UNION STATE CONVENTION.

The Loyal Citizens of Pennsylvania, without distintion of party, who desire cordially to unite in sustaining the National and State Administrations, in their patriotic efforts to suppress a sectional and unholy rebellion against the Unity of the Republic, and who desite to support by every power of the Government. our heroic brethren in arms, braving disease and the perils of the field to preserve the Union of our Fathers, are requested to select s number of Delegates equal to their Legislative representatives of the State, at such times and such manner as will best respond to the spirit of this call, to meet in State Conrention, at Pittsburg, on Wednesday, the First of July next, at eleven o'clock, A. M., on said day to nominate candidates for the offices of Gor arnor and Judge of the Supreme Court, and to take such measures as may be deemed neces sary to strengthen the Government in this season of common peril to a common country.

C. P. MARKLE. Chairman of the Union State Central Com GEO. W. HAMERSLY, Secretaries. Wm. J. HowARD.

The weather has been warm and pleasant in this section during the past week, and the river has been in good rafting condition since Saturday. A large number of rafts have pasreach their intended destination.

OUR OUTSIDE .- On the first page of to-day's Journal will be found letters from our correspondents "W. R B." and "C: E. L." and the address of the 2d brigade, 3d division, 8d corps. Army of the Potomac. Also, an article from "Wilkes' Spirit of the Times," entitled "The Sub-Southern Revolution."

The last Copperhead organ contains a series of resolutions, alleged to have been passed by thirty five members of Company E, 149th Regiment Penn'a Volunteers, in which it is stated that they "cannot ondorse and sustain" the resolutions adopted by the regiment a short time previous, and which we published in the Journal. We know nothing about the manner in which these "Company E" resolutions were gotten up, or of the means used to get signatures to them ; but, as they bear the outward marks of being genuine, we make this statement in order to place the signers correctly on the record before the public.

Copperheads-Origin of the Term-What it Means more highly respected than G n Patton. His | * tationed here in the face of the enemy. So | HYDE HOUSE, RIDGWAY, PENN'A. great energy and strict attention to husiness ; his unsullied integrity ; his deveted personal attention to the soldiers ; his unselfish patriotism and modest, genial, frank, good nature, made him a favorite. He had not an enemy in Congress. I often hear it said that no new member of the Pennaylvania delegation, and very few of the older ones, had as much influerce at the departments, in committee and among his colleagues generally, as the member from the "Wild-cat District," who always accomplished what he undertook. His refusal to take a second term, is very generally regretted in political circles here. For some time past the authorities have been sorely puzzled to tell how the soldiers in Convalescent camp near Alexandria, got so much whiskey. I'wo or three special detectives were detailed to smell it out. Finally Col. Baker, the chief of that force, found a cat hole in the side of a house near there, where he saw two or three soldiers receive and pock et something and slip away. Calling at the house soon after for a glass of water, he marked well the phiz of the lone woman who lived there. A day or two after he saw her at the wharf here, embarking for Alexandria, with pretty wide hoops on, and ordered her to be arrested and conveyed to his office. Assuming the greatest innocence imaginable, she demanded to know what he wanted. He replied he wanted her to "take off that whiskey !!" She feigned ignorance but he quietly told her it was "no go" and she hauled out, from under her skirts, about a dozen canteens bolding a pint or more each ! Her little girl carried several more. She had carried on this con traband traffic for a long time-but the Col. put a stop to it. In this connection we note an increased stringency in granting passes to sed down, and we hope they may all sately and from Gen Hooker's army. The secesh sympathizers here have the greatest difficulty now in communicating with their friends beyoud the Potomac. It indicates a movement in that direction just as soon as the going will admit. Had the same strict rule been established at the beginning, it would have been better for us. The receptions at the White House are o ver, and the season is doclared ended. The President and family have gone to their summer residence, the Soldiers Home, some four milesout of town. When I get to be President I shall change this practice and live as well as do business, in the big house where I hope you will be sure and call upon your aforetime correspondent. Yours, CAPITOL.

Letter from Suffolk, Virginia. SUFFOLK, VA., APRIL 6TH. 1863.

DEAR Row :-- I had hoped that the genial rays of spring, which burst so opportunely upon us a short time ago, was the harbinger of continual warmer weather; but the last week far as my limited observation extends, no finer looking body of men is to be found anywhere in the service, and when the time arrives for a practical demonstration of their patriotism, the honor of our flag will receive no detriment at their hands.

