orn Bors .- We learn that the company which left this place last, is now in camp at Maridian Hill, about three miles from Washington, and that a portion of it has been on Provost duty in the city. They were all well at last accounts. They arrived at camp on Sunday evening, and had to lay on the ground without tents that night; and could get no rations until Monday evening, when they received a half ration of bread. On Tuesday morning, however, they drew full rations, and all are in fine spirits now. Persons desiring to write should address, "Care of Capt. Z. C. McCallough, Company E 149th Reg. Pa. Vol., Col. Roy Stone, Washington, D. C.

THE BUCKTAILS .- A letter from Capt. E. A. Irvin, to his father, dated camp near Centreville, September 1st, 1862, gives the loss (of his little company of thirteen men) in the recent actions between Warrenton and Bull Run, as follows: Killed. John Kratzer. Mortally wounded and since dead, James Henry and Daniel Shaver. Severely wounded, Benton Granger. Slightly wounded, Joseph Broomall and Israel Freeze. The Cartain was well, but worn out with fatigue. He hopes to be all right in a few days, and says the rebels would have been whipped had our army been brought into action properly, and that only a small portion of our forces were engaged at any one time. Query, who is to blame ?

Few companies in the army have been more frequently engaged, or endured more hardships than the company under Capt. Irvin. It would seem from his letter that he had only thirteen men left, fit for service ; and of these siz were disabled in the recent fight, leaving him but seven men ! The Captain and his Lieutenants are all brave, gallant, and competent officers, and we should like to see the the ranks of his company again filled up with Clearfield men. It has already reflected great honor upon our county, and will continue to do so as long as there is a man left to carry a musket or sword.

DEPUTY MARSHALLS .- Below we give a list of the Deputy Marshalls of Clearfield county, as appointed by W. M'BRIDE, Esq., the Marshall for this county, to make the enrollment of those who are subject to military service : Beccaria township, S. K. Hegarty, John F. Lee, Esq., Bell township. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ss : In the name and by the authority of the Common. wealth of Pennsylvania, Andrew G. Curtin, Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail-Governor of the said Commonwealth. PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, in the present position of affairs, it is expedient that measures should be taken to arm and prepare our people for defence : Now, therefore, 1 do earnestly recommend the immediate formation, throughout the Commonwealth, of volunteer companies and regiments, in conformity with the Militia Act of 1858. Arms will be distributed to the organizations to be formed, agreeably to the provisions of that act.

It is furter recommended that, in order to give due opportunities for drill and instruction, all places of business be closed daily at three o' clock, P. M., so that persons employed therein may after that hour be at liberty to attend to their military duties. The cheerful alacrity with which the men of Pennsylvania have hitherto given themselves to the service of the country, has pressed heavily on her military resources. I am reluctant to ask her people to assume further burdens; but as their safety requires that they should do so, it is in their behall that I put forth the recommendations herein contained and urge a prompt compliance with them.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth, the eighty-seventh. By the Gov-ELI SLIFER, ernor.

Secratary of the Commonwealth.

THE INDIAN MASSACRES IN MINNESOTA .- The St. Paul Press of the 28th ult. contains a clear narrative of the recent massacres in Minnesota by Other-Day, a friendly Indian, which throws great light on its origin and extent. Four Sioux, of Little Six, s band, began the massacre without premeditation and without organizing an outbreak, by murdering six white persons at Acton, Meeker county. They fled to Redwood, and fearful of consequences, there took advantages of the prevailing disaffection to exite an insurrection, hoping to escape personal consequences by plunging the tribe into deeper crimes. They succeeded, but it is only the Sioux on or near the reservation who were implicated in the massacre, or willing parties to it-not more than six hundred in all

TURNING THE TABLES .- W. H. Cauxine partook of Agapito's meat in the little Dauphine street restaurant, New Orleans, and not only refused to pay therefor, but drew a revolver on his host, stating that he was a soldier in the United States service ; after partaking of that purpose, at the office of H. B Swoope, Esq. his meal, he felt in his pockets and found that his purse was lost. He then offered his watch as security, but Agapito refused to accept it, and caused the arrest of the moneyless eater. On this showing the soldier was discharged by the Provost Court. He thereupon made a counter charge against Agapito of selling liquor to him-a soldier. On this charge Agapito was fined $25.

