"GONE UP"—the Court House bell. 'Speet it'll soon come down, too, as it is cracked and perfectly worthless. The Commissioners must have a "proviso" put in the next one, and then the county will not be the loser, in the event of its proving unsound.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The following causes, in the Common Pleas, were disposed of at June term, 1862:

R. B. C. Chase vs. Isaac Haines, Wm. Schoening, Hiram Dodd and Pat. Gilligan.—Ejectment. Verdict, for defendants. Crans for plaintiff; Wallace for defendants.

Martin V. Owens vs. John W. & Peter Owens.—Summons in debt. Verdict for plaintiff, $37.50. Swoope for plaintiff; Test for defendant.

Leygart, McMann & Co. vs. C. Kratzer & Sons.—Summons in debt. By agreement of counsel, judgment confessed in favor of plaintiffs for $319.55, with stay of execution till 1st of May, 1863. Wallace for plaintiffs; Swoope for defendant.

Salem Ev. Luth. church vs. C. Korb and 12 others.—Trespass. Verdict, defendants to pay a fine of $6, and costs. Wallace for plaintiffs; Swoope for defendant.

This cause occupied the attention of the Court from Friday afternoon until Monday evening, and created considerable interest in the community, on account of its involving the right to occupy church property. About three fourths of the Salem Ev. Luth. congregation at Troutville, in this county, having become dissatisfied with their minister, called a congregational meeting, and, according to the regulations of the church, dismissed him—the other fourth objected to the proceeding and retained him. The majority, or defendants, then employed another minister, repaired the parsonage, and moved him into it—whereupon the minority brought this suit.

The following causes were continued on account of the illness of Mr. Crans, one of the counsel engaged therein:

Presentment of Grand Jury—June T. 1862.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield county:—The Grand Inquest would present, That they sincerely deplore the sad necessity that compelled them to act upon such a large number of bills as they have presented to the Court; and more especially do they regret the magnitude of the offences brought before them. They have acted upon offences of almost every grade known to the law, and in every finding have endeavored to do that which would best accomplish the ends of justice.

They have visited the jail, and are of the opinion that it is in as good condition as can be expected of a building of that kind. The privy in the jail yard is in bad condition and without cover, and should be attended to immediately.

They would present the following dams, as being in bad condition, and call upon the proper officers to have them repaired immediately: The Curwensville dam owned by Eliza Irvin, and the bar below said dam, (caused by said dam). The Hoyt dam, and bar below, owned by John P. Hoyt. The two dams owned by Robert Mahaffey. The Johnston dam belonging to John Patton, now in possession of Thomas A. McGhee. The Wm. Irvin, Jr., dam in Burnside township, and the bar below. The David F. Smith dam and the bar below, in Burnside township. The Waller dam and the bar below, in Burnside township. The Bigler dam owned by James Irvin, at Bald Hills. The Arthur Bell dam in Bell township.

The above dams on the West Branch of the Susquehanna river. The Frederick G. Miller dam in Bell tp., owned by Christ and Jenkins, on Chest creek. The Best dam on Clearfield creek, occupied by Wm. Joy.

We do also present the following roads: The road leading from Curwensville to Indiana, in Bell township. The road leading from New Washington to James McMurray's, between the lands of John M. Eiddle and John Byers, Sr., in Burnside township. The road connecting the road leading from Deer Creek to Central Point in Girard township, known as the Canavago road. The road leading from Central Point to the Basin in Covington township. The road leading from Curwensville to Pennville, in Pike township.

We do also return to the present Prosecuting Attorney our thanks for his diligence, efficiency, and kindness, in forwarding the business of the county. We would be pleased to see the Honorable Judges present at the time appointed on Monday for the opening of the Court. All of which we submit to the Court.

JOHN MAHAFFEY, Foreman.

MARRIED.

On the 1st inst., by Rev. T. D. Gotwalt, Mr. Wm. V. Wright to Miss MARY FOLEY, both of Clearfield Pa.

With the above, we received a large cake, for which favor we tender our thanks to the twin that were made one. May peace, prosperity, and happiness attend them through their life's journey.

DIED: On the 23rd, Judge BONNALL of Brady township at an advanced age.

On Saturday the 28th DAVID BLOOM of Pike township.

Died, in Penn tp., on the 20th of June, after a brief illness of Measles, SARAH SPENCER, wife of Abraham Spencer and daughter of Elisha Fenton, in the 36th year of her age.

Thus have a family of eleven children, (mostly small), and an indulgent and devoted husband, and kindred, in forwarding them in earthly comfort in a great measure rested; to them it would be indeed a trying ordeal but for the comfortable assurance that their loss is but eternal gain. The deceased has been for many years a faithful and consistent member of the M. E. Church having attached herself thereto in early life. Amiable and affectionate in her natural disposition, she was enabled by firmness of purpose and an unwavering faith in the precepts of the Gospel, to win many friends who will mourn her early departure from this mundane sphere.

