THANKSGIVING .- Thanksgiving day was ob served by most of our citizens. Divine services were had in several of the churches.

WINTER .- During the last week the weather has been quite like winter, in this region. Several inches of snow fell, and the earth now wears its accustomed white mantle, and the streams will soon be confined in their channels by the icy bands of Boreas.

A PRESENT .- Miss Emma Barclay will please accept our thanks for a number of very fine apples, sent us on last Thanksgiving day. May she be so fortunate as to have "some of the sort" on each returning thanksgiving dayand we the recipients of a present.

Lost .- A Newfoundland dog eight or nine months old, black and curly, except white on the breast, a little white on the back of the neck, fore feet and tail tipped with white. Any one finding such a pup and returning him, or giving information of him to the subscriber shall be suitably rewarded. ALEX. M'LEOD.

Jorous .- The few inches of snow, has made the juvenile portion of our town quite jubilant; and, no doubt, "old winter" is a more welcome visitor to them than any other season of the year, for with it always come the skates, the sled, and other sports, so much admired and enjoyed by children. But while they enjoy these sports, they should remember that these privileges are granted to them by a good and a merciful God.

PENSACOLA NAVY-YARD BURNED .- By re cent news from the south, we learn that Captain Brown, who is in command of Fort Pickens, has succeeded in burning the Pensacola Navy-yard, by throwing hot shot into it from the Fort. The distance is about 6 miles, and must have taken some sharp shooting to accomplish its destruction. This is considerable of a loss to the United States Government; but at the same time it may prove of much greater inconvenience to the rebels who have no navy. Be this as it may, important or not important to the government, the Navy yard has been destroyed. But the most important news which we have to communicate to the people of this county at the present is, that Richard Mossop has just opened a large stock of goods at his cheap cash store; which, we are told he is selling exceeding low for cash. All who are interested in this fact. should call and make the proper inquiry without delay.

INTERCOURSE AT THE TABLE .- To meet at the breakfast table father, mother, children, all well, ought to be a happiness to any heart; it should be a source of humble gratitude, and, should wake up the warmest feelings of our nature. Shame on the contemptible and low bed cur, whether parent or child, that can never come to the breakfast table, where the family have met in health, only to frown and whine, and growl, and tret. It is prima facie evidence of a mean, and grovelling, and selfish, and degraded nature, whencesoever the churl may have sprung. Nor is it less reprebensible to make such exhibitions at the tea-Noble; for before the morning comes, some of the circle may be stricken by some deadly disease, to gather round that table not again forever. Children in good health, if left to themselves at the table, become, after a few monthefuls, gurrulous and noisy, but if within at all bearable bounds it is better to let them alone, they eat less, because they do not eat so rapidly as if compelled to keep silent, while the very exhiliration of spirits quickens the circulation of the vital fluids, and energizes digestion and assimulation. The extremes of society curiously meet in this regard. The tables of the rich and the nobles of England are models of mirth, wit and bonhommie; it takes hours to get through a repast, and they live long. If anybody will look in upon the negroes of a well-to-do family in Kentucky while at their meals, they cannot but be impressed with the perfect abandon of jabber, cachination and mirth; it seems as if they could talk all day, and they live long. It follows then, that at the family table all should meet, and do it habitually, to make a common interchange of high-bred courtesies, of warm affections, of cheering mirthfulness, and that generosity of nature which lifts us above the brutes which perish, promotive of these things are of good digestion, high health and long life.

None but a physician knows how much a where there are multitudes that suffer from complaints that nothing but an alterative cures. and put abroad with the assurance of being effectual. But they fail to accomplish the cures they promise because they have not the intrinsic virtnes they claim. In this state of the case, Dr. J. C. Its peculiar difference from other kindred preparations in market is that sicians in this neighborhood and have the further evidence of our own experience of its the passengers, with secession. truth.-Tennessee Farmer, Nashville, Tenn.

CHARLES WILKES .- Captain Wilkes, who has become famous as the capturer of the two Slidell, is thus described : He looks the picture of a fine, grand old plucky naval officer. Six but not too trim in their fit, he walks and looks as an admiral, not so young and dashing as we picture Nelson, not so gray and one legged as the old Ben-Bow sort of retired English sea-captains, but half way between the two, just as an American admiral and a gentleman should look.

The Latest News.

THE STATE OF FEELING .- There is evidently pervading in all branches of the Government a far more hopeful fee,ing concerning the speedy termination and successful result of the present conflict than heretofore. It reference to the British press, it is believed that it will be as earnest as our own in discussing the circumstances of the arrest of Mason and Slidell, but no apprehensions are entertained that the question will be productive of serious embarrassment to the two countries.

