Sons Money .- Our correspondent .C. E. L. has sent us a specimen of "Confederate" currency, in the shape of a one dollar bill on the "Corporation of Richmond." The sugraving is very coarse, and is printed with green and black laks, on common printing paper.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION .- At the instance of our triands of Erie the Congressional Convention has been postponed until the 18th day of September, at Ridgway, Elk county. All parties may therefore consider the day and place fixed for the Convention, as it would be entirely impracticable to make any farther postponement.

MR. WALBRIDGE'S ORATION .- We tender our thanks to Hon. G. Opdyke, Mayor, and the committees of the Board of Aldermen and Councils of the City of New York, for a copy of Gen. HIRAM WALBRIDGE's great oration, delivered at the Cooper Institute, N. Y., on July 4th, 1862. The oration is a succinct history of this country, from the organization of the first government down to the present time. It worthy an attentive perusal.

Ho! FOR THE WAR .- We desire to state to the readers of the Journal that, as two of our hands (Amos Row and Ed. Livingston) have gone into the army, and the third one has gone home, we are left without sufficient help in the office at present. Heretofore, we have escaped the inconveniences incident to enlistments in the army, but it has fallen to our lot this time; therefore, we ask the indulgence of our patrons for any failure on our part to give them our usual variety of reading matter-hoping to be all right again in a week or two.

LEFT FOR HARRISBURG .- The military companies which were formed in this place, and at Corwensville, left this (Wednesday) morning for Harrisburg, where, we hope they will arrive safe. These two companies are composed of some of the best young men in our county, and we anticipate for them a glorious and valorons career, should they ever meet the rebel foe, face to face. Clearfield county has no need to blush for her sons who went into the army hereto; ore, and we feel confident that those who have gone now, will not bring dishonor to her name.

HEADQUARTERS IN SIGER'S COMMAND. Muar the Hopidan Biver, Aug. 16, 198/2. The enemy are still reported to be successing beyond the Rapidan, although they have a force on the other side, with guns to position. and a targe body of cavalry in the neighbor hood. They are supposed to be merely corering the rationt. The main Gody of General Milroy to in advance with Buford and Bayand's cavalry and some artillery.

The river is easily forded at many points, It is stated by a scout that Jackson's army numbered 60,000 at faset. He has managed to move them off satury, excepting a few straggiers. Some of the latter came into our camp last night and said almost all the Virginia soldiers would desert if they thought they would be well treated. A Union soldler he rendered to Generals Banks and Crawford, was found in the woods on Wednesday with Our loss in killed, wounded and missing was his musket barrel grasped in both hands, the about 1,500, of whom 220 were taken prisonstock having been broken off, and aleven dead rebels lying around him, some with their ter of the engagement, a very large propor heads smashed and others bruised in various ways, all the dead showing with what desperation the Union hero had fought for his life, but without avail. His body was pierced with three balls. HEADUARTERS ARMY OF VIRGINIA. Cedar Mountain, August 13, 1862, 5 P. M. To Major-General Halleck, General in Chief : On Thursday morning the enemy crossed the Rapidan, at Barnell's ford, in heavy force, and advanced strongly on the road to Calpepper and Madison Court House.

1 established my whole force on the turnpike between Culpepper and Sperryville, ready by that time the incomplete regiments will be to concentrate at either place as soon as the enemy's plans were developed.

Early on Friday it became apparent that the move on Madison G. H. was merely a feint, to detain the army corps of Gen. Siegel at Sperreyville, and that the main attack of the enemy would be at Culpepper, to which place I had thrown forward part of Bank's and McDowell's corps.

Brig. General Bayard with part of the rear of McDowell's corps who was in advance near the Rapidan, fell slowly back, delaying and embarrassing the enemy's ordnance as far as possible and capturing some of the men.

The force of Banks and Seigel and one of the divisions of McDowell's corps were rapidly concentrated at Culpepper during Friday and Friday night. Bank's corps being pushed forward five miles south of Culpepper, with Rickett's division of McDowell's corps, three miles in his rear.

The corps of Seigel which had marched all night, was halted in Culpepper to rest for a ew hours.

On Saturday the enemy advanced rapidly to Cedar Mountain, the sides of which they occupied in heavy force.

Gen. Banks was instructed to take up his position on the ground occupied by Crawford's brigade of his command, which had been thrown out the day previous to observe the enemy's movements.

The Latest News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail

By yesterday evening's mail we learn, that a battle took place at Baton Rouge on the 4th. which resulted in a glorious victory for the Union forces. The enemy was defeated with great slaughter, whilst our loss was 70 killed and 250 wounded. The rebel ram Arkansas was destroyed, and three heavy guns and many prisoners taken. Gen. Williams, the commander of our forces, is reported killed. The rebel chief, John C. Breckinridge, is reported to have lost his right arm by a cannon ball.

