Gopry's LADY'S BOOK .- We have received the November number of this invaluable Lady's companion. It contains the unprecedented number of 83 engravings on various subjests. The "Heavenly Consolation", is a superb picture, and worth the price of the book. alone. Why don't you subscribe for it ?

To SCHOOL DIRECTORS .- We desire to say to the School Directors of the several districts in this county, that we have up a form of articles of agreement with teachers, as reported in the late school law. Should any be wanted between this date and the 1st of November, they will be furnished on short notice. We do not keep them on hand, but will print Oct. 22. them to order.

ELECTION ITEMS .- We have but few figures of the Congressional election in this district, but we think there is no dount of Mr. Scofield's being elected.

The vote for Senator In this district gives Mr. Wallace a majority of about 300. The army vote may change the result, however. Messrs. Early and Boyer, Democrats, are elected to the Legislature.

The result in the State is not known with certainty, but the figures received would indicate that the Democratic State ticket is ethe official vote next week, if possible.

THE WAR NEWS .- Gen McClellan's army has returned to Harper's Ferry, the late advance to Charlestown having been a mere reconnoisance in force. One hundred rebel prisoners were taken during the expedition. Gen. Stahl made a reconnoisance to Aldis, Va., last week. He drove a party of rebels through Thoroughfare Gap-capturing about 100 prisoners on the way. On the 18th, the rebel Morgan succeded in taking possession of Lexington, Ky. The Union troops under Gen. Dumont, however, retook the place the following day, after a short fight. The rebels are being driven South at every point.

The rebels under Faulkner attacked out troops opposite Island No. 10, one night last week. In the darkness the rebels became confused and fired into each other, and then retired. Eight rebels were killed. Our cavalry succeeded in taking Faulkner, 3 captains, and 13 privates prisoners; and captured 30 horses. Our loss was 2 killed, 3 wounded.

IMPORTANT WAR NEWS. The A: my Alranoing-Fight near Ch. lestown Virginia-Oar Troops Decupy the place. FROM BETOND HALLTOWN, VA. Oct. 16. 1862. A reconnoissance in force was made this orning, soon after six o' clock, under General Hancock, comprising his entire division, together with Dana's brigade, from Sedgwicks, and under command of Col Lee, of the Twentieth Massachusetts regiment, together with four batteries, two regiments of cavalry and one battery of flying artillery. They left Bolivar Heights, and proceded out the Winchester and Harper's Ferry turnpike towards Charlestown, in the following order :

First, the Sixth New York Cavalry, Colonel Devian, and a battery of Flying Artillery, ander the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Mc-Nickers, First Bittaiton ; D. xt, the Fifty third Pennsylvaria Volunteers, and First Minnesota, of the Third Brigade, under Colonel Brooks; following these were Tompkins' Rhode Island Battery (six pieces.) the remain der of the Third Brigade, under Colonel Look; next, Captain Thomas, U. S. A., with six pieces ; following came the Second Brigade, under General Caldwell ; Captain Pettit's First New York Battery, with six pieces were next in order; following them was the First Brigade of General Dana, from General Sedg wick's Division, under the command of Colouel Lee, and joining us afterwards, was a bat talion of Cavalry of the Third Indiana. In this order they advanced until just after crossing Halltown, which is some four miles from Harper's Ferry, A battery of the reb els, comprising not more than four pieces, opend at short range upon our advance, their range being so short as to full to reach the parties for whom it was intended.

The Fourth Regu ar Battery, under Lieut. Dickerson, promptly returned their fire, and with such effectiveness as to completely silence them in something less than half an hour, although failing to force them at once lected by about 5000 majority. We will give to retire. The infantry regiments, under the command of Generals Caldwell and Meagher and Colorel Brooke, and detachments from other regiments, under Colonel Lee, were then drawn up in line of battle in columns, by division, on each side of the road, the batteries, under Captains Pettit and Thompson. keeping along the tarapike and pessing to the front beyond the line of battle thus formed. and posting themselves on an eminence just in front of the infantry.

> Soon after, the line of infantry posted on the right of the road commenced to send out their skirmishers, and, as they advanced with out molestation, gradually the infantry advan ced, and as they proceeded, so did the batteries, cavalry and infantry, until the whole column was again in motion, and carefully feeling their way forward, the enemy retreating to wards Charlestown.

