THE PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION.

The People of Pennsylvania, who desire cordially to unite in sustaining the National Administration in its patriotic efforts to suppress a sectional and unholy rebellion against the Unity of the Republic, and who desire to support, by every power of the Government, one hundred thousand heroic brethern in acms. braving disease and the perils of the field to preserve the Union of our Fathers, are reequal to the Legislative Representation of the State, at such times and in such manner as will best respond to the spirit of this call, to meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, on Thursday, the 17th day of July next, at eleven o'clock, on said day, to nominate Candidates for the offices of Auditor General and Surveyor General, and to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to strengthen the Government in this season of common peril to a A. K. McCLURE, common country. Chairman People's State Committee.

GEO. W. HAMMERSLY, Secretaries. JOHN M. SULLIVAN,

FOURTH OF JULY.

At a meeting of the young men of Clearfield, held on Tuesday evening to adopt some means of celebrating the 4th of July, a committee of invitation was appointed, whose card will be found below :

Hurrah! for a Glorious Fourth. All persons who desire to celebrate the day of our National Independence in a Pic-Nic dinner, and other appropriate exercises, are requested to prepare a few of the substantials of life, and meet at Hills' Grove on the hill east of town, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Persons leaving their baskets of provisions at Hartswick's Drug Store, can have them hauled to the ground. A. M. HILLS, G. R. BARRETT, W. M. M'CULLOUGH, S J. Row. J. G. HARTSWICK. W. W. BETTS, J. H. FULFORD. J. P. KRATZER, G. W. RHEEM. Committee.

TOTAKE PLACE-an adjourned Treasurer's sale, on the 2nd Monday in July.

MUST BE LIFTED-all Mercantile Licenses, on or before the 10th day of July-otherwise suits will be entered for their collection.

QUERY?-How can the "grating, cracked, kettle sound" bell in the the tower have an influence on the Court room? Here is a fine chance for some naturalist to gain a reputation in dissecting "Monsters."

RELEASED PRISONERS .- Among the prisoners released by the rebels on parole, recently captured in the Shenandoah Valley, are of the 84th Penn'a., Jacob Barr of Co. G, and James W. Kelley of Co. E. Of the 110th, A. J. Henderson of Co. B, Martin Wirtz of Co. A, James Hicks of Co, D, and D. Ramsey of WESTERN CENTRAL RAILROAD .- At a meetand of the Board of Directors of the Western Central Railroad Company, held in this place on Tuesday last, it was resolved that a corps of Engineers be placed on the route immediately to make the necessary surveys and locate the road. We learn, that in accordance with this resolve, the engineers will commence their labors on Monday next. This will be gratifying news to many of the citizens of this county; and we hope that the Directors will continue their efforts, and that they may meet with the proper encouragement so as to enable them to complete the road to this place at an early day.

LIBERALITY OF PHYSICIANS.—It has always been said that physicians would disparage any remedy, however valuable, which they did not Fry, David Buckley. originate themselves. This has been disproved by their liberal course towards Dr. J. C. Ayer's preparations. They have adopted them into general use in their practice, which shows a willingness to countenance articles that have intrinsic merits which deserve their attention. This does the learned profession great credit, and effectually contradicts the prevalent erroneous notion that their opposition to proprietary remedies is based in their interest to discard them. We always had confidence in the honorable motives of our medical men, and are glad to find it sustained by the liberal welcome they accord to such remedies as Aver & Co.'s inimitable remedies, even though they are not ordered in the books but are made known to the people through the newspapers .- [New Orleans Delta.]

DEATH OF A SOLDIER .- It is with feelings of deep regret that we have to record the death of Alvin Ross, son of Thos. Ross, Esq., of Curwensville. He died of Typhoid fever, after a protracted illness, on Sunday the 22d day of June, in the hospital connected with Gen. Kearney's division, located on the right of the York River and Richmond Railroad. Mr. Ross was about 23 years of age, and a young man of much promise. He learned the printing business in the Journal office, was of steady and industrious habits, and highly esteemed by all who knew him. After the breaking out of the war he, in company with several of his intimate companions, joined Col. McKnights regiment, and went forth to battle for the nations honor and existence. We deeply deplore his death, and sincerely sympathize with the parents and friends in their loss; but while we regret his death, it is with pride that we record the fact, that he freely laid down his life upon the alter of our beloved country, so that we might continue in the enjoyment of the blessings of a free dy township to Anderson creek. government-the blessings of civil and religious liberty. Peace to his ashes, is our near Catholic church to A. J. Murphy's imbumble prayer.

