Losr-by a lady-on Saturday a-week, a half yard of black cotton velvet. The finder will confer a favor by leaving the same at this office.

NEW POSTOFFICE .- A postoffice has been established at Newburg, Chest township in this county, called "Hurd," and G. Tozer, Jr., appointed Postmaster.

Booms. -We have been informed that petitions are circulating in this county for the erecting of a boom at Jersey Shore. Persons interested will please note the fact.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK .- We have received the March number of this much admired Book. Godey furnishes more and better engravings than any other Magazine published. No lady should be without it.

Notice .- All persons desirous of obtaining Tavern Licenses for the ensning year must apply at the March Session, and are required by law to file their petitions 20 days previous to the Court, so that the applications can be advertised in the papers 3 times.

NOTEWORTHY .- Maple Molasses, well made and put up in cans right from the kettle, and hermetically sealed, as you would can and seal fruits, will keep as when first boiled from the sap; and this is decidedly the best plan for keeping, as when made in cakes, if exposed to the air, it will lose somewhat of the peculiarly delightful flavor for which it is so prized. obviated by canning while hot.

How is in 7-During the last week or two the mails have reached this place rather more irregular than usual, for which we cannot fully account. The Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad being completed one-third the distance, the mails should reach this place at least in the same time as formerly, but this appears not disapprobation to the present arrangement, and we hope the matter will be speedily remedied.

THE GENESEE FARMER .--- The February number of this well known agricultural journal is received. As we have often said before, the Farmer is the cheapest and one of the very best agricultural and horticultural papers published. It costs only 50 cents a year, and we see from this number that the publisher offers some exceedingly liberal premiums to all who subscribe for the paper at this time. Specimen copies of the paper are sent free to all applicants. Address Joseph HARRIS, Rochester, N. Y. HOME MADE COFFEE .--- Coffee, of an excellent quality (so it is said) can be made in the following manner : "Take one pint of corn meal, one pint of wheat, half a teacup of molasses, a teaspoonful of salt, and add water to make it like dough. Then cut it out like yeast cakes. Put them in a pan and dry them in the oven. When thoroughly dry, brown them in the oven to a dark brown, nearly black. To make the coffee, put two of these cakes and a teaspoonful of ground coffee in the coffee pot, and pour on hot water the same as other coffee." A GOOD ONE .- We were told a rather good one in reference to the conductor of the train on the Clearfield and Tyrone Railroad. Our informant says that, some days since when it was snowing, "the conductor (whom he represents as very accommodating) walked in front of the train and shovelled the snow off the track-whilst, at the same time, the passengers were engaged in cutting wood alongside of the road to keep up the fires." We do not exactly credit the story, however, and as our triend is somewhat of a wag. We give the story only as we received it.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL."

