CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 13, 1863.

Time of Cars on Central Road, at Tyrone. Table listing train times for Tyrone, Clearfield, and other stations.

The weather during the past week has been quite propitious for farming operations, and our farmers are busy putting in their crops.

The saw mill on Clearfield creek, known as "Ringgold," was destroyed by fire on Monday night last. The loss is not very serious, as the mill has been but little used for several years.

New Goods.—Merrell & Bigler have just received an extensive stock of goods, in their line of business, to which they call the attention of the public.

THE STAMP ACT.—We have on hand and for sale a Schedule of the Stamp Act, carefully compiled by a member of the Bar, which embraces all the duties that are required to be paid on all instruments of writing.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL"

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. PHILIPSBURO, Penn'a, May 9th, 1863. DEAR JOURNAL.—Old times have become new, and the excitement of the present moment, proves the saying. I well remember when, in the days of my juvenility, of the intense excitement and suspense there was about election time, when the two old parties, whig and lococo, were the only parties in the political arena.

The remembrances of such scenes, were vividly enacted in our town yesterday afternoon. The mail arrived at 11 o'clock, A. M., and of course all the loyal and disloyal citizens were on the qui vive, to hear the news from the Rappahannock. The news of the day before was favorable to the Union army; therefore, the copperheads were rather on the decline, though they had "bulled" and "beared" the news of the preceding day, into a shape to satisfy them that the rebels would be successful.

I do not know at this time whether our lines will be advanced or not, but I presume they will in a few days. The weather is propitious, and if it is the design of the troops in this locality, and on the Peninsula to accomplish anything beyond the protection of the particular posts which they now occupy, now is the time to do it. Let the attention of the rebels be drawn towards every point, and they will be deprived of the advantage they have hitherto enjoyed of concentrating their forces on any particular point. Menace them from every direction, and deal quick and decisive blows upon them at every opportunity, and the task of suppressing this rebellion will soon be consummated. Yours truly, W. B. B.

A CORRESPONDENT OF THE Chicago Journal, who accompanied Gen. Ellor's recent expedition up the Tennessee river into Mississippi says: The women nestly all chew tobacco. I was riding through Waterloo, Ala., and stopped at a house to make inquiries. One of the women asked for some tobacco. I gave her some smoking tobacco (Danial's best), but she said she wanted a "chaw." I referred her to a friend who chawed, who passed his plug around. The whole family used it from the mother to a little child six years old.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! Protect your Health!—No sensible man will leave the city without a supply of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. For wounds, bruises, sores, fevers and dysentery, these medicines are the best in the world.

our town that are so openly seceded, yet we have some, and a large majority, that are true to the union and with their union sentiments, they have that other gift, that exceeds all others, the gift of charity. Our people are ever ready and willing, to contribute money for the purpose of relieving any one from distress, as is proven very satisfactorily in some charitable cases lately relieved. But of all charitable cases that our people have been called on to assist, the one projected now, will meet with more success than any one heretofore in the annals of the history of this cloud-capped village. One or two of our copperhead denizens, have expressed a desire to emigrate to the dominions of Jeff. Davis & Co.—the only impediment, they allege, is the insufficiency of "greenbacks" to transport them to the rebel lines.

A collection is about to be started to raise the amount sufficient to transport the individuals to their desired haven. God grant that our men, women and children may contribute to this fund; and may those who never gave a cent to any charitable purpose, now open their purses, and if they have "nary nick," contribute scrip.—for I am certain you will never do your "native health" as much service, should you live to be as old as the "big oak" at the forks of the road, as you will by contributing to this renovating enterprise. Hoping that in my next I can announce the departure of the emigrants, I remain, yours truly, LEROI.

Letter from Suffolk, Va. CAMP, SUFFOLK, Va., May 4th, 1863. DEAR ROW.—The past week has been one of unusual quiet, save some occasional skirmishing among the pickets and firing upon our gunboats as they passed up and down the Nansemond. Things remained in this shape till yesterday morning, up to which time the rebels had become so bold and threatening that it was deemed expedient to put a stop to it.

