THANKS .- Our thanks are due to Hon. John Patton for a number of valuable public docu ments. Also, to Hon. Edgar Cowan for a copy of the Congressional Globe, (Extra session.)

THE ACADEMY .- By reference to our adver tising columns, it will be seen that C. B. Sandford, the Principal, will open the next session of the Academy, on Monday the 10th of November. Parents should bear this in mind, as it is to the scholars' advantage to be in attendance at the opening of the session.

If you want Pills, take Ayer's Pill. Nothing has ever appeared in this market that can compare with this new invention for chasing out the distempers that fasten and grow upon us. They are the Philosopher's elixir of life, that bids defiance to disease, and will leave us no alternative but to die of old age.

TTRONE AND CLEARFIELD RAILROAD .- For the information of persons having freight to he forwarded over this road, we will state that, in order to prevent delay at Tyrone, it is ne -cessary it be directed to "Sandy Ridge Station." Without such direction, the agent at Tyrone connot send forward articles until a new manifest is made out for the same, which will occasion a detention at that place of at least one day.

STOWING POTATOES .- As many of our farmers and gardeners are now stowing away their winter supply of potatoes, the following hints on the subject from a correspondent of the Scientific American may prove of use. The writer says he has tried it four years and that it has proved a sovereign remedy, not having jost a boshel in that time after they were harvested, though in some cases they were half discused when taken out of the ground. The receipt is as follows : . Dust over the floor of the bin with lime and put about six or seven inches deep of potatoes and dust with lime as before. Put in six or seven inche more of potatoes, and lime again ; repeating the opperstion till all are stowed in that way. One bushel at time will do torty bushel of potatoes,

REV. I. J. STINE .- This gentleman was ar rested some ten days since on a charge of disloyalty against the Government. It was asserted that he had betrayed Capt Palmer into the hands of the rebels, and gave information to Stewart's cavalry which enabled them to make a successful raid into Pennsylvania. How true all this is, remains to be seen; but the following letter, published in the Philadelphia Press of the 31st October, seems to throw some doubt on the charges made against kept in a country store, and selected with an eye Mr. Stine :

IRON CARS FOR THE PENNSYLVANIA RAIL ROAD .- The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are having constructed several iron cars for the use of their road. The inventor of this new vehicle claims that it is many tons lighter than a wood car, and much stronger; that it will last much longer, and is almost entirely secure from accident. If it came in collision with another, was thrown off the track, or down su enhankment, or throwno ff a bridge, it might be hadly dented, but would remain whole, No loss of life could occur from splinters, the breaking out of bottom, or top or of sides There might be a jum and a squeeze, but nothing worse. Had iron cars been in use on the North Pennsylvania Railroad, at the time of the terrible disaster near Fort Washington, a lew years since, one of the most horrible incidents of the calamity would have been avoided. We ailude to the roasting to death of scores of poor creatures in consequence of the wrecks of the cars taking fire. There is nothing like iron.

HEAVY FORGERIES IN THE INTERIOR OF THE STATE-ESCAPE OF THE FORGER.-A series of years, were recently perpetrated at Jersey and were so skillfully performed that up to this time no clue whatever has been discovered of the criminal. It appears that about the 6th of October a well dressed and gentlemanly looking man presented himself at the counter of the Jersey Shore Bank, and representing himself to be L. O. King, of the firm of Seth L. King & Sons, of 888 Broadway, New York, and 394 Lake street, Chicago, dealers in furs. skins, &c., stated that in consequence of the Indian troubles in the west this description of merchandise had greatly enhanced in price, and he had come up into that portion of Pennsylvania to see if he could not purchase there. He seemed to be perfectly posted in the trade, and wound up by presenting a draft of the State Bank of Indiana for $3,400 on the Reynolds & Co., for $900, both of which were exceed $20,000,000. eashed.

MARRIED.

October 28th, by Rev. T. D. Gotwalt, Mr. W. W. BETTS, of Clearfield, to Miss. MAGGIE, daughter of Wm. Invin, Esq., of Curwensville.

By the Rev. J. M. Galloway, on the 30th of October, Capt. E. A. IRWIN, of Curwensville, to Miss EMMA AUGUSTA, daughter of James B. Graham, Esq., of Clearfield.

Among the conditions of sale by an Irish anctioned was the following : "The highest man bids more, relation to Rev. Stine, we, of Perry county, know to be wholly unfounded. Without saywith Capt. Palmer, or the radiculous story about his attempted plot to secure the capture of Gov. Cuttin by the rebels at Hagerstown, we are certain that all that relates to his "arriving at Chambersburg in advance of the rebels" is untrue. Ever since the battle of Antictam Rev. Stine was at his mother-in-law's in Perry county. The rebel raid on Cham bersburg was made on Friday evening, the 10th inst. Now, Rev. Stine was at New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa., from the 7th to the 10th inst., selling religious books in the court house of the place. On Friday, the 10th at ten or eleven o'clock A. M., he left New Bloomfield in the stage to bring home his family. It is not true that he carrived at New port, his residence, on a visit to his wife,"-When he left New Bloomfield, on the 10th. he went to Shippensburg, where his wife and children were on a visit to relations, and returned with them to his mother-in law's, in Jackson township, where the sheriff found and arrested him. He has no charge of congregations, for the reason that it is only a few months since he returned from Nova Scotia, where he preached for three or four years. In the Philadelphia Inquirer of the 27th inst., it is stated that the people here were on the point of mobbing him at the time of his arrest.

Now, Mr. Editor, there is not the shadow of truth in all this. The people here could scarcely think it possible that Rev. Stine the heaviest forgeries that have occurred in should be arrested; they were amazed, and the northern part of Pennsylvania for many sympathized with him deeply, knowing that he was always loyal and sincerely devoted to the Union, and bitterly opposed to the cause Shore, in Lycoming county, Lock Haven, in of the rebels. No man in Perty county, or Clinton county, and at Bellefonte, centre Co., anywhere else, that knows him and his sentiments on the rebellion, will or can believe him to be anything but a sound Union man, and an uncompromising enemy to Secessionism. We have known him for some six or eight years, and are sure he is willing, at any time, to give his life for the Union. For the sake of trath, and to vindicate an innocent and truly loyal man and minister of the gospel, we feel constrained to make these statements .-We know him, and can bear testimony to his irreproachable character as a citizen and minister. as well as to his unfeigned loyalty to the Union. Our impression here is, that a mistake was made-that the wrong man was arrested. Yours, &c., D. H. FOCHT, Pastor of Christ's Lutheran Church.

idence, or a magnificent hall for the comfort of life, will save money by taking the advice of an experienced Architect. making preparations in time, and by obtaining the bills, drafts, estimates. and specifications at the proper time, will guard against empty purses before the completion of the building. The undersigned would therefore respectfully inform the citizens of Clearfield and the public in general that he is at all times prepared to execute jobs, in his line, on short notice, and on the most favorable terms. SALT-a good article, and very cheap at the store of WM. F. IRWIN, Clearfield, elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions. At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold y. and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which hall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to siterature and National Policy. In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command. measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will con tribute regularly to its pages.

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a ' New Serial of American Life,' by Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street." "St. Legert"

Ac. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea. West, Λ series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the re-sult of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war. and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or as-sociation partaxing of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward). from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life

The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progressive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes beyend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the Ameri-can people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time. TERMS: --Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers.) Two copies for $5; Three copies for $6, (postage unpaid); Elevan copies for $20, (postage unpaid).
