NEW-YORK TRIBUNE—NEW VOLUME-On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the THE DAI-LY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy. As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before known-a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many-a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their ef forts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emer-

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c.. which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the do-main of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to 'make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continu ance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have sometimes from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it loans out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stemach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my soalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsons beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejeited to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sansaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I look it, as you advise, in small doses of a tenspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

Channing, of New York City, writes: In most cheerfully comply with the request of your spout in saying I have found your Sarvaparilin a most extellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Proceed of the Scrofulous distinction. I have cured many investment cases of Leucorrhoea by it, and some where the complaint was consulted in the respectation of the uterns. The ulass ate cases of Leucorrhoes by it, and some where the com-plaint was caused by ulceration of the ulerns. The ules ation itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowl-edge equals it for these female derangements." Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dan-gerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sar-saparilla. Our physician thought nothing but estirpa-tion could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remody eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains." Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects

I have realized with your Saraparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Because I have the complaints of the complete of the curiol Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic sleess in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the alceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and bill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcera healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become as secured to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, we cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable resolus with it have not surprised me.

with it have not surprised me.
Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1639.
DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicino. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes; "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liner, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the bless-ing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I kel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Carles and Exfoliation of the Bones. A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almsnac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It seeme lates the vital functions into vigorous action, and these overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoar croup, Bronehitis, Incipient sumption, and for the Kill of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. as they know, too, the effects of the throat and icacs, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need had do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
