

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 9, 1862.

Table with 4 columns: Direction, Time, Station, and Remarks. Lists departure times for various stations like Tyrona, Altoona, and Harrisburg.

TIMBER LANDS FOR SALE.—We call attention to the advertisement of an Orphan's Court Sale, of the lands of John Peter Rider, deceased, in another column.

SICK.—We learn that Isaac Keirn, a member of the 78th Regiment Penna. Volunteers, is sick and in one of the Hospitals at Nashville, Tennessee, where he has been for three months past.

THE PICNIC.—No regular celebration having been got up in this place, on the 4th, a number of the citizens concluded to commemorate the day, by uniting in a social picnic.

AN APPEAL.—The ladies of Clearfield are again appealed to in behalf of the sick and wounded soldiers. Thousands have recently been wounded near Richmond, and are in want of the comforts and necessities of the sick room.

Ladies of Clearfield county, you are again called upon to come to the relief of your suffering fathers, husbands, sons, and brothers. Will you do so? We feel confident you will.

NOTICE.—A meeting in reference to the above object, will be held in the Court House this (Wednesday) evening at 6 o'clock.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL."

Editor JOURNAL.—This has, thus far, been a week of excitement, doubts and fears, relative to the movements and engagements of our Army before Richmond.

The anxiety prevailing here has been heightened, perhaps, by the many inquiries that are being made by the friends of the brave men who compose McClellan's army.

On the 30th inst by Rev. T. D. Gotwalt, Henry J. Snyder to Miss. PATIENCE QUERRY, both of New Millport, Clearfield co., Pa.

The next Republican nomination for Governor, and in my opinion the people of Pennsylvania would do well to secure, for that responsible position, the services of such a man as he is. Hon. John Patton, Member of Congress from our district, who is one of the Vice Presidents of the Association, also takes a deep and active interest in its purposes and workings,

DEAR ROW.—With much pleasure, although attended with all the inconveniences of camp life, I availed myself of your request to write again, hoping that a knowledge of our whereabouts would be of some interest to many of the readers of your estimable Journal.

I had said nothing of our participation in Baker's "skedaddle" from the vicinity in which we now are, as the particulars of that event are familiar to all—suffice it, to say, our boys stood nobly to their duty, although frequently exposed to the enemy's fire.

Our regiment, First Maryland Cavalry, is attached to Cooper's Brigade in Seigle's Division. In the last named officer we have implicit confidence.

How long we are to await the enemy's coming, I have no means of knowing, but the General says if Jackson don't come to us soon, we will go to him, which may not be a very easy matter in case old Jack takes it into his rascally head to dispute our passage through the Blue Ridge.

I hope we may soon get out of this inhospitable land. The country is beggarly and forage is very scarce. Our horses work hard and are growing thin on green feed.

Our letters and papers reach Winchester by regular mail routes, and are forwarded from thence by military. Please send me a Journal, as my personal gives me as much pleasure as a visit from an old acquaintance.

Yours, C. E. L.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, July 1.

The following correspondence between the President and the Governors of several States will explain its life:

TO THE PRESIDENT.—The undersigned, Governors of States of the Union, impressed with the belief that the citizens of the States which they respectively represent are of one accord in the hearty desire that the recent successes of the Federal arms may be followed up by measures which must insure the speedy restoration of the Union, and believing that, in view of the present important military movements now in progress, and the reduced condition of our effective forces in the field, resulting from the usual and unavoidable casualties of the service, that the time has arrived for prompt and vigorous measures to be adopted by the people in support of the great interests committed to your charge, we respectfully request, if it meet with your entire approval, that you at once call upon the several States for such number of men as may be required to fill up all the military organizations now in the field, and add to the armies heretofore organized such additional number of men as may, in your judgment, be necessary to garrison and hold all the numerous cities and military positions that have been captured by our armies, and to speedily crush the rebellion, so that still exists in several of the southern States, thus practically restoring to the civilized world our great and good government.

Response of the President. EXECUTIVE MANSION. Washington, July 1, 1862.

GENTLEMEN:—Fully concurring in the wisdom of the views expressed to me in a patriotic manner by you in the communication of the 28th of June, I have decided to call into the service an additional force of three hundred thousand men. I suggest and recommend that the troops should be chiefly of infantry.

The Loss of the Reserves at Richmond. The Pennsylvania Reserve were in the thickest fight. This morning they do not muster 3,000 men. Add to these 1,000 who are straggling and will yet come in, and the number is less than half that they began with at Beaver Dam.

WANTED.—All kinds of grain will be taken in payment of debts due me, for which the highest market prices will be given.

WANTED.—A blacksmith, who can carry on a shop. A single man, who can come well recommended for sobriety and industry, will be employed by the month, or the shop and tools rented to him. The stand is one of the best in Clearfield county. Apply to WM. C. IRVIN, July 2d '62. Burnside P. O., Clearfield co., Pa.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.—Is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for its use.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely exhibition of these few rankling disorders are snipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will stay in a diseased or overburdened condition to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; or when your head is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; or when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer for clearing the blood. Keep the blood healthy and all will be well; but with the pubescence of life, disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong; and the great machinery of life is disordered or overworked.

During late years, the public has been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been fronts upon the sick, for they do not only cost more when they are taken, but the painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised and has become synonymous with imposture and deceit. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obliquity which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price 25¢ per bottle, 6 bottles in one package $1.50.
