RELISIOUS Norios .- Preaching on to-morrow (Thursday) evening, in the Methodist E. church in this place ; by the Rev. J. A. Wisor.

WEATHER, ETC .-- For one week previous to Friday last, the weather was very moderate and a number of rafts were put into the streams. On Friday, however, it got quite cold, and during Saturday some 8 or 1C inches of snow fell, and up to this time the hauling has been pretty good. A considerable quantity of timber was hauled to the streams within the past three or four days.

MME. DEMOREST'S MIRROR OF FASHIONS .-This valuable quarterly Magazine, devoted exclusively to fashions, for the Spring of 1863, is now before us. Each number contains a splendid colored fashion plate, as well as plates of cloaks, childron's costumes. embroidery and novelties of all kinds-making in all nearly 100 engravings, besides three full sized patterns. We regard the Mirror as the most useful fashion magazine published,-and, in our opinion, no lady should be without it. Price, one dollar a-year. Address, Mme Demorest, 478 Broadway, New York.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meet of the School board of Clearfield borough, held at the office of the Secretary, the death of our efficient county Superintendant was announced, and it was unanimously agreed that some expression be given by this board of the great loss to the Common Schools of this County and the Common Scool System, thereby sustained.

On motion, of Israel Test, Secretary, Geo. Thorn, Michael Kittlebarger, and O. B. Merrill, were appointed a committee to report resolutions expressive of the regret felt for the loss of Jesse Broomall.

Upon the return of the Committee, the fol lowing resolutions were adopted :

Resolved. That on the death of Jesse Broomall, his family lose a kind and affectionnie father-the community a worthy citizen-and the School System an experienced and intelligent advocate.

Resolved, That the Common Schools of the County have, by the dispensation of Providence, lost one of their warmest friends --- a man ever willing and eager, to give his tim and counsels to the cause of education-and one whose kind and gentlemanly deportment toward the directors and teachers of the Connty endeared him to all with whom he associated

An English Petroleum dil Company. A new association is just announced in Lon don, styled .. The Petroleum Trading Company," with a capital of half a million of dollars, and power to increase to a million. The shares number ten thousand, at fifty dollars each, five dollars to be paid on application. and five more on allotment. The prospectus announces that "the Company have taken over the business of the largest importers, and the co-operation of the Atlantic and Great Western Railwaf is secured." The objects is said to be to import into Europe the crude oil, chiefly from the Pennsylvania wells, to which end iron tank vessels, especially built for the purpose, are to be used, two of which are now in course of construction. It is said that three refiners alone in Eugland now require an annual supply of five millions of gallons, and that the demand is constantly increasing. The managing director, Thomas W. Kinder, Esq., has just returned from America.

The Army toward Peace Politicians

A New Hampshire captain writes to his iriends at home, "that he has in his company forty five men, nine-tenths of whom always voted the democratic ticket when at home. So intense is their opposition to the tecent movements of some leading democrats, (adds the captain,) that the privates would as soon shoot a neace democrat as a rebel."

Another New Hampshire soldier writes: I cannot go with the democratic convention of New Hampshire. I have cartied their resolutions in my pocket, and have taken pains to get the sentiments of democrats in the regiment, but I couldn't find one that endorses Mississippi is reported to be 14 feet higher them, or that would support them with their than the water in the Lake Providence canal, votes.23

Trading with the Enemy.

A corespondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says : In conversation with the rebel prismers captured in Red river, they told me that nearly all of last year's cotton crop in Texas had been hauled in wagons a distance. in some cases of four hundred miles to Matamoras, where the Southerners found a ready market for it at large prices in exchange for merchandise or gold. The purchasers of the staple were invariably Eastern men. A Texas lieutenant assured me that arms and munitions of war had been freely tendered to the people of the Lone Star State in exchange for cotion. and that, too, by men from New York, Philadelphra and Boston.

TERRIBLY EXERCISED-the editors of the "Copperhead" organ in this place, about our army letters. Wouldn't you like to prv into our private affairs and get a peep at the originals? But, pre-haps, "it is enough that we assure" you that they are "genuine in every particular," and that they were not obtained in a claudestine manner by some slight-of-hand performance, but through a legitimate chanal and in a perfectly honest way. That slore about "home made articles" won't avail you anything, neighbors, as we don't occupy the Which will be sold as low as at any other store same kind of a boat you do.

The Latest News. Received by Tuesday Evening's Mail.

