CLEARFIELD, SEPT. 3, 1862.

BESOLUTIONS OF THE PEOPLE'S UNION CONVENTION. Passed July 17. 1862, olved, that the Convention, representing as it does the loyal citzens of Pennsylvania without distinction of party, reaffirms the sentiments embodied in the resolution adopted at a meeting of the loyal members of Congress at the national capital, July 12th, 1862, viz :

"That we hold it to be the duty of all loyal men to stand by the Union in this hour of its trial; to unite their hearts and hands in earnest, patriotic efforts for its maintenance against those who are in arms against it; to sustain with determined resolution our patriotic President and administration in their energetic efforts for the prosecution of the war and the preservation of the Union against en emies at home or abroad; to punish traito and treason with fitting severity, and to crus the present wicked and causeless rebellion. that no flag of disunion shall ever again i raised over any portion of the Republic ; th to this end we invite the co-operation of a men who love their country, in the endeave to rekindle throughout all the States such patriotic fire as shall utterly consume all wi strike at the Union of our fathers, and a who sympathize with their treason or pallia their guilt."

Resolved, That we have continued confidence in the honesty, capacity and patriotism President Lincoln and his constitutional adv sers; that we approve the principles on which his policy, both foreign and domestic, have been conducted ; that we sanction and sustain all the measures which he has found it necessary to adopt to guard the government against the assaults of traitors, their sympathizers and abettors ; and that we esteem it eminently fortunate that in this most trying crisis of our cherished Union, we have at the helm of public affairs one so upright, temperate, prudent and firm as he has proved himself to be.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the administration of Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of this Commonwealth, marked as it has been by extraordinary vigor in the discharge of all public duties, by untiring zeal in the cause of the country, and especially in recruit ing forces for the national army, by enlarged and liberal care for the sick and wounded soldiers of the State, by a wise and prudent economy in the expenditures of the funds committed to his care, and by the unsparing devotedness, of all its members, and in particular of the Governor himself, to the constant harassing, complicated and novel labors which the exigencies of the great rebellion have imposed.

Resolved, That we acknowledge but two divisions of people of the United States in this crisis; those who are loyal to its constitution and every inch of its soil, and are ready to make every sacrifice for the integrity of the Union, and the maintenance of civil liberty within!it, and those who openly or covertly endeavor to sever our country, or to yield to the insolent demands of its enemies; that we fraternize with the former, and detest the latter; and that, forgetting all former party names and distinctions, we call upon all patriotic citizens to rally for one undivided country, one flag, one destiny.

Resolved, That the government of the United States and its people, with an occasional

For more than twenty years, this journal has a bored i, what its conductors have felt to be the cause of II unanity. Justice and Freedom, endeworig o meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage usefal exert on in whatever sphere, and, to promote by al means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed ; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions. we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop 'he minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual set tlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy. As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government of the suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear daty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their ef forts to uphold the Union. the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Re-bellion has become, through usarpation, deception, terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and du-and of action indispensable in so grave an emer-faithful history of the times, not merely in the do-main of Action but in that of Opinion also. As main of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afford-ed, we may still hope to 'make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continu ance of the generous measure of patronage hith-erts accorded to our journal exception among the reckless inhabitants where this rebellion was fostered, have wisely and studiously avoided all interference with the concerns of other nations, asking, and usnally enjoying alike non interference with their own, and that such is, and should continue to be, its policy ; that the intimations of a contemplated departure from this sound rule of conduct on the part of some of the nations of Europe, by an intervention in our present struggle, is as unjust to them as it would be to us and to the great principles for which we are contending; but we assure them, with a solemnity of conviction which admits of no distrust or fear, and from a knowledge of and a firm reliance upon the spirit and fortitude of twenty millions of freemen, that any attempt thus to intervene will meet a resistance unparalled in its force, unconquerable in its persistence, and fatal to those whom it is intended to aid; and that it will tend only to strengthen and elevate the public.

Resolved, That the skill, bravery and endurance exhibited by our army and navy have elicited our admiration and gratitude; that we behold in these qualities the assurance of sure and speedy success to our arms, and of rout and discomfiture to the rebels; that we urge the government to aid and strengthen them by all the means in its power, and carefully to provide for sick, wounded and disabled soldiers and their families; to prosecute Cheap the war with increased vigor and energy, until the rebellion is utterly crushed, the integ-rity of the Union, in all its borders, restored, and every rebel reduced to submission. or driven from the land ; and that to accomplish these ends we pledge to our rulers our faith, our fortune and our lives.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. David Wilmot, in the United States Senate, is manly, consistent and eminently patriotic, and we hereby endorse him as a true and faithful representative of the loyal people of this State.

their natural size, Thus far our experiment wo have seemed very successful; but gentlemen a must wait a little while before we can give a ... cided opinion as to what is to be the result. THREE DAYS LATER !! May 26, 1860 .- This is the case of acute rheuma tism treated with propylamine, the first of those to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very comfortable, and is now taking three gratns thrice daily. In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring , fore you a very characteristic case of acute 1 matism, and if the result b esatisfactory. as good jurymen. we shall justly render our verse....

in farm of propylamine. He is a scaman, set. 26. who was admitted a few days ago. Has had occasional rheumatic pains, but not so as to keep his bed. until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later the joints of tho upper extremities. These joints are all swolles. tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin at present, dry, though there has been much sweatiug. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90. He has now used propylamine twenty-four hours. This gentlemen is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was ex-posure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of coluness. severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, sogenerally attendant on acute rheumatism.

I did not bring this patient before you with the I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to ex-hibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there could not be a fairer opportunity for testing the multising in question. for testing the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines. even anodynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case in a future clinic.

THE RESULT.—A FAVORABLE VERDICT. JUNE 9. 1860.—The next of our canvalescents is the case of facture the umatism before you at our effin-ic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The patient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about as you very nicely, and is now able to walk about as you seo. I do not hesitate to say that I have never seen as severe a case of acute to say that I have merer seen ed to health as this man has been, and without be-ing prepared to decide positively as to the value of the remedy we have used. I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the chloride of Promulaniae the value of the remedy we have the value of the state that in the case in which we have tried the chloride of Propylamine, the patients have gained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily match earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish, gentlemen, you would your selves try it, and report the results. For a full report of which the above is a cen densed extract, see the Philadelphia Medicaland Surgical Reporter. It is a report after a fair trial by the best medical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary to give numerous certificates from astonished doctors and rejoicing patients.
