THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JAN'Y 14, 1863.

THE GENESEE FARMER .- The January number of the Farmer is promptly on our table. It is a capital number. All our agricultural and horticultural friends should take the Farmer, if they do not already do so. It costs only sixty cents a year, and for this small sum you get three hundred and eighty-four pages of matter, well illustrated, and abounding with information of the greatest value to all engaged in rural pursuits. Send the sixty cents by mail to publisher, JOSEPH HARRIS, Rochester, N. Y., and you will receive the paper by return mail. Or, it you wish to examine it you can get a copy free by writing to Mr. HARRIS

DEATH OF A SOLDIER .- We learn that the remains of Lieut. W. R. Armagost reached his triends in Brady township, one day last week. -where they were interred. Lieut. A. was a member of Company K, 84th Regiment Penn'a volunteers, and was a brave and obedient soldier. He enlisted as a private, but was promoted to a Lieutenancy for meritorious conduct on the battle field.

We also learn that the remains of Wood Ross, a member of Capt. Irvin's company, were brought home on Monday evening last. Mr. R. was accidentally wounded in the knee by one of his companions, during the late battle at Fredericksburg. He was taken to the Hospital at Alexandria, where he contracted fever, from the effects of which, and his wound, he died. The funeral obsequies took place on Tuesday. A number of the members of Capt. Irvin's company we re present on the occasion.

METEOROLOGICAL FOR DEC. 1862 .- Mean temperature in the morn, 28 degrees; at noon, the warmest time in the day, 37; in the evening, 31; of the month from three daily observations, 313. The mercury was the lowest on the mornings of the 20th and 21st-5 and 4 degrees, respectively-and the highest on the 14th, 60 degrees at noon. Rain on the 22d, 25th and 26th. And very light snow, not exceeding one inch, on the 7th, 16th, 17th and 21st. On the night of the 30th snow fell to the depth of eight inches. The month throughout was moderate, with but little rain or snow -the mercury sinking below ten degrees only on three days, viz: on 9th, 20th and 21st.

ATTACK ON SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 8 .- Advices from Springfield, Mo., state a rebel force, reported to be 6,000 strong, under Burbridge and Marmaduke, with six pieces of artillery, are within two and a half miles of that place, and opened on the town without giving notice to remove the women and children. One thousand rebel cavalry, in line of battle, are visible from the town. Gen. Brown has loop-holed the houses for musketry, and will make a vigorous resistance. A dispatch from Gen. Brown, dated Springfield, Jan. 8, 3 o'clock, p. m., says: "The enemy is crowding us and fighting us close, but my men are behaving well, 1 am holding all the strong positions, and the enemy must fight as I want him, whether he likes it or not." A later dispatch says that Gen. Brown was badly wounded-that the enemy took one of our guns, but were repulsed at dark-and that militia reinforcements were coming in. Springfield contains a large amount of army stores, arms and ammunition, Telegraphic communication was interrupted, and a party sent out to make repairs have not been heard from, and it is surmised that they have been captured.

LATEST-Sr. Louis, Jan. 12.-Late last night Gen. Curtis received a dispatch from Col. Crabb, commanding at Springfield, stating that the rebels were repulsed at every advance upon the place, and that his troops still hold the town. But little of the town was destroyed and that by our own troops. We lost 17 ried 35 rebels and many more were taken off the field, and left a large number of wounded in our hands. Gen. Curtis has sent three columns of troops in pursuit of the enemy.

THE SALE OF FORT SNELLING.

Your readers will remember the sale, by Secretary Floyd, in June, 1857, of Fort Suelnot appear) for $90,000. The sale was a private one, no public notice whatever being given. The terms were, one-third eash, one third in one year, and the balance in two years. These payments, as we are assured by a prominent citizen of Minnesota, have never been made; but Franklin is in possession, and has been in possession since he purchased the property, the Government being his tenant, and being charged rent, as is believed, at a rate which will leave it in debt to Steele over and above the purchase money still due. This, notwithstanding that the fort was extensively repaired last Fall, at the expense of the Government, which has used it since April, 1861, as the State rendezvous for volunteers. - Correspondence N. Y. Tribune.

