house tops and windows, and the side walks were lined with spectators, including a full representation of ladies. The rebel forces are represented to be about 125,000 strong. The citizens of Frederick have suffered much from rebel incursions including the loss of domestic supplies. The enemy were in a starving and ragged condition-many of them being without shoes. They confidently expec ed that at least 50,000men would flock to them in Frederick county. Jackson was here, together with Longstreet and Hill. They left Frederick with the intention, it is reported, of going to Pennsylvania, but subsequent events seem to indicate that they will endeavor to retreat into Virginia by way of Williamsport. This morning an engagement is going on at the foot of the mountains on the road to Sandy Hook between rebels consisting of two thousand cavalry and three batteries. A portion of the enemy went to Hagerstown while Jackson took the left hand road towards Harpers Ferry. The rebels left four hundred and fifty of their sick in Frederick. About forty prisoners were taken last night and this norning between this city and the mountains. THE LATEST .- FREDERICK, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14 .- On our way hither this morning from Urbana, after crossing the Monocacy, Gen. McGlellan and staff passed through Sumner's corps, who opened their ranks for that purpose. The enthusiasm with which he was received by the veteran troops is beyond description. Before the rebels left Frederick they sacked and destroyed the union newspaper offices. The ladies here were forced to hide their American flags about their persons to prevent the rebels from carrying them off. In the artillery duel yesterday which lasted till one o'clock, between Gen. Pleasonton and the rear guard of the rebels, we had three horses killed and two men wounded. The rebels fearful of being surrounded by infantry fell back three miles beyond the mountains to Middleton, from which place they were driven in the afternoon. Our troops held the town during the night and Sunday morning. There is no probability that our troops will remain inactive. There is now no fear of an invasion of Pennsylvania. The troops are in excellent spirits at their reception by the people of this state. The sick and wounded Rebels left here have been paroled. Yesterday afternoon the Eighth Illinois cavalry, Col. Farnsworth, charged on two rebel regiments of cavalry and three guns a short distance beyond Midsquadrons of the third Indiana cavalry chargtillery on the road from Middletown to Harper's Ferry. It was a desperate affair ; we lost 30 killed and wounded. The loss of the enemy in killed and wounded during yesterday was double that of ours. Our cavalry so pushed the enemy's wagon trains yesterday that they were forced to burn half a mile of wagons to prevent them falling into our hands. A man who left Harper's Ferry yesterday afternoon reports that Longstreet was repulsed vanian, and the son of a white man. We hope there in the forenoon. At this writing, 8 o'. clock, a. m., the battle has been renewed in the direction of Harper's Ferry. The firing is rapid and heavy. fused to endorse Gov. Packer after the Gevernor like Douglas Lad turned his back on the Lecompton swindle. His votes in Convention, are on record and will show for themselves. He has always been a strict party politician and we have no reason to believe that ever he voted for any body outside of his own party lines. It would be with but ill grace that he or his friends could ask any one outside of his party to vote for him. But Mr. Wallace is just the candidate to suit those who stand on the platform and hold the views of F. W. Hughes, the Chairman of their State Committee ; but we do not think that either of them is the kind of politician the people need at the present time.

SHALL THE SOLDIERS VOTE ?-- We are glad to see that the Pittsburg Post is in favor of giving the soldiers the rights of franchise. By all means let the soldiers vote, that we may have the entire voice of the people, in these times of peril, duly expressed in the election of our rulers. We hold it to be the duty of all good citizens to bow to the voice of the people, fairly and legally expressed. If the Southern conspirators had been of the same mind, ABRAHAM LINCOLN would now have been the respected Chief Magistrate of the whole Union, which would have been dwelling together in peace and amity.

MAINE .- Returns from 149 cities and towns in Maine give for Governor ; Coburn, Republican, 28,709; Bradbury, Democrat, 22,291; Jameson, Democrat, 3,112. Coburn's majority will be from 7,000 to 8,000. The First Congressional District is yet in some doubt, though it is pretty certain that L. M. D. Sweat, the War Democratic candidate, is elected. Mr. Sweat fully indorses the Administration, and is thoroughly committed to the vigorous prosecution of the war.

