mrSmacks of "sour grapes"-the article headed "The Mails-Again," in to-day's Clearfield Republican. Goes bard with you to be obliged to give way to a "muddle-brained. sap-headed nincompoop," don't it, Daniel? Better keep cool. Calling people hard names won't harm anybody but yourself.

THE WEATHER .- During the past week the weather has been quite soft, and all the snow had disappeared. So far, but comparatively ittle timber has been hauled to the streams, butwe hope for better weather for that purpose . This morning, as we go to press, the ground is covered with snow, with a prospect of having good hauling in a few days.

ANOTHER SOLDIER DEAD .- Among the deaths of Pennsylvanians at Richmond, we find the name of Alex. Carr. Mr. Carr was a member of Company C. 5th Penn'a Reserves, and received a gunshot wound at the late battle of Fredericksburg. He was taken prisoner and conveyed to Richmond, where he died in the Military Hospital on the 31st day of Dec., 1862.

RESIGNATION OF GEN. BURNSIDE. HEADQUARTERS of the Army of the Potomac, January 26th, 1863 .- This forenoon Gen. Burnside turned over the command of the army of the Potomac to Gen. Hooker, who came to the headquarters for that purpose. As soon as the change became known, a considerable number of superior officers called on General Burnside and took their parting leave with many regrets. The following is Gen. Barnside's address to the army :

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Camp. near Falmouth, January 26 .- General Orders No. 9 .- By direction of the President of the United States, the commanding General this day transfers the command of this army to Major General Joseph Hooker.

The short time that he has directed your movements has not been truitful of victory or any considerable advancement of our lines, but it has again demonstrated an amount of courage, patience and endurance that under more favorable circumstances would have accomplished great results. Continue to exercise these virtues. Be true in your devotion to your country and the principles you have sworn to maintain. Give to the brave and skilful General who has so long been identified with your organization and who is now your commander your full and cordial support and you will deserve success.

In taking an affectionate leave of the entire army, fr m which he separates with so much regret, he may be pardoned if he bids an especial farewell to his long tried associates of the 9th corps. His prayers are that God may be with you and grant you continued success until the rebellion is crushed.

By command of MAJ. GEN. BURNSIDE, LEWIS RICHMOND, A. A G. It is understood that Generals Summer and fused. Franklin have also been relieved from the commands of right and left grand divisions, but the names of their successors have not been divulged, if appointed. General Burnside with most of his late staff have been allowed thirty days leave of absence. They will go to New York. The weather is warm and pleasant and the mud is fast drying up. ATTENTION, COMPANY !- Volunteers, who expect to retain their health unimpaired during the campaign, must see to it themselves do not trust to the Army Surgeons, supply yourselves with Holloway's Fills and Ointment. Every English Soldier's Knapsack contains them. Only 25 cents per Box or Pot. 212

Capt. W. W. Wise, of Brookville, who was vonuded in the recent battle at Murfreesborough, Tenn., has since died. Capt. Wise was a brave soldier, and his death will be regretted by his many friends in this county.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE-1863 - THE NEW-YORK TRIDUNE, first issued in 1841. now in its twenty-second year, has obtained bolk a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in A-merica. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and depar-ture of tens of thousands of its patrous to sorve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th f December, 1662, is as follows: Daily, 50,125; Somi-Weekly, 17,250; Weekly, 145,000; Aggregate, 215,375. Preeminently a formal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions, which are well charac-terized by the single word Reputatican. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great with that . God has made of one blood all nations f men"-Republican in Its assertion of the equal ad inationable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"-Republican in its steadfast, carnest, defant hostility to every shome and effort of the Slave Power: from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebeilion to resp the empire of the New World and wield te resources of our country for its own aggrandizement-Republican in its antsgonism to the aristografa and despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republiclepublican in its hapo and trust, its faith and eft, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

Tax Transfer devotes attention in calmer times. and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mankind ; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly woted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust is soon to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a faller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we carnesily solicit the cooperation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid as in extending its c realation TERMS — The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Irlbune Our new terms are; DALLY TRIBUNE .- Single copy, 3 cents.