This seemed to be a task of considerable magnitude as the rebels, most contiguous to us at Suffolk on the opposite side of the river, had thrown up rifle pits and had planted Batteries so as to command the river. Accordingly an expedition was set in motion by Gen. Peck to drive them from their position, and establish our own lines instead. Our forces crossed the river early in the morning, and by 9 A. M. all was ready for the duty assigned them. They moved, immediately on the enemy's works, and were met with determined resistance from the rebels who were secreted behind them. But our men moved on with the firmness and steadiness of veterans, and the "rebels" displaying the appearance of the army of steel, forsook their rifle pits and took to the woods. Here they took advantage of the cover; and as our boys advanced, the officers were singled out as a special mark. The fight was kept up all day, and resulted in driving the rebels back about a mile. I did not learn the different commands that were engaged, or the probable number of our men. The 16th N. Y. was engaged, and lost heavily in officers and men. Their Colonel was mortally wounded, and died to-day. Two Captains and one Lieutenant were killed. At one time, it is said, they made a sortie into the woods and became completely surrounded, but by their determined bravery succeeded in cutting their way out. It was expected this morning that a general attack would be made on our lines. If such a thing was at all contemplated by the enemy, and in order to guard against surprise, a reconnaissance was made on the Edenton and Sommetown roads to learn what was going on. But after proceeding as far as the scene of the skirmish of the 24th April, no trace of the "rebels" could be found. The party moved on but could find nothing to molest them. The enemy had fled, leaving their empty rifle pits and redoubts to take care of themselves. So rapidly did they leave, that a cavalry scout of half a day failed to come up to them. A few stragglers, who purposely staid behind, were picked up and brought to head quarters. It has been ascertained during the day that the whole rebel line has been removed beyond the Blackwater, and consequently the siege of Suffolk is raised. Longstreet will now have to turn his attention to something else; perhaps the movement of the Army of the Potomac, will furnish food for his contemplation.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered severely all winter with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same which will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he considers to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please apply to Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Apr. 22-3m. Williamsburg, Co. N. Y.

THE PRESS.—It expresses truth, re-presses error, and op-presses none. We thought this too good to be sup-pressed, and therefore publish it. —Don't borrow your neighbor's paper. Take one yourself, and pay for it like a man.

TO HOSE OWNERS.—Dr. Sweet's Infalible Liniment for Horses is unrivalled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. It will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No effort is made to cure, but it is so desperate or hopeless, but its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every Horse Owner Should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

TO THE PRESIDENTS AND SECRETARIES OF THE BOARDS OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.—By reference to the School Journal for March and April, page 262 and 294, it will be seen that the Annual Certificate of Presidents and Secretaries, are subject each to ten cents tax. But by an amendment to the law passed March 31st, and now just published, the stamp required is only a five cent one. It will, therefore, be the duty of the President to attach to each certificate a five cent government stamp. The officers of the different Boards will, as early as may be convenient, send me the Annual certificates, that the schools "Have been open and in operation according to law" so that I may forward it to the Department, that the warrant may be issued at once for the District's share of the appropriation. C. B. SANDFORD, Clearfield, April 22, 1863. Co. Supt.

RELIEF NOTICE.—The Board of Relief for the county of Clearfield, will meet at the Commissioners' office in Clearfield, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 27th and 28th days of May, A. D. 1863. The Board of Relief have directed that the wife of the soldier must appear before the board, and produce her sworn statement, detailing name of soldier, regiment and company, and when enlisted; the number of children, with age and sex of each; the township in which they resided at the time of enlistment; and their present residence; and that she is without the means of support for herself and children who are dependent upon her. Two witnesses of credibility from the township in which she resides, must also be produced, whose certificate (sworn to before the Board of Relief) must set forth that the applicant is the person she represents herself to be; that the statement of the number and age of her family is true; that she is in destitute circumstances and her family in actual want; and that all the facts set forth in her application are correct and true.

Forms containing these requisitions can be obtained at the Office of the Board of Relief, when application is made and the witnesses appear. N. B. Illness of the applicant, properly proven, will excuse personal attendance. April 8, 1863. WM. S. BRADLEY, Clerk.