Pope's army has advanced to the Rapidan. The rebels are said to be in force on the opposite side. Maj. Enfield found and seized about 12,000 pounds of flour belonging to the rebel army. Gen. Banks is recovering.

Col. Guitar has defeated Poindexter's guerrilla band in Missouri, between two and three hundred of which were killeed and wounded. Our loss not stated.

A battle took place at Clarendon, Missouri, on the 11th, in which the rebels were defeat ed. Our troops captured 700 prisoners.

General M'Clellan has evacuated Harrison's Landing, and his advance has reached Williamsburg.

A rebel spy has been captured within Gen. M'Ciellan's lines.

A good stony, and a true one, is told of Gen. Duryea, while he was stationed at Baltimore as the Brigadier Commanding. He addressed a note to a person who had ordered a petty farmer upon his land, some nine miles from town, to haul down the national flag. The father-in law of this man, a president of one of our banks, waited upon the General to know whether he had written the note. "I did," said the General. "Are you the person ?" "No; I am his father-in-law." "I give you thirty minutes to produce your sonin-law in this office." But, General ?" "Thirty minutes, sir, thirty minutes!" The two came at the appointed time, and the offender confessed that he had committed the offence against the flag. "You must, both of you, take the oath," said the General, "and I give you, sir, two hours to hoist that flag upon the same spot where it was pulled down.33 But, General !" "Two hours, sir, two hours, or sworn Union men.

OF STATE OFFICERS .--- LOUISVILLE, Aug. 16 .---By an amicable arrangement John F. Fisk has resigned the Speakership of the Senate. James F. Robinson, of Scott county, was elected Speaker of the Senate. Beriah Magoffin has resigned the Governorship, thus Robinson becomes Governor de facto for Magoffin's unexpired term. Matt. Johnson, of Lexington, was elected Secretary of State. John B. Temple, President of the Military Board, has resigned. The duties thereof de-

He was directed not to advance beyond that point, and if attacked by the enemy to delend his position and send back timely notice. It was my desire to have time to give the corps of Siegel all the rest possible after their torced march, and to bring forward all the forces at my disposal. The artiflery of the enemy opened early in the afternoon, but he made no advance until nearly 5 o'clock, at which time a few skirmishers were thrown forward on each side under cover of the heavy woods, in which his, force was concealed. The enemy pashed forward a strong force in the rear of his skirmishers, and Gen. Banks advanced to the attack.

The engagement did not fairly open until 6 o'clock, but for one and a half hours was furi ous and unceasing.

Throughout the cannonading, which at first was desultory and directed mainly against the cavalry, I had continued to receive reports from Gen. Banks that no attack was apprehended, and that no considerable infantry force of the enemy had come forward yet.

Towards evening the increase in the artillery firing having satisfied me that an engagement might be at hand, though the lateness of the hour rendered it unlikely, 1 ordered General McDowell to advance Rickett's division to the support of Banks, and direct General Siegel to bring his men upon the ground as soon as possible.

I arrived personally on the field at seven o' clock, p. M., and found the action raging fu ciously:

The infantry fire was incessant and severe. I found Banks holding the position he took early in the morning. The lossess were heavy.

Rickett's division was immediately pushed forward and occupied the right of Banks. The brigades of Crawford and Gorden being directed to change their position from the right to mass themselves in the centre.

Before this change could be effected, it was quite dark, though the artillery fire continued at short range without intermission.

The artillery fire was continued at night by the Second and Fifth Maine batteries in Ricketts' division, M'Dowell's corps, and was most destructive, as was readily observed the next morning in the dead men and horses, and broken guu-carriages of the enemy's batteries, which had been advanced against it. Our troops rested on their arms during the night, in line of battle, the heavy shelling being kept up on both sides until midnight. At day-light the next morning the enemy fell back two miles from our front, and still higher up the mountain. Our pickets at once advanced and occupied the ground. The fatigue of the troops from long marches and excessive heat made it impossible for either side to resume the action on Sunday. The men were allowed to rest and recruit the whole day, our only active operations being of the cavalry on the enemy's flank and rear. Monyou both go to Fort McHenry." The flag day was spent in burying the dead, and in getwent up at the appointed time, and there it ting off the wounded. The slaughter was sehas floated ever since, and the two are now vere on both sides, most of the fighting being hand to hand. The dead bodies of both armies were mingled together in masses over RESIGNATION OF GOV. MAGOPFIN-ELECTION the whole ground of the conflict. The burying of the dead not completed until dark on Monday, the heat being so terrible that severe work was not possible. On Monday night the enemy fled from the field, leaving many of his dead unburied and his wounded on the ground and along the road to Orange Court House, as will be seen from Gen. Buford's despatch. A cavalry and artillery force under Gen. Buford, was immediately thrown forward in pursuit, and followed the enemy to the Rapidan, over which he passed with his rear guard by 10 o'clock in the morning. Parts of our infantry followed ; the remainder were sent forward in the morning- The behavior of Banks'
