RESOLUTIONS OF THE PEOPLE'S UNION CONVENTION. Passed July 17. 1862,

Resolved, that the Convention, representing as it does the loyal citzens of Pennsylvania without distinction of party, reaffirms the sen-timents embodied in the resolution adopted at a meeting of the loyal members of Congress six months, and no paper will be discontinued unat the national capital, July 12th, 1862, viz :

"That we hold it to be the duty of all loyal the publisher. men to stand by the Union in this hour of its trial; to unite their hearts and hands in earnest, patriotic efforts for its maintenance against those who are in arms against it; to sustain with determined resolution our patriotic President and administration in their energetic efforts for the prosecution of the war and the preservation of the Union against enemies at home or abroad; to punish traitors the present wicked and causeless rebellion, so that no flag of disunion shall ever again be raised over any portion of the Republic; that to this end we invite the co-operation of all men who love their country, in the endeavor to rekindle throughout all the States such a Co. Surveyor, H. B. Wright, patriotic fire as shall utterly consume all who Commiss'n'rs, Wm. Merrell. strike at the Union of our fathers, and all who sympathize with their treason or palliate their guilt."

Resolved, That we have continued confidence in the honesty, capacity and patriotism of President Lincoln and his constitutional advi- Co. Superind't Jessee Broomall. sers; that we approve the principles on which his policy, both foreign and domestic, have been conducted; that we sanction and sustain all the measures which he has found it necessary to adopt to guard the government against the assaults of traitors, their sympathizers and abettors; and that we esteem it eminently fortunate that in this most trying crisis of Bloom, - our cherished Union, we have at the helm of Boggs, - - Clearfield Bridge, - Jas. Forrest.

Bradford, - Williams' Grove, - Jas. E. Watson. public affairs one so upright, temperate, prudent and firm as he has proved himself to be.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the administration of Andrew G. Curtin, Gover- Burnside, nor of this Commonwealth, marked as it has been by extraordinary vigor in the discharge of all public duties, by untiring zeal in the Chest, cause of the country, and especially in recruiting forces for the national army, by enlarged and liberal care for the sick and wounded soldiers of the State, by a wise and prudent economy in the expenditures of the funds committed to his care, and by the unsparing devotedness, of all its members, and in particular of the Governor himself, to the constant harassing, complicated and novel labors which the exigencies of the great rebellion have imposed.

Resolved, That we acknowledge but two divisions of people of the United States in this crisis; those who are loyal to its constitution | Huston, and every inch of its soil, and are ready to make every sacrifice for the integrity of the Jordan. - Ansonville. Union, and the maintenance of civil liberty within it, and those who openly or covertly endeavor to sever our country, or to yield to the insolent demands of its enemies; that we fraternize with the former, and detest the latter; and that, forgetting all former party names and distinctions, we call upon all patriotic citizens to rally for one undivided country, one flag, one destiny.

Resolved, That the government of the United States and its people, with an occasional exception among the reckless inhabitants where this repellion was fostered, have wisely and studiously avoided all interference with the concerns of other nations, asking, and usually enjoying alike non interference with their own, and that such is, and should continue to be, its policy; that the intimations of a contemplated departure from this sound rule of conduct on the part of some of the nations of Europe, by an intervention in our RICHARD MOSSOP. present struggle, is as unjust to them as it would be to us and to the great principles for which we are contending; but we assure them, with a solemnity of conviction which admits of no distrust or fear, and from a knowledge of and a firm reliance upon the spirit and for- Cheap titude of twenty millions of freemen, that any attempt thus to intervene will meet a resistance unparalled in its force, unconquerable in its persistence, and fatal to those whom it is intended to aid; and that it will tend only to strengthen and elevate the public.

Resolved, That the skill, bravery and endurance exhibited by our army and navy have elicited our admiration and gratitude; that | Cheap we behold in these qualities the assurance of sure and speedy success to our arms, and of rout and discomfiture to the rebels; that we Cheap Such as Coats, Pants, Vests, Under-Goods urge the government to aid and strengthen Cheap shirts, and other Flannel shirts, Goods Cheap Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Neck-Goods them by all the means in its power, and carefully to provide for sick, wounded and disabled soldiers and their families; to prosecute the war with increased vigor and energy, until the rebellion is utterly crushed, the integrity of the Union, in all its borders, restored, and every rebel reduced to submission, or driven from the land; and that to accomplish these ends we pledge to our rulers our faith, Cheap driven from the land; and that to accomplish our fortune and our lives.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. David Wilmot, in the United States Senate, is manly, consistent and eminently patriotic, and we hereby endorse him as a true and faithful representative of the loyal people of this State.