The Latest News.

The news by last night's mail is not very satisfactory in regard to the extent of the rebel invasion of Maryland. There is no doubt, however, of their having occupied Frederick city, They threaten Baltimore, Philadelphfa, Harrisburg and Washington, and the sympathisers in those cities are quite elated at the success of their friends. The rebels have extended their pickets as far as New Markei. Johnson, it is said, holds this position with a strong force, and Jackson is reported fifteen miles below Point of Rocks. There are no rebel infantry east of Poolesville. They are drawn up in line of battle across the road, and rest upon their arms, ready for an attack. Their Cavalry are scouring the whole country for horses, cattle and provisions. It is said they brought no baggage with them, and seem to be determined to live upon the country in which they are located. They are in high spirits, and feel sure of taking Washington, but say they are going north first to procure supplies. Many of these reports need confirmation

The redels attacked Gen. Whites outposts at Martinsburg, Va., but were repulsed with a loss of 50 killed. Our loss 2 killed and 10 wounded.

General Pope has been assigned to a new position in the West, and McDowell is said to be transfered to West Point.

Total. 4093 1019 37 From the above it will be seen that Clearfield county has furnished 1019 men, (besides 37 whose regiments are unknown,) whilst her quota under the several requisitions is 1113. The number of men, therefore, to be drafted from the county is less than 100.

It is reported that Gen. Buell has ordered Nashville, Tennesser to be evacuated.

LACONIC SWORD PRESENTATION .- The New Albany (Indiana) Ledger states that a rather laconic sword presentation took place at Camp Noble, a few days since. A member of the Sixty-sixth Regiment, purchased a sword for Captain Gerard, and Captain J. H. Fawset was deputed to present it. This the Captain did, as follows : "Here, John is a sword." Captain Gerard tock it and replied :"Thank you; Fll see you again about it, after 1 have tried it." The presentation and reply were both to the point.

At a grand war meeting in Hartford, Conn., on Thursday of last week, the Rev. Mr. Trask, of Pittsfield, Mass., exhibited a bullet received by a drummer-boy on the 17th day of June, 1777, and which he carried in his body 77 years. Mr. Trask said he took the bullet from the dust in his coffin only four weeks ago.

The War Department issued an important order on Thursday, declaring all attempts to procure substitutes in anticipation of the draft to be a discouragement to enlisting, and that persons so acting were liable to arrest under the order of August 8th.

DIED: On the 20th of August, MARGARET H. PEN-TALL, wife of John R. Pantall, and daughter of James and Elizabeth Mehafley, of Howard, Centre county Pa., aged 20 years 11 months and 29 days.

The deceased was young, and not long since her prospects for many and happy days were flattering, but her departure from this scene of action is another proof that in the midst of life we are in death. She leaves a husband and an infant boy, parents, sisters and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her loss; but they are not as those who mourn without hope, for her testimony was satisfactory concerning her acceptance with God. Having made his business a regular study with several experienced architeets, and having also had long experience in the business, he flatters himself he will be able to draw the best designs of every description of buildings, make correct draughts of all kinds of paterns, models for patent rights, &c., &c , and to give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage. People from a distance will, by sending the di-mentions of the ground plan, with a description of the location, scenery, and country around it, be grafified with a design suitable in style and order with the location, scenery and country, and well adapted for its special purpose. No charge will be made if the job should not be satisfactory. Carpenters who desire to improve in the theoretical parts of their important profession may al-ways receive instructions in either of the different branches of Architecture. Information can at all times be obtained at my office, up stairs in Shaw's Row, or at George Thorn's, Clearfield, Pa. May,7,'62.-6m. AUGUSTUS WEITMAN.