The Corcoran Legion -or as they are familiarly termed here, Corcoran's pets-are camped close to us. No more striking exemplification of a devoted attachment to their leader, can be shown, than that exhibited by these patriotic and loyal sons of the Emerald Isle, in the cause of this their adopted country. Corcoran is the very idol of his men, while they in turn are the objects of his pride and solicitude, and everything conducive to their welfare and their comfort, compatible with the best interests of the service, receives his personal and prompt attention. No one doubts either the ability or the bravery of the General for the post he now occupies ; for he has a record worthy of the confidence of every loyal heart, and has received for himself by his uncompromising hostility to secession, and his self sacrificing devotion to the cause of humanity, a monument of undying fame. Through the untiring efforts of Capt. Simpson, our Battery is now filled up, both with men and horses, to the proper standard, and a short time only will suffice to make it as officient as any in this quarter. We had a detail of forty one men, from the 13th New Hampshire and 4th Rhode Island Regiments, for service in the Battery, which swells our number at present to 125 effective men. This evening we received 50 horses, which will fill up all deficiencies, and give us about 20 spare ones for emergencies.

We have just received orders to muster on the 10th instant for the information and bene fit of the Provost Marshal General, to guide him in apportioning the proper number for the coming draft. Our constitutional advisers in Clearfield will have to keep a sharp lookout for the "locomotive," and if any unlucky individual "can't see it" in time, they must console themselves with the reflection that wits all for the Union." About that time I suppose "green-backs" will be acceptable enough, up less the premium on gold will depreciate their value so much as to make them disreputable in trafficing for a substitute. At any rate, those that are fortunate enough to be elected will have a chance, which they may never have again, of acquiring practical military "tictaes," almost within talking distance of the .- grey-backs," and may possibly be initiated immediately on their arrival, as the army may (the weather permitting) take a notion to resume the old cry won to Richmond" by that time. I wish them all the consolation imaginable.

The furlough fever is rampant, here, just now, in consequence of orders being issued, Of the Best Quality and Most Fashionhas been so far in the opposite extreme, as to permitting two or three out of every hundred

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863 GREAT LITEBARY AND PICTORIAL Y-EAR !

The publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankful to that public which has enabled him to pub lish a magazine for the last 33 years of a larger circulation than any 'n America, has made an ar rangement with the most popular anthorese in this country-MARION HARLAND, authoress of . Alone Hidden Path." "Moss Side." "Nemesis," and Miriam." who will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1862. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Har-This alone will land writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish arti les throughout the year.

Sixty-Sixth and Sixty-Seventh volumes of Go-dey's Lady's Book for 1865, will contain nearly 1300 pages of Reading matter, 24 pages of Music 12 Double Extension Colored Fashion Plates, equal to 24 of other magazines, over 1200 wood engravings. 14 steel engravings of beautiful subjects. 780 articles by the best authors in America. And all these will be given in 1863. at prices for which see our extremely low club rates. The oldest, the best, and the cheapest magazine in America is the Godey's Lady's Book. The immense increase in the circulation of Godey (having trebled itself in the last 4 years; is a convinc-ing proof of the superiority of the work. if the work itself was not sufficient evidence. And when it is considered that not a bribe in the shape of a premjum has ever been offered. it shows that Godey's Lady's Book stands first in the hearts of American ladies, who subscribe for the sake of the Book and not the premium. The Literature of the Lady's Book is by the first writers in America, and has always been remark-able for its high literary and moral character. Clergymen recommend the Book, and it can be read aloud in the family circle. The matter is far superior to that of any other magazine, having a healthy and instructive tone. Eight Specialities that no other magazine has. and only found in Godey, to wit: "Original Mu-sic," "Model Cottages, with diagrams," "Drawing Lessons," "Original Health Department," "Children's Department," . Chemistry for the Young. "Horticultural Department," and "Double Exten sion Fashion-plates" Godey's great speciality, unparalleled and unapproached. Competition dead in this department. Our imitators have abandoned the attempt. Of Steel engravings, the press have unanimonsly pronounced Godey's the best ever published by any magazine of the world. You may look in vain for 14 such steel engravings as were published during the year 1862 and those for 1863 will surpass them. Other magazines do not go to the expense of original designs for their steel engravings. The Double Fashion-plate has from 5 to 7. full length fashions on each plate. Other maga-zines give but two. Godey is the only work in the world that gives these immense plates, which cost $10,000 more than the old style. These fashions may be relied on as correct. They are always the latest styles, and honce ladies are not subject to ridicule for wearing old fashions, when they v.sit the large cities Godey's Wood engraving Novelties. Of these

As there seems to be a misonderstanding as to the meaning of the term "Copperhead," we republi h this specimen of political neology as given by a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette :

"Soon after the outbreak of the rebellion. the Springfield (O.) Republic, published a communication in which the writer noticed the rattlesnake as the emblem of the South Carolina rebeis, and stated that the rattlesnake was a more magnanimous reptile than the copperhead snake, as the former gives notice before he strikes, while the latter, besides being more insiduous, strikes you without giving you any warning; and applied the term copperheads to all the traitors and sympathizers with the rebels in the free States. Othen papers soon adopthat some people do not see the point; and in Judiana I see some use the term copperbottows, but I chanot see the point of copperbottoms. Copperheads is a very apropriate name for our free State rebels at heart."

CCRRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL."

A Letter from Washington. WASHINGTON, APRIL 6th 1863. of the "Sunny South" waked up six inches under the snow ; but it was soft snow and very soon paddled off "down the river" where all enows go.

This is about the only new thing here except our big Union meeting some days ago, bow no longer a fresh excitement. That was s glerious demonstration of the District's lovalty. The Hall of the House was glorious to behold when the tall form of the President appeared followed by part of his Cabinet and other distinguished men. The bugles blared, the people shouted, the handkerchiefs waved, and the old Hall rang as with the wild discord of a storm at sea. Yet over it all swelled the higher, clearer, sweeter notes of loyalty to the Government and nostility to traitors, wheney-"a speaker lashed the rebels or landed the honest hearted, care worn man, who sat in front of the Speakers chair. No sentiment produced so wild a burst of applause as that which urged the President to throttle the traitors in our midst and crush out treason at home by the strong arm of executive power. I think it speaks well, sir, very well, for a oyal than it should be. The fact is, the hoswity to copperheaded croakers and sympathiters at the North, is becoming more and more intensified day by day. People begin to see and feel that the war must be scarried into Africa," and that these whose hearts are with the rebeis had better take themselves there or "shut pan" right speedily.

The late glorious Republican triumph in Rhode Island and the gratifying reaction in ator of the Union cause all over the North, together with the manifest despondency of the tebels and the sinking condition of their cause, gives intensity to the loyal feeling here. the weather will permit) and you may form These successes continued at the polls, and the some idea of the mosale of this portion of the hert Congress will be emphatically and surely army. Previous to our advent here, I was led in the Government's support. With such men to believe-from the reports in circulationto control Legislation as your late member, that great disaffection prevailed among the Gen. Patton, our final success is certain, and Militia from Pennsylvania, but from careinl our complete triumph glorious. Here let me inquiry, and information obtained from varisay, because it is due to your people and to ous sources, I am convinced that such is not, him, that no man of the 37th Congress was nor has been the case since they have been !

completely dispel any such fond anticipation. tor, instead of pleasant subshine, we have had frowning clouds, mingled with all other kinds of disagreeable weather, much to the discomfort of all. One day we had raw, cold winds ;

next snow, then rain, and then again all the variations combined. Yesterday morning we had some four or five inches of snow on the ground, but to day it is all gone, and we once more have the promise of a second return of spring. These sudden changes are anything but agreeable to the soldier, and the slight protection which canvass walls afford against the variations of temperature, is often prejadicial to good health, and many are the colds, ed the term, and it has become very general, and indispositions arising therefrom. We have been very much disappointed, in our theories. in regard to the weather in this latitude, for we did not dream but that, here, we should be at least one month in advance of the season as compared with the latitude we were in this time last year; but such seems, in reality, put to be the case, for I believe that we had no weather this time one year ago so cold as FRIEND Row :- Yesterday morning this part' now, as a general thing. But I will not now longer complain, but submit cheerfully to the weather as it comes.

We have a dittle dash now and then in this section, which serves to remind us that "secesh" is still lingering around. Last Saturday the report eame from the front, that there wifs an unusual movement going on within the enemy's lines, looking towards a hostile demoustration in this direction. A detachment of the New York mounted rifles were sent out immediately to reconnoitre, and when a short distance outside of our lines, towards the Blackwater, they suddenly and unexpectedly fell into an ambuscade of the enemy, and were opened upon with shell and shrapnell, and not knowing the number of "rebs" that might be there, deemed it prudent to fall back and send for reinforcements. This was accordingly done, and as soon as the additional force arrived, the rebels were driven back. What the entire results of the skirmish were, I am not able to say. It is, however, reported that some three or four of the rifles were wounded in the action, and also that it was ascertained that the rebels were about twenty thousand District strongly suspected and being no more strong, and were contemplating a raid between our forces here and at Norfolk. This latter report may, or may not be well founded ; but one thing is certain, that Gen. Peck has a sharp lookont upon all their movements, and should desperation, or any other cause tempt should desperation, or any other cause tempt the rebel leaders to attempt a diversion in this direction, they will doubtless meet with some edventores they are not at present prepared for adventures they are not at present prepared for. The most excellent spirit prevails here among the men, and the most rigid dicipline is exacted. Add to this the high state of efficiency to which each command is being brought by constant, daily drill, (whenever men to be absent, at a time, for ten days. This arrangement will give us about nine per month, but the query is, who are to be the favored ones. I suppose only those who are most deserving will be attended to first, and the others in proportion to their conduct.

Yours truly . · W. R. B.
