THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., DE.PR 31, 1862.

THE WEATHER, for a week past has been unosually mild and pleasant-having had more the appearance of spring than of winter. Last evening, however, there was a change in the air and snow began to fall, and this morning the ground is covered to the depth of 6 inches.

CLEARFIELD CREEK BRIDGE .- We learn that the bridge over Clearfield Creek, two miles east of this place, is so far completed as to permit the crossing of all kinds of vehicles. This will be good news to such as have been compelled to ford the creek during the past eight or nine months.

MERRY's MUSEUM .- This merry little Magagine for January, 1863, is now before us. It contains a splendid steel portrait of ROBERT MERRY, and numerous other merry engravings, besides a great variety of merry reading matter. Our merry little readers should subscribe for this merry little magazine, as it is the best of its kind published. Terms, ove pollar a year in advance. Address. J. N. Steams, Publisher, 111 Fulton St., N. Y.

burned by its clothes taking fire from a grate. during the mother's absence, that it died on the tollowing day. A little child of Henry Martin was also burned to death, by its clothes taking fire, during the absence of its parents. Parents should be careful of their little childres at this season of the year, and keep them well guarded from fire. .

GLUE FOR READY USE .- To any quantity of glue use common whiskey, instead of water. Put both together in a bottle, cork it tight, and set it away for three or tour days, when it will be fit for use without the application of heat. Glue thus prepared will keep for years, and is all times fit for use, except in very cold weather, when it should be set in warm water before using. To obviate the difficulty of the stopper getting tight by the glue drying in the mouth of the vessel, use a tin vessel with the cover fitting tight on the outside, to prevent the escape of the spirit by evaporation. A strong solution of isingglass, made in the same manner, is an excellent cement for leather.

Notice - At a meeting of the Board of School Directors of Clearfield Borough, Dec. 26, 1862, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, the Clearfield Borough School property and punish those who injure or destray it. Be it therefore,

Resolved. That the scholars committing such the building or the property.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER .- The fourth annual "Week of Prayer" for the conversion of the world to Christ, is at hand. This is not a sec terian movement. It originated with the misstonaries in India, and embraces an object dear to the beart of every child of God.

The present condition of the world and of the church calls loadly for earnest, united and persevering prayer; and it is believed tout the observance of this "week" will be widely extended, and that many prayers will ascend to the throne of grace from christians of all nations and of every name.

In accordance with the desires of a number of persons, the citizens of Clearfield and the vicinity are respectfully and earnestly invited to spend the evening of each day in the coming week in united prayer and conference. The first meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, on next Sabbath evening. Services to commence soon after the second bell. Why should the "Week of Prayer" be observed ! is proposed as the subject for consideration that evening.

ARE JOLORED MEN CITIZENS ?- The Attor hey General has just delivered his opinion on the question, "Are colored men citizens of the United States?" The facts on which it is based are stated as follows : "The schooler Elizabeth and Margaret, of New Brunswick, is Amboy, N. J., because commanded by a colored man, and so by a person not a citizen of the United States. As colored masters are humerous in our coasting trade, I submit to you the question suggested by Captain Martin, of the Tiger, 'Are colored mon citizens of the United States, and therefore competent to command American vessels?' As some incorrect statements have gone forth in regard to this opinion, we give the chief points. The Constitution does not define the word -citi-2en," so the Attorney General examines history and the civil law, from the days of Rome down, for its meaning. His conclusion is that all tree persons, without distinction of face or color, if native born, are citizens. A distinction is made between the inherit rights of citizens and the political privileges of certain classes. All citizens have a right to protection, but certain classes enjoy the privlleges of voting and holding office. Hitherto, not only the public, but jurists, have often tent, according to the acts of Congress, to be tionate sister, a kind wife and a tender mothmaster of a vessel engaged in the coasting er. A MISSTATEMENT CORPECTED.

"The democratic organs," says the New York Tribune, have wearied the general ear ever since the Ohio election, with clamorous rejoicing over the assumption that the voice of the people in the loyal States had condemned the Administration; and when Seymour was elected in New York their boastings were so vociferous and positive that it was generally taken for granted they were right. We knew the fallacy of their claims, but chose to observe silence until the figures of the official canvassers should demonstrate the actual truth. Such figures are now at hand. That the democratic journals will print them we cannot hope; they have exhausted themselves in reproducing in a dozen forms the statement that in the home vote for Congress in Wisconsin there is a democratic majority of 6,000 -a majority which will doubtless be swept off by the votes of the gallant soldiers of that State, unless the democratic doctrine that the man who fights for his country is not fit to vote for it, shall prevail. If any of these journals, however, can find room for the following table of official majorities in the loval States which have held elections this year, we are certain that their readers will be thank ful for the information. If they will print BURNED TO DEATH .- A child named James | the figures as they are, we shall not object to Rogers, about three years of age, whose pal any attempt they may make in the way of rents reside in Hollidaysburg, was so badly comments to break the force of the simple

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE-1863.—
THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in A-merica. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th

Daily, 50,125; Semi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly, 148,000; Aggregate, 215,375. Preeminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions, which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"-Republican in its assertion of the equal and intalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"-Republican in its stendfast, earnest defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement-Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrais and despots of the Old World, who fondly hall in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic-Kepublican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, an a the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be one and inseparable beneeforth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times. and to some extent in these, to Education. Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly levoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous con-flict be obtained than through the regular peru-sal of our columns. And we carnestly solicit the cooperation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its c reulation.