LINDSEY'S

BLOOD SEARCHER. In renewing of my acquaintance with the many friends of my medicine, I deem it proper to cau-tion them and the public, generally, against the use of an article prepared and sold by a man call-ing himself "Geo. H. Keyser, Pittsbury, Pa.," who has the impudence to call it has the impudence to call it LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, and states that it is made from my recipe, and, as if to carry out a regular game of "Stop Thief." he tells the public that "there is a counterfeit in the market." to see that his name is over the cork of every bottle" &c. He also publishes the most extravagant certificate headed "A Blind Man Cured"—"A Bad Sore Leg Cured," &c. I allowed him to proceed in this way for nearly twelve months, knowing that those who had either used or sold my article would have nothing to do with his, but I found there was a number unacquainted with mine who were induced from the above statements to give his a trial. The consequence was disappointment to them and injury to me. as they would at once pronounce Lindsey's Blood Scarcher a humbug, without knowing that mine

Penrsylvania Heapital. (FROM OFFICIAL HOSPITAL RAPORTS )
MAY 19, 1860.—Ellen S., set. 28, single, neverwas very strong. Two years ago she had an attack of acute rheumatism, from which she was confined to her bed for two weeks, and subsequently fined to her bed for two weeks, and subsequently from a relapse for four more. She has been well since then till last Saturday; while engaged in house cleaning, she took cold, had pain in her back, felt cold, but had no decided chill. Two days later her ankles began to swell which was followed by swelling of the knee joints and of the hands. She has dull pain in her shoulders, and her knuckles are very tender, red and painful; both hands are affected, but the right is the most so. This, then, is a case of acute rheumatism, or, as it is now fashionably called, rheumatic fever. It is a well marked typical case. We will carefully watch the ease, and from time to time call your attention to the various symptoms which present themselves. My chief object in bringing her before you now is to call your attention to a remedy which has recently been recommended in the treatment of rheucently been recommended in the treatment of rheucently been recommended in the treatment of the call your attention to a remedy which has rematism. I mean propylamine. Pr. Awensrius of St. Petersburg recommends it in the highest terms having derived great benefit from its use in 250 cases which came under his care. Various commendatory testimonials respecting it have appeared in our journals, and I propose giving it another trial. I must confess I am always incredulous as to the worth of new remedies, which are vaunted highly, that we are bound to give it a trial. SAME CASE FOUR DAYS LATER !

as specifics; but this comes to us recommended so

May 23, 1860 .- I will now exhibit to you the patient for whom I preshribed Propylamine, and who was then laboring under an attack of acute rheumatism. She has steadily taken it in does of three grains, every two hours, (intermitting it at night). The day after yousaw her, I found her much more comfortable, better than she expected to be for a week or more, judging from her other attack. (The patient now walked into the room.) The improvement has steadily progressed and you cannot fail to notice a marked change in the appearance of her joints, which are now nearly of their natural size. Thus far our experiment would have seemed very successful; but gentlemen we must wait a little while before we can give a deeided opinion as to what is to be the result.

THREE DAYS LATER!!

May 26, 1860 .- This is the case of acute rhonmatism treated with propylamine, the first of these to which I called your attention at our last clinic. She is still very comfortable, and is now taking three grains thrice doily.

In this case it has seemed to be followed by very satisfactory results. The second case to which your attention was called at our last lecture, has also continued to do well. I will now bring . - fore you a very characteristic case of acute a matism, and if the result b esatisfactory. as good jurymen, we shall justly render our ven.... in favor of propylamine. He is a scaman, æt. 26. who was admitted a fow days ago. Has had occasional rheumstic pains, but not so as to keep his bed, until eight days ago. The pains began in his right knee, subsequently affected the left knee, and later the joints of the upper extremities. These joints are all swollen, tense and tender. His tongue is furred; his skin at present, dry, though there has been much sweating. His pulse is full and strong, and about 90. He has now used propylamine tweuty-four hours. This gentlemen is what may be called a strictly typical case of acute rheumatism. There was exposure to cold and wet, and this exposure is followed by a feeling of columess, severe articular pain, beginning, as it usually does, in the lower joints. There is fever and the profuse sweating, so generally attendant on neute rheumatism. I did not bring this patient before you with the intention of giving you a lecture on all the points connected with rheumatism, but to again give a connected with rheumatism, but to again give a trial to the new remedy we are testing, and to exhibit to you this typical case, as I have called it, than which there could not be a fairer opportunity for testing the medicine in question. We are, therefore, avoiding the use of all other medicines, even anodynes, that there may be no misgivings as to which was the efficient remedy. You shall see the case in a future climic see the case in a future clinic.

THE RESULT .- A FAVORABLE VERDICT. JUNE 9, 1860.—The next of our canvalescents is the case of acuterheumatism before you at our clin-ic of May 26th, which I then called a typical case, and which it was remarked was a fair opportunity for testing the worth of our new remedy. It was therefore steadily given in three grain doses every two hours for four days. The ratient has got along very nicely, and is now able to walk about as you see. I do not hesitate to say that I have never seen as severe a case of acute rheumatism so soon restored to health as this man has been, and without being prepared to decide positively as to the value of the remedy we have used. I feel bound to state that in the cases in which we have tried the chloride of Propylamine, the patients have gained their health much earlier than under the treatment ordinarily pursued. I wish, gentlemen, you would your selves try it, and report the results.

For a full report of which the above is a cendensed extract, see the Philadelphia Medicaland

Surgical Reporter. It is a report after a fair trial by the best medical authority in this country, and makes it unnecessary tolgive numerous certificates from astonished doctors and rejoicing patients.
