

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 14, 1862.

House Burned.—We learn that on Wednesday last, the 7th instant, the house of Jacob Kunz, Jr., of Brady township, was burnt to the ground. The fire originated from a stove pipe. Mrs. K. was the only person about the house at the time. A neighbor, however, soon arrived, with whose assistance Mrs. K. succeeded in saving most of their household effects. All the clothing and a watch belonging to a young man named Freeze were burnt in the house. The building was a good one, and Mr. Kunz's loss is estimated at from four to five hundred dollars.

House and Barn Destroyed by Fire.—We have been informed that, some ten days since the woods in the neighborhood of New Castle in Beccaria township, was set on fire by some unknown person, which spread very rapidly and soon communicated to the fences on the farms of W. Broombaugh and Jacob Kephart, and from these to some dead trees in the fields. Whist Mr. Kephart and others were engaged in arresting the progress of the devouring element in the woods, fire was communicated to the roofs of his house and barn, both of which, with all their contents, were burnt to the ground. Our informant also says, that it was reported that two of Mr. K's small children had been left in bed in the house, and but for the timely arrival of their father would have perished in the flames—one of them having most of its clothing burnt off before it was rescued.

The 113th Regiment Pa. Vol., (12 Cavalry) left Philadelphia a few days since for the seat of war. This regiment was recruited in the northern counties of this State, and is composed of large, strong and active men. It is commanded by Col. L. B. Pierce, who has been connected with the service since the commencement of the war. The field and staff officers are,

Colonel—Lewis B. Pierce, Bradford county. Lieutenant—Jacob Kohler, Philadelphia. First Major—Darius Titus, Warren county. Second Major—James A. Congdon, Lancaster county. Third Major—William Ball, Juniata county. Regimental Adjutant—George W. Henrie, Tanawaga. First Battalion Adjutant—H. C. Paite, Philadelphia. Second Battalion Adjutant—G. B. Hammer, Warren county. Third Battalion Adjutant—Michael M. Myers, Philadelphia. Regimental Quartermaster—Harvey R. Reark, Philadelphia county. Surgeon—Jos. D. Scholtes, Philadelphia. Assistant Surgeon—R. B. Cruise, Phila. Co. Chaplain—Geo. H. Hammer, Warren Co. Sergeant-Major—Tracy O. Hollis, Bradford county. Regiment Quartermaster Sergeant—Parley Coburn, Bradford county. Hospital Steward—Geo. W. Seibert, Philadelphia county.

Nigger-Lovers and Abolitionists. Col. Leonidas Metcalf, of Kentucky, lately made a speech to the Union men of Carlisle, Nicholas County, in that State, in which he paid his respect to those negro-loving secessionists, who, when hard run for an argument, will cry "Abolitionist," "Abolitionist," as if it was only necessary to fix the stigma of abolitionism upon a man to ruin him forever. This out-spoken Kentuckian draws the portraits of these cringing dastards with the pencil of a Limner. We take an extract for the edification of these puny-souled creatures:

I had started to pay my respects to the nigger-lovers of the south. There has been no election since I can remember but the cry of nigger was raised. A constable, coroner, judge or president could not be nominated but the same old tune was ground. Law after law was passed to tighten the tenure by which we held them. State laws, legislative laws, territorial legislatures might legislate a man to the devil if they chose, if he had a nigger; but laws were passed to prevent them from legislating on the subject of niggers. A Republican Congress passed laws to prevent themselves from legislating on negroes in the territories, still the cry was more securely, more concisely, until they require all to kneel to Gessier's esp, or else they are not the Union men.

FROM GEN. McCLELLAN'S COLUMN. Successful Advance—Battle at Williamsburg. The battle before Williamsburg on Monday the 5th, was a most warmly contested engagement. Owing to the roughness of the country and bad condition of the roads, but a small portion of the troops could be brought into action. Gen. Sigel's Excelsior Brigade, of Gen. Hooker's division, bore the great brunt of the battle and fought most valiantly though greatly outnumbered by numbers and the superior position earthworks of the enemy. The approaches to their works were a series of ravines and swamps; while the rain fell in torrents throughout the day. The men also were lying on their arms all the previous night in the woods, soaked with rain and chilled with cold. The battle raged from early in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when General McClellan arrived with fresh troops and relieved the division of Gen. Hooker, who were nearly prostrate with fatigue and exposure, whilst the 3d Excelsior regiment of the brigade had its ranks terribly thinned by the balls of the enemy. They were repulsed as having fought with such impudent bravery that not less than two hundred of them were killed and wounded. After the arrival of Gen. McClellan the enemy were fiercely charged upon by Hancock's brigade, and were driven within their works, before daylight, with heavy loss. Nearly 200 of their dead were left on the field, with many wounded, though most of the latter were carried into Williamsburg. Night having come we occupied the battle field, the enemy having been driven within his works. A large number of wagons and munitions were found in town. The enemy had forty thousand men under Johnson, Longstreet and Early. Their troops were principally from the extreme South. Our killed and wounded will reach eight hundred. The enemy left five hundred in Williamsburg, and retreated beyond the Chickahominy. The consequences we are certain that strikers found in fortifications, and captured prisoners and arms.

