Union League.

All patriotic and loyal citizens, who desire the preservation of the Union and the maintenance of the Constitution, will meet in the Court House, on Saturday evening, the 21st day of March, 1863, For the purpose of forming a Union League. All loyal citizens are requested to attend.

MANY CITIZENS.

March 18.

Very heavy peals of thunder prevailed in several sections of this county on Sunday last-in one instance, as we are informed, having jarred some glass ont of the windows.

THE WEATHER .- During the past week the weather has generally been cold, and the roads in tolerable good condition for hanling, and quite a quantity of timber was conveyed to the streams. Yesterday, however, the sun shone very warm, and the snow melted rapidv. A few more days of warm sunshine will raise the streams to a ratting stage.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS SPEAKING OUT.

We publish on our outside, to-day, some extracts from speeches of James T. Brady, John Van Burun and Charles P. Daly, delivered at But, ob, ye Clearfielders, yet a little while a meeting in New York on March 6th; also, you must endure the "Concords," for sixteen an extract from some remarks made in Phila- greyhound statute miles-yet, it is a good epde'phia by ev-Gov. We commend the seufi- tetters, Stoughtons, and Plantation Bitters in ments contained in these documents to all quantities sufficient to float the Great Eastloval men, and especially to the loyal Demo- ern. Ere another twelve months will have crats of Clearfield county. They plainly in- passed away, the citizen of Clearfield will dicate the tendency of the true Democratic find the Philadelphia morning papers by his sentiment of the country, and are worthy of breakfast plate, and amid his hot rolls and unitation by all who desire to see the Union evaporating Java he will read of othe Union preserved.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

A few evenings since, we received the following private letter, and as it contains some excellent suggestions in reference to the formation of a Union League, we publish it for the benefit of the public :

WOODWARD, March 16th, 1863. League in Clearfield Co. You can present the subject to all good Union men through the columns of the Journal, and urge upon them the necessity of shaking off the apathy which has too long pervaded their ranks. I should like to see one or more men employed by the Union League, to lecture on the present crisis of our country, in Clearfield county, A small subscription by the members of the League would be ample to pay all the expenses incurred in getting up meetings and paving the lecturers. Something must be done to counteract the treason that is growing rampant in Yours. L. J.

DEAR JOURNAL .- Since my last letter to you many accidents, incidents and excitements, have occurred in this gay metropolis. A few weeks ago, our entire community was suddenly put on the qui rire by the announcement that the "spotted" or camp fever was in our midst; and as this story hes spread, I deem it neccessary to let the public know this is not

The facts are these .- a little girl of twelve summers, (very interesting and intelligent,) was suddenly taken sick-the morning she took ill and the day previous, she was in usual health-a physician was called to see her, but her disease was not in his category of ills. when a consultation of the "Sons of Escalapias" was had-one of them thought the symptoms were those of the "spotted or camp" fever, but did not pronounce it such-and hence the report above alluded to. The patient declined rapidly, and on the morning of the tifth day, she was clasped in the cold embrace of death. All were anxions to see the poor little girl, (a general favorite in the town,) but when the report of "spotted" fever was given out, the announcement fell like a deathknell upon the ear, and the would-be good Samaritans "passed by on the other side." (jartwons old ladies, to hear them talk, (one would suppose they existed in the days of the children of Israel's troubles,) would shoost induce you to believe that the plagues sent spon the Egyptians were about to be visited on the wicked creatures of the 19th century, and that this was the beginning. But, it was no Contagions disease-at least there have been no more cases. And, with all due courtesy for the learned physician's opinion, I would say that 'tis one of the ways of an All-wise, just and benificient God, to warn us that health is no indication of long life, and that we should be prepared to answer His call sooner or is-

In my last, I made some mention about "exempts." There is a misconstruction placed apon that part of the letter, and some have accused your correspondent of writing disparagingly of our town and her brave boys now fighting for the old flag. They don't see the "pint," or seeing don't understand; for certainly none but whom it hits will misconstrue its meaning. Far be it from me to dispurage our representatives in the Union army. Would to God I could wield the pen of a Bancraft to chronicle their deeds of fame, or that I were gilted with the oratory of Demosthenes to enlogize their brave and glorious acts. The hard tought field of Antietam called for the blood of our brave boys, and one of them yielded up his life on the altar of his country. He sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. The clods of bloody Antietam cover the remains of our young warrior. God bless him, and may the flag he so dearly loved ever protect his narrow home. Fredericksburg, too, tells a tale of the heroism of our brave boys. Their blood flowed treely as their decimated ranks will testify-several of whom have since been placed in the soldiers grave. The noble few remaining are true to their trust.

Mr. Editor, the theatre of war was in our midst a few days ago. The weapons of war-Leave S. Ridge, 2.55 p.m. Leave Tyrone, 12.15 p.m. fare were of a description not laid down in the latest edition of Hardee. The base of operations was adulterated strychnine, intersperced with corn-cobs. A very strong and almost impregnable spirit base, which brought the enemies ideas to a focus, and was followed by a discussion of pokers and clubs-and, judging from the cut heads, somebody must have been hurt. The better halfs of the vanquished are rallying on the "supplies" of the victors, for they have succeeded in bringing ont the "green-backs" and capturing the "Loop." "Tis an ill wind that blows nobody any good," and our town is on the highway to reform. Ye dens of departed spirits, look h'out, ye day of judgment is drawing nigh.