A SCHOONER CAPTUNED .-- The British Schooner Mabel has been taken into Port Royal. She purported to be from Havana to New York, but was heading for St. Charles sound when captured. She will be sent to Philadelphia for adjudication. Her carge consisted of 7 bales of blankets, 4 cases of cloth, 3 boxes of starch, 25 boxes tin, 120 bags of coffee, 20 barrels of potatoes, 350 pigs of arrow root, one case of pistol revolvers,2 cases cavalry swords and two cases of stores.

EAST TENNESSEE .- The Richmond Dispatch says, (among other good things,) that there is "a"band of three thousand maranders in the mountains of east Tennessee, under Parson Brownlow and Major Gilham, who are doing more mischief than the Yankees in Kentucky, but they will have to be stopped in their treasonable movements, and we think they will be, as Gen. Lovell is after them with the Home Guards of Memphis and Knoxville." Good for the Parson.

New Mexico .- The call of the Government of New-Mexico for 12,000 militia men to garrison the different posts in the Territory bas been promptly responded to. The whole number will in a short time be reported for duty. At Santa Fe the merchants have resolved to endorse for the Government to any amount that may be advanced to the territory. A light battery, commanded by Lieut. Anderson, U. S. army, left Santa Fe for the South.

JAMES RIVER .-- The steamer Cambridge went up James river within sight of Cabin Point; but saw no rebel batteries. She also ran up the Warwick river about two miles where Gen. Mansfield found a rebel regiment encamped. A few shells from the Cambridge, however, caused them to decamp in "double quick." The rebels appear to be scared at the great influx of troops and vessels in the vicinity of Fortress Monroe.

REBEL CONGRESSMEN. - The rebel "rump' legislature of Missouri met at Neosho, but not having a quorum of members present, they ade up the number by appointing proxies, after which they elected J. B. Clark and R. L. Y. Heyton, Senators to the rebel Congress. This is the first time in the history of this country that a legislative body has transacted business by proxy. Surely rebellion is a great "insti-

A RECONNOISANCE .- Col. Bayard, with 700 men of 1st Penn'a Cavalry reserve, made a reconnoisance to Drainesville, and succeeded in capturing eleven rebels, having killed two and wounded one of the enemy. Two of the prisoners are cavalry with their horses, arms and equipments. Col. Bayard and two others were slightly wounded.

THE EASTERN SHORE. - Several rebel officers were captured by our troops in Accomac and Northampton counties, Va. All traces of disloyalty seems to have disappeared. The people will adopt the State government for Western Virginia as a temporary measure, with a land in the future.

GEN. Cass .- This gentleman has written a communication to the Detroit Free Press, in which he justifies the arrest of Mason and Slidell, and shows that it was in strict accordance with the position of government upon the right of search question as maintained in the correspondence with the British Govern-

A SLAVE REGIMENT .- The National Republican, printed in Washington, has advices from Winchester, Virginia, that the rebel General Jackson commands a regiment of slaves, who to fight, is rather a "black" speck in the bistory of the rebellion.

Town Burnen .- The principal portion of the town of Warsaw, Missouri, was destroyed by fire on the 21st. Some of the Government stores, for which there was no transportation at hand, were also destroyed. The fire is said | ite Base to be well acquainted with the moral reto be the work of incendiary Secessionists.

Congress assembled on Monday. A quorum of both Houses were present. In the House a resolution was passed, expelling J. W. Ried, a member from Missouri, for having taken up arms against the United States. The House passed a vote of thanks to Capt. Wilkes for his arrest of the traitors Mason and Slidell. The rebels having confined Col. Corcoran as a convicted felon, the House requested the President to similarly confine J. M. Masonalso, to similarly confine John Slidell as a hostage for Col. A. M. Wood of the 14th N. Y., who is confined in a felon's prison in the South. The President's Message was to be delivered at one o'clock on Tuesday.

A report has been circulated that the rebel steamer Nashville had captured the mail steamer Arago, on which Gen Scott had taken passage for Europe. This is doubtful, as the Arago carries 4 rifled cannon of long range, besides a large number of small arms, and can be defended by a crew of 100 men.

It is reported that Col. Kerrigan, of late the 25th N. Y. regiment, has been tried by a court martial for treason and sentenced to be shot, and that his death warrant has been signed by the President. Kerrigan is a member of Congress from New York city.

The Secretary of the Navy approves of the Capture of the rebel commissioners by Capt. Wilkes, and says he might have captured the vessel bearing them.

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE-NEW VOLUME NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the THE DAI-LY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy. As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before known-a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their ef forts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usarpation, deception, terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emer-

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, how-ever, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to 'make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.