A telegraphic dispatch from Utab, announ. ces that the Mormon Tabernacle had appointed a committee who waited on Gov. Harding, and Justices Wait and Drake with a request that they resign and leave the Territory. Gov. Harding said to the Committee : "I will not cowardly abandon my post of duty until it shall please the President to recall me. I may be in danger of personal violence by remaining, but I will not leave. I will not be driven from the territory. As this is said to be a land of prophecy, I too will prophecy : If one drop of my blood is shed whilst in the discharge of my duties, by your ministers of vengeance, it will be avenged, and not one stone in your city will remain upon another.33 A despatch from the army of the Potomac, dated the 7th, announces the return of an expedition into Northumberland county, Va., which examined the jail and Postoffice, but found both empty. A Florida Lady's "Jewelry."

The war is disclosing, in a remarkable de gree, the beauties and peculiarities of the system which has so long shamed our civilization. Thus, for instance, in North carolina, not long since, a pack of bloodhounds employed in hunting fugitives from bondage were captured by our forces; in Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, and elsewhere, unoffending, loyalists have flocked, maimed and scarred, into our lines. bleeding witnesses of the humane tendencies of slavery; in Virginia, drinking cups have been made of the skulls of our fallen braves, women clamoring therefore as orniments for their parlor tables. More recently, still other discoveries of the beauties of the "system" have been made ; and of one of these we find South :

"Among the trophies of Col. Higginson's expedition up the St. Mary's river, and which have attracted much attention, is a portion of Madame Alburtis's jewelry, brought in from the refined little town of Woodstock. Bracelets, necklaces, anklets and chains of home manufacture, which rival in unique design anything ever tound in the bijoutoirs of Paris or London. One pretty parure of lady's wear made of the native wood of the country and mounted with iron in particularly attractive. A notch is cut in the middle of a heavy hard pine stick, eight feet long, of sufficient size to admit the neck, which, when inserted, a mussive iron bar clamps and hold fast by a strong padlock. This is an improvement on the Spanish garrote, which chokes outright, and answers the same purpose as ducking under water until life is nearly extinct, without 8 months and 4 days. the inconvenience of getting wet. Another ulmitable contrivance of Madame Alburtis's secure both neck and heels at the same, emblematic of the spread cagle. A bare inscription must convince any one that a negro need produce a broken, slavish spirit."

A DARING RECONNOISSANCE .- A private letter from Port Royal makes the following curious statement : "Gen. Foster took a captain and thirty men from the 10th Connecticut, just before he went North, and made a recontoisance. They entered Ball's bay, north of Charleston harbor, and landing there, marched through the enemy's pickets to within full view of Fort Sumter, at about a mile and three quarters distant-so near that the officers from that part of the fort could see them. They returned unharmed, and think there is Clearfield county to distribute the balance in the every reason to believe a successful attack can be made upon the Babylon of rebeldom from ment and bear all parties interested at his a quarter deemed unassailable."

A lazy man's farm is slways dressed in weeds, as if he were dead, and it were his FLOUR-A good article for sale at the store of mourning widow.

THE RISING OF THE POLES .- The last accounts from the Polish insurrection are favora ble to the Poles. Garibaldi and Victor Hugo have published stirring appeals, in favor of the Polish cause, the former to the English people, the latter to the Russian soldiers Prussia has concluded a convention with Rossia for the suppression of the insurrection. but Austria refused to take any part in the convention, and was accused by Russia and Prussia of having encouraged the outbreak of perches more or less to beginning, bounded by the revolution.

Gov. JOHNSON ON SLAVERY .- In his recent speech at the great Union meeting at Indianapolis, Governor Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, declared hituself unqualified for the poliand finger-rings of their bones, even southern by of the government as a whole. He said ; "I am for the government and all men sures necessary to maintain it. Is not this government, the embodiment of the principles of human liberty, worth more than the instithe following account in the Port Royal Free | tution of slavery ? It is but as the dust in the balance."

rect the whiriwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth ; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the ountry should be active and efficient. It is a ime for great minds to speak their thoughts bold y, and to take position as the advance guard, his end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an independent Magazine, which shall b open to the first intellects of the land, and which hall treat the issue presented, and to be presented. to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the ho f reward , which shall seize and grapple with the momentons subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to alterature and National Policy

In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force fits command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, penceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country.

Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a . New Serial of American Life "The Revelations of Wall Street." -St. Legert" c. A series of papers by Hon Hornce Greely abodying the distinguished author's observation are. n the growth and development of the Grea. West. A series of articles by the author of "Ibrough the Cotton States," containing the re-sult of an extended tour in the, seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war. and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the untragental both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent wroti have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be dis tinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength.
