ACKNOWLEEGMENT .- We are indebted to Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, for several favors, for which he will please accept our thanks.

Making Tea .- Water for making tea should be used the moment it boils. The reason assigned is that, if it is boiled for some time, all the gas that is in it escapes with the steam, and it will not then make tea of the best flavor. Clear, pure, soft water is best.

AT HOME .- John Brink, who was wounded at the battle of Drainesville, arrived in this place last evening, on his way to visit his friends in Pike township. He is getting well as fast as could be expected, and hopes to rejoin his company at an early day.

Accident.-We incidentally learn, that a son of Thomas G. Snyder of Morris township, right lobe of the lungs. The wound is a rather serious one, but at last accounts he was getting better.

PITTSBURG DISPATCH .- Our old friend R. C. Fleeson, has been sending us the "Pittsburg Daily Dispatch," for some time past, for which | remote to be worth a moments reflection. favor he will please accept our thanks. By the way, the Dispatch is quite a spicy little Daily, and deserves a liberal support from the reading public.

Norice.-Joseph Peters gives notice to the people of this county, that he will deliver No. I burning oil, from the oil region, at Curwensville or Clearfield at 45 cents, cash, per gallon. by the barrel of 40 gallons-to be delivered during sleding. Cash to be paid on delivery. Send your orders immediately, to Joseph Peters, Franklin, Venango county, Pa.

A BUCKTAIL CAPTAIN ABOUT .- Capt. E. A. frvin has been visiting his numerous friends at Curwensville, and this place, during the past week. The Captain has the appearance of a true soldier; he enjoys better health than previous to his entering the army, has never been sick a day since he left home, and is now as anxious as ever to lead his men to victory. he may arrive safe. Our best wishes attend him and the rest of the Clearfield boys.

SECOND PENNSYLVANIA CAVALRY REGIMENT. -This is said to be a fine body of men-tully equipped and ready for active service. It is with pleasure that we state that Lieut. Thos. G. Snyder, of this county, has been appointed Quartermaster of the Regiment. Tom is a clever, jovial fellow-possessed of good business tact, and we have no doubt will make a most excellent Quartermaster. The regiment is at present on the point, at the junction of the Delaware and Schuylkill rivers, below Philadelphia. We wish them success.

FATAL Accident .- On Saturday, February 1st, a small child of Jacob Cole's, of Curwensville, met with an accident that proved fatal. We learn, that a bucket of hot water, for the purpose of doing some scrubbing, had been placed on the floor-the child was running after Mrs. C. holding to her dress-and, as the two passed the bucket of hot water, the child released its hold on its mother's dress, and fell backwards into the bucket, upsetting the water and scalding itself so severely that it died on the following afternoon.

SALT FOR THE THROAT .- We elip the folwill do well to recollect, as it may be beneficial to them : "In these days, when diseases of the throat are so prevalent, and in so many cases fatal, the use of common salt is recom- twelve or fifteen miles from Alexandria. mended as an effectual remedy. We commenced by using it three times a day-mornwe gargled the throat most thoroughly before meal time. The result has been that, during the usual coughs and colds to which, so far factory result entirely to the salt gargle."

THE 84th PA. REGIMENT. - We have received engthy), from members of company K, 84th Penn'a Regiment, in reference to C. E. L.'s account of the fight at Bath. The last one is from D. G., in which he says, the 84th fired from 500 to 1000 shots-that they did not ross at Sir John's Run, but at Hancock-that the 84th lost none of their baggage, etc.—and langer of being flanked by the enemy. We hope this statement will prove satisfaclory to our friends of the 84th, and particularcompany K. And now one word to those friends: Quite a number promised to write to is. Have they done so? We will gladly and gives the facts. Don't wait until some one else writes, and then complain that justice to attention to anonymous letters. By observing these suggestions you will save us some trouble, and yourselves much annoyance. Lancers, also from Penna.

ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR DEFEAT .- The Rich-War Department. It appears that our defeat counts had led us to believe."

I would not wish to be understood as endeavoring to convey the idea, that the camp life of the soldier, of all others, was the most irksome and uninviting. Washington, D. C., Jan. 31, 1862. EDITOR JOURNAL .- DEAR SIR: As your readrs have a special interest in several of the regiments in this locality, I will give you i few facts in relation to things as they now are here, and the position of the regiments in which Clearfield county is represented.

The Bucktails, (under their new Col., Mc-Neal.) and the 5th, (Col. Simmons.) are or the extreme right wing of the army across the Potomac; in the Penn'a Reserve Corps, in command of Gen. McCall. They are distant from Washington ten or twelve miles, by way of Georgetown and the Chain Bridge. tween McCall's Division on the right, and Gen. Heintzelman's on the extreme left, is about lowing from an exchange, which our readers | twenty miles. Gen. Porter has command of the centre Division, opposite Washington, in the neighborhood of Falls Church. A supply train of the Alexandria and Leesburg Rail Road runs to a station near Falls church.

