

CLEARFIELD, DEC. 16, 1862.

It is enough to make one shudder to read the printers' advertisement for a boy of "moral character," when it is well known they intend to make a "devil" of him.

Fifteen iron clad boats are now building in the vicinity of New York, each one of which is to have 48 guns.

PROSPECTOR OF THE CONTINENT. The world's history, marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises sweep away in a moment the landmarks of general history. They call for fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for exponents.

SECOND SUPPLY OF New Summer Goods, AT THE OLD PRICES. J. P. KRATZER. Has just received another general assortment of Summer Dry Goods.

LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER. In renewing of my acquaintance with the many friends of the "Blood Searcher," I deem it proper to caution them and the public, generally, against the use of an article prepared and sold by a man calling himself "Geo. H. Keyser, Pittsburg, Pa.," who has the impudence to call it

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, and states that it is made from my recipe, and, as if to carry out a regular game of "Stop Thief," he tells the public that "there is a counterfeit of every bottle &c." He also publishes the most extravagant certificate headed "A Blind Man Cured"—"A Bad Leg Cured," &c. I allowed him to proceed in this way for nearly twelve months, and now that he has had either used or sold my article would have nothing to write his, but I found there was a number unacquainted with mine who were induced from the above statements to give his a trial. The consequence was disappointing to them and injurious to me, as they would at once pronounce Lindsey's Blood Searcher a humbug, without knowing that mine was the ONLY GENUINE BLOOD SEARCHER which has proved itself to be invaluable in the cure of Scrofula, Cancerous formations, Cutaneous diseases, Erysipelas, Boils, Pimples on the face, Sore eyes, Scald Head, Tetter affections, Old and stubborn Ulcers, Rheumatic Disorders, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Mercurial diseases, General debility, Liver complaint, Loss of appetite, Spasms, Flatulency, Female complaints, and all other disorders from an improper condition of the circulatory system. As a general Tonic, its effects are most beneficial, and cannot fail to benefit wherever used perseveringly, and according to directions.

Those desiring my genuine Blood Searcher must be careful in purchasing, as counterfeit medicine is like counterfeit money, it can be afforded at low prices which is a sufficient inducement with some to endeavor to pass it off for genuine; Buy only from Respectable Dealers—Ask distinctly for the BLOOD SEARCHER prepared by ME, and take no other.

For sale by J. B. McMurray, New Washington, and H. T. Henderson & Co., Bethlehem, and all good druggists and storekeepers throughout the country. J. M. ROSS, M. D. 214 and 216 North Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa. D. R. & P. Kinports, Wholesale and retail agents, Cherrytree, Indiana county, Pa. Simon Johnson, Pittsburg, Pa., Sole agent, July 30, 1862, 17.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863. GREAT LITERARY AND PICTORIAL YEAR! The Publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankful to that public which has enabled him to publish a magazine for the last 33 years of a larger circulation than any in America, has made an arrangement with the most popular author in this country—MADON HARLAND, author of "Auntie," "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," who will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Madon Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year. City-Scenes—Seventh volume of Godey's Lady's Book for 1863, will contain nearly 1300 pages of Reading matter, 24 pages of Music, 12 Double Extension Colored Fashion Plates, equal to 24 of other magazines, over 1000 wood engravings, 14 steel engravings of beautiful subjects, selected by the best authors in America. And all these will be given in 1863, at prices for which we are extremely low-club rates.

The oldest and best of the cheapest magazine in America is the Godey's Lady's Book. The immense increase in the circulation of Godey's magazine has been the result of its being a convenient proof of the superiority of the work, if the work itself was not sufficient evidence of its value, it is considered that not a bribe in the shape of a premium has ever been offered, it shows that Godey's Lady's Book stands first in the hearts of America's ladies, who subscribe for the sake of the Book and not the premium. The fact that it is the Literature of the Lady's Book is by the first writers in America, and has always been remarkable for its high literary and moral character. Clergymen recommend the Book, and it can be read aloud in the family circle. The fact that it is superior to that of any other magazine, having a healthy and instructive tone.

