County Meeting.

The Hon. Louis W. Hall, our candidate for State Senator, will address the people of this county, on Monday Evening the 22d day of September, at the Court House in Clearfield. All are invited to attend. Sept. 17.

TAKE NOTICE.—No causes will be tried at the Court next week, having all been postponed by agreement of Counsel. Jurors and witnesses therefore need not attend.

ASSESSOR.—We have been requested to state, that Daniel Livingston of Curwensville, Clearfield county, has been appointed assessor of the National tax in this Congressional district.

GRAIN.—Several persons having written to us, inquiring if we would take wheat in payment of accounts due to us? We answer, yes. And we will further say, that we will take wheat, rye, corn and buckwheat in payment of old accounts or on new subscriptions. Grain can be left at L. R. Reed's mill, immediately above Clearfield borough.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5, 1862.

S. J. ROW, Esq.—Sir: The three boxes you notified us of under date of the 16th ultimo, arrived in safety. Would have acknowledged before, but for the times. Have found ready demand and use for the same. Thanks, to the ladies. We shall be wanting winter clothes before long. Red woolen shirts and drawers, and woolen socks, will be in demand.

Very truly yours, D. L. Eaton.

DEATH OF CAPT. J. W. BAIRD.—An occasion of much interest was exhibited in our quiet town on Friday and Saturday. Captain Josiah W. Baird, our fellow townsman and commander of Company D of "Merrell's Horse," had, as it appears, been slain on Saturday the 6th instant, in an engagement with a guerrilla band, near Glasgow, Mo. Mrs. Baird, who was on his husband, (accompanied by Dr. R. W. Landis, Chaplain of the regiment, and the body of the Captain,) returned to her home among us on Friday evening. Our community was taken by surprise, as no notice of the disaster had reached us, (the telegram which had been sent announcing the fact, having failed to arrive,) and only a short time before, letters had been received here from Capt. Baird himself. The facts of his death appear to have been these. Word was brought to the camp at Glasgow on Saturday morning, that a guerrilla band was lurking in the brush some 8 or 10 miles north of Glasgow, and Capt. B. and a portion of his command were detailed, along with some of the State militia, to proceed against them. Having reached the place, the advance was fired into by the enemy, and Capt. Baird having ordered his men to dismount, advanced at their head into the brush where the guerrillas were concealed. In the first charge of the enemy upon this advance, Capt. B. fell mortally wounded—the femoral artery having been severed, he survived but a few moments. As he sank down, however, he discharged his revolver twice at the foe, who were now in sight, and animated his men to the charge. The guerrillas were entirely cut up and defeated, and the man who shot Captain Baird, fell pierced by four balls. The Captain was greatly beloved by his men and highly esteemed by the officers of the regiment. No braver man, or truer patriot, has fallen in this war. He was born, August 24, 1826.

The obsequies were attended on Saturday. The whole community for miles around seemed to be present, and the funeral was the largest ever seen in this place. A detail of military, and the band, accompanied the body to the church and then to the grave, and it seemed to us that nothing could exceed the exquisitely fine performance of the band on the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Galloway, Pastor of the Presbyterian church here, assisted by Dr. Landis, conducted the services.

INTERNAL REVENUE STAMPS.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has established the following regulations concerning the commissions allowed to purchasers of stamps: The commissions will be paid in stamps—that is, a remittance of $50 will entitle the purchaser to stamps amounting to $51. A remittance of $1,000 will entitle the purchaser to $1,050 worth of stamps. The Solicitor of the Treasury has given an opinion upon the liability of manufacturers to taxation upon goods removed from the place of manufacture prior to September 1, 1862. This opinion is in the hands of the printer and will be published in a few days. The collectors of customs at the several ports are instructed to receive in payment of duties all debenture certificates issued by them, the same being made receivable for duties by the act of March 3, 1849.

MR. WEBB'S RAM.—Work has been commenced upon the new iron ram at the shipyard of Mr. Webb, in New York. Exact particulars of the vessel are contraband. She will be 380 feet long, 78 feet wide and about 7,000 tons burthen. The Niagara was only 5,000 tons burthen and about 350 feet long. Neither the English nor French navy has a ship of this extraordinary length. It will, of course, take a long time to build her. She will be larger than either the Dictator or the Puritan, Mr. Ericsson's great iron clads.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS PARTY.

In a very remarkable article, in the last Wilkes' Times, occurs the following pregnant paragraph:

Personally, it is our great desire to sustain the President, and we deplore the opportunity he has let go by, to sustain himself. As strange a philosophy as it may seem for a Democrat to hold, we regard the fact of his being virtually isolated from his party, as the greatest danger of the State. Supported by a great branch of the American people, who, whether their politics are right or wrong, are still patriotic citizens, the President remains an object of power and respect; but tyroized and alienated, he becomes merely Abraham Lincoln, who can not be supported in his errors, merely because he is filled with good intentions. If he loses the support of his own party, he cannot count on the respect of ours; and it is palpable to the simplest reasoner, that a man who is not backed by any organization of the people, cannot guide the Nation through these stormy times.

There is solemn truth in this. No President can carry on a Government successfully without a powerful party, and no party will confide in him but the one which elected him. Mr. Lincoln and his administration must stand or fall with the party which elected him. If he breaks with the Republicans, or Radicals, as they are called, he will have no party which will trust him, confide in him, and cordially sustain him. We do not believe Mr. Lincoln designs to break with his party, but there are traitors and schemers who are seeking to produce this result, and they will stop at no fraud, corruption, hypocrisy or lying to accomplish their object.

DESPERATE COUNTERFEITER CAPTURED AT CLEVELAND.—On Tuesday last a man giving his name as Joseph H. Jones entered the banking house of Messrs. Wesson, Everett & Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and asked to exchange $1,000 note of the Bank of Georgia for Treasury notes. Mr. S. I. Everett, the cashier, saw at once his currency was spurious; but making no remark, whispered to a clerk to procure a policeman, and proceeded at once to reckon the money. In a short time officer Whitney arrived and arrested Jones. The two went away together, but on crossing Superior street, Jones drew a revolver and declared that he would go no further. Whitney threw his arm around the ruffian, and with the help of two citizens succeeded in securing him. He was safely lodged in jail, and assured the policeman that he drew the revolver only to make a present of it to him. Jones is from St. Cloud, Minnesota, and is an old offender. The ready dexterity of Mr. Everett thus secured one of the most daring counterfeiters now swarming over the country.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—The Treasurer's office of Stark county, Ohio, was entered on Tuesday night last, and robbed of forty-six thousand dollars—ten thousand in currency, and thirty-six thousand in checks, drafts, etc. It is said that some one dragged James S. Rider, whose term of office has expired, and who was to have given possession to his successor on Wednesday, and whilst he was stupefied, took the keys from his pocket, entered the office, opened the safe, and abstracted the money and papers.

According to the report of the Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, of Philadelphia, that organization has fed, within the past year, eighty-seven thousand, five hundred and thirteen volunteers and United States soldiers. Thirteen thousand one hundred and sixty-three dollars have been given to the Society, by contribution, within the fiscal year just closed.

The Governor of Maryland has issued a proclamation to the citizens of that State, calling upon them to enroll themselves in volunteer military organizations, to drive out the rebels that have invaded their soil. He recommends the formation of cavalry companies, as better adapted than any other in the present emergency.

Lieut. Governor Danally of Minnesota, has made an official report of the late Indian massacre in that State, in which he estimates the number of killed and wounded at three hundred and eighty-two.

Colonel Kane, of the Bucktail rifles, has been appointed a Brigadier General for gallant and meritorious conduct in the field.