We will ere long be in the land of railroads. The Clearfield and Tyrone is progressing fast. A few months of fine weather will enable the citizens of this destined Chicago of Penn'a, to ride on a rail. The bridges are finished, and most of the grading on this side of Osceula is done, and some rails are being laid. What a change in a few years. We used to go rump, thump, whack, crack in the rickety old "Concords" over the "boundless" pike to Tyrone. What a glorious interval when the journey is ended at Sandy Ridge; but if glorious then, thrice glorious is it when we can take the cars at our own "Loveliest village of the plain." as it was, and the Constitution as it is."

Yours truly.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL HEADQUARTERS 1ST MARYLAND CAVALRY, &

Camp Bayard, March 4th, 1863. DEAR Row :- I regret to say that our regiment has been removed from the corps of MR. S. J. Row :- DEAR SIR: 1 desire to call | Gen. Siegel-a commander whom all respectyour attention to the organization of a Union | ed and loved, and in whom all had the most unlim ited confidence-yet a soldier is not consulted as to who shall command him, else, I believe, two-thirds of the entire army would array themselves under the banner of the, thus far, invincible Flying Dutchman. But, the changes made by Gen. Hooker has separated us from the immediate command of our favorite General and placed us in that of Gen Stoneman. Our Brigade is composed of the 1st Pennsylvania, 1st New Jersey, 12th Illinois and 1st Maryland cavalry-commanded by Col. Van Kielmansegg, than whom we ask no better. We are about seven miles from Falmouth, near Belle Plain. There are hosts of Pennsylvanians here-many of them new troops, who are spoiling for a fight; whilst the old regiments have been spoiled by fights, but which are ready to go in again when called upon. I observe, it is only those who have never met the "Gray-backs," that are impatient for a fight-yet there is not a regiment, or hardly a man, but that is ready to pitch in when and where the brave Gen. Hooker dictates. Those who talk of the demoralized condition of the army of the Potomac, had better step into the ranks of our enemy-whose cause they favor-and for once meet the boys who, they tell you, will not fight. The army was never so far as I have seen and am able of judging-in a better condition. They are in good spirits, and in good health. I have just returned from a visit to the 135th Penn'a, who are quartered near here-where I found a fine lot of the Brookville boys, and many from other parts of Jefferson county. These are nine month's men-whose term expires about the first of May. Many of them express the hope that they may have a clinch with the rebels before going home. If Gen. Hooker intends to cross at Fredericksburg. there is a strong probability of their being CABINET EMPORIUM! gratified. The roads have improved much within a few days, and one week more of such weather would make them in prime orderwhen we expect to resume active operations.

I had almost neglected to tell you of a streak of good luck, that crossed my pathway suddenly last week. It was the arrival of my wife and son, which had the effect to relieve my home sickness and break the monotony of camp life, as they told me the fine stories of one dear old Pennsylvania home, and the dear ones there-from whom I have now been absent more than twenty months. I expect twenty more months will elapse ere I visit those French Bedsteads | He will always be home scenes and the loved ones-unless this and common and French prepared to furnishts ordamnable rebellion be sconer crushed out. I am willing to stay, fight, suffer and die, if needs be, for my country's cause. The only thing I ask is, that those who have been staying at home and croaking freeson, thereby encouraging and procrastinating the rebellion, would be sent out here to share with me the comforts of a campaign or two; or else, that they would take the field with the Tory Graybacks, whose cause they advocate. The latter would please me better than to have them disgrace the Union ranks. Yours, C. E. L.

A YER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SAR-SAPARILLA.—No one remedy is more need-ed in this country than a reliable Alterative, but the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the drug cannot be blamed for the impositions from which they have suffered. Most of the socalled Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the virtues of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slops-inert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Stillingia, Iodine, etc., is, as it ever will be, a powerful at-terative and an effectual remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alterative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla while it was not. When you have used Ayer'sthen, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will fur-

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863

The publisher of Gedey's Lady's Book, thankful to that public which has enabled him to pub lish a magazine for the last 33 years of a larger circulation than any in America, has made an arrangement with the most popular anthoress in this country-Marion Harland, wutheress of "Alone, Hidden Path." "Moss Side," "Nemesis." and Miriam." who will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish artioles throughout the year. Sixty-Sixth and Sixty-Seventh volumes of Godey's Lady's Book for 1863, will contain nearly 1300 pages of Reading matter, 24 pages of Music. 12 Double Extension Colored Fashion Plates, equal to 24 of other magazines, over 1200 wood engravings. 14 steel engravings of beautiful subjects, 780 articles by the best authors in America. And all these will be given in 1863, at prices for which see our extremely low club rates.

