Brigandage in Naples. We read in a Naples letter: Near Eboli there were laborers engaged in some kind of occupation not far from a large fountain in that neighborhood, who filled up the intervals between work and their devotions to the Madonna with a little brigandage on their own account. When a carriage appeared, the zappa, or the trowel, was abandoned, and then muskets were taken up from under the sod. The travelers were rifled, a horse or a man shot, as the case might require, and then these industrious fellows resumed their ordinary labors. This had gone on for some time, and no one could trace out the guilty parties. As for the padrone, he could answer for his men as being always occupied. One of the band, however, who divided the affections of a woman with another man who was not of the band, murdered his rival one fine evening and the woman was arrested, Under menace of being shot if she did not reveal the names of the murderer and his accomplices, she betrayed six of the latter. A week after she was again arrested, and then sentenced to be shot if she did not also betray the copo. Agreed. In the dark of the evening she goes to her trysting place, followed by carbineers, mounts a tree, and gives a whistle. Immediately the ground rises not far off, and the capo emerges from his subterranean hiding place, which had been ingeniously covered over with boughs of trees, leaves, and sods. The woman descends, and it is unnecessary to say that the ardor of their embraces was cooled by the rush of the carbineers, who arrested both. These are true stories, and a hundred others might be repeated which would beat Mr. Radcliffe out of the field.

GIDEON WELLS, Secretary of the Navy.

DROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY .- There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the These crises sweep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders. This Continent has lately been convulsed by an upheaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and di-rect the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It's that of an Independent Magazine, which shall beopen to the first intellects of the land, and which shalf treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in atone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid uside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy.

In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a 'New Serial of American Life,' by Kichard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon. Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea, West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence. The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward), from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life"

The Continental will be liberal and progres sive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes be-yend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time.

TERMS:—Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers;) Two copies for $5; Three copies for $6, (postage unpaid); Eleven copies for $20, (postage unpaid). Single numbers can be precured from any News-dealer in the United States. The Knickerbocker Magazine and the Continental Monthly will be furnished for one Appreciating the importance of literature to the soldier on duty, the publishers will send the CONTINENTAL, gratis. to any regiment in active service, on application being made by its Colonel or Chaplain: he will also receive subscriptions from those desiring to furnish it to soldiers in the ranks at half the regular price: but in such cases it must be mailed from the office of publication. J. R. GILMORE, 110 Tremont St., Boston, Charles T. Evans, at G. P. Putnam's. 532 Broad way, New York is authorized to receive subscriptions in that city. (Feb. 12, 1862.

LINDSEY'S

BLOOD SEARCHER. In renewing of my acquaintance with the many friends of my medicine, I deem it proper to caution them and the public, generally, against the use of an article prepared and sold by a man calling himself "Geo. H. Keyser, Pittsbury, Pa.," who has the impudence to call it

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, and states that it is made from my recipe, and, as if to carry out a regular game of "Stop Thief," he tells the public that "there is a counterfeit in the market," to see that his name is over the cork of every bottle" &c. He also publishes the most extravagant certificate headed "A Blind Man Cured"—"A Bad Sore Leg Cured," &c. I allowed him to proceed in this way for nearly twelve months, knowing that those who had either used or sold my article would have nothing to do with his, but I found there was a number unacquainted with mine who were induced from the above statements to give his a trial. The consequence was disappointment to them and injury to me, as they would at once pronounce Lindsey's Blood Searcher a humbug, without knowing that mine was the

ONLY GENUINE BLOOD SEARCHER which has proved itself to be invaluable in the cure of Scrofula, Cancerous formations, Cutaneous diseases, Erysipelas, Boils. Pimples on the face, Sore eyes, Scald Head, Tetter affections, Old and stubborn Ulcers, Rheumatic Disorders, Dyspepsia, Costiveness. Jaundice, Salt Kheum, Mercurial diseases, General debility, Liver complaint, Loss of appe-tite, Low spirits. Foul stomach, Female complaints, Together with all other disorders from an improper condition of the circulatory system. As a general Ton-ic, its effects are most benignant, and cannot fail to benefit, where used perseveringly, and according to directions.

Those desiring my genuine Blood Searcher must be careful in purchasing, as counterfeit medicine is like counterfeit money, it can be afforded at low prices which is a sufficient inducement with some to endeavor to palm it off for genuine; Buy only from Respectable Dealers—Ask Dis-tinctly for the prepared by ME, and take no other.