From cherished friends 'tis always hard to part. No more to mingle on this fading sphere. The chords of love which twine around the heart, Are to the Christian traveler dear.

But faith in God supports his weary feet, And bears him on through life's advancing years. Hoping again those cherished friends to meet, In realms of bliss beyond this vale of tears. J.

Important War News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.

GREAT BATTLE BEFORE THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

GALLANTRY OF THE PA RESERVE.

OUR ARMY VICTORIOUS.

By last night's mail we have the intelligence of a severe and most determined battle on the right wing of our army, on Thursday and Friday last, and is claimed as a successful strategic movement, which secures the capture of Richmond beyond a doubt.

The attack was made by the enemy in immense force, who crossed the Chickahominy near the railroad above Mechanicsville, on Thursday afternoon. The rebels fought desperately, but were unable to drive our men a single rod, though the enemy were ten to one. The only force engaged that day was McClellan's division, the battle lasting from two o'clock till nine p. m., when the division was ordered back. Gen. McClellan was on the field, and expressed himself satisfied with the result. It is stated that our killed, wounded and missing was about 1200. The object of the movement was to bring Gen. Porter's and other divisions into close connection with the rest of the army—in fact changing the front of the whole of our forces, with our centre and left pressing immediately on Richmond itself.

It was a virtual surrender or vacating of a long line of defence heretofore kept up to Mechanicsville, in order to have the whole force within a more effective distance; also, to allow the rebels to follow, and, if possible, to bag them.

Gen. McClellan ordered Gen. Porter to withdraw two miles this side of Gaines' Mills, early on Friday morning, which was done, the enemy following, and thinking they had gained the victory.

Our troops slowly moved back in order, fighting as they went, crossing the Chickahominy, and reached the position designed for their occupation by Gen. McClellan.

The rebels followed in great force, and by three o'clock in the afternoon a general and heavy engagement occurred here, lasting till seven o'clock, when a lull took place, but the rebels again renewed it with greater ferocity, having been reinforced.

Our brave men stood the unequal contest, like heroes, and the shell, grape, and musket did fearful havoc. Our forces were increased by Gen. Slocum's, Palmer's, French's, and Meagher's Brigades, and the rebels were beaten badly. Meagher's brigade went into the battle with their coats off, and sleeves rolled up fighting like tigers.

The ground which General McClellan ordered Gen. Porter to occupy and hold, was occupied and held. In the first part of the day, General Porter's corps alone contended against the rebels, but subsequently reinforcements swelled our numbers to forty-five thousand men. The rebels had sixty thousand under Generals Lee, Hill, Anderson and Branch.

This retirement was done in a quiet and orderly manner, the retreat being covered by the 1st, 2d and 5th Pennsylvania Reserves, who promptly returned the fire of the rebels, who were following.

These portions of the two armies are now face to face, and they may at any moment commence anew the engagement. During the fight, one company of the 1st Pennsylvania Bucktail reserve regiment was entirely surrounded, and all were taken prisoners. Some few, however, managed to escape, but were compelled to leave their dead and wounded comrades in the hands of the enemy.

Among the wounded in this regiment is Capt. E. A. Irvin who managed to escape. Col. Taggart, Lieut. Hartshorn and Lieut. Welsh of Clearfield co., and Jewett of Co. D, were also wounded and in the hands of the rebels.

This Regiment covered themselves with glory, winning from their officers the highest need of praise. From early in the afternoon until this morning they were actively engaged in the thickest of the fight.

The Pennsylvania Reserves are deserving, too, of their well-earned praise. Throughout all the fight they stood their ground against an unequal force, and in front of a galling fire. Their conduct on this occasion does honor to the Keystone State.

The above is considered a great strategic movement, by which the enemy were drawn out of their intrenchments and who, finding our right wing rather feeble advanced upon the White House. It appears, however that McClellan had evacuated the White House previously and threw the whole of his army across the Chickahominy, leaving only some gunboats to engaged the rebels as they approached.

This appears to be a strange movement, but, perhaps, a correct one, and if successful, will enable Gen. McClellan to establish his base of operations on the James river. What the result of the whole movement is has not, as yet, transpired—but we anticipate the taking of Richmond, and the entire rout of the rebel army.

We are indebted to our neighbors of the Republican for the following dispatch: PHILADELPHIA, July 1st 1862. To D. W. MOORE.—The news of yesterday was incorrect. The morning papers, do not claim that Richmond has been taken. I see no Clearfield names in killed and wounded except Capt. Irvin. His company was on picket duty when taken. WM. BIGLER.
