THE PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION.
The People of Pennsylvania, who desire cordially to unite in sustaining the National Administration in its patriotic efforts to suppress a sectional and unwholy rebellion against the Union of the Republic, and who desire to support, by every power of the Government, one hundred thousand heroic brethren in arms, braving disease and the perils of the field to preserve the Union of our Fathers, are requested to select the number of Delegates equal to the Legislative Representation of the State, at such times and in such manner as will best respond to the spirit of this call, to meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, on Thursday, the 17th day of July next, at eleven o'clock, on said day, to nominate Candidates for the offices of Auditor General and Surveyor General, and to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to strengthen the Government in this season of common peril to a common country. A. K. McCLURE, Chairman People's State Committee. GEO. W. HAMMERSLEY, Secretaries. JOHN M. SULLIVAN, Secretaries.

THE BEST BOOK PUBLISHED.—Godey's Lady's Book for July is before us, and contains its usual budget of uncomparable plates, besides much interesting reading matter. This number has twenty full page engravings. Why don't you subscribe—price, only $3 a year, in advance. We will furnish the Lady's Book and Journal, to all new subscribers, or to such as are not in arrears on our books, for $3.50 in advance, if desired.

COLONEL OF THE 84TH.—We learn that Samuel M. Bowman of Columbia county, has been commissioned Colonel of the 84th Regiment of Penn'a. Volunteers, in place of Col. Wm. G. Murray, dec'd. Maj. Walter Barrett, who, as the senior officer, was entitled to the position, declined it, but was promoted and commissioned Lieut. Colonel in place of Thos. C. Macdowell, resigned; and Thos. H. Craig, Adjutant of the Regiment, was commissioned Major in place of Mr. Barrett.

The 84th is one of the most renowned regiments in the service, and occupies an enviable reputation, on account of its gallant conduct in several hard fought battles. In the late engagement at Port Republic it suffered rather severely; and, we understand, that an effort will be made to have it ordered to some post, to enable it to recruit men and fill up to the requisite army standard. All honor to the gallant 84th.

THE WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—A correspondent of the New York Herald says the following deserving tribute to several gentlemen, among them Gen. Patton, who had gone to the White House to minister to the relief of the wounded, after the battle of the "Seven Pines":
"At the White House Hon. M. F. Odell, of New York, and Hon. John P. Patton, of Pennsylvania, were busy attending to the wants of the wounded. They seemed to have overlooked the fact their bleeding country was suffering in Congress. Would that more of our representatives would pair off and come to the help of the suffering soldier. They would receive the thanks and prayers of the wounded soldiers and their children's children would rise and call them blessed. It does me good to mention such instances of godlike nature still displayed by our fallen race. The names of such benefactors should be engraved upon tablets of marble or brass as deeply as they are in the hearts of the recipients of the acts of charity and godlike benevolence."

EIGHTY-FOURTH PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.—The following is the correct list of the killed, wounded and missing of the Eighty-fourth regiment, P. V., in the late affair at Port Republic, Va.:
Company A—Patrick Burns, killed; Anthony Correll and William H. Lowe, missing; Thomas Coats wounded.
Company B—Corporal John Snadden, missing.

Company K (Capt. Ogden's) Henry Bingham, H. E. Keeler and Henry C. Owens, wounded—the latter dangerously; Corporal Daniel Graham and private James McGuire, missing.

NEW POST ROUTES.—In looking over the list of new post routes recently established, we find the following:
Clearfield County—From Ansonville via McGarvey's, Westover's, Boyce's to Cherrytree. From Williams Grove via Grahamston to Shirley's.
Jefferson County—From Reynoldsville to Rockdale.
Clarion and Venango Counties—From Emonton to Callensburg.
From Callensburg via Loro, Nickleville to Oil City.
Venango and Warren Counties—From Garland via Southwest, Enterprise, Pleasantville, Plummer, and Rousseau, to Oil City.
From Clarington via Millstone and Raught's Mills to Arago.

The routes above named, were procured by the member of Congress from this district, Hon. John Patton, who is ever ready and willing to attend to the interests of his constituents. He deserves the thanks of the citizens along the several post routes, for his active exertions in procuring them for the benefit of more efficient mail facilities.
