A STRANGE DREAM .- Old Squire W. is an honest, jovial soul, with few religious scruples-fond of a laugh; or a good jeke at any time. He reladder, like Jacob's, reached from the good place, and it was on this ladder that I went up. When I reached the top I found a space of seven er eight feet intervening between the last round and the celestial gate. I could see within and catch glimpses of the fine things inside. Peter stood at the entrance-he leaned overreached out his hand, and told me to make a big jump. I did jump, boys, and got one of the thunderest falls you ever heard of-for I found myself sprawling on the floor, having jumped out of bed trying to jump into Heaven."

PROOF POSITIVE .- Old Zacharias Robbins lived in Wood county, Mississippi, and was called on to prove the insanity of a young man on trial for an assault with intent to kill. He swore that he had no doubt whatever that the prisoner was an insane man. On his cross examination he was required to state his reason for this opinion. "Why bless your life," said he. "I've known Jimmy allers, and he's allers ben a Dimicrat, and when the Dimicratic party put up their man last fall, Jimmy didn't vote for him; and I allers think that a Dimicrat that don't stick to his party has ben larnin' too much to be in his right mind!" Jimmy was acquitted, for old Zachariah's opinion prevails very generally in that region.

The most deadly poison known to be used by the slave in Brazil, is that of the toad. The skin of this reptile contains glands which secrete in abundance a milky, glutinous fluid 311 when the toad is put to pain or irritated. This is scraped off and dried. It produces incurable obstruction and enlargement of the liver, and a specdy death. Some beat the toad with rods to make it secrete the venom; others place the creature in an earthen vessel over a slow fire.

AN IRISHMAN'S WIT .- The following incident occurred at Pea Ridge : "One of our boys was, in the heat of the fight wounded in both feet by a cannon ball. Our forces having fallen back his Irish wit was brought into play. Seeing a big Secesh coming by, he presented his musket, made the fellow surrender, shoulder him, and in this position he rode into our lines, where he delivered Mr. Butternut over as a prisoner."

An Incident .- A singular incident is related of the battle of Pea Ridge : "During the action on the 8th, a wood-cock, which was flying over towards us from the secesh side, suddenly darted to the ground, and was picked up near Gen. Curtis' position, when it was ascertained that a stray bullet had passed through its body while on the wing. This was regarded as a good omen."

A child of five years having seen her father for the first time, he having been absent in California, was much astonished that he should claim any authority over her, and on one occasion of rebellion, she cried out, "I wish you had never married into our family !"

On a High .- It is astonishing how "toddy" promotes independence. A well known "brick," lying in a spirftual manner, was advised in a friendly way to economise, as "flour was going up." "Let it go;" said bottle nose, "I kin git as 'high' as flour kin any day."

A little girl of three years, from beyond the Mississippi, who had never seen an apple tree in full bloom, beheld one in Ohio. She lifted her fat hands in the attitude of devotion, and exclaimed, "See God's big boquet!" A beautiful thought.

The Indianapolis Journal says that when Parson Brownlow visited the rebel prison in that city, the prisoners shouted "Put him out!" "Ah, you good-for-nothing rascals," said Brownlow, "don't you wish somebody would put you out?"

The boats in which Floyd escaped from Fort Donelson didn't belong to him and his brigade, they were the common property of the whole Confederate army. Floyd 'stole' them.

A young candidate for the legal profession was asked what he should do first when employed to bring an action. "Ask for money on account," was the prompt reply. He passed.

The rebels say that their armies, if defeated, will retire for defence to some mountain fastness. We have been admiring their fastness (on foot) for some time.

A Confederate paper says that Gen. Price isn't whipped—that he is merely falting back. Well, oftentimes a man shot through the heart merely "falls back."

5877 900 An Irish editor speaking of the miseries of Ireland, says : "Her cup of misery has been for ages overflowing and is not yet full!"

Some wag said, when Yancey gets home, he will be as little able to reognize the Southern Confederacy as 5681 135 Lord Palmerston himself.

He that blows the coals in quarrels that he has nothing to do with, has no right of complain if a spark fly in his face. That's so.

Buckner is a liberal fellow. At Fort Donelson he proposed to treat. Thank you, I don't indulge, replied Grant, promptly.

The cup of Cicero changed men to swine; that cup is common now-it contains strong whisky.

JEW-YORK TRIBUNE-NEW VOLUME NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; the THE DAI-LY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger For more than twenty years, this journal has la-bored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeav oring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material ad vancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to ncourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and

As to the Civil War now devastating our counry, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before knewn—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their ef forts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we be lieve the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loval hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose 8 12 and of action indispensable in so grave an emer-

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of Cheap its more striking incidents. We shall not however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops, Markets, &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its Cheap cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be Cheap to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the demain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afford-4 69 ed, we may still hope to 'make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continu ance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.