We also learn that Charles H. Powers and Continued .- Review of road from Curwens-Ellis Hoover, both from this place, are lying ville to New Millport. condition.

"Gone up"-the Court House bell. 'Spect / it'll soon come down, too, as it is cracked and perfectly worthless. The Commissioners must have a "prowiso" put in the next one, and then the county will not be the loser, in the event of its proving unsound.

Presentment of Grand Jury-June T. 1862.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield county:-The Grand Inquest would present, That they sincerely deplore the sad necessity that compelled them to act upon such a large number of bills as they have presented to the Court; and more especially do they regret the magnitude of the offences brought before them. They have acted upon offences of almost every grade known to the law, and in their find-ing have endeavored to do that which would best accomplish the ends of justice.

They have visited the jail, and are of the opinion that it is in as good condition as can be expected or a building of that kind. The privy in the jail yard is in bad condition and without cover, and should be attended to immediately.

They would present the following dams, as being in bad condition, and call upon the proper officers to have them repaired immediately : The Curwensville dam owned by Eliza Irvin, and the bar below said dam, (caused by said dam). The Hoyt dam and bar below, owned by John P. Hoyt. The two dams owned by ing to John Patton, now in possession of Thomas A. McGhee. The Wm. Irvin, Jr., dam in Burnside township, and the bar below. Salem Ev. Luth. church vs. C. Korb and 12 | The David F. Smith dam and the bar below, in Burnside township. The Waller dam and the bar below, in Burnside township. The Bigler dam owned by James Irwin, at Bald Hills. The Arthur Bell dam in Beli township. This cause occupied the attention of the | The above dams on the West Branch of the Susquehanna river. The Frederick G. Miller dam in Bell tp, owned by Christ and Jenkins, on Chest creek. The Best dam on Clear field creek, occupied by Wm. Joy. We do also present the following roads: The road leading from Curwensville to Indiana, in Bell township. The road leading from New Washington to James McMurrays, between the lands of John M. Riddle and John Byers, Sr., in Burnside township. The road connecting the road leading from Deer Creek to Central Point in Girard township, known at the Canawago road. The road leading from Central Point to the Basin in Covington township. The road leading from Curwensville to Pennville, in Pike township.

We do also return to the present Prosecutng Attorney our thanks for his dilligence, efficiency, and kindness, in forwarding the business of the county. We would be pleased to see the Honorable Judges present at the time appointed on Monday for the opening of the Court. All of which we submit to the JOHN MAHAFPEY, Foreman.

MARRIED:

On the 26th ult, by Rev. T. D. Gotwalt, Mr. . L. Cook of New Washington, to Miss M J. Daughter of Wm. Fullerton of Lawrence township, Clearfield County, Pa.

On the 1st inst., by Rev. T. D. Gotwalt, Mr. WM. V. WRIGHT to Miss MARY FOLEY, both of Clearfield Pa.

With the above, we received a large cake, for which favor we tender our thanks to the twain that were made one. May peace, prosperity, and happiness attend them through ifes journey.

DIED:

On the 23d, Jugde Bonsall of Brady town ship at an advanced age. On Saturday the 28th David Bloom of Pike

Died, in Penn tp., on the 20th of June, after a brief illness of Measles, SARAH SPENCER, wife of Abraham Spencer and daughter of Elisha Fenton, in the 39th year of her age. Thus have a family of eleven children, (mostly small,) and an indulgent and devouted husband, been suddenly bereft of one in whom their earthly comfort in a great measure rested; to them it would be indeed a trying ordeal but for the comfortable assurance that their loss is her eternal gain. The deceased has been for many years a faithful and consistent member of the M. E. Church having attached herself thereto in early life. Amiable and affectionate in her natural disposition, she was enabled by firmness of purpose and an unwavering faith in the precepts of the Gospel, to win many triends | the White House. It appears, however that who will mourn her early departure from this mundane sphere.

