The Latest News.

Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail-

THE NEWS FROM MARYLAND .- We have nothing very definite from our army in Maryland at latest dates. It is said that the Rebels conducted their retreat into Virginia very leisurely and without a panic; having no doubt used the time of the armistice granted by Gen. McClellan for burying the dead, for the purpose of crossing the Potomac safely. In fact it is asserted that they took their own time to fall back, and did not appear to have any fears of being pursued.

Gen. Martindale was ordered across the river on Friday with his brigade, and fell into an ambuscade of rebel intantry, and suffered considerable loss. Col. Prevost of the 118th Penn'a was seriously wounded during the fight. Three other divisions are also reported as having crossed the river and attacked the enemy, and pushing him at every point.

It is supposed that the rebels are retreating up the Valley towards Winchester, and that a battle will occur at that place.

It is also said that Col. Miles had ordered Maryland Hights to be abandoned, three times before the order was obeyed. Blame attaches to some one for the surrender of Harper's Ferry and an official investigation will alone settle the matter.

Our loss in recent battles is said to exceed ten thousand. That of the rebels is supposed pelled to resign his position in the army, on much greater. Our troops are said to be in

FROM THE WEST .- From Louisville we learn that Gen. Bragg (rebel) has eluded Gen. Buell and is several miles ahead of him on the way to Louisville. Great excitement prevails there in consequence, and Maj. Gen. Netson is arranging to defend the city.

OUR INDIAN TROUBLES .- The St. Paul Pigneer and Democrat of the 16th, contains a letter from little Crow, Chief of the Sioux, to Col. Sibley, in which he says he wants to know what way he can make peace for his people. He also says that the white prisoners in his possession are treated as well as their own peo ple. Letters from the Sjoux Chiefs Wabash in and Taopi of a friendly character denouncing Little Crow as the cause of the troubles. It is evident the Sioux are much divided and quarreling among themselves. Col. Sipley re quests Little Crow to give up the prisoners first, and tells Wabasahaw and Taopi that he will meet them and their friends in open day; and adds, I am powerful enough to crush all who attempt to oppose mymarch, and to punish those who have washed their hands in innocent blood. The Pioneer, of the 17th, says that the Chippewa embassy have returned having settled successfully all questions of dispute. They left the Indians in a more cordial and friendly state of mind than has existed for many signed a treaty of perpetual peace at Crow Wing, on the 15th inst., whereupon the whole bands prepared to leave for their homes, all satisfied. Hole-in-the-Day promises to disperse his men.

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE-NEW VOLUME On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty first year of its existence; the THE DAI-LY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI WIEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has la bored i . what its conductors have felt to be the cause of H tmanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavam unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exert on in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop 'he minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry through free grants of Public Lands to actual set tlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branche from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which itstead-fastly commends to American patriotism and philarthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our coun-try, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, inexcusable, then was ever before knewn-a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many-a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression. Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avoid this War and witnessed the forbearance, meek ness, and long-suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen ru lers, and to second with all our energies their of forts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the laws. And, though the Re bellion has become, through usurpation, deception, terroism, and spoilation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, howeign Affairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Crops. Markets. &c.. which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the do-main of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and fulness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to 'make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continu ance of the generous measure of patronage hith erto accorded to our journal.