NEW DISEASE—SPOTTED FEVER. Dr. GERHARD, of Philadelphia, at the meeting of the college of Physicians held in that city in March last, gave an interesting account of the new disease called "spotted fever," which has proved so fatal in the eastern portion of the State. The fever was so peculiar in its symptoms, and so perfectly unknown to professional men, that at first, some of them were disposed to confound it with other diseases, as typhoid, scarlet fever, influenza, &c. It is, however, in this country at least, clearly a new disease, with no alterations of the body, and is, therefore, strictly dependent upon a diseased condition of the blood. The disease is said to be similar to the spotted fever which prevailed in New England between the years 1808 and 1818.

The name "spotted fever" attaches to it for the present in consequence of the similarity. It attacks persons of all ages of life, but is chiefly prevalent among the young, from fifteen to twenty five years of age. The patients are taken down with a chill, which is generally preceded by uncomfortable feelings for a few hours. The chill is followed by an intense headache, pain in the back of the neck, passing down the spine, and fever. In about twenty-four hours an eruption, in reddish spots, appears beneath the skin, causing, however, no elevation. It consists of little points of blood, varying in size from a pin's head to a quarter of an inch, and sometimes larger. If the patient is suffering from a severe attack, he generally becomes delirious, and often becomes perfectly insensible. When death takes place, it occurs in from twelve hours to four days. If the disease lasts for a few days, the patient recovers.

The treatment which has thus far been successful is this: Avoid blood-letting; put the patient on stimulants, such as brandy, wine or whisky; also quinine freely, and apply to the back of the neck and down the limbs mustard poultices. Keep up external warmth, promote perspiration, and make cooling applications to the head. Upon examination after death, it is quite evident, from the presence of the spots in the interior of the body being similar to those on the exterior, as well as on account of the dissolving condition of the blood, that it is strictly a blood disease, and ought to be treated accordingly. There is no reason whatever to suppose that it springs from infected rags, as has been charged, and the best evidence of this is its simultaneous appearance in various parts of the country.

The Marquis of Hartington, who wore a succession badge at a ball in New York, has returned to England, and made a speech. He says that he found at the North "a party favorable to the rebels, and who co-operated cordially with them." We have no doubt that the Marquis, as well as Lord Lyons, enjoyed opportunities of conversing with some of the "leaders of the conservatives."

It is affirmed, says the Steele, that Russians of large fortune, holding important offices, are just now realizing their property, and investing considerable sums in foreign securities, from fear lest the rising of the Poles should occasion a revolution at St. Petersburg or Moscow.

AYER'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPILLA.—No other remedy is more needed in this country than a reliable Alternative, but the sick have been so outrageously cheated by the worthless preparations of Sarsaparilla abroad that they are disgusted even with the name. Yet the drug cannot be blamed for the impositions from which they have suffered. Most of the so-called Sarsaparillas in the market contain little of the virtues of Sarsaparilla or anything else. They are mere slops—insert and worthless, while a concentrated extract of the active variety of Sarsaparilla compounded with Dock, Sillington, Colic, etc., as it ever will be, a powerful alternative and an effective remedy. Such is Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, as its truly wonderful cures of the great variety of complaints which require an alternative medicine have abundantly shown. Do not, therefore, discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been deceived by anything pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtue of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army and Navy should take especial care that they be supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, their present can be sent them by their Friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's ever-faithful friend in the hour of need.

Coughs and Colds Affecting Troops, Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

Sick Headache and Want of Appetite, Incidental to Soldiers.

These feelings which so suddenly so usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the Liver and Stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both Liver and Stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness or Debility Induced by Over Fatigue Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange, that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the Liver and Stomach, and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this medicine.

Volunteers, Attention!—Indications of Youth, Sores and Ulcers, Blisters and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured, if the Pills are freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner, they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system, and leave the Patient a healthy and vigorous man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet, Sabre, or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises, To which every Soldier or Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, so sore, and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wound dressed immediately, he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and encased all around it then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking, night and morning, or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Coat should be provided with these valuable remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible in the WATER-MARK in every leaf of the book of DIRECTIONS around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by HOLDING THE LEAF TO THE LIGHT. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicine or sending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