Battle 12 miles beyond Williamsburg. The steamer from Yorktown, reports a battle 12 miles beyond Williamsburg on Wednesday the 11th inst. between the troops of Gen. Franklin and General Sedwick, and the rebels under General Lee who were endeavoring to make their way to Richmond. It is said to have been the severest battle on the peninsula. The rebels were totally routed and having been driven back towards the York river, they were captured in the Chickahominy. The whole number of Federal killed and wounded was three hundred, and the enemy were driven back by our gunboats with great slaughter. This had not been the case had the rebels not been driven back by our gunboats. The time was not over twenty thousand, only ery traitor in the land as plainly as you can your hogs, by the ear marks. They have a pass word, by which you can know them at well in the night as in the day time—that word is, "Abolitionist." That is the sum total of all their arguments.

Glorious News!!

NORFOLK & PORTSMOUTH SURRENDERED. WOOL COMMANDS OUR TROOPS.

President Lincoln Superintends, in person, the Embarkation and Debarcation of our Troops—Is First to Step on the "Sacred Soil."

THE REBELS LEAVE WITHOUT A BATTLE. THE MERRIMAC BLOWN UP.

The Yorktown and Jamestown Captured. FORTRESS MONROE, May 9, 9 P. M.—Old Point this evening presents a most stirring spectacle—about a dozen steamer transports are loading troops. They will land on the shore opposite the Rip Raps, and march direct on Norfolk.

The President has declared that Norfolk most fall the Merrimac must succumb to the Naval power of the Union, and that the Government property at Norfolk must be re-possessed at whatever cost it may require. What is more, he has determined to remain here until it is accomplished. The Rip Raps are pouring shot and shell into Sewell's Point, and a bright light in the direction of Norfolk leads to the supposition that the work of destruction has already commenced.

The transports are gathering in the stream, and have on board artillery, cavalry and infantry and will soon be prepared to start. President Lincoln, as Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, is superintending the expedition himself. About 6 o'clock he went across to the place selected for landing which is about a mile below the Rip Raps.

It is said the President was first to step on shore, and after examining for himself the facilities of landing returned to the Point where he was received with enthusiastic cheering by the troops who were embarked.

The batteries at the Rip Raps have stopped throwing shells and all is quiet. The fleet are floating quietly at anchorage, ready at any moment for activity.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 10.—The troops left during the night and at daylight could be seen from the wharf landing a short distance from the Rip Raps. The point at which they have landed is known as Point Pleasant, one of the favorite drives from Norfolk.

Gen. Wool and staff remained to superintend the landing of the balance of our force, all of whom were landed and off by noon.

The President accompanied by Secretary Stanton, accompanied General Wool and staff to the wharf and then took a tug and proceeded to the Minnesota where the President was received with a national salute.

It is generally admitted that the President and Secretary Stanton have infused new vigor into both naval and military operations here, and that the country will have no cause for further complaint as to the insulting course of the rebels in this quarter.

The following despatch was received at the War Department:

FORTRESS MONROE, May 10th, 12 o'clock, P. M. Norfolk is ours and also Portsmouth and the Navy yard. Gen. Wool having completed the landing of his forces at Williamsburg, completed his march on Norfolk with 5,000 men. Secretary Chase accompanied the General. About five miles from the landing place a rebel battery was found on the opposite side of the bridge over Tanner's creek. After a few discharges of companies of infantry the rebels burned the bridge; this compelled our forces to march around five miles further. At five o'clock in the afternoon our forces were met in a short distance of Norfolk, and were met by a delegation of citizens and the city was formally surrendered. Our troops marched in and we now have possession.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 11.—The Merrimac was blown up by the rebels at two minutes before 5 o'clock this morning. She was set on fire at about 3 o'clock, and the explosion took place at the time stated. It was said to have been a grand sight by those who saw it. The Monitor, Naugatuck and gun boats have gone on towards Norfolk.

As Times are passing to the westward, only that number having landed. Had it not been for the gunboats our troops would have been defeated.

Fight at Slater's Mills. An engagement took place on Saturday the 10th, between our advance and the enemy's rear at Slater's Mills three miles from New Kent Court House which resulted in fourteen of the enemy's cavalry being killed, and several taken prisoners. They secured their wounded. The sixth cavalry, which made a most brilliant charge, had three men killed, three missing and thirteen wounded.

The Latest News. Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail. Gen. Pope in a dispatch to Gen. Halleck, dated near Farmington, May 9, says: The enemy, 20,000 strong, drove in our pickets beyond Farmington, and advanced against the brigade, occupying the farther side of the creek in front of my camp. The brigade held on for five hours, until it was heavily pressed in front and the flank, and that I could not sustain them without passing the creek with my whole force, which was contrary to your orders, and would have brought on a general engagement, I withdraw to this side in good order. The conduct of the troops was excellent, and were reluctant to withdraw. The enemy made a demonstration to cross but abandoned the movement. Our loss was considerable, though I cannot tell how great. The enemy being much exposed suffered severely, one of his batteries was completely disabled and his infantry driven back several times. My command is eager to advance.

A Baltimore correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette, under date of the 11th says: The news from Richmond, to-day, is too good to be kept back an hour, if it can be avoided. Gen. Franklin is in Richmond.

The Gosport Navy yard was completely destroyed by the rebels, together with a large number of steamboats and other vessels.

The rebels left forty heavy guns and plenty of ammunition in the fortifications on Crany Island, which are admirably constructed.

Latest advices from Gen. McClellan state that he is within 20 miles of Richmond.