For sale by J. R. McMurray, New Washington, and H T. Henderson & Co., Bethlehem, and all good druggists and storekeepers throughout the country.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863.

Feb 27, 1861.

The publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankful to that public which has enabled him to pub lish a magazine for the last 33 years of a larger circulation than any in America, has made an ar rangement with the most popular anthoress in this ountry-Marion Harland, authoress of "Alone."
-Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," who will furnish a story for every num-ber of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to farnish articles throughout the year. Sixty-Sixth and Sixty-Seventh volumes of Godey's Lady's Book for 1863, will contain nearly 1300 pages of Reading matter, 24 pages of Music, 12 Double Extension Colored Fashion Plates, equal to 24 of other magazines, over 1200 wood engrav ings, 14 steel engravings of beautiful subjects, 780 articles by the best authors in America. And all these will be given in 1863, at prices for which see our extremely low club rates.

The oldest, the best, and the cheapest magazine in America is the Godey's Lady's Book. The immense increase in the circulation of Godey (hav-ing trebled itself in the last 4 years) is a convincing proof of the superiority of the work, if the work itself was not sufficient evidence. And when it is considered that not a bribe in the shape of a premium has ever been offered, it shows that Godey's Lady's Book stands first in the hearts of A-merican ladies, who subscribe for the sake of the have now in store, one of Book and not the premium.

The Literature of the Lady's Book is by the first writers in America, and has always been remarkable for its high literary and moral character. Clergymen recommend the Book, and it can be read aloud in the family circle. The matter is far superior to that of any other magazine, having a healthy and instructive tone.

Eight Specialities that no other magazine has, and only found in Godey, to wit: "Original Music," "Model Cottages, with diagrams," "Drawing Lessons." "Original Health Department." "Chil-dren's Department," 'Chemistry for the Young," "Horticultural Department," and "Double Exten-sion Fashion-plates." Godey's great speciality, unparalleled and unapproached. Competition dead in this department. Our imitators have a bandoned the attempt.

Of Steel engravings, the press have unanimous-ly pronounced Godey's the best ever published by any magazine of the world. You may look in vain for 14 such steel engravings as were published during the year 1862, and those for 1863 will surpass them. Other magazines do not go to the expense of original designs for their steel engravings. The Double Fashion-plate has from 5 to full length fashions on each plate. Other magazines give but two. Godey is the only work in the world that gives these immense plates, which cost $10,000 more than the old style. These fashions may be relied on as correct. They are always the latest styles, and hence ladies are not subject to ridicule for wearing old fashions, when they v.sit the large cities

Godey's Wood engraving Novelties. Of these we give double the number of any other magazine, no matter what its price may be. Colored embroidery patterns and lingerie. Ev ery number contains patterns of some article for a lady to work-ottomans, backs of chairs; slippers, etc. Among the articles to be continued, and which have been appreciated will be Gardening for the Ladies. Mr. H. A. Breer, the celebrated Horticulturist of this city, will assist in this department Our Musical Department. Three dollars' worth of Music is given every year; and if it were only for the music alone, the Lady's Book would be cheap at the price we ask for it.

In the various numbers for 1863, will be found diagrams for Children's and Ladies' dresses; children's samples for learning; the nevest designs for window curtains, broderie anglaise, slippers bonnets, caps, cloaks, evening-dresses, fancy arti-cles, headdresses, hair-dressing, robes-de-cham-bre, carriage dresses, brides' dresses, wreaths, mantillas, walking-dresses, morning-dresses, ri-ding habits, collars, chemisettes, undersleeves, patchwork, embroidery patterns, and crochet and notting work. Our designs are received semimonthly from our agents in France, England, and Germany, and every new pattern of any portion of a lady's dress appears first in the Lady's Book. Drawing in all its variety, useful to the beginner and the proficient. Fashions from the establish-ment of the celebrated "Brodie" will be in every number. Also gives Model cottages.

Godey's invaluable receipts upon every subject. indispensable to every family, worth more than the whole cost of the Book, and a great saving of expense to all those who take the book. Godey's Lady's Book is also used as a premium at nearly every Agricultural exhibition in the United States -another testimony of its worth.

Send in your orders soon. The best plan of subscribing is to send your money direct to the publisher. We recognize no subscription that is not sent direct to ourselves. If you pay your money to any association, you must look to it for your books. We will not supply a copy of the Lady's Book unless the money is sent direct to us. We have no agents for whose acts we are respon-
