FINE APPLES .- Our friend Elisha Fenton of Penn township, one day last week presented us a lot of most excellent apples, for which we tender him our thanks.

BALD EAGLE VALLEY RAIL ROAD .- We learn that a passenger car is now running on this road from Tyrone to Port Matilda, and it is expected that by the middle of December the road will be in operation as far as Bellefonte.

LADY'S BOOK .- Godey, for December, is to hand. It is a "rich, rare and spicy" number. We will furnish Godey's Lady's Book and the Journal one year for $3,50 in advance. By this arrangement persons can save $1 dollar in the price of the two.

BRIDGE .- The work on the new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, is progressing rapidly ; and, should the weather continue favorable, will be so far completed as to permit horses and wagons to cross about the first of January.

PEILADELPHIA AND ERIE RAILROAD .- The Philadelphia and Eric Railroad is opened to the month of the Sinnemahoning, 16 miles west of North Point, 393 miles from Lock Haven, and 1051 miles from Sunbury. By the 25th of November the track will be laid to the forks of the Tionesta, 12 miles east of Warren, and 78 miles east of Erie City. By December, tour miles of rails will be down east of Tionesta Forks.

DEATH OF A CLEARFIELD SOLDIER .- On the 21st inst., James T. Jones. formerly of this place, died in the hospital at Washington. He was a member of Capt. Z. C. McChliough's Company 149th Regiment Penn'a Volunteers. Capt. McCullough had his body embaimed, and sent to Tyrone, from whence it will be brought to this place for interment. The Capt. requested that he might have a "soldier's burial."

COUNTERFEITING SHINPLANTERS .- J. P. MC Collum has been arrested and held to bail in $2,500," to answer a charge of causing to be torged or counterfeited four thousand certificates of the denomination of twenty-five cents each, similar to those issued by the Commissioners of Lycoming county. He had the certificates engraved and printed in Philadelphia, and was arrested as soon as they were delivered to him at Williamsport. He said, by way of excuse, that he got them to wrap pill boxes m!

when we will again be ready for active service, and in time to be at the taking of Richmond. I have faith in Burnside, that he will the rebel army whipped, demoralized and disheartened at Antietam, and the flower of chivalry at the mercy of our boys, who stood pantouch to our glorious victory by, at one fell swoop, exterminating or driving the traitors he was afterwards offered. to supplication-I say, until then had I faith in McClellan. But, when the demoralized enemy were permitted to cross the Potomac. (under the very eyes of our brave boys), with their baggage and artillery, unmolested, my faith began to waver. Even, had "little Mac" after this allowed our boys to follow the rebels, the traitor hoarde would have been scattered. But, this was not done, and the enemy were allowed to reorganize their shattered columns at Winchester, when Mac again commenced with his heart-sickening strategic movements to cut them off or surround them at that place. Whilst Mac was engaged in perfecting his grand strategic movement and FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY-GOODS, ETC. putting a plug into every cat-hole, the rebels were making raids into Maryland and Pennsylvania, and when Mac had put the last plug in the last hole, he found there was "nary" a cat there-for Lee with his 200,000 men, had left for Richmond some two weeks before.

In view of these facts McClellan was re moved ; notwithstanding the Democracy had said that it would demoralize the army, and Balmoral that the soldiers would fight but under him. Yot, the President did remove him,-and the removal caused a loud and doleful howl from the Secesh; whilst our brave and noble boys Coats, par hats, caps shouted heartily for Burnside, and estruck into a double quick" for Richmond, by way of hardware Fredericksburg. I have faith in our present leaders and believe that the war will soon terminate, and an honorable peace be restored,rants spices, crackers, wines, brandies, vinegr and then thousands of weather-bronzed countenances will suddenly make their appearance in the loved home circle, there to gladden the sad hearts that awaited them.

I have just been favored with a visit from Adj't Boyle, who is well and hearty. His risit to Richmond, and his associations with questionable characters at the Holel de Livie, has made none the less a gentleman of himthough the tendency of his associations had inclined him to scratching and cursing; bu these inclinations disappeared as soon as clean clothing was procured. Boyle believes that his exchange has been effected, and seems anxious to join the glory covered 111th again. Better luck to him, next time. I expect to be allowed to join my regiment in about a week ; where, I doubt not, awaits me a number of my highly prized Journal. Yours as ever, . C. E. L.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY .- There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders. This Continent has lately been convulsed by

LUMBER DEALERS, ETC.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Office of Internal) Revenue, Washington, Nov. 17, 1862.

Sin :- Yours of the 10th is received. In answer I have to say : From the enclosed decision you will be able to determine when the dealer in lumber is a retail, and when a wholesale dealer. Persons conveying and selling lumber outside of your district, are to be asacased by the Assessor of the District wherein the lumber is sold.

"Generally the business of one who keeps a stall in the market, is that of a retail dealer. There are exceptions, however. The Assistant Assessor and Assessor must judge in each case. If the dealer sells chiefly or entirely to consumers, though he may often sell in the original packages, he should be classed as a retail dealer. If, on the other hand, his sales are generally in the original packages, or if it is his occupation to sell to those who buy to sell again, or if this part of his business is considerable, so much that he depends upon and procures stock with reference to it, he should classed as a wholesale dealer, even though he sells at retail. The law contemplates sales at retail by wholes de dealers.

"A dealer who sells soap, candles, starch, tes, or other articles, by the original package or salt by the wagou load, &c., &c., to consumera, is not a wholesale dealer under the law, but if he sells to those who sell again, he will be required to have a wholesale dealer's license. A furniture dealer who sells a bureau, sofa, or table, to customers for their own use. Jumber which he was taking to market. whether in the package in which he rec-ived it or not, is not a wholesale dealer."

Any person selling liquor in less quantities than three gallons at one time, are required to he licensed as retail liquor dealers. A license as Tavern keeper does not extend the privilege of selling liquor. Nor does a license as iquot dealer, issued by the Collector of Interhal Revenue, extend the power to sell contra-If to the laws of the State.

Vury respectfully, GEO.-E. BOUTWELL, Comm'r. To Daniel Livingston, Esq., Assessor 19th District, Curwensville, Clearfield Co., Pa.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL."

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19, 1862. DEAR Row :- I do not write at this time, because I have much of interest to communicate, but simply to prove that I still existwhich is proved by the fact that I have increased 26 pounds in weight since the termination of Gen. Pope's campaign, which had whittled me well nigh up to a peak. Our regiment suffered severely. Out of 982 men only 312 answer at roll call-including those in parole camps. Only about 100 of these are with our pet General (Siegel)-the rest were at Fairfax, impatiently waiting for horses. They are tough, hardy fellows, and eager to again participate in the strife that we believe is soon to put an end to this wicked rebellion, and bring every traitor, who is spared from the stern demands of justice (the halter) to acknowledge the supremacy of the old blood-bought banner and time revered Constitution.

I have been in Baltimore for more than a for 500 drafted men to fill up our regiment, and two little boys.

an upheaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we de know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in atone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward , which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid uside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy. In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a 'New Serial of American Life,' by Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon. Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea, West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the re-sult of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war. and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or as-sociation partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exnosition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward). from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life

The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progress sive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes be-yend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time. TERMS :--Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers;) Two copies for (postage paid by the Sh (nostage unpaid); Eleven $5; Three copies for $6, (postage unpaid); Eleven copies for $20, (postage unpaid).
