Ssow -The first snow of the season fell on last Wednesday night ; and on Friday night about 3 inches had fallen, but it has all disappeared under the warm sunshine since then. The weather is unusally pleasant.

SolDiers' RELIEF .- In pursuance of an injunction of Court, the Board of Relief of the County of Clearfield, will be in session on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 18th and 19th, for the purpose of hearing claims, and affording such relief as may be right. Persons interested will pay particular attention to the rules of the Board, (see their advertisement in another column,) if they desire to save some trouble.

CONRAD HOUSE, PHILIPSBURG -This well known house is now kept by James H. Galer, and has, as it deserves to have, a large run of custom. Jim is one of the most accommodating landlords we know of in this country, and understands how to conduct a hotel so as to secure the patronage of the public. He sets a good table, and has things generally in such excellent condition, that his customers are entirely satisfied with the entertainment which they received at his house.

IMPORTANT TO DRAWERS OF NOTES, CHECKS, Ac .- The decision of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue is absolute in regard to the stamp on checks, notes, &c. The drawer must offir the slamp-AS IT IS NOT LEGAL FOR THE HOLDER OF THE SAME TO DO SO. A few more decisions of this kind will equalize the taxes, compelling each man to pay his own. As the law now works, each man is forcing the tax from himself to some one powerless to resist it, until the whole burden is fast accumula ting on the laborer, the consumer, the poor n.an.

MELASCHOLY EVENT .- In the borough of Getty sburg, on Monday last, some difficulty occurred between a young man named Moses Degroff and another person. Degroff was flourishing a knife and making threats. Mr. John Knob, a respectable citizen of Hamiltonban township, happened to be there at the time. and, it appears, drew a revolver, for some reason or other, and it was discharged, he knows tot how, the load passing through the hea of Degroff, and eausing his death in a few hours. Mr. Knox immediately gave himself up to the authorities, disclaiming all intention of injury towards Degroff, and that the disch rge of the pistol was purely accidental-

Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Aver's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors-purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purity the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold set tles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its atural functions. These if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs. producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of health again. patch of the 5th inst., says that at the beginning of the rebellion, a widow was residing in that city in comparative comfort, supported by the labor of two sons, one of whom was married, the other a minor. When Sumter tell, both these young men promptly enlisted, served through the three months' campaign, returned and re-enlisted for the war. The woman is illiterate, but a true Christian and mother. We became enlisted in her behalf from her frequent visits to our office, with the inquiry if we "had heard anything from her boys," and also from her request that we should "write a few lines to them for her, and tell them to remember their Creator, and to do their duty." For some time we had missed the old lady's visits, and on Tuesday she call ed on us with a mournful story. One of her sons, at the second battle of Bull Run, received a wound in the hip, which, the physicians remained on the field for thirty-six bours, and was then removed to a hospital, where his mother visited him. She remained with him until Monday last, when the brave fellow insisted that she should go home, and that, too, with the certainty almost that she would never again see him alive. He had a few days before received from the Government fifty-two dollars, every cent of which he was resolute in compelling his mother to take, saying it would make her comfortable during winter. At Harrisburg depot, her wallet, containing every cent she had in the world, w is stolen from her pocket. She called to get us to write to the Station Agent at the Capital, but as we knew that would be fruitless, we informed her that nothing could be done. "Oh!" said she, "if my poor boy only does not hear of it." She has a sick girl dependent upon her; she is not healthy berself, and litterally has not one PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY.-There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent orises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on of a voicand, of the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises , weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. KILLED BY THE INDIANS .- James G Baily . formerly a resident of Hollidaysburg, but for some years past residing in Kansas, was killed by the Indians on the 15th of August last. The Kansas Journal says that Mr. Bailey, together with a company of emigrants to which he was attached, on their way to the Salmon River Gold Mines, encamped on Greene river. some 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, when be, with another man, went two or three miles from camp to fish. While absent the Indians attempted to stampede the cattle and mules belonging to the train, but were driven off by the guards. In their retreat the Indians came apon the fishing party and attacked them with -one arrow wounding him in the head, and snother passing through his heart. He leaves a large family, who reside at Rising Sun, opposite Lecomton Kausas.

Mr. Baily was a son-in-law of Robert Wallace, Esq., of this place, and was known in several sections of the county. His triends will learn with regret of his sud fate.