> We lost in killed, Mr. Elmore wounded, Richard Cogan, right leg amputated ; James Corkill, left hand, and face, by shell; Peter Campbell, shell in head, and Mr. Patrick and Mr. Carpenter slight. The Adjutant of the First Minnesota had his horse shot from under him. I could not learn of any other casualties. All the above belonged to Co. A.,

Administrators DROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY .- There are periods n the world's bistory marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born. new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders.

The following patriotic and stirring note was recently written by a very distinguished member of the Society of Friends, to his son in the army :

PHILADELPHIA, Ninth Month, 19, 1862 .-DEAR Son : I understand thy regiment is ordered to the front. If this is so, I hope thee will remember the stock from whom thee came ; and remember that death is better than dishonor. From thy father.

. If "British neutrality" continues to furnish ships and munitions of war to the sebels, we hope the next proclamation the President will issue will be one laying an embargo on all British importations. We can well afford to do without the nigger breeders right hand bower.

It is stated that $70,000,000 to $80,000,000 of counterfait Confederate money is in circulation in the South. The Charleston banks have six or seven millions of the stuff received as good money.

Regular Artillery. The battery lost four horses, by solid shot from the enemy, who seemed to have early got the range of it.

Up to this period the cannonading continued and we left this secue for front, only a short distance ahead.

The road at this point and beyond was quite rolling, a succession of short hills, with a dense wood in front, hiding from our view Charlestown. In this wood the enemy were posted. Our troops at this point, were under the immediate command of Gen. Hancock. of Leonard, deceased, aged 68 years. Williamsburg renown.

Shortly a ter our arrival at the top of a hill within two miles of Charlestown, the fire of the enemy slacked, and our infantry deployed as skirmishers extending on each side of the road, while the main body massed and proceded on, preceded by the Second and Sixth Regular Cavalry. At this point we retraced our steps to Harp-r's Ferry, for the purpose of gaining the train so as to send this much of our success.

No doubt, our troops, very shortly after we left the field, took possession of Charlestown The enemy opend at short range, Company A, of the Fourth Regular Artillery, answer ing, the third shot of the enemy, killing the above mentioned men. Our fire seemed to bewilder the enemy, but they stood their ground well, until compelled to retire by the skill of our batteries. Tompkin's Rhode Island Battery occupied a commanding position and did terrible execution.

Gen. Meagher's Brigade behaved nobly. CHARLESTOWN, Va., via WASHINGTON, Oct. 16, 8 p. M .- General McClellan and staff rode boldly out to the front of the village. Rebel cavalry pickets were seen occupying the next hill beyond the town. General Lee is at Winchester with a large force. Jackson is at Bunker Hill with his corps. Hill is also there. Stuart's cavalry are on the Shenandoah. A large force is also stationed at Keestown. six miles away. Our troops are deployed out in front. Caldwell's brigade on the right front, the Firth New Hampshire on the left, the Sixth Regular Cavalry on extreme front of the village. Cavalry, infantry and artillery are scattered through the town. The Sixth New York Cavalry are two miles in our rear to prevent a flank movement. We have taken seventy rebels, wounded in the fight to-day. Our reception has been verr cold on the part of her people. There are a few Union men here. Provisions are very scarce, both for man and beast. We found an old negro confined in "John Brown's jail," and the field where be was executed is planted in corn. The negroes appear very gleeful.

1-ns? Why, but because they have more re gard for the welfare of the secesh than for the quick triumph of the Union cause? Is there any other reason ?

The fight at Baton Rouge extended over an area of about one mile square, and in the center was a graveyard, were lie the remains of Zachariah Taylor, once President of the United States.

This Continent has lately been convulsed an upheaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of al' men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions. At a juncture so solemn and so important. there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by par-tizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward . which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devot-In Politics. it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrit. of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Kepublic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages. In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number. a ' New Serial of American Life," by Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The develations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of "through the Cotton States." containing the re-sult of an extended tour in the senshore Slave States. just prior to the breaking out of the war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literatic have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be dis-tinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or as-sociation partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

that of intrinsic excellence. The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial goasip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor. without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this dep riment inay be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward). from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life" The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progres-tice without vielding to chimeres and hones be sive, without yielding to chimeras and hop os beyead the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the Ameri-can people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magasine of the itere of the time.

of the time. TERMS :-- Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers;) Two copies for $5; Three copies for $6. (postage unpaid); Eleven copies for $20. (postage unpaid).