The oldest, the best, and the cheapest magazine in America is the Goley's Lady's Book. The immense increase in the circulation of Godey (having trebled itself in the last 4 years) is a convincing proof of the superiority of the work, if the work itself was not sufficient evidence. And when it is considered that not a bribe in the shape of a premium has ever been offered, it shows that Godey's Lady's Book stands first in the hearts of A-merican ladies, who subscribe for the sake of the

The Literature of the Lady's Book is by the first writers in America, and has always been remarkable for its high literary and moral character. Clergymen recommend the Book, and it can be read aloud in the family circle. The matter is far superior to that of any other magazine, having a healthy and instructive tone. Of Steel engravings, the press have unanimously pronounced Godey's the best ever published by any magazine of the world. You may look in vain for 14 such steel engravings as were published during the year 1862, and those for 1863 will surpass them. Other magazines do not go to the expense of original designs for their steel engrav-The Double Pashion-plate has from 5 to 7 full length fashions on each plate. Other magazines give buttwo. Godey is the only work in the world that gives these immense plates, which cost $10,000 more than the old style. These fashions may be relied on as correct. They are always the latest styles, and hence ladies are not subject to ridicule for wearing old fashions, when they v.sit the large cities

Godey's Wood engraving Novelties. Of these we give double the number of any other magazine, no matter what its price may be Colored embroidery patterns and lingerie. Every number contains patterns of some article for a lady to work-ottomans, backs of chairs, slippers, etc. Among the articles to be continued, and which have been appreciated, will be Gardening for the Ladies. Mr. H. A. Breer, the celebrated Hortiulturist of this city, will assist in this department Our Musical Department. Three dollars' worth of Music is given every year; and if it were only for the music alone, the Lady's Book would be cheap at the price we ask for it.

In the various numbers for 1863, will be found liagrams for Children's and Ladies' dresses; children's samples for learning; the newest designs for window curtains, broderie anglaise, slippers connets, caps, cloaks, evening-dresses, fancy articles, headdresses, hair-dressing, robes-de-chamore, carriage dresses, brides dresses, wreaths mantillas, walking-dresses, morning-dresses, ri-ding habits, collars, chemisettes, undersieeves, patchwork, embroidery patterns, and crochet and notting work. Our designs are received semimonthly from our agents in France, England, and Germany, and every new pattern of any portion of a lady's dress appears first in the Lady's Book. Drawing in all its variety, useful to the beginner and the proficient. Fashions from the establishment of the celebrated "Brodie" will be in every number. Also gives Model cottages.

Godey's invaluable receipts upon every subject, indispensable to every family, worth more than the whole cost of the Book, and a great saving of expense to all those who take the book. Godey's Lady's Book is also used as a premium at nearly every Agricultural exhibition in the United States another testimony of its worth.

DROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINEN-TAL MONTHLY.—There are periods n the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcane, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises weep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out tresh talent, and give to the old new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for expounders.

This Continent has lately been convulsed by an upheaving so sudden and terrible that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present, we do not know what all this is to bring forth; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture to solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts bold ly, and to take position as the advance guard. this end, there is a special want unsupplied. It is that of an Independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issue presented, and to be presented to the country, in a lone no way tempered by par-tizanship, or influenced by fear, favor or the hope of reward, which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can not be laid uside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have com menced, under the editorial charge of Charles G. Leland, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy.

In Politics, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the oneness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peaceably or otherwise; and it will discuss with honesty and impartiality what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages. In Literature, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country. Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a New Serial of American Life," by Richard Kimball, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Legert" &c. A series of papers by Hon Horace Greely, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Grea, West. A series of articles by the author of Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour in the seashore Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literate have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitations required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

The Editorial Department will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, genial gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character Among those who will contribute regularly to this department may be mentioned the name of Charles F. Browne (Artemus Ward), from whom we shall present in the March number, the first of an entirely new and original series of "Sketches of Western Life

The CONTINENTEL will be liberal and progressive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes be-yend the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short no pains will be spared to make it the Representative Magazine

BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. HOLLOWAY'S

PILLS AND OFNTMENT. All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army and Navy should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Cintment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their Friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's noverfailing friend in the hour of need Coughs and Colds Affecting Troops, Will be speedily relieved and effectually eured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are tached to each Pot or Box.

Sick Headache and Want of Appetits, Incidental to soldiers. These feelings which so sadden us usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspira-tion, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the Liver and Stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The P lis taken according to the printes. Instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both Liver and Stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite. Weakness or Debility Induced by Over Fatigue Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills and the Soldier will quickly acquire ad-ditional strength Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon It may seem strange, that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Plux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the Liver and Stomach, and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this medicine.

Volunteers, Attention !- Indisorctions of Youth Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured, if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Cintment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner, they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system, and leave the Patient a healthy and vigorous man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet, Sabre, or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises.

To which every Soldfer or Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure, and convenient, as Holloway's Pills and Qintment. The poor wounds ed and almost dying sufferer might have his wound-dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it then covered with a piece of lines from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking, night and morning, 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation. Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these valuable remedies.

CAUTION .- None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernable as a WATER-WARK in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by HOLDING THE LEAF. TO THE LIGHT A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counter-feiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious. * Sold at the manufactory of Professor Hot-Lowar, Se Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1 each.
