LINDSEY'S

BLOOD SEARCHER. In renewing of my acquaintance with the many riends of my medicine, I deem it proper to caution them and the public, generally, against the use of an article prepared and sold by a man calling himself "Geo. H. Keyser, Pittsbury, Pa.," who has the impudence to call it

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, and states that it is made from my recipe, and, as if to carry out a regular game of 'Stop Thief." he tells the public that "there is a counterfeit in the market. 13 to see that his name is over the cork of every bottle" &c. He also publishes the most extravagant certificate headed "A Blind Man Cured"—"A Bad Sore Leg Cured," &c. I allowed him to proceed in this way for nearly twelve months, knowing that those who had either used or sold my article would have nothing to do with his, but I found there was a number unacquainted with mine who were induced from the above statements to give his a trial. The consequence was disappointment to them and injury to they would at once pronounce Lindsey's Blood Searcher a humbug, without knowing that mene was the pages of useful information, and from five to ten riginal engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its columns. TO THE MECHANICS AND MANUFACTURERS -NO person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of "doing without" the Scientific American. It costs but four cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which are not found in any other publica-To the Investor.-The Scientific American is indispensible to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the previous week; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and thus placing in our posessinn all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers. A pamphlet of instruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new inventions, is furnished free on application. Messrs. MUNN & Co have acted as Patent Solicitors for more than Seventeen years, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, and refer to 20,000 patentees for whom they have done business. No charge is made for examining sketches and models of new inventions and for advising inventors as to their patentability. CHEMISTS, ARCHITECTS, WILLWRIGHTS, AND FARmens -The Scientific American will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are given in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and mill owners will be found published in the Scientific American, which information they can not possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which planters and farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American; most of the improvements in agricultural impliments being illustrated in