The country is rolling with considerable wood land, mostly, small hard wood; but the ing, noon and night. We dissolved a large cred Soil." The timber is nearly all cut down, table-spoonful of pure table salt in about to furnish winter quarters and fuel for the half a tumbler full of cold water. With this army; and there is scarcely a fence to be seen along the whole line. Roads pass in any required direction, through fields or orchards. In Gen. Heintzleman's Division, south of the entire winter, we were not only free from Alexandria, is the 105th (Wild Cat) regiment commanded by Col. McKnight, who has the reputation of being an efficient officer. In as our memory extends, we have always been, this regiment Clearfield is well represented, subject, but the dry backing cough has en- though at the present time, much better by tirely disappeared. We attribute this satis. men than officers. Camp Jameson, (so named after their Brigadier Gen.) is on the left of the road leading from Alexandria to Mt. Vernon; and nearly opposite, about half a mile distant, is Fort Lyon; the most extensive mite a number of letters, (some of them very defensive work on the Potomac. It is not finished though there are about sixty cannons mounted, from 24 to 32 pounders. The quarters inside, and the Magazines, are being made shell proof; but from present appearances it is not likely the rebels will ever get near enough to try its defensive properties. On a hill opposite, just in the rear of Alexandria is Fort Ellsworth, another new work. The house in which Col. Ellsworth was shot that they did not fall back until they were in is an oldfashioned building on a corner of the prisoner. Our loss was one killed and four main street. It is now occupied by soldiers. The stairs upon which he was standing when shot, and the stair railing, and most of the landing is gone; no doubt taken as mementos by the curious. ## IMPORTANT WAR NEWS.

INTERESTING FROM PAMLICO SOUND. THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION .- We have a last intelligence direct from the Burnside exnecessarily produces-upon their disappear- pedition. Its destination appears to have ance, leaving us the privilege to relapse into been Pamilico Sound, North Carolina. The expedition sailed from Hampton Roads on the 11th and 12th of January and arrived at Hatmove slowly along in their accustomed and | teras between the 13th and 17th, having been greatly retarded by the severe storms and adverse winds which prevailed at that time. After their arrival at Hatteras, for two days they had a series of storms of unparalled severity, so that it was impossible to hold comdeed, camp life, in common with others, has murication between the several vessels. After the storm it was discovered that instead of the swash or bars no vessel drawing over 7 very skilfully pilotted-consequently the city of New York struck and was a total loss, but no lives were lost. The Pocahontas was routine of business-not knowing whether it | wrecked twelve miles north of Hatteras, and is a total loss--30 lives were lost. Three other boats are said to have sunk. Col. Allen ready to march at a moments notice; or wheth- of the 19th New Jersey, his surgeon, and the mate of a boat, were drowned in attempting to reach the City of New York in a life boat, Desputches from Gen. Burnside, dated at Hatteras January 26th, have been received; in which the General says: Saturday, Jan, 10-morning. We proceeded at once to sea, very heavily, and some were obliged to cut loose from the vessels they were towing. Most of them, however, passed over the bar and anchored inside the Harbor about noon, on the 15th just in time to escape the severe gale of Monday night and Tuesday. The propellor City of New York, ran on to the bar at the entrance to the harbor, and owing to the severe weather and want of small boats, we could render her no assistance. She was laden with stores and was lost. The General also says he had been led to suppose that he would find experienced pilots at flatteras, but had great steamer New York by which a boat was swan sey, his surgeon and the mate of the boat were lost. After the arrival of the expedition at Hatteras the enemy made their appearance in one or two vessels on a reconnoitering expedition. Our boats gave chase and drove them back. The transports and vessels grounded will be got off by aid of the tug boats. Only one, the New York, was lost and no hyes, the three above referred to ex-

Taking everything into consideration-the large fleet, the character of the vessels, the large force of men, and the strong gales encountered -it must still be a source congratulation that the loss was not greater, and that success has attended the expedition so far as to enable Gen. Burnside to get all the the important vessels for military operations | Pike, into the Sound. A correspondent remarks, "that when once the fluct is over the inside bar, Burnside's blows will be quick and sharp upon the enemy, and that he will not rest until he has swept every rebel craft from the waters of both sounds, and every battery from the shores that he approaches." To which every loyal man will say, "so mote it be."

The Henderson (Ky.) Mail learns from a gentleman direct from Simpson county, Ky .. that the Confederate authorities have levied on every man who owns $500 worth of property for a gun. He says advertisements were posted all over the country, informing the citizens that unless they furnished a gnn by a given day, or $20 to buy one, they would be Penn. fined $50 cach, and be imprisoned until paid. This is one additional inducement to become a citizen of the Southern Confederacy. The man worth $500 is taxed 4 per cent. on all he s worth merely for arms.

A Successful Expedition .- Maj. Halderman made a successful reconnoisance from Lexington, Missouri; during which he captured a number of noted rebel desperadoes, and a large lot of horses, mules, wagons, commissary stores, etc., taken from Col. Mulligan's command. Also a lot of boots and shoes, and other articles taken from the steamer Sunshine, a short time since.

A SEIRMISH .-- On the morning of the 28th January, a squad of rebels accompanied by a section of artillery, opened fire on company H of Col. Geary's regiment, i miles above Sandy Hook. Our Parrott gun and Enfield rifles soon silenced the rebel battery, when FIGHT AT BELMONT .- On the 29th January, 50 men of the N. York 37th surprised a party of Texan-Rangers at Mrs. Lee's at the head of Belmont or Ocquan Bay and killed 9 of the Rangers, wounded a number and took one Bloom.

Colonel Harvey Brown, the gallant commander at Fert Pickens, being sick with dropsy, his second in command, Major Lewis G. Arnold, of New Jersey, has been appointed and confirmed a brigadier general, for gallant services in the three fights at Pickens.

WITHDRAWAL OF REBEL TROOPS .- Advices from Fort Pickens state that a portion of the rebel forces had been withdrawn and sent to Mobile, which they consider in special danger: The rebel force now opposite Pickens is esti-
