THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, DEC. 25, 1861.

The factory for making knit goods including shirt, drawers, hosiery, &c., at Seneca Falls, N. Y., employs 4,000 laborers-men, women, girls and boys,-and cannot supply the demand.

Prentice says if any feller, because you are for your Country's flag, calls you an abolitionist tell him he is a liar. If he repeats the offence, knock him down. That's the higher law-Tom Hyer law.

Somebody having expressed the opinion that there is a knotty question involved in the Mason and Slidell case, the Cincinnati Gazette replies :- "The only knot we can see in it is the hangman's."

A town named Buchanan, in La Crosse county, Wisconsin, recently petitioned to have its name changed to Washington, on account of the disgrace attached to the name of Buchanan, and their petition was unanimously granted.

A schoolmaster asked one of his boys on a cold winter morning, what was the Latin word ter said-"What, sirrah, can't you tell ?" "Yes, sir," said the boy, "I have it at my fin-gers ends."

The following notice was found pasted on the bulletin of a western post office, up Nick Whiffles' way. "Lost-a red kaf. He had a wite spot on 1 of his legs. He was a she kaf. I will give thre dolers to everybudi wut will bring hym hum."

The Louisville Journal, since Mr. Prentice has returned, is as rampant as over. It gives evident tokens that it will rule or ruin. But If it cannot have its own way in the Union, it will join the rebels. Its course is perilous, and leads to ruin.

An old lady was in the habit of teaching her grand children in this wise : "My dears, when I and your father and mother have finished our meals ; when you have eaten all you conveniently can ; and when you have fed the three cats and the parrot-then my dear children, remember the poor."

A twenty-five cent subscription was got up to pay the funeral expenses of a certain lawyer who had died poor. A certain wag of an editor was applied to, to contribute his mite. "What !" he said, "do you require only twenty-five cents to bury a lawyer—there is a dollar bill—bury me four of them."

Blessed is he who has nothing for he shall not loose it. A poor Frenchman, when his wife aroused him from his sleep with the cry, "Get up, Baptiste, there is a robber in the house," answered sensibly : "Don't let (us molest him. Let him explore the house, and if he should find anything of value, we will take it from him !"

Not long since, a gentleman took his little daughter to a dentist to have a tooth extracted. After the operation her father said to her,

Two turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke ont on my head and covered in scale and cars with one sore, which was paintin and the store beyond description. I tried many medicines and set a physicians, but without much relief from any this of the fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was repeated to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had proposed an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I have from your repeat-tion that any thing you made must be goed. I set to Cheinnati and got if, and used it till it curst me. I have it, as you advise, in small does of a tonspoonful deg-menth, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my can well believe that I feel what I am saving when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully. VEW-YORK TRIBUNE-NEW VOLUME 1 On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the THE DAI-LY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has la-bored in what its conductors have feit to be the cause of Humanity. Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed ; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it stendfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy. As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before known-a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many-a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their ef forts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation.deception. terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops. Markets, &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the do-main of Action but in that of Opinion alse. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to ' make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continu ance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the com-plaints for which it is recommended, and have found and effects truly wonderful in the cure of Tonereal and Mermeres and Vestings, in great variety. Buffalo Robes of all sizes and prices, and plants for which it is recommended, and there reads for effects truly wonderful in the entre of Universidal Mer-curial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic news in his throat, which were consuming his pulses and the top of his month. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily blan, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by se-ondary symptoms in his mose, and the elecation had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that 1 belies the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill blan. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers headed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by macury was a firm from this poison in her bones. They had become as sub-sitive to the weather that on a damp day she sufficient ex-curicialing pain in her joints and bones. She to, was cured entirely by your Sarsapasilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your haboratory must be a post remarking real from the results with a transition for a sub-remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1655 DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a palo ful chronic Rheumatium for a long time, which batwed do skill of physicians, and stack to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sanavarilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than being I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, whites: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver the destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every the failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down as for some years from no other cause than decanected a the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, while me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he sold be hnew to and any thing you made was worth trying. By the later ing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my like as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. Th best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below assued are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgin

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It silan-lates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed Lerard as reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the ne-cessities of the people, and we are confident that the util
