

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., DECEMBER 17, 1862.

WANTED—a girl, to do general housework. For further information apply at the Journal office, Clearfield.

WOUNDED.—We learn that Capt. E. A. Irvin, had his one arm shot away, in the battle at Fredericksburg, on Saturday.

Pub. Docs.—Hon. John Patton will please accept our thanks for a set of the Congressional Globe for the session of 1861-62.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—Wm. Radebaugh of this place has been appointed Notary Public for the county of Clearfield, vice T. J. McCullough, Esq., whose term has expired.

PARDONED.—We are informed that James Hockenberry, convicted in Clearfield county, about two years ago, of the killing of John Thompson, has been pardoned by Gov. Curtin.

MORE APPLES.—Our thanks are due to our friend Samuel Widemire, of Penn township, for half a bushel of most excellent apples, which he presented to us last week. May he have plenty of the same sort each succeeding year, is our humble wish.

Mrs. Demorest's Mirror of Fashion.—The Fall and Winter number of this excellent Lady's friend is to hand. Several patterns of the latest style of dresses accompany each number. It is published quarterly—price $1 per year, or 25 cents a number. Address, Mrs. Demorest, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

DEED.—Near Chillicothe, Livingston county, Missouri, on November 29th, of inflammation of the brain, Lewis R. Carter, aged 48 years, 6 months and 17 days. Mr. Carter removed from this place to Missouri about four years ago, where he has since resided. He was an industrious, hard-working man, a good citizen and neighbor, and his death will be regretted by his many friends in this county.

DEATH OF ANOTHER SOLDIER.—On the 20th of November last, William H. McKee, died at Carver Hospital, of typhoid fever. He was a member of Capt. John Irvin's company, 149th Regiment Penn'a Volunteers. He leaves a wife and one child, as well as a large circle of friends and acquaintances, to mourn his death. His remains were sent home and interred in his father's burying-ground in Knox township.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We learn from the Butler Herald, that the Orphans' Home, situated near Zellenople, Butler county, was entirely consumed by fire on the 6th. At the time the institution was burned, about fifty Orphans were under the care of its benevolent managers. The children have been distributed among different families in the neighborhood. Most of the clothing of the inmates was also destroyed, together with the stores that had laid up for winter use. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defect in one of the chimneys. This institution was projected by Rev. W. A. Passavant, a Lutheran minister of Pittsburg, who has been its manager, and untiring friend and patron. The Home was established some ten or twelve years since, was sustained by contributions from benevolent persons, and its inmates were gathered from all classes, without reference to their christian antecedents. The building cost about $25,000, and was insured for a small amount.

TO MY CLIENTS.—I have associated with me for a limited period, J. G. HALL, Esq., a member of our bar. Mr. HALL has been educated to the profession under my own care, and is conversant with the ordinary routine of my practice. He will always be found at my office, and during my absence will be in constant correspondence with me.

Having been honored with political position, I must necessarily arrange to perform my duties; but in doing so, I have no thought of abandoning my profession, or neglecting its duties. To it, and the partial favor of the people of the county of my home, I owe all that I have, and I shall esteem it a duty and a pleasure to serve them in the future, as in the past.

Business entrusted to us will receive prompt and careful attention. I shall be at home during each Court-week; and can be consulted at my office at Clearfield during at least one day in each two weeks—of which day, notice will be given in our CARP in the public papers. The Legislature usually sits about thirty days, commencing in January. We have but one Jury Court during the session.

Pledging to your business, energy, promptness and fidelity, I respectfully solicit for the Firm a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed upon myself.

Very respectfully yours, WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Clearfield, Pa., Nov. 22d, 1862.

IMPORTANT BRANCH RAILWAY.

An item which we find floating in our Pennsylvania country exchanges (where, by the way, we often encounter a great many other good things) announces that by the middle of December the rails will be laid from Tyrone, on the Pennsylvania Central railroad, to Bellefonte, the capital of Centre county, Pa., and that cars are already running from Tyrone to Port Matilda. This work is on the Tyrone and Lockhaven railroad, which traverses the Bald Eagle valley, and connects the Pennsylvania Central railroad at Tyrone with the Philadelphia and Erie at Lockhaven. Bellefonte is about half the distance between the two points.

By the completion of this work a direct road will be opened from Pittsburgh to Elmira, Williamsport, Cattawissa, Easton, and all the northeastern part of Pennsylvania. The Albany and Susquehanna railroad, which is now in course of construction to Binghamton, on the New York and Erie railroad, will connect Pittsburgh with Albany and Boston via the Bald Eagle Valley line. Of this route the Williamsport and Elmira line constitutes the essential part, and thus the reader will appreciate the rumor which has recently obtained credence in the New York money market, to the effect that the Pennsylvania railroad was considering a proposition to lease the Elmira road. With that line in its possession, the Pennsylvania company would have a direct road from Pittsburgh to Albany and Boston, avoiding both Philadelphia and New York.

