CLEARFIELD, AUG. 20, 1862.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE PEOPLE'S UNION CONVENTION. Passed July 17. 1862,

Rosolved, that the Convention, representing as it does the loyal citzens of Pennsylvania without distinction of party, reaffirms the sentiments embodied in the resolution adopted at a meeting of the loyal members of Congress six months, and no paper will be discontinued unat the national capital, July 12th, 1862, viz:

"That we hold it to be the duty of all loyal men to stand by the Union in this hour of its trial; to unite their hearts and hands in earnest, patriotic efforts for its maintenance against those who are in arms against it; to sustain with determined resolution our patriotic President and administration in their energetic efforts for the prosecution of the war and the preservation of the Union against enemies at home or abroad; to punish traitors and treason with fitting severity, and to crush | As'te.Judges-Hon. J. D. Thompson, Curwensville the present wicked and causeless rebellion, so that no flag of disunion shall ever again be raised over any portion of the Republic; that to this end we invite the co-operation of all men who love their country, in the endeavor Treasurer . . Joseph Shaw, to rekindle throughout all the States such a Co. Surveyor, H. B. Wright, patriotic fire as shall utterly consume all who Commiss'n'rs, Wm. Merrell. strike at the Union of our fathers, and all who sympathize with their treason or palliate

Resolved, That we have continued confidence in the honesty, capacity and patriotism of President Lincoln and his constitutional advisers; that we approve the principles on which his policy, both foreign and domestic, have been conducted; that we sanction and sustain all the measures which he has found it necessary to adopt to guard the government against the assaults of traitors, their sympathizers and abettors; and that we esteem it eminently fortunate that in this most trying crisis of public affairs one so upright, temperate, prudent and firm as he has proved himself to be.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the administration of Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of this Commonwealth, marked as it has been by extraordinary vigor in the discharge of all public duties, by untiring zeal in the Chest, - - - Hurd, cause of the country, and especially in recruit ing forces for the national army, by enlarged and liberal care for the sick and wounded soldiers of the State, by a wise and prudent economy in the expenditures of the funds committed to his care, and by the unsparing devotedthe Governor himself, to the constant haras- | Girard, - - Leconte's Mills, - C. Mignot, sing, complicated and novel labors which the exigencies of the great rebellion have imposed.

Resolved, That we acknowledge but two divisions of people of the United States in this crisis; those who are loyal to its constitution | Huston, - Tyler. and every inch of its soil, and are ready to make every sacrifice for the integrity of the | Jordan, - - Ansonville, -Union, and the maintenance of civil liberty | Karthaus, - Salt Lick. withinfit, and those who openly or covertly endeavor to sever our country, or to yield to the insolent demands of its enemies; that we fraternize with the former, and detest the latter; and that, forgetting all former party names and distinctions, we call upon all pa- Pike, - - - Curwensville, - - T. exception among the reckless inhabitants where this rebellion was fostered, have wisely and studiously avoided all interference with he concerns of other nations, asking, and isually enjoying alike non interference with heir own, and that such is, and should coninue to be, its policy; that the intimations of contemplated departure from this sound ule of conduct on the part of some of the naions of Europe, by an intervention in our resent struggle, is as unjust to them as it rould be to us and to the great principles for hich we are contending; but we assure them, ith a solemnity of conviction which admits f no distrust or fear, and from a knowledge and a firm reliance upon the spirit and fortude of twenty millions of freemen, that any tempt thus to intervene will meet a resisnce unparalled in its force, unconquerable its persistence, and fatal to those whom it intended to aid; and that it will tend only Istrengthen and elevate the public.

Resolved, That the skill, bravery and endunce exhibited by our army and navy have | Cheap and Grey Cloths, Fancy and Black Goods wited our admiration and gratitude; that W behold in these qualities the assurance of Cheap ste and speedy success to our arms, and of ret and discomfiture to the rebels; that we ure the government to aid and strengthen tem by all the means in its power, and carefily to provide for sick, wounded and disabld soldiers and their families; to prosecute th war with increased vigor and energy, nutil the rebellion is atterly crushed, the integriv of the Union, in all its borders, restored, and every rebel reduced to submission, or driven from the land; and that to accomplish these ends we pledge to our rulers our faith, our fortune and our lives.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. David Wilmot, in the United States Senate, is manly, consistent and eminently patriotic, and we hereby endorse him as a true and faithful representative of the loyal people of this State.

Penrsylvania Hoapital. (FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL REPORTS May 19, 1860 .- Ellen S., æt. 28. single, never vas very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks, and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Saturday; while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back. felt cold, but had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began to swell which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is the most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism. or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well marked typical case. We will carefully watch the case, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves.
My chief object in bringing her before you now is to call your attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheamatism. I mean propylamins. Dr. Awenarius of St. Petersburg, recommends it in the highest terms having derived great benefit from its use in 256 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose giving it another trial. I must confess I am always incredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted as specifies; but this comes to us recommended so highly, that we are bound to give it a trial.

May 23, 1860 .- I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I preshribed Propylamine, and who was then laboring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in dozes of three grains, every two hours, (intermitting it at night). The day after you saw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed, and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly of cir natural size. Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but gentlemen we must wait a little while before we can give a decided opinion as to what is to be the result.

THREE DAYS LATER!

May 26, 1860 .- This is the case of acute rheumatism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clime.

She is still very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice daily.

In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring fore you a very characteristic case of acute 1 matism, and if the result b esatisfactory. as good jurymen, we shall justly render our vor... in favor of propylamine. He is a seaman, set. 26, who was admitted a few days ago. Has had occasional rhenmatic pains, but not so as to keep his bed, until eight days ago.

The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all swollen-tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin at present, dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90. He has now used propylamine twenty-four hours. This gentlemen is what may be called a .. letly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exosure to cold and wet and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coldness, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints There is fever and the profuse sweating, so generally attendant on acute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it. than which there could not be a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in question. therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines even anodynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case in a future clinic.

THE RESULT .- A FAVORABLE VERDICT. June 9, 1860 .- The next of our canvalescents is the case of acute rheumatism before you at our clin ic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about as you see. I do not hesitate to say that I have never seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without be ing prepared to decide positively as to the value of the remedy we have used, I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the chloride of Propylamine, the patients have gained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish, gentlemen, you would your selves try it, and report the results. For a full report of which the above is a cen densed extract, see the Philadelphia Mediculand Surgical Reporter. It is a report after a fair trial by the best medical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astonished doctors and rejoicing patients.