VERMONT .- The Union war candidates sweep this glorious little State by at least ten to one. Gov. Holbrook's majority may be a triffe less than that, though we think it will not; while the opposition to the other candidates on the dletown, on the road to Hagerstown, we had Union State ticket is little more than nomi- three men wounded and took forty prisoners. nal. ,300 strong, surprised the town of Washington, N. C., at daybreak on the morning of the 6th instant, but were repulsed after a desperate fight of two hours, and pursued seven miles from the town. The 1st Regiment North Carolina Union Volunteers fought with great courage. Colonel Potter had a horse shot under him. The gunboat Louisiana, Captain Renshaw, rendered effective service in shelling the Rebels out of a strong position they had seized. During the engagement the small gunboat Picket, Captain Nichols, blew up her magazine, being accidentally fired. Captain Nichols and nineteen of his men were killed and six wounded. Our loss in the ac. tion on shore was seven killed and forty-seven wounded and four missing. Thirty rebels were killed and a large number wounded. We took thirty-six prisoners. Our force engaged was only five hundred strong. It was certainly a brilliant victory.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11 .- There has been skirmisbing between our pickets and the enemy's this afternoon. Two men were wounded and several killed of the enemy. John A. Coleman, a wealthy citizen of Cincinnati, was taken prisoner by the rebels. They are at Latonia Springs, six miles out. Heavy rains have stopped the skirmtshing. The city is greatly excited. Gen.Bragg is coming up from Sparta, Tennessee, by Lexington, Kentucky, with forty thousand men. Gen. Buell is coming from Nashville, by Louisville, with forty-five thousand troops. There seems to be a race between them. Cincinnati being the prize. If Bragg gets here first we will have hot work. A division of the enemy is reported moving towards the river, below here. Governor Todd sends word from Columbus, Ohio, that all is excitement in that city. During the storm this afternoon several river steamers broke loose and threatend to carry away the pontoon bridge. They were finaly secured without doing damage. We are momentarily expecting a battle. Louisville is reported safe by person from there. Much excitement exist here on account of the rebels being in Maryand thereatening Pennsylvania. Ten thousand volunters, with squirrel guns came in from the country to-day.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept, 11 .- A force of rebel cavalry, with three pieces of artillery, under Col. Shingles, made an attack on Williamsburg on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock. Having captured our pickets they marched into the town, taking our troops by surprise. An engagemint ensued, which lasted about thirty minutes. Our force consisted of the Pennsylvania Fifth Cavalry, Col. Campbell, who was taken prisoner, together with five captains, four lieutenants and a few privates. The rebel Commander, Col. Shingles, with eight of his officers and nine men, was killed. Their loss was more severe than ours, and we remained in possession of the place. We took a number of prisoners.

Governor Gamble, of Missouri, made a requisition on the banks and brokers of St. Logis for $150,000 to purchase arms, and was mitted the patriotism of the Republicans, but terday were those covering the rebel retreat. Pondexter has been captured, and now lies in The men are in fine spirits and are anxious to jail under sentence of death.

On Wednesday the 10th, a rebel force of 5,00, moved into the rear of our army between Fayette and Gauley, in Western Virginia, and attacked 34th and 37th Ohio, under Col. Se-ber, only 1,200 strong, encamped at Favette. A desperate battle was fought, lasting until dark, our forces cutting their way out, having lost 100 in killed and wouneed. At the same time, the enem approached Gauley, and succeeded in cutting off the 47th Ohio, two companies of the 9th Virginia and one company of the 2d Virginia cavalry.

ization of the rebel army. Gen. Lee is reported wounded, and Gen. Garland killed. Gen.

Hooker alone has over one thousand more prisoners, seven hundred having been sent to Frederick. It is stated that General Lee gives his loss at fifteen thousand. We are ollowing them as rapidly as the men can move.

CHAMBERSBURG, Sept. 15th .- One hundred prisoners, have arrived from Greencastle, and among them is Fitzhugh of Franklin county. Our people were for hanging him, but Colonel McClure saved his neck. Over 60 wagons are just entering town, which were captured from the retreating rebels. The wagons contain ammunition and equipments.

Business has again been resumed in Cincinnati, the Rebels having fallen back beyond Florence, Ky. The Ohio militia have also returned to their homes.

A fight took place near Mumfordsville, Ky., on the 14th. The rebels were repulsed with a severe loss. Our men fought bravely.

FORGERY OF BANK OF ENGLAND NOTES. The Directors of the Bank of England have met with a serious reverse. Hitherto, their great protection against the ingenuity of the forger has been the peculiarity in the manufacture of their paper-a peculiarity which has hitherto defied imitation. Various as have been the attempts to imitate this paper, it has never been successful, for a spurious Bank of England note could always be detected by the quality of the paper alone-that is, detected by all who are accustomed to the handling of the notes. Finding that they could not successfully make this paper, the forgers have had recourse to a more simple mode of procuring it-they have stolen a large quantity, some say several tons, from the Bank's mills, and there is great consternation in Threadneedle street. The robbery was only brought to light by the great number of forged notes in circulation, which are so like the real thing that the most experienced in such matters have been imposed upon, even practised cashiers and others long accuatomed to the handling of notes. When the painful fact was sat ing of forged notes. Bankers, money-changers, and others are urged in the same announcement to exercise the utmost vigilance in the receiving of Bank of England notes, and are requested to note the name and address of the persons from whom they receive shem. The robbery in question is a very serious affair both at home and abroad, and its consequences may be most disastrous unless this Ninth day of the culprits are detected and brought to justice. In every European city, and even on the continent of America, this robbery will cause consternation.
