIRGINIA -A very general feeling has been manifested among young and enterprising men in our sad countenances, after having waited two or army in Virginia to make that State their future place of residence as soon as the rebellion is settled. They have been accustomed to labor on farms in more northern latitudes, and viewed numbered about 70,000; the artillery | see here a very inviting prospect in the rewards sure to accrue from industry and welldirected agricultural enterprise.

PRICE.-It is reported that Gen. Price (rebel) is moving towards his old camp at Neosho, Missouri. About 4,000 of his army under Harris were on the Kansas line directly west of Carthage, with evident intention of ravaging the southern counties. It is also said that Gen. Lane was in that vicinity with about 3,000 infantry, and that it is not improbable that an engagement will take place between Lane and Harris.

Kansas .- Col. Burchard and twenty-four men of Jamison's brigade, attacked Capt. Hays with 150 rebels, at the latter place of residence near Karsas city, and succeeded in driving them away burning the bonses of Hays and a man named Gregg, both of whom are Captains in the rebel army. Col. Burchard and Lieut. Bostwick were slightly wounded. The rebels had 5 men killed and 8 wounded.

A REBEL DESERTER .- A rebel deserter from one of the enemy's reconnoitering parties obtain it. They all read and keep themselves came into our camp. He reports that the rebels have an abundance of all provisions except groceries. When the news of the landing of our fleet on the coast of South Carolina reached the encampments in Manassas Gap the South Carolina troops were wild, and wanted to be sent home at once.

A PRISONER .- Among the passengers by the Baltic is Darragh, a member of the 9th South Carolina regiment who was found in Fort Beauregard. He took the oath of allegiance and intends to turn his attention to farming in the North. He states that he was five months in the rebel service, and complains bitterly of the treatment and food received by the soldiers of Jeff. Davis.

MISSOURI REBEL LEGISLATURE.-The rebel State Legislature assembled at Neosho and passed an ordinance of Secession, united the State with the Southern Confederacy, and elected Gen. Rains one of the Senators to the Rebel Congress. It was thought Gen. Parsons would be the other Senator. Gen. Frost will probably take Gen. Rains place in the TENTS .- A tent, invented by Gen. Morgan of Ohio, has been brought to the attention of the Government. Its chief sanitary excellencies are the arrangement for ventilation and elevating the beds from contact with the ground. Nothing more complete or desirable in the way of sheltering an army in the field has yet been prescribed.

UNPAID LETTERS .- Fifteen thousand letters have reached New York from Beaufort on which the Postage was not paid-no post office being there. The Postmaster General ordered them forwarded to their destination, marked "Due 3 cents;" and has established a post office at Port Royal. Letters will be sent by way of New York.

RECONNOITERING JAMES RIVER .- On Friday night last the gunboat Cambridge proceeded up James River as far as Warwick and engaged a rebel battery. No particulars transpired further than that the rebel battery replied with spirit, but was finally silenced. The boat was struck with one shot.

CHANGE OF NAME .- In an order of Gen. Sherman, dated Hilton Head, Nov. 15th, contains the following: "The Fort on Hilton Head will be known as "Fort Welles," and the one on Bay Point, heretofore called Fort Beauregard, will be known as "Fort Seward."

PRISONERS AT THE SOUTH .- Permission has been granted, by the Rebel authorities, to the Government to forward clothing to the prisoners held in the South; and accordingly, the Quartermaster General has been requested to forward such articles as may be needed.

ITEM .- There is every indication that an important movement by our army is about to take place; and the remark made on the review ground by one of our Generals, that the "next review of our troops will take place in Richmond," may mean something.

HON. CHARLES ANDERSON .- This gentleman, who is a brother of the gallant Gen. Anderson of Fort Sumter fame, is now a prisoner in the South for having expressed Union sentiments. He was arrested and confined by the rebels while making his way North.

PRINCE DE JOINVILLE.-This experienced soldier is in raptures over the grand review, alleging that he never saw anything compared with it in the old world, when the regularity, promptitude, and harmony of the movements are taken into consideration. THE ARMY .- It has been officially ascertained that the Government has now in the field and in camp, and in process of formation, 600.000 volunteers; and the enlistments for the regular army are more numerous than

A MURDERER ARRESTED .- The principal in the recent murder of Col. Van Gerber, was arrested at Washington on Friday last. The evidence against him, is said to be very clear. THE REBEL BLOCKADE. - Quite a number of vessels run the rebel blockade of the Potomac, almost daily. Another new battery has been erected far above the others. Indians .- It is reported that there is a camp of 600 Cherokee Indians in McGee county, AMUSING REPLY .- A son of Old Neptune enlisted in the Fifth Rhode Island Battery. He was picked out as one of the riders, and not long since his horse unseated him. The commanding officer came up and reprimanded him, and asked him sternly if he did not know how to ride? He unhesitatingly said "No." "What did you then enlist for?" asked the Captain. To which the sailor promptly replied, "to shoot secessionists, not to break coits." The reply so amused the officer that he road off smiling.

BIG-FOOTED CHIVALRY .- In the directions given the females of Secessia for knitting socks for the rebel soldiers, they are told that "they should be at least eleven or twelve inches long." For the "Chivalry," one of the proudest of whose badges is the delicacy of their understanding, this might be profanely styled a big thing on foot. Ex pede Herculem is an old phrase, whose modern form is likely to be ex pede Secesh-you may know a rebel Commodore Tatnall, who command the rebel naval forces at Port Royal, is said to be the owner of a large and valuable real estate at Sackett's Harbor. This property has been libelled by the United States District Attorney, and a motion for condemnation made in the United States Court at Buffalo, N. Y. The furniture of his house alone is valued at $15,-000, and that, together with the entire estate. will, no doubt, be confiscated.

RATTLESNAKE WAKING .- The Norfolk Day Book has the following advertisement :- "Attention Rattlesnakes !- Charge with fell poison, and be prepared to strike. We find many subjects in this town who must receive the force of our venom. Call early at the hole, and hear the big snake. Little snakes keep your eyes open, and bring the list of those unfriendly to our holy cause. By order of the Big Rattle."

Large Farms .- A California correspondent of the American Stock Journal, gives an account of several of the largest farms in Los Angelos county-among them that of Don Abel Stearns, who ownes twelve ranches, that comprise 230,815 acres, upon which he has 18,-000 head of cattle, and 3,000 horses. Fortythree others are mentioned in the same county who have farms ranging from 4,000 to 60,000

Judge Ochiltree, of Texas, in an address at Jefferson, Cass county, recently stated that there were now in the field in active service, armed and equipped, 245,000 Southern troops, and that there were 54,000 more in camps of instructions in the eleven seceded States, ready for action. This completes an army of 299,000 men.

The Stars and Stripes now wave in six of the eceeded States, to wit : In North Carolina, over Fort Hatteras; in South Carolina, at Beautort ; in Florida, at Key West, and Fort Pickens; in Mississippi, at Ship Island; in Eastern Tennessee and in the northern and western sections of Virginia.

During the first 10 months of this year there enormeus quantity of tweny-six millions of cheese. Two millions of pounds of butter were exported in 1859. The first ten months of this year fifteen millions of pounds have been exported.