From cherished friends 'tis always hard to part, No more to mingle on this fading sphere. The chords of love which twine around the heart Are to the christian trav'ler dear.

But faith in God supports his weary feet, And bears him on through lifes advancing years Hoping again those cherished friends to meet, In realms of bliss beyond this vale of tears. J.

Important War News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail-GREAT BATTLE BEFORE THE CITY

GALLANTRY OF THE PA. RESERVE. OUR ARMY VICTORIOUS.

OF RICHMOND.

By last nights mail we have the intelligence of a severe and most determined battle on the right wing of our army, on Thursday and Friday last, and is claimed as a successful strategic movement, which secures the capture of Richmond beyond a doubt.

The attack was made by the enemy in immense force, who crossed the Chicahominy near the railroad above Mechanicsville, on Thursday afternoon. The rebels fought desperately, but were unable to drive our men a single rod, though the enemy were ten to our one. The only force engaged that day was McCall's division, the battle lasting from two o'clock till nine P. M., when the division was ordered back. Gen. McClellan was on the field, and expressed himself satisfied with the result. It is stated that our killed, wounded and missing was about 1200. The object of the movement was to bring Gen. Porter's and other divisions into close connection with the rest of the army-in fact changing the front of the whole of our forces, with our centre and left pressing immediately on Richmond itself.

It was a virtual surrender or vacating of a long line of defence heretofore kept up to Mechanicsville, in order to have the whole force within a more effective distance; also, to allow the rebels to follow, and, if possible, Gen. McClellan ordered Gen. Porter to withdraw two miles this sides of Gaines' Mills, early on Friday morning, which was done, the enemy following, and thinking they had gained the victory.

Our troops slowly moved back in order, fighting as they went, crossing the Chickahominy, and reached the position designed for their occupation by Gen. McClellan.

The rebels followed in great force, and by three o'clock in the afternoon a general and heavy engagement occurred here, lasting till seven o'clock, when a lull took place, but the rebels again renewed it with greater ferocity, having been reinforced.

Our brave men stood the unequal contest, like heroes, and the shell, grape, and musket by Gen. Slocum's, Palmer's, French's, and BUSH & M'CULLOUGH'S Meagher's Brigades, and the rebels were beaten badly. Meagher's brigade went into the battle with their coats off, and sleeves rolled up fighting like tigers.

The ground which General McClellan ordered Gen. Porter to occupy and hold, was occupied and held. In the first part of the day, General Porter's corps alone contended against the rebels, but subsequently reinforcements swelled our numbers to forty-five thousand men. The rebels had sixty thousand under Generals Lee, Hill, Anderson and Branch.

This retirement was done in a quiet and orderly manner, the retreat being covered by the 1st. 2d and 5th Pennsylvania Reserves, who promptly returned the fire of the the rebels, who were following.

These portions of the two armies are now face to face, and they may at any moment commence anew the engagement. During the fight, one company of the 1st Pennsylvania Bucktail reserve regiment was entirely surrounded, and all were taken prisoners-Some few, however, managed to escape, but were compelled to leave their dead and wounded comrades in the hands of the enemy.

Among the wounded in this regiment is Capt. E. A. Irvin who managed to escape. Col. Taggart. Lieut. Hartshorn and Lieut. Welsh of Clearfield co., and Jewett of Co.D, were also wounded and in the hands of the

This regiment covered themselves with glory, winning from their officers the highest meed of praise. From early in the afternoon until this morning they were actively engaged in the thickest of the fight.

The Pennsylvania Reserves are deserving, too, of their well-earned praise. Throughout all the fight they stood their ground against an unequal force, and in froft of a galling fire. Their conduct on this occasion does honor to the Keystone State.

The above is considered a great strategic movement, by which the enemy were drawn out of their intrenchments and who, finding our right wing rather feeble advanced upon McClellan had evacuated the White House across the Chickahominy, leaving only some gunboats to engaged the rebels as they ap-

This appears to be a strange movement, but, perhaps, a correct one, and if successful, will good material and in the best style and workmanenable Gen. McClellan to establish his base of operations on the James river. What the result of the whole movement is has not, as yet, transpired-but we anticipate the taking this kind. We also keep a fine assortment of of Richmond, and the entire rout of the rebel