WASHINETON, D. C., Feb. 18, 1862. FRIEND Row :- After a delay of several weeks, I thought I would give you a few items in relation to a visit I made to the camp of the 5th Regiment, which I found in the woods. upon a knoll, having two small streams of water and plenty of springs near it. The soldiers of the 5th have also superior advantages in regard to fuel, which is near ; in fact, at the time of my visit, a good deal was in camp, or will commence on Monday the 17th day of the as we would say at home, at the door awaiting the axes, which (I hope the soldiers will pardon me for saying), were very dull, but whether for the want of a grind stone, or for some other less worthy reason, I am unable to say-but, I certainly saw some axes used, that I would not like to handle for any length of time. I found the "Cadets" in very good spirits, with but few on the sick list ; and these not old residents of Clearfield county. It is worthy of remark, that few men stand the hardships of a soldiers life as well as those who have been raised in our county. The healthy mountain air, and the kind of business so extensively carried on among us, in which almost every one takes more or less part, may have a good deal to do in making them hardy and robust. I am certain that I have not seen a better looking body of men in the army, than those from Clearfield county. Here, as with the "Rangers," I was welcomed heartily. All seemed pleased to see a "Clearfield man," as they expressed it, and numerous questions and enquiries were made about those at home. I found them pretty well posted in regard to general home affairs. They have comfortable quarters built-however without much regard to uniformity. The reason they gave for this irregularity was, that they had no orders to go into winter quarters ; consequently each mess had built according to its own fancy, and where there are so many architects, there will be many different styles. The main object has, however, been obtained in almost every case, and that is, comfort combined with convenience. The soldiers of the 5th are well drilled. The 5th and the "Bucktails," were the first of the Reserve Corps mustered into the United States service-having been in the field since the 21st of June fast. At that time, you will remember, these two regiments left Harrisburg for Western Virginia, where they passed part of the summer in protecting Cumberland, and succeeded in driving the rebels from New and is often injured by insects. All this is Creek, Piedmont, Westernport, and other points along the upper Potomac. Although they had little or no fighting there, yet the men were almost constantly on severe duty. However, since their arrival in the vicinity of Washington, they have had their full share of fighting, and are proud to say that they have been able, under the instructions of their highly esteemed Colonel, to do it well. It ever a commanding officer was respected and loved by these under him, Col. Simmons is that man. The men almost worship him, to be the case. We hear many expressions of and well they may, for being a graduate of West Point and having served his country tweety-six years in the regular army, he is possessed of a large amount of military experience, and is free from any disposition to be tyranical in his government. He treats his officers and men with the greatest kindness. At the same time, however, he is the terror of all evil doers, and does not fail to promptly punish all offences against good order and military rules. In appearance the Colonel is the very personification of a warrior. His long flowing beard and heavy mustache are quite in keeping with his occupation. He is of slightly lame from the effect of a wound received in one of the numerous battles he has been in. He is a pleasant talker, full of anneedote, and, having passed a life so full of interesting events, never fails to be interesting. At times he can be very sarcastic, and offenders are as much afraid of one of his sareastic expressions as they are of the guard-houseand some would prefer the latter. The Lieut. Colonel is a gentleman from Columbia-a Lawyer, I understand, of some experience in his former profession. His name is Fisher. Major Dare is from Huntingdon county, and is known to some of our citizens at home. The company officers I found to be equal to any in their desire to distinguish themselves in the cause of their country, and anxious to have their men well drilled so as to be ready for any emergency. Through the kindness of a friend, I am able to give you the name of each captain in the 5th, and the place from which his company hails : Company A, Capt. Ullman, Jersey Shore; Co. B, Capt. Taggart, Northumberland; Co. C. Capt. Smith, Clearfield ; Co. D, Capt. Chamberlin, Lewisburg ; Co. E, Capt. Larrimer. Centre Co ; Co. , Capt. Trout, Towanda; Co. G, no Capt. Huntingdon co; Co. II, Capt. McCleery, Milton; Co. I, Capt. Zentmyer, Huntingdon Co; Co. K, Capt. Collins, Columbia. The regiment numbered, at the time of my visit, 961 men-of these three were field officers, five commissioned staff officers, (including the Chaplains and two Snrgeons), four non-Commissioned staff officers, 36 musicians, 20 pioneers, 10 ambulance corps, 10 teamsters, 9 captains, 16 Lieutenants, (two absent on Signal corps,) 50 Sergeants, and 80 corporals leaving, 718 men as privates-including the orporals who are placed in the ranks 798 men. This number drawn up in line of battle looks, at first, like a large body of men-yet in a short time the eye becomes familliar with the sight and it soon looses its first importance. But, if you or I should undertake to collect the same number of men for any particular purpose, and place them in a line, we would find that it would take a great deal of trouble to do so -whilst here, a few taps of the drum, a few brief orders, a little marching, and the other injuries. The fracture was reduced, and thing is done in a few minutes and all in order. I found much pleasure in viewing dress parades. It is gratifying to see 800 or 1000 men going through the manual of arms, at one time, as regularly as if done by one man. Every musket rising or falling at the same instant, and glistening in the sunlight at every

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- On Monday afternoon Thomas McAdams, who is in the employ of Dr. Hill's, met with a serious accident, whilst he was driving Mr. H's horse in a small sled up Market street, in this place. Tommy by some means lost his foot-hold on the sled, when the horse became unmanageable, ran away and threw him out. In the fall, Tommy struck a post, and broke his collar bone, and bruised his head and thigh, besides receiving Tommy is doing as well as could be expected.