Eight Specialties that no other magazine has, and only found in Godey, are: "Original Music," "Model Cottages, with diagrams," "Dramatic Lessons," "Original Health Department," "Children's Department," "Chemistry for the Young," "Horticultural Department," and "Double Extension Fashion Plates." The fact that it is unparalleled and unapproached. Competitor dead in this department. Our imitators have abandoned the attempt.

Of steel engravings, the press have unanimous pronounced Godey's the best ever published by any magazine of the world. You may look in vain for 14 such steel engravings as were published during the year 1862, and those for 1863 will surpass them. The engraving of some articles for the expense of original designs, cost more than $10,000 more than the old style. They are always to be relied on as correct. They are always the latest styles, and hence ladies are not subject to ridicule for wearing old fashions, when they visit the large cities, and visit friends.

Godey's Wood engraving Novelties. Of these we give double the number of any other magazine, no matter what its price may be. Colored embroidery patterns and lingerie. Every number contains patterns of some article for every number cost appraised at $1.00. Send for a lady to work—ottomans, backs of chairs, slippers, etc.

Among the articles to be continued, and which have been appreciated, will be Gardening for the Ladies, and the new and improved "Ladies' Culturist of the City," will assist in this department. Our Musical Department. Three dollars' worth of Music is given every year; and if it were only the number cost appraised, the Lady's Book would be cheap at the price we ask for it.

In the various numbers for 1863, will be found diagrams for Children's and Ladies' dresses; children's samples for learning; the newest designs for window shades, nightgowns, slippers, bonnets, caps, cloaks, evening-dresses, robes, shawls, dresses, hair-dresses, robes-de-chambre, carriage dresses, brides' dresses, wreaths, mantillas, walking-dresses, morning-dresses, riding habits, collars, chemisettes, and crochets and patchwork, embroidery patterns, and crochets and notting work. Our designs are received semi-monthly from our agents in France, England, and Germany, and every new pattern of any portion of our Lady's Book is sent to our agents. Drawing in all its variety, useful to the artist and the proficient. Fashions from the establishment of the celebrated "Brodie" will be in every number. Also, good Model cottages.

Godey's invaluable receipt upon every subject, indispensable to every family, worth more than the whole cost of the Book, and a great saving of expense to all those who take the Book. Godey's Lady's Book is also used as a premium at nearly every Agricultural exhibition in the United States—another testimony of its worth.

Send in your orders soon. The best plan of subscribing is to send your money direct to the publisher. We recognize no subscription that is not sent direct to our office. If you pay your money to any association, you must look to it for your books. We will not supply a copy of the Lady's Book unless the money is sent direct to us. We have no agents for whose acts we are responsible.

TERMS—CASH IN ADVANCE.—One copy one year, $5. Two copies one year, $5. Three copies one year, $5. Four copies one year, $7. Five copies one year, $7. Six copies one year, $7. Seven copies one year, $7. Eight copies one year, $7. Nine copies one year, $7. Ten copies one year, $7. Eleven copies one year, $7. Twelve copies one year, $7. Single numbers can be procured from any News-dealer in the United States. The Knickerbocker Magazine and the Continental Monthly will be furnished for one year at 50 cents.

APPLICATING THE IMPORTANCE OF LITERATURE TO THE SOLDIER ON DUTY the publishers will send the Continental, gratis, to any regiment in active service, on application being made by its Colonel or Chaplain; he will also receive subscriptions from those desiring to furnish it to soldiers in the ranks at half the regular price; but in such cases it will be mailed from the office of publication.

J. R. GILMORE, 110 Tremont St., Boston. Charles J. Evans, at G. P. Putnam's, 532 Broadway, New York, is authorized to receive subscriptions in that city.

JAY COOKE, Subscription Agent.

HOW TO REMIT.—Procure a draft if possible; if not, send Treasury or Bank notes; but let it be in the name of yourself; the fewer you let publishers know the more certainly there is of your money coming to hand. If you send gold, secure it carefully in the letter; otherwise it is apt to be lost out of the envelope. Be careful and pay the postage on your letter. Address L. A. GODEY, 323 Chestnut Street, Phil'a., Pa.
