DROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY.—There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises sweep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories devel-oped. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders.

To Parma and Modena, by French mail, 21 cts This Continent has lately been convulsed by an upheaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juneture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the ountry should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unsupplied. that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in alone no way tempered by par-tizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have com-menced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy. In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a 'New Serial of American Life,' by Richard Kimball, E-q., the very popular antho of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour in the seasone Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent terati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be dis-tinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne Artemus Ward), from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life The CONTINUENTEL will be liberal and progres sive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes beyend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine of the time.

TERMS:—Three dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers;) Two copies for S5; Three copies for S6, (postage unpaid); Eleven copies for $20, (postage unpaid). Single numbers can be procured from any News-dealer in the United States. The Knickerbocker Magazine and the Continental Monthly will be farnished for one

Appreciating the importance of literature to the soldier on duty, the publishers will send the the soldier on duty, the publishers will send the CONTINENTAL, graifs, to any regiment in active service, on application being made by its Colonel or Chaplain: he will also receive subscriptions from those desiring to furnish it to soldiers in the ranks at half the regular price; but in such cases it must be malled from the office of publication.

LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER.

In renewing of my acquaintance with the many friends of my medicine, I deem it proper to caution them and the public, generally, against the use of an article prepared and sold by a man calling himself "Geo. H. Keyser, Pittsbury, Pa.," who has the impudence to call it

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, and states that it is made from my recipe, and, as if to carry out a regular game of 'Stop Thief,' he tells the public that "there is a counterfeit in the market," to see that his name is over the cork of every bottle" &c. He also publishes the most extravagant certificate headed "A Blind Man Cared"—"A Bad Sore Leg Cured," &c. I allowed him to proceed in this way for nearly twelve months, knowing that those who had either used or sold my article would have nothing to do with his, but I found there was a number unacquainted with mine who were induced from the above statements to give his a trial. The consequence was disappointment to them and injury to me. as they would at once pronounce Lindsey's Blood Scarcher a humbug, without knowing that mine
