WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 7th 1862.

To DANIEL LIVINGSTON, Esq.-SIR : Your ietter of the 5th inst., is received. In reply, I have to inform you that a Law firm of two or more persons, having but one place of business, which is common to all, are required to take out but one license, Provided ; 1st, That a legal and bona fide partnership exists, and not merely an arrangement or understanding by which to evade the full effect of the license law. 2d, That the parties on no occasion transact business on private account, in the branch for which the firm purports to have been organized. I am, very respectfully. C. F. ESTEE, Acting Commissioner.

DISASTROUS FIRE-The stable connected with the Kinnear Hotel at Franklin, Venango coun ty, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday the 11th. Fifteen horses, some of them very valuable, with a large amount of grain and hay, and several vehicles and other property. were destroyed. Adjoining property was considerably injured, as well as the furniture of the hotel. There was no insurance and the loss falls heavily on Mr. Steel, as well as Mrs. Kinnear, the owner of the premises.

SUICIDE .- One of those lamentable suicides which sometimes throw a gloom on an entire neighborhood, occurred in Ferguson's Valley, Mifflin county, on Saturday morning the 8th by which a most estimable lady ended her career on earth, having committed the fatal act by hanging herself. The death of her husband, followed by that of a beloved daughter, had preyed deeply on her mind, and no doubt led her to commit the deed in a moment of insanfty, for she was deeply imbued with religious feelings.

DROWNED .- On last Tuesday morning the 11th as some boatmen were about entering the lock at Lock, Haven, they found themselves mable to open one of the gates, and on searching for the obstruction, they dragged forth the lifeless body of Mr. SCHEID the lock tender, which had been sticking in one of the whickets. The corpse was drawn ashore, and a coroner's inquest held. Mr. SCHEID was an old and highly respected citizen, prompt and attentive in the performance of hes duties, and leaves a large circle of relatives and triends to mourn his decease.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY .- There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent orises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders. This Continent has lately been convulsed by an uphcaving so sudden and terrible that the re-

CLEARFIELD GAS COMPANY -A meet-

A GOOD DEED .- A worthy, industrious, but poor man, having a sick wife (not out of bed for 8 months) and five helpless children, the oldest only 9 years of age, was among the militia recently drafted in Chester county. Three days, he made fruitless efforts to obtain a substitute, offering his all-a cow, two pigs, and a lot of chickens. But substitutes tated higher. A good neighbor, becoming acquainted with these facts, made known the case, and four friends procured him a substitute for the sum of three hundred dollars. This is a deed worthy of record. We might mention many such which the draft has brought out.

GES. BRACG, in his official report to the Confederate Government, says that but 1,500 Kentuckians joined him in his late raid into that State ; that the people hesitated to take Confederate scrip, and that he was charged three prices for supplies.

THE excavations of Cheviot Hills, England, have led to the discovery of the very perfect remains of several hots, composed of blocks of the vasaltic stone of the district. They be long to a very remote period of the British history. Remains of beads and other glass ornaments, flint arrowheads and broken pottery have been recovered. Remains of iron clay have also been found, from which it would ap pear that the smelting of iron was understood by our Celtic forefathers at a far earlier period than is generally supposed.

THE GREAT STEVENS BATTERY .- This vessel, designed mainly for harbor defence, and which has been on hand for a number of years. is still progressing towards that perfection which its enterprizing projector contemplated at the beginning. His object is to render it absolutely invulnerable to any projectiles yet known in warfare, and at the same time to give it an offensive power which no vessel in the world could safely encounter. The experiments are carried on privately; but it is said that it will soon be ready to take its place among the marine wonders of this wonderful

WATCH THE TORIES!-One of the means adopted by the secession sympathizers in the democratic party has been to create an imprestion that those who were called upon to oppose the national administration was the Con-Pervative Party ! Another was to raise the ery that the Union papers, speaking of these almost undisguised traitors, meant all who voled with them. It was thus they hoped to lead the masses into the support of measures bordering on revolution, and then to make terms with the Southern cutthroats. It was by these mean that civil war was introduced into the Border States against the will of a majority, and calm as the surface appears, a spark may kindle it in Pennsylvania. A tory editor in a neighboring county but a few weeks ago called on the "democracy" to arm themselves, and we know that in some localities in this county several nests of Southern sympathizers have already done so. We say again, WATCH THE TORIES, and on the first attempt to violate the law, ses that it is enforced .-Louistown Gazette.

portion of it, and one, Florida, is entirely under the control of the United States authorities.

THE SETTLERS IN THE UREGON GOLD RE-GION .- In September there were in the Powder river valley. Oregon, forty thousand settlers. On the 1st of August there were not one hundred white men in that rich auriferous valley. About that time fifty-three started for this valley, and seventeen of the number were killed by Indians before reaching it. The diggings there are said to be very rich in gold.

A LOYAL OCTOROON SENTIMENT IN VIRGINIA. -Baltimore, Nov. 8, 1862 .- About three miles to the castward of Fequier Sulpher Springs, in Virginia, along a range of hills of considerable fertillity, there is a large settlement of octoroons, well to do in this world, and an industrious people. Its origin was in this wise : A number of poor whiter, after much scuffling, managed to acquire a few acres each of the hilly region in question, and took to themselves mulatto women for wives. The present generation, some three removes down, are so white that it is difficult to detect any trace of African blood in their veins. About the time of Pope's occupation of that country, one of these settlers got into our lines and was arrested as a spy, and he had hard work to prove the contrary. The whole settlement is for the Union. I have this account from one of our quartermasters, who visited these people and bought largely from them .- Cor. N. Y. Evening Post.

elements with which to sway the storm and direet the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid uside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devot-ed to Literature and National Policy.

In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages. In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number. a ' New Serial of American Life.' Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author "The Revelations of Wall Street." "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war. and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent iterati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be dis-tinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or as-sociation partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abandant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those the will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward), from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and

The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progressive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes beyond the grasp of the age ; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the Ameri-can people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time.