CONFEDERATE BONDS IN ENGLAND. - The Columbra (S. C.) Guardian publishes an extract from a letter dated London, Sept.15, which "It is a great misfortune your government with our leading bankers. It would be able to ell your bonds to large amounts. I know of eel sure your government could easily raise money enough at par, or a little under, in case money is needed. There is nothing that shows the confidence of our people in the success of your cause as this circumstance, yet our miserable Whig Government does not move, and Lord Russell will be the very last man to do what is wanted. Lord Lyons tries to impress on those approaching him that the South is working and fighting to unite the North with it, and really does not wish a

THEIR HOPES .- When the rebels began this war they boasted largely of what they would do. They would subdue the North, seize the capital, be recognized by all nations, and then all would be over. Now hear the subdued tone of the Richmond Examiner of a late date : "As time wears on we have reason to hopand believe that the arguments for peace will become more and more cogent and compulsory with the North. We have reason to believe that Europe will be obliged, not merely by the dictates of enlarged philanthropy, but by the more potential commands of interest and duty, to interfere for the suppression of the American war."

The rebels are pretty nearly done when they begin to talk in that way. They are looking anxiously to their sympathisers in the North, and their friends among the aristocrats of Europe for help. But neither of these parties bows and arrows, killing Mr. Bailey instantly to whom they are looking for help and inter ference can relieve them. They will be obliged to yield.

BUCHANAN FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR .-The movement to make ex-President Buchanan the next United States Senator from Pennsyl vania is most ridiculous and imprudent. The imbecility of Buchanan involved us in this war. Had he but possessed as much courage in his whole body as General Jackson had in one hair of his head, he would have taken the advice of General Scott, and served the South Carolina secessionists as Jackson served the mulifiers, and we should have had no farther has not financial agents here in London, or trouble. Buchanan is unfit for any office of then one of high character, well acquainted responsibility and trust, and especially for so honorable an office as that of a Senator of the ereral thousand having been sold at $92, and United States we would about the solution is broker told me he could sell any quantity at Simon Cameron occupy this position ; for $55. Had you a good financial agent here, I Cameron, unlike the imbecile and treacherous Buchanan, has some pluck, some capacity, some frankness, and some fidelity to his friends .- New York Herald.

> CANADA FOR THE UNION .- In a recent pre sentment of the grand jury, Toronto, C. W., the following expression of sympathy for the cause of our country appears :

The jurors, in common with their fellow citirecognition. He still thinks the nation is gens, express a hope that peace may be restor tafe, and a reconstruction certain. It is enough ed to the United States of America, and that for you to know that he is believed by few that nation may arise out of the terrible cru-outside of Russell's influence." And keeps our souls alive-Controls the mighty pow'r of fate. And gives mankind a longer date-A home in Heaven.

Accept our thanks for your "substantial" emembrance of us. "Yellow boys" are sovereign remedy for sore eyes, now-a-days.

DIED:

On the 7th of October, of disease contracted while on duty in the army at Camp Presson of Joseph and Elizabeth Schofield of U nion township, Clearfield county, aged 19 years and 17 days.

He volunteered in August, 1861, in compa ny C, 105 Penn'a regiment-a regiment noted for bravery, endurance and fidelity. He was a young mun of no ordinary ability, and much beloved by all who knew him. His death and burial in an 'enemy's' land is a severe stroke to his parents and relatives; yet, they have conclusive evidence that he died at his post. Among all the young men who sprang forth at their country's call to do or die for her in stitutions, (especially Freedom and Union). there could be none more noble and patriotic than he. But, he has crossed the swelling tides of Jordan, and now rests, we trust, in the paradise of God. J. H. B.

Their pen-etrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow dis temper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs inte their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take ; and be-ing purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass be lief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute im mensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fel-

new men for expounders

This Continent has lately been convulsed by an upbeaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special, want unsupplied. It is iy, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special, want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by par-tizanship. or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid uside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy. In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages. In Literature, it will be sustained by the best

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a 'New Serial of American Life,'' by Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street.'' "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon. Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the generic and development of the Court on the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the resalt of an extended tour in the seashore Siave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be dis-tinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaxing of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence. The Editorial Department will embrace, in ad-

The Editorial Department will emprace, in ad-dition to vigorons and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect ex-position of our national character Among these the will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward). from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life" The Continents will be liberal and progres-sive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes be-yend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the Ameri-can people, and to illustrate both their serious and humans mentioning the state of the serious and car, people, and to illustrate both their serious and bumorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time.