THE MONITOR .- Commander Bankhead, late of the Monitor, left Washington for New York on Monday evening. He is ordered to take command of the Florida. The correspondent of the New York Tribune says that Commander Bankhead can find no terms strong enough in which to praise the heroism and self-sacrificing devotion of his crew, who clung to their ship to the very last. Such expressions as We won't leave her until she goes down," we'll stick to her as long as the Captain does," were common among the sailors, while ropes were being thrown to them from the boats that came to their assistance. While Commander Bankhead was enlarging upon the noble conduct of his men to which he regretted that he had been unable to do justice in his report, his eyes filled with tears. Commander Bankhead was the last man but two to leave the Monitor. He jumped into the water and was picked up by one of the Rhode Islands' boats. It was apprehended even by experts that the accident to the Monitor proceeded from a cause likely to operate in ever vessel of her class when exposed to a storm, but the official report and oral explanation of Commander Bankhead have set at rest these fears by showing that his vessel was lost through a leak, and that she retained her buoyancy to the last.

BAD NEWS FROM TAXAS.

Advices have been received at New York that Galveston, Texas, was attacked early in the morning of January 1st, both by land and water. The rebels were on five ordinary steamboats, protected by double rows of cotton bales, who picked off our officers and men by muketry. The Harriet Lane was boarded and Elk .- Charles L. Lamberton, D. and captured by the rebels, and also two barks loaded with coal.

The flag-ship Westfield was ashore in another channel, her crew were taken to the transports, and Com. Renshaw fearing that she would fall into the hands of the rebels, blew her up-the explosion occurring prematurely, been remarkable for having neither destruc- Com. Renshaw, Lieut. Zimmerman, and part of the crew were blown up with her. The gunboats Clifton and Owasco were engaged but escaped. Our loss is estimated at from 150 to 160 killed, and 300 taken prisoners. Our men seem to have been taken by surprise. We hope the loss will soon be repaired, by the recapture of Galveston by Gen. Banks.

ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND. From Murireesbero' we learn that Gen. Rosecrans has removed his headquarters to that place. The loss of the rebels increases every day. Two thousand of their wounded were forwarded to Lavergne, but before they reached the place, it was ascertained that the town was accidentally burned, and they were then sent to Nashville. Many of them still remain at Murireesboro; as they cannot be removed on account of the frightful nature of their wounds-from which most of them will die.

Gen. Rosecrans has issued an order that all captured rebel officers shall be confined until Jeff. Davis' recent order is revoked-the rebel prisoners to subsist on army rations. All food contributed by their friends shall be confiscated for hospital use, and a repetition of such contributions will be a jail offence.

Our whole loss during the battle at Murfreesboro in killed, wounded and missing, is not over 7,000. The rebel loss is said to be from 12,000 to 15,000.

THE VICKSBURG FIGHT.

News from Vicksburg of a definate character has at last been received. Gen. Sherman was forced to fall back, when Le had reached a point within two miles of the city-the rebmen killed and a number wounded. We bur- els being reinforced to overwhelming numbers. Sherman re-emparked on his transports, it is said, by order of Gen. McClernand, who took command of our forces, on his arrival there, in the latter part of the week. The principal fight of Sherman was by his center under Gens. Smith and Blair. Our losses are put at 600 killed, 1,500 wounded, and 1,000 missing -in all, 3,100. The Rebels pursued our forling, together with 8,000 acres of land, to ses to the gunboats, but were unable to do se-Franklin Steele (and others, whose names do rious damage within range of the guns. So the Vicksburg Expedition is a failure; but another attempt on a larger scale will doubtless soon be made.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE-1863. A THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, now in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in A-merica. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its parrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862, is as follows:

Daily, 50,125; Semi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly 148,000; Aggregate, 215,375. Preeminently journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions, which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adherion to the great truth that "Gqd has made of one blood all nations of men"-Republican in its asserting of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liber-ty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its stendfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggran-dizement-Republican in its antagonism to the aristocrats and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times and to some extent in these, to Education. Tem perance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mackind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the cooperation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its e roulation. TERMS.—The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are: DAILY TRIBUNE .- Single copy, 3 cents. Subscribers, one year (311) issues) $8. Semi-Weekly Tribune.—One copy, one year (104 issues) $3. Two copies, one year $5.
