THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., DE PR 10, 1862.

The weather during the past week has been cold and winterish-some snow having fallen, but not enough for sledding.

W. R. B .- Owing to the crowded state of our columns on account of the President's Message, and the late hour at which your favor reached us, we have been compelled to defer its publication.

METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR NOVEMass, 1862.-Mean temperature in the morning, 32 degrees; at noon, or warmest part of day, 44; in the evening, 87; mean temperature of the month, from three daily observarions, 371 degrees. The coldest day was the 7th; mercury 19 degrees in the morning; mean of the day 24 degrees. Warmest day, the 2d: 68 at noon, mean of the day, 57 deg. More or less rain on three days; a light flood on the 20th and 21st. Very light snow on five days; the greatest on the 8th, about three inches. Roads, not as bad as usual for the month of November. No snow yet for hauling. Most of the month favorable for outdoor work. PENN.

FIRE .- A very destructive fire broke out in Sloan's cabinet warerooms, in Lock Haven, on the morning of the 6th about 4 o'clock. The wind being very high at the time, the flames soon communicated to the adjoining property. Over two squares of buildings were destroyed, including the bank, the Clinton House, Postoffice, European Hotel, Redger & Redel's Hardware Store, and about staty as heretofore. The loss of property is esti-

Godey FOR JANUARY, 1863 .- The Lady's Book for January, 1863, has made its appearsnce at an early day, notwithstonding the high price of printing material. The embelishments are superb-in fact, incomparable. No other magazine seems to be able to compete with Godey. Now is the time to subscribe. Commence with the January number. Terms, cash in advance-one copy one year, $3; Two copies one year, $5; Three copies one year, $6; Four copies one year, $7. Five copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $10. Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, 15. Eleven copies one year, and an ex tra copy to the person sending the club, $20. Address, L. A. Godey, 323 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE REBEL GOVERNMENT LIVING FROM HAND publishes the proceedings of a manufactures' convention at Augusta, Ga., on the 20th, at which owing to the high prices of the articles used in manufactures, it was not thought advisible to contract with the Government at fixed prices for more than one month. It is evident that the rebels themselves have so little confidence in the perpetuity of their Govenment, that they are unwilling to trust it longer than a month at a time.

"The incomprehensible and gloomy forebodings hinted at in the Chicago Platform have at length produced something real and practical, and withal, easily understood, and may be summed up as follows: Desolation-Taxation -Starvation-Disumon and Plunder.'-Clearfield Republican.

That's so! And is especially the case with your "southern brothers," who are in open rebeilion against the government-a result, that can only be attributed to the teachings of the leaders of the so-called Democratic party. Verily, "they have their reward."

GEN. BANKS EXPEDITION .- Of this expedition, the Boston Traveller learns upon good authority that the vessels will touch at Fortress Monroe, where a large addition to the force will immediately join it, the whole making one of the most powerful armadas which has left for the South since the war commeticed. The total number of troops with Banks is estimated at over 40,000, while neither at Port Royal or in North Carolina did the military force exceed 20,000 men.

THE COLORED SOLDIERS IN ACTION.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Times. writes from Port Royal, South Carolina, as "The organization of a regiment of black soldlers, under the direction of Brig. Gen. Saxton, I am told is progressing finely. I have often expressed my strong conviction that the negroes would show themselves courageous and worthy of their freedom, if ever the opportunity was flered them to fight, and recent events have fully justified this opinion. You have already received an account of a successful expedition of one of the tugboats with a company of armed blacks to Sapelo River and other places on the Georgia coast, where they were for the first time under fire, and acquitted themselves bravely in an engagement with their former masters, protecting the flight of a large number of the ir race who sought to escape the horrors of bondage. That success led to the projection of another enterprise, which, in brilliancy and practical value surpasses the first. Three companies of these South Carolina Volunteers, Capts-Trowbridge, Janes and Raudolph's, under the command of Lieut, Col. Beard, provost-Marshal under Gen. Saxton, left Beaufort on the 13th inst., in the steamers Ben. Deford and Durlington, going to Doboy Sound, Georgia, and remaining there a week, returning with two hundred thousand feet of the best Georgia pine lumber, sawed and ready for use.

This was taken from Hawkin's, Todd's and Bige's mills on the executors, payable ist May 1863, the remainder in two equal annual payments with interest, first payment to be made May 1st 1864, to be secured by Judgment Bond and Mortgage, with clause restricting the cutting of timber farther than payment is made. fought with the advantage of a partial barricade. While most of the negroes were engaged in loading the steamers with lumber, the company of Capt. Janes advanced on a duly authenticated for settlement to reconnoisssance, and were opened upon with musketry by the rebels, from a position in

The negroes deliberately returned the fire. and, drawn up in line of battle, kept up a fusilade, maintaining their ground, until by the aid of the guns of the steamers and those of their convoy, the gunbost Nadgie, the enemy was dislodged. Three of the colored soldiers were wounded, one so seriously that his arm must be amputated. The officers of these men express the greatest confidence in their fighting qualities, and after these practical tests of the courage, even of raw recruits, as were those composing this expedition, it is about as well that we should hear no more narrow minded expressions of their incapability to defend their liberties."

An intelligent "trapper," from one of the western counties of Minnesota, states that a secret society has been organized, having its ramifications all through the western half of the State, whose avowed objects are to hang or shoot every Indian suspected of having had any hand in the recent marders. Should those Indians who have been convicted be suffered to go unbung by the Government, then this combination is to mete out punishment whenever it can be done.

kinds of country produce J. 1 Clearfield, November 19, 1862. AYER'S PILLS-Are you sick, feeble and complaning? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills., and cleanse out the disordered numors-purity the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vig orous activity, purity the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold set tles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural tunctions. These if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs. producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cored by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorder they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Cor-plaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY .- There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and for the painless and rapid cure of external innew men for expounders.

This Continent has lately been convulsed by lations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid aside or neglected. To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy. In Polities it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrit, of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will con tribute regularly to its pages. In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country.

Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number. a ' New Serial of American Life,' by Richard Kimball. Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely. embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war. and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence. The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward). from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life"

The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progressive. without yielding to chimeras and hopes be-yend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine TERMS:—Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers;) Two copies for $5; Three copies for $6.