Our Gothamite neighbors, who have been busily engaged with all sorts of projects to go round Philadelphia, have overlooked the fact that Boston is doing New York the same favor. This Albany and Binghamton road once completed, New England would be able to take its choice of railroads to and from the west, the New York Central being not more direct for them than this branch makes the New York and Erie, or than the Bald Eagle valley line, in connection with the Albany and Susquehanna road, will make the Pennsylvania Railroad. Hitherto the Bald Eagle valley work has been condemned only as a local affair, built to satisfy the clamor of a wayside population, but with the building of the Albany and Susquehanna road it becomes one of great importance.

It puts Bellefonte en rapport with the whole railway system of the Northern States, and make the valley the highway of an increasing business. We observe, also, that another branch railway is projected to run from Lewistown to Bellefonte, which, if built, would open a new and direct connection between Bellefonte and Philadelphia, a matter of interest to us in view of the prospects of the former and of the valley. Both roads would be useful as conjunctions of the two great Pennsylvania main lines.—Philadelphia North American Cor.

REPORT OF THE SECY OF THE NAVY.

Next in interest to reports of the operations of the Treasury and the War Departments, is that of the Navy, and it France should choose to carry out her intimated interference, the capabilities of our iron clads and the number of our effective vessels will be carefully studied by every one interested in our success in defending our institutions and our honor. From the very long and minute report of Secretary Welles, (which is a history of all the naval engagements of the war, as well as a statistical document,) we gather the following summary of what has been accomplished:

When Mr. Welles assumed charge of the Navy Department in March, 1861, there were but 42 vessels then in commission, and most of them abroad. There were only 7,600 seamen then in the pay of the Government, and on the 10th of March, only 207 in all the ports and receiving ships of the Atlantic coast, to man our ships and protect the Navy-yards and depots, and in suppressing the rising insurrection. At the present time, by purchase and by construction, the Government has afloat, or progressing to completion, a naval force of 427 vessels, and carrying 3,268 guns. So sudden and so vast a naval armament has not been witnessed in modern times. Of the 427 vessels, in service, 104 only are sailing vessels, 323 are steam vessels, and 123 of these latter have been added by construction. This speaks more than almost any other fact of the great energy and prodigious achievements of the Navy Department. These new vessels of war are of no mean capacity and calibre, as the following description of them will show:

Table with columns: Description, No. of Vessels, Guns, Tons. Rows include Second class screw sloops-of-war, Screw gunboats, Side wheel gunboats, Armored wooden vessels, Armored iron vessels.

Total, 123 vessels, 659 guns, 120,290 tons. Mr. Welles points to the work of his immense improvised navy, and claims practical success in its blockading service—the most prodigious ever undertaken by any Government. The high price of cotton in our own and foreign countries, when the South has millions of bales of it, and the exorbitant price in the South of all articles of foreign manufacture, is conclusive proof of the efficiency of the blockade. Mr. Welles thinks all the Southern ports will be in our possession at an early day, when he suggests, a part of the blockading force may be spared to chase rebel pirates from the high seas—a not very consulting prospect to American commerce, it must be said.

The Secretary of the Navy speaks with evident disgust of the action of England in permitting the rebel privateer, the Alabama, to leave her ports to harass American commerce, and suggests that the British Government might justly be called on to make up to American shippers and ship owners the losses inflicted on them by the Alabama. With regard to the future of American (Southern) commerce, the Secretary suggests that when all the Southern coast and ports are safely in our possession, the blockade should be dissolved and the ports opened to general commerce, under such limitations, conditions and restrictions as it would clearly be within province of the Government to impose, and without offense to the laws of nations.

A child, belonging to a family named Rogers, residing in Huntingdon, Pa., was burned so badly, on the 10th Dec., that it died soon after. It had been left alone, and the accident occurred by its attempting to play with fire in a wood stove.

The store of Wm. Bell, Jr., in Erie, Pa., was burglariously entered on the night of the 4th Dec., and silk goods, valued at $2,000, stolen therefrom.

The President has fixed Friday the 19th instant, as the day on which are to be executed, thirty-nine of the Indians convicted of brutal participation in the massacre in Minnesota.

IMPRINTING, printing extra papers on Sunday, and lying, go together as naturally as ducks run to water.

DEED: On the 14th instant, T. K. MILLS of Woodward township, aged 85 years. (Centre county papers please copy.)

On Thursday evening, Dec. 11th, of disease of the heart, at the residence of her father in Goshen township, MARISSA, daughter of Ellis Irvin, Esq., aged 27 years, 7 months and 28 days. It is not often a community is called upon to mourn the loss of one so generally beloved and admired as was the subject of this notice. For some years she carried with her the knowledge that she was laboring under a malady which might at any moment hurry her to the tomb. But she was ever cheerful and happy—the life of the social circle, and the beloved of all who knew her. When she came down to "the last of earth" all was peaceful and serene. She passed to her rest "As fades a summer cloud away."

As stings the gale when storms are o'er, As gently shuts the eye of day, As dies a wave along the shore."

AYER'S PILLS.—Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorder they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Linger Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price 25 cents per box. Five boxes for $1. D. C. Watson, Clearfield, Wm. Irvin, Curwensville, S. Arnold, Luthersburg, Eliza Chase, Ansonville, J. C. Benner, Morrisdale, C. R. Foster, Philipsburg, and Dealers everywhere. May 7, 1862.
